MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw

FROM: MARY KATE GRANT MKG

SUBJECT: BRIEF CLOSING REMARKS AFTER RODEO
AT THE ECONOMIC SUMMIT

Attached for your review are brief closing comments after the rodeo and Grand Ole Opry performance on Sunday evening, July 8th. The heads of state will join you for a small barbeque first, then the rodeo and entertainment follow before a crowd of 5,000. The remarks (cards / 3 minutes) thank the cowboys, the country music singers, and the people of Houston.

the town. But he kept saying, "You know, everything's bigger and better in Texas."

So one night, exasperated, his host slipped a lobster into the Texan's bed. When the good ol' boy pulled down the covers, he gasped and yelled out, "What in the world is that?"

"That's a Kennebunkport bed bug," replied the host.

"Oh," said the Texan as he took a good look at the lobster. \\ Then he added, "It's a young'un, ain't it?" \\

So I guess things are bigger and better here. And it's a pleasure for Barbara and I to give a big thank you to our hometown, the great city of Houston, Texas. \\ \\ This evening would not have been possible without that famous Houstonian hospitality and the hard work of so many people here. Barbara and I have had many happy years in this wonderful town, and so, to our old friends as well as our new friends -- we say thanks to all of you. God bless you and good night.

So one night, exasperated, his host slipped a lobster into the Texan's bed. When the good ol' boy pulled down the covers, he gasped and yelled out, "What in the world is that?"

"That's a Kennebunkport bed bug," replied the host.

"Oh," said the Texan as he took a good look at the lobster. \\ Then he added, "It's a young'un, ain't it?" \\

So I guess things are bigger and better here. And it's a pleasure for Barbara and I to give a big thank you to our hometown, the great city of Houston, Texas. \\ \\ This evening would not have been possible without that famous Houstonian hospitality and the hard work of so many people here. Barbara and I have had many happy years in this wonderful town, and so, to our old friends as well as our new friends -- we say thanks to all of you. God bless you and good night.

BRIEF CLOSING REMARKS: POST-RODEO AND GRAND OL' OPRY
AT THE ECONOMIC SUMMIT
HOUSTON RODEO ARENA
JULY 11, 1990

What a great evening -- we saw a real Texas rodeo, \\ Grand Ol' Opry \\
and several world leaders enjoying a unique American treasure: corn on the cob. ((Next time we'll include the instruction manual for that.)) It's been a delight for Barbara and I to have so many distinguished heads of state with us tonight as our guests -- Prime Minister Thatcher, Chancellor Kohl, Prime Minister Mulroney, President Mitterand, Prime Minister Andreotti, and Prime Minister Kaifu. And we'd also like to welcome the members of the foreign delegations, and the members of the press. Thank you for joining us at such an exciting event.

I hope you enjoyed our Texas rodeo. We've got some rodeo
