

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13537
Folder ID Number: 13537-010

Folder Title:
NRSC Luncheon Drop-By 7/30/90 [OA 5376]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	4	1

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

For Folder

July 27, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL COMMITTEE
 LUNCHEON DROP-BY

On Monday, July 30, at approximately 12:30 p.m., you will address over 300-325 attendees at a luncheon given by the National Republican Senatorial Committee. The luncheon will be held at the Capital Hilton, and Senator Don Nickles will be introducing you. Your remarks will be five minutes in length, and will be on cards.

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC2
July 27, 1990
Draft: Six

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
12:15 p.m., MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you to the green is if we race the carts to the flag.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can catch a glimmer of greatness; you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, our Constitution amended to abolish slavery and women given the right to vote. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than its Constitutional responsibility to confirm a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of exceptional achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest. It is time to act -- not for the good of a party -- but for the good of America.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences do count.

As Congress takes action on these issues critical to the future of the United States, the American people will see the stark difference between the Republican approach of growth and opportunity, and the Democrat's approach of bigger government and more spending. And I believe the American people will choose the Republican path -- by electing more Republicans to the Senate -- by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Our outstanding candidates are certainly doing everything they can to win back the Senate, or to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

Let me also say how appropriate it is for the NRSC headquarters to be named after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. A Republican Senate can make this same difference for our party, our Administration and our country over the next two years. Only six seats stand between a Republican majority and more years of Democrat control. We must have more Republicans to build a better America.

Finally, let me say that as we near this crucial November election, we are reminded again -- not as Republicans, but as Americans -- of how much our remarkable 200-year-old experiment in democracy means to the world.

America has always been a nation of world leadership, strong and willing to help. And we've already seen the difference America is helping to make in what I call the magnificent Revolution of '89 -- a struggle to build new democracies that continues to this very day.

Let me share a story -- about an American visitor on a recent trip to the troubled land of Romania -- who asked the people she met what was most important to them now, what they needed most. And listen to one surprising answer: In a country where the streets are dark at night and the homes lack heat, one Romanian woman pulled from her purse a worn copy of an American magazine -- a three-year-old issue, with a special bicentennial copy of the United States Constitution. And she said, "What we need now is more of these."

That is what our political activity is really about; you are doing more than just supporting one party or one cause. You are citizens leaders, fulfilling the Constitution, realizing the potential of one word: democracy.

Once again, I thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/28/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: -----

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL COMMITTEE LUNCHEON DROP-BY (07/27 draft six)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

1990 JUL 27 PM 7:11

July 27, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON CW
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL COMMITTEE
LUNCHEON DROP-BY

On Monday, July 30, at approximately 12:30 p.m., you will address over 300-325 attendees at a luncheon given by the National Republican Senatorial Committee. The luncheon will be held at the Capital Hilton, and Senator Don Nickles will be introducing you. Your remarks will be five minutes in length, and will be on cards.

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC2
July 27, 1990
Draft: Six

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
12:15 p.m., MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you to the green is if we race the carts to the flag.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can catch a glimmer of greatness; you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, our Constitution amended to abolish slavery and women given the right to vote. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than its Constitutional responsibility to confirm a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of exceptional achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest. It is time to act -- not for the good of a party -- but for the good of America.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences do count.

As Congress takes action on these issues critical to the future of the United States, the American people will see the stark difference between the Republican approach of growth and opportunity, and the Democrat's approach of bigger government and more spending. And I believe the American people will choose the Republican path -- by electing more Republicans to the Senate -- by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Our outstanding candidates are certainly doing everything they can to win back the Senate, or to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

Let me also say how appropriate it is for the NRSC headquarters to be named after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. A Republican Senate can make this same difference for our party, our Administration and our country over the next two years.\\ Only six seats stand between a Republican majority and more years of Democrat control. We must have more Republicans to build a better America.

Finally, let me say that as we near this crucial November election, we are reminded again -- not as Republicans, but as Americans -- of how much our remarkable 200-year-old experiment in democracy means to the world.

America has always been a nation of world leadership, strong and willing to help. And we've already seen the difference America is helping to make in what I call the magnificent Revolution of '89 -- a struggle to build new democracies that continues to this very day.

Let me share a story -- about an American visitor on a recent trip to the troubled land of Romania -- who asked the people she met what was most important to them now, what they needed most. And listen to one surprising answer: In a country where the streets are dark at night and the homes lack heat, one Romanian woman pulled from her purse a worn copy of an American magazine -- a three-year-old issue, with a special bicentennial copy of the United States Constitution. And she said, "What we need now is more of these."

That is what our political activity is really about; you are doing more than just supporting one party or one cause. You are citizens leaders, fulfilling the Constitution, realizing the potential of one word: democracy.

Once again, I thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 27, 1990

90 JUL 27 A3:05

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: National Republican Sen. Committee

We have reviewed the remarks and have noted our comments on page one and three of the attached draft. The opening joke is a bit awkward. We suggest, "Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could reach the green before you is if we race the carts to the flagstick."

The phrase, "you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was" in the fourth paragraph of the first page, could be interpreted as derogatory. We recommend ending that sentence after the word "Clay".

If you have any questions or we can help in any other way, please let me know.

cc: James W. Cicconi

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

Draft: Five

PH 5
1990 JUL 26 PM 5: ✓

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.)) ✓

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; ~~you can almost catch a glimmer of what~~ the Senate once was. ✓

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outdid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing To OUTBID among themselves.\\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/26/90

1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: _____

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

NC
WP

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

PH 5 Draft: Five

1990 JUL 28 PM 5:

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outdid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

NRSC

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

90 JUL 27 A2: 57 Date: 7/27 245

TO: Chriss Winsor

FROM: JAMES P. PINKERTON
Deputy Assistant to the President
for Policy Planning

Sorry I'm so late with these comments, but I have 2 that I think are IMPORTANT

- ✓ 1) In the top of pg. 2, we talk about Judge Souter. In view of the sensitivity here, I'm not sure I'd do this to a partisan group.
- 2) In the third-to-last graf on pg. 3
you have the President virtually announcing to re-election.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:
 Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE: See comments.

30 JUL 27 2:43

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

NOTICE:

Enclosed are comments from staff members of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Such comments do not necessarily represent the official position of the Director of OMB or of the Office of Management and Budget. If you wish to have the Director's personal comments, please let me know -- and contact me if you have any questions.

James C. Murr
Associate Director for Legislative Reference and Administration

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

Draft: Five

1990 JUL 26 PM 5:

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that ~~takes choice out of the hands of parents,~~ ^{and} dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, ~~and~~ builds a huge day-care bureaucracy ~~bureaucracy~~ -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Scully
X5178

Scully
x5178

Note: SAP on H.R.3 on March 28th says:
"Estimated cost is $29 B, almost half of which is not offset by measures included in the bill." Speech should say something like "almost half of which is not paid for,
thus adding to the federal deficit"
(per Dan
Seitzinger
x 6150)

3

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid
the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan.
After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

Dave Carney
Comments
Page 3

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outdid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

OUR OUTSTANDING CANDIDATES
~~Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff~~ are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

Document No. 161916

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/26/90

1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: _____

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

*Please see comments.
7/27/90*

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

PH 1990 JUL 26 PM 5

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than ~~the confirmation of~~ a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

its constitutional responsibility to

2

✓
I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of ^{exceptional} achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

[Handwritten scribble]
Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for ^{their individual circumstances.} them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

(end comments)

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 JUL 26 P11:12

DATE: 07/26/90

1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: _____

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

Chris / Mark-

Please see suggestion on p. 1.

*Thank you
J.C.*

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 JUL 26 PM 5: 20

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
(Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; ^{our Constitution} reform-
~~legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and~~
^{amended to abolish slavery and give women the right to vote.}
~~passed into law.~~ But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

[Weren't we on the other side of New Deal? Both these amendments were GOP initiatives.]

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

30 JUL 26 PII: 12

DATE: 07/26/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

OK - minor word choice recommendation on p. 2.

*Chase
27 Jul 90*

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

P11 5 Draft: Five

1990 JUL 26 PM 5:

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, ^{wraps} dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 JUL 27 A 1:40

DATE: 07/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

See Comments. Thanks.

Holly Williamson

7-27-90

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

1990 JUL 28 PM 5

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
(NOON), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, ~~or at the very least~~ to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America. ✓ (OCA)

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\ } doesn't say anything about the headquarters. (OCA)

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

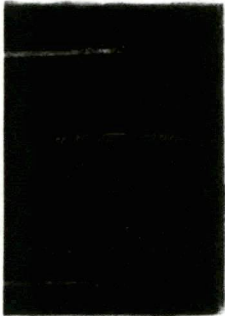

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Please staff the NRSC draft #5

speech for 1pm, Friday A.M.
7/27 P.M.

Thank You,
Sl for CW
Chriss Winston

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
(Noon), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outdid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 07/26/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:
Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

ok S.R.

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

Draft: Five

PH 5:49
1990 JUL 26 PM 5:

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
SCHEDULE OF THE PRESIDENT
FOR
WASHINGTON, D.C.
MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

EVENT:

Staff Photo with NRSC Roundtable Participants
Drop By NRSC Luncheon

DRESS:

Men - Business Suit
Women - Day Dress

CONTACT:

Office of Presidential Advance
John G. Keller, Jr. - 202/456-7565

Trip Coordinator
Lucy Muckerman - 202/456-7565

ADVANCE:

Gordon James - LEAD
Steven Ross - PRESS
John Enright - USSS
David Bonwit - MIL. AIDE
David Pistilli - WHCA

WEATHER:

Sunny, Mid 80's

SCHEDULE OF THE PRESIDENT

FOR

WASHINGTON, D.C.

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

11:55 am

THE PRESIDENT boards Motorcade and departs White House en route Capital Hilton Hotel.

MOTORCADE ASSIGNMENTS:

Lead

Spare

B. Caughman
Doctor

LIMO

THE PRESIDENT

Follow Up

Control

A. Card
Mil. Aide

Support

M. Fitzwater
J. Parmer
Official Photographer
Medic

Staff I

D. Carney

Press Van I

J. Allison

Press Van II

(Drive Time: 5 Minutes)

12:00 pm

THE PRESIDENT arrives Capital Hilton Hotel and proceeds to Federal Room.

Met by:

The Honorable Don Nickles
U.S. Senator and
Chairman, National Republican Senatorial Committee

Mr. Kevin Deverich
General Manager, Capital Hilton Hotel

EVENT: STAFF PHOTO WITH NRSC ROUNDTABLE PARTICIPANTS

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER ONLY

12:05 pm THE PRESIDENT, accompanied by Sen. Nickles, arrives Federal Room and begins participation in Staff Photo.

12:15 pm THE PRESIDENT concludes participation in Staff
Photo and, accompanied by Sen. Nickles, departs
Federal Room and proceeds to Presidential Ballroom.

EVENT: DROP BY NRSC LUNCHEON

CLOSED PRESS

BRIEF REMARKS

12:17 pm THE PRESIDENT, accompanied by Sen. Nickles, arrives Presidential Ballroom, proceeds to Toast Lectern and remains standing.

12:18 pm THE PRESIDENT is introduced for Brief Remarks by Sen. Nickles.

12:20 pm THE PRESIDENT gives Brief Remarks.

12:25 pm THE PRESIDENT concludes Brief Remarks, departs
Presidential Ballroom and proceeds to Motorcade.

12:30 pm

THE PRESIDENT boards Motorcade and departs Capital Hilton Hotel en route White House.

MOTORCADE ASSIGNMENTS:

Same as on Arrival.

(Drive Time: 5 Minutes)

12:35 pm

THE PRESIDENT arrives White House.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 JUL 26 PM 5:17

DATE: 07/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:
 Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire
Title: NRSC
July 27, 1990
Draft: Five

1990 JUL 26 PM 5:00

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

12:15pm

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you ^{to} on the green is if we race the carts. ^{to the flag.}))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and ^{our Constitution amended to abolish slavery and give women} ~~peace treaties ratified; reform~~ ^{the right to vote} ~~legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law.~~ But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than ~~the confirmation~~ of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

its constitutional ~~duty~~ responsibility to

to the New Beginning

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of ^{exceptional} achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for ~~them~~ ^{their individual circumstances.} That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that ~~takes choice out of the hands of parents,~~ ^{and} dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, ~~and~~ ^{and} builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding ~~another 20 billion dollars~~ ^{more} to the federal deficit. ~~over the next five years.~~ So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves. \\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate. \\

Our outstanding candidates
~~Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff~~ are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or ~~at the very least~~ to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC [?] headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Well, it could have made a difference
~~years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country. \\~~

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.

NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE / CAPITOL HILTON
MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990 / 12:15 P.M.

THANK YOU, SENATOR NICKLES.

((WE KNOW DON NICKLES AS AN OUTSTANDING LEADER, SOMEONE WHOSE HARD WORK AND ACHIEVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE SUGGESTS MANY YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT TO COME.))

- 2 -

((OF COURSE, I WAS JUST TELLING DON THAT ALL OF OUR SENATORS ARE SO MUCH BETTER KNOWN NOW THAT THEY
TELEWISE THE PROCEEDINGS OF THAT BODY.\\ AND DON SHOT BACK: "YEAH, I JUST HOPE NOBODY CONFUSES US WITH AMERICA'S FUNNIEST HOME VIDEOS.")\\

KIDDING ASIDE, I HAVE A WARM PLACE IN MY HEART FOR THE SENATE. YOU MIGHT KNOW THAT I AM THE SON OF A SENATOR.

WHEN I SERVED AS VICE PRESIDENT, I WAS ALSO THE "101ST MEMBER OF THE SENATE." AND NO ONE CAN SERVE IN THAT POST WITHOUT HAVING A SPECIAL REVERENCE AND AFFECTION FOR THAT INSTITUTION: IT TRULY IS THE WORLD'S GREATEST DELIBERATIVE BODY.

GO TO THE OLD SENATE IN THE CAPITOL, LOOK AT THE EXQUISITE MAHOGANY DESKS LINED WITH INK-WELLS, AND YOU CAN CATCH A GLIMMER OF GREATNESS; YOU CAN ALMOST HEAR THE ECHO OF CONTENDING VOICES, THE VOICES OF CALHOUN, WEBSTER AND CLAY.

IT IS IN THE SENATE THAT SO MUCH OF OUR HISTORY HAS BEEN MADE: WARS DECLARED, OUR CONSTITUTION AMENDED TO ABOLISH SLAVERY AND WOMEN GIVEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE. BUT THE SENATE HAS NO MORE SERIOUS OR FAR-REACHING DUTY THAN ITS CONSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO CONFIRM A NEW JUSTICE TO SIT ON THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

I CERTAINLY EXPECT THAT THE SENATE MAJORITY WILL RECOGNIZE IN OUR NOMINEE, DAVID SOUTER, A JURIST POSSESSING UNCOMMON ABILITY, A FIRST-RATE LEGAL MIND, THE MAKINGS OF A GREAT JUSTICE.

I ONLY ASK THAT THE SENATE CONFIRM THIS MAN ON THE BASIS OF A LIFETIME OF EXCEPTIONAL ACHIEVEMENT, NOT BY THE NARROW STANDARDS OF A LITMUS TEST, OR A PARTISAN OR SPECIAL INTEREST. IT IS TIME TO ACT -- NOT FOR THE GOOD OF A PARTY -- BUT FOR THE GOOD OF AMERICA.

BUT IN THE COMING MONTHS, THE SENATE WILL HAVE TO MAKE OTHER FAR-REACHING DECISIONS ON CRIME, EDUCATION, CLEAN AIR AND THE BUDGET. AND IT IS ON THESE MATTERS THAT PARTY DIFFERENCES DO COUNT.

AS CONGRESS TAKES ACTION ON THESE ISSUES CRITICAL TO THE FUTURE OF THE UNITED STATES, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL SEE THE STARK DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE REPUBLICAN APPROACH OF GROWTH AND OPPORTUNITY, AND THE DEMOCRAT'S APPROACH OF BIGGER GOVERNMENT AND MORE SPENDING. AND I BELIEVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL CHOOSE THE REPUBLICAN PATH -- BY ELECTING MORE REPUBLICANS TO THE SENATE -- BY RESTORING BOB DOLE TO HIS RIGHTFUL PLACE AS THE MAJORITY LEADER OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE.\\\

OUR OUTSTANDING CANDIDATES ARE CERTAINLY DOING EVERYTHING THEY CAN TO WIN BACK THE SENATE, OR TO POSITION US WITHIN STRIKING RANGE FOR '92. BUT WE COULD ACHIEVE VERY LITTLE WITHOUT YOUR COMMITMENT AND SUPPORT. AND THAT'S WHY I HAD TO COME BY TODAY, TO THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU ARE DOING -- NOT JUST FOR THE REPUBLICAN PARTY -- BUT FOR THE FUTURE OF AMERICA.

LET ME ALSO SAY HOW APPROPRIATE IT IS FOR THE NRSC HEADQUARTERS TO BE NAMED AFTER RONALD REAGAN.

AFTER ALL, I VIVIDLY REMEMBER THE DIFFERENCE HAVING A REPUBLICAN SENATE MADE TO HIS ADMINISTRATION. A REPUBLICAN SENATE CAN MAKE THIS SAME DIFFERENCE FOR OUR PARTY, OUR ADMINISTRATION AND OUR COUNTRY OVER THE NEXT TWO YEARS.\\ ONLY SIX SEATS STAND BETWEEN A REPUBLICAN MAJORITY AND MORE YEARS OF DEMOCRAT CONTROL. WE MUST HAVE MORE REPUBLICANS TO BUILD A BETTER AMERICA.

FINALLY, LET ME SAY THAT AS WE NEAR THIS CRUCIAL NOVEMBER ELECTION, WE ARE REMINDED AGAIN -- NOT AS REPUBLICANS, BUT AS AMERICANS -- OF HOW MUCH OUR REMARKABLE 200-YEAR-OLD EXPERIMENT IN DEMOCRACY MEANS TO THE WORLD.

AMERICA HAS ALWAYS BEEN A NATION OF WORLD LEADERSHIP, STRONG AND WILLING TO HELP. AND WE'VE ALREADY SEEN THE DIFFERENCE AMERICA IS HELPING TO MAKE IN WHAT I CALL THE MAGNIFICENT REVOLUTION OF '89 -- A STRUGGLE TO BUILD NEW DEMOCRACIES THAT CONTINUES TO THIS VERY DAY.

LET ME SHARE A STORY -- ABOUT AN AMERICAN VISITOR ON A RECENT TRIP TO THE TROUBLED LAND OF ROMANIA -- WHO ASKED THE PEOPLE SHE MET WHAT WAS MOST IMPORTANT TO THEM NOW, WHAT THEY NEEDED MOST.

AND LISTEN TO ONE SURPRISING ANSWER: IN A COUNTRY WHERE THE STREETS ARE DARK AT NIGHT AND THE HOMES LACK HEAT, ONE ROMANIAN WOMAN PULLED FROM HER PURSE A WORN COPY OF AN AMERICAN MAGAZINE -- A THREE-YEAR-OLD ISSUE, WITH A SPECIAL BICENTENNIAL COPY OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION. AND SHE SAID, "WHAT WE NEED NOW IS MORE OF THESE."

THAT IS WHAT OUR POLITICAL ACTIVITY IS REALLY ABOUT; YOU ARE DOING MORE THAN JUST SUPPORTING ONE PARTY OR ONE CAUSE. YOU ARE CITIZENS LEADERS, FULFILLING THE CONSTITUTION, REALIZING THE POTENTIAL OF ONE WORD: DEMOCRACY.

ONCE AGAIN, I THANK YOU FOR ALL THAT YOU'VE DONE. MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL, AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM
 90 JUL 27 A 1:57

DATE: 07/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 1:00 p.m. Friday 07/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SEN. COMMITTEE
(07/27 Draft Five)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:
 Please provide any comments/recommendations directly to Chriss Winston by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, 07/27, with a copy to my office. Thanks.

RESPONSE:
OK
 The body of this is my work

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire

Title: NRSC

July 27, 1990

Draft: Five

1990 JUL 26 PM 5:

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE, CAPITOL HILTON
((Noon)), MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990

((Acknowledgements.)) Thank you. ((Senator Nickles, another avid golfer. Don, I've got to admit, the only way I could beat you on the green is if we race the carts.))

((We also know Don Nickles as an outstanding leader, someone whose hard work and achievement in the United States Senate suggests many years of accomplishment to come.))

As for myself, you might know that I am the son of a Senator. When I served as Vice President, I was also the "101st member of the Senate." And no one can serve in that post without having a special reverence and affection for that institution: It truly is the world's greatest deliberative body.

Go to the Old Senate in the Capitol, look at the exquisite mahogany desks lined with ink-wells, and you can almost hear the echo of contending voices, the voices of Calhoun, Webster and Clay; you can almost catch a glimmer of what the Senate once was.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families.

Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

This is not a big plus we should not buy it up

This is mostly a spread to do out work - Foreign Policy would be better than this

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\\

Well, we can solve half of this problem this November, by electing more Republicans to the Senate, by restoring Bob Dole to his rightful place as the Majority Leader of the United States Senate.\\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. But we could achieve very little without your commitment and support. And that's why I had to come by today, to thank you for all you are doing -- not just for the Republican Party -- but for the future of America.

In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Once again, thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.