Coverdell, John Robson, Mack Mattingly...

Thank you for that warm welcome. [[Really, it's not often I bring a crowd to its feet like this. \\ Well, I know you've all been standing for a while -- so I'll be very brief.

It's a pleasure to be in Atlanta -- proud home of the 1996 Olympic Games. I hear they're already planning all the new facilities. The stadiums, the pools, the tracks, the horseshoe pits... \\

Of course, you're no stranger to great spectacles. There's the Superbowl, coming in 1994. And you remember the summer of 1988 -- Atlanta was witness to some amazing feats of rhetorical gymnastics. \\]]

Well, today I've come to the capital of the New South -- this Great International City -- with a message for the status quo. Georgia has potential unrealized -- dreams, yet unfulfilled. This state stands at the threshold of a new era, bright with possibility. But you understand that Georgia won't get there on old ideas.

It's time for new leadership. So I'm here to lend my whole-hearted support to the man who can lead Georgia toward a brilliant future -- Johnny Isakson. \\

Jack Guy - Navy POTUS friend
John + Ann Parker
(Charlie Ackerman) } personal friends

Thank you, Johnny.

Johnny's been been called "Mr. Cobb County." The Jaycees call him "outstanding." His fellow legislators call him "effective and fair." Well, come the Sixth of November, there's just one more thing I'd like to call Johnny Isakson. Governor \\ of the state of Georgia. \\\

Johnny has called for a "New Partnership for Georgia's Future." He wants to make Georgia government open to all citizens. He's said it's time to "unshackle the limitations of one party rule."

There may be some in the other party who think they've got a lock on the Georgia electorate. We say -- you may be in for a surprise.

The world is changing. Who would've thought the Soviets would move to a multi-party system? Well, come November, I think we're going to see the rebirth of two-party politics here in Georgia. \\\

There may be some who take Georgia's vote for granted -- who think people will settle for the policies of the past. We know those policies haven't worked -- and that the people of Georgia are ready for leadership they can trust. Leadership that uses its head, feels with its heart, and extends an offered hand. Georgia is ready for Johnny Isakson. \\\

You know, this man has devoted himself to the governor's race as a "candidate for the children." Because he understands that the future begins and ends with our kids -- their education, their safety, their future. So he's comitted to real school reform -- beginning with the classroom, not the bureaucracy. And because no kid can be safe, as long as drug dealers wander the streets peddling poison, Johnny Isakson has already written tougher state laws for these merchants of death. As governor, he wants to enlist every public institution, business, school and campus in the war on drugs.

For all of the people of Georgia, Johnny Isakson understands the importance of partnerships for economic growth. He's built them himself, in business -- and he knows how to bring new business to Georgia.

Finally, Johnny Isakson knows how to keep government spending under control, ^{unlike his liberal opponent}. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

He may never get an answer -- but he knows how to make sure it never happens again. That's by getting at the root of the problem -- by reforming the process.

That's what we're working for, at the federal level.

[BUDGET INSERT]

This race for the governorship of Georgia should rightly be understood as a choice -- between what has been, and what should be.

Well, we know how bright Georgia's future can be. And if a journey of a thousand miles ^{begins} ~~begins~~ with a single step, Georgia's journey toward the future begins with a single vote. ~~A vote for~~ Johnny Isakson, for Governor.

Thank you all. And God bless the great state of Georgia.

Every vote is going to count this fall -- so let me ask all of you -- do all you can to get people to the polls this fall.

And, finally, make sure those votes deliver a brighter future for Georgia. Make sure they're votes.

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON (W)
FROM: MARK LANGE (ML)
SUBJECT: ISAKSON FOR GOVERNOR REMARKS -- ATLANTA, GA

OK with changes

I. SUMMARY

On Wednesday, October 10, you will make brief remarks at a reception for Johnny Isakson. The event will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the Stouffer Waverly Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia. Your remarks are approximately 6 minutes in length and will be on speechcards.

II. DISCUSSION

The attached remarks are intentionally brief, as 1200 guests are expected for this stand-up reception.

Your remarks call for a renewal of two-party politics in Georgia, and outline important issues for Georgia: education, the war on drugs, and controlling state spending.

There is a place-holder for a section on the budget, depending on the weekend's developments.

ISAKSON FOR GOVERNOR \ WAVERLY STOUFFER, ATLANTA
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1990 \ 6:30 P.M.

THANK YOU, JOHNNY. THE ISAKSON FAMILY; ALEC
POITEVINT, FRED COOPER, [MS.] SAYE SUTTON; JOE ROGERS, PAUL COVERDELL, [JOHN ROBSON], MACK MATTINGLY; ANN AND JOHN PARKER, CHARLIE ACKERMAN, JACK GUY; LEE GREENWOOD.

THANK YOU FOR THAT WARM WELCOME. [[REALLY, IT'S NOT OFTEN I BRING A CROWD TO ITS FEET LIKE THIS. \\
WELL, I KNOW YOU'VE ALL BEEN STANDING FOR A WHILE -- SO I'LL BE BRIEF.

IT'S A PLEASURE TO BE IN ATLANTA -- PROUD HOME OF
THE 1996 OLYMPIC GAMES. I HEAR THEY'RE ALREADY PLANNING ALL THE NEW FACILITIES. THE STADIUMS, THE POOLS, THE TRACKS, THE HORSESHOE PITS... \\

THE OTHER DAY IN THE ROSE GARDEN, I HAD A CHANCE TO CONGRATULATE MY FRIEND MAYNARD JACKSON, AND BILLY PAYNE FOR THEIR WORK, AND FOR ALL THE VOLUNTEER EFFORTS THAT BROUGHT THE GAMES TO ATLANTA. IT'S GOING TO BE A GREAT OLYMPIC GAMES.

AND I'VE COME TO THE CAPITAL OF THE NEW SOUTH -- THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL CITY -- WITH A MESSAGE FOR THE STATUS QUO.

GEORGIA HAS POTENTIAL UNREALIZED -- DREAMS, YET UNFULFILLED. THIS STATE STANDS AT THE THRESHOLD OF A NEW ERA, BRIGHT WITH POSSIBILITY. BUT YOU UNDERSTAND THAT GEORGIA WON'T GET THERE ON OLD IDEAS.

IT'S TIME FOR NEW LEADERSHIP. SO I'M HERE TO LEND MY WHOLE-HEARTED SUPPORT TO THE MAN WHO CAN LEAD GEORGIA TOWARD A BRILLIANT FUTURE -- JOHNNY ISAKSON.

JOHNNY'S BEEN BEEN CALLED "MR. COBB COUNTY." THE JAYCEES CALL HIM "OUTSTANDING." HIS FELLOW LEGISLATORS CALL HIM "EFFECTIVE AND FAIR." WELL, COME THE SIXTH OF NOVEMBER, THERE'S JUST ONE MORE THING I'D LIKE TO CALL JOHNNY ISAKSON. GOVERNOR \ \ OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA.

JOHNNY HAS CALLED FOR A "NEW PARTNERSHIP FOR GEORGIA'S FUTURE." HE WANTS TO MAKE GEORGIA'S GOVERNMENT OPEN TO ALL CITIZENS.

HE'S SAID IT'S TIME TO "UNSHACKLE THE LIMITATIONS OF ONE PARTY RULE."

THERE MAY BE SOME IN THE OTHER PARTY WHO THINK THEY'VE GOT A LOCK ON THE GEORGIA ELECTORATE. WE SAY -- YOU MAY BE IN FOR A SURPRISE.

THE WORLD IS CHANGING. WHO WOULD'VE THOUGHT THE SOVIETS WOULD MOVE TO A MULTI-PARTY SYSTEM? WELL, COME NOVEMBER, I THINK WE'RE GOING TO SEE THE REBIRTH OF TWO-PARTY POLITICS HERE IN GEORGIA. \ \ \

THERE MAY BE SOME WHO TAKE GEORGIA'S VOTE FOR GRANTED -- WHO THINK PEOPLE WILL SETTLE FOR THE POLICIES OF THE PAST. WE KNOW THOSE POLICIES HAVEN'T WORKED -- AND THAT THE PEOPLE OF GEORGIA ARE READY FOR LEADERSHIP THEY CAN TRUST. LEADERSHIP THAT USES ITS HEAD, FEELS WITH ITS HEART, AND EXTENDS AN OFFERED HAND.

GEORGIA IS READY FOR JOHNNY ISAKSON. \\\

YOU KNOW, THIS MAN HAS DEVOTED HIMSELF TO THE GOVERNOR'S RACE AS A "CANDIDATE FOR THE CHILDREN." BECAUSE HE UNDERSTANDS THAT THE FUTURE BEGINS AND ENDS WITH OUR KIDS -- THEIR EDUCATION, THEIR SAFETY, THEIR FUTURE. SO HE'S COMITTED TO REAL SCHOOL REFORM -- BEGINNING WITH THE CLASSROOM, NOT THE BUREAUCRACY. AND BECAUSE NO KID CAN BE SAFE, AS LONG AS DRUG DEALERS WANDER THE STREETS PEDDLING POISON, JOHNNY ISAKSON HAS ALREADY WRITTEN TOUGHER STATE LAWS FOR THESE MERCHANTS OF DEATH.

AS GOVERNOR, HE WANTS TO ENLIST EVERY PUBLIC INSTITUTION, BUSINESS, SCHOOL AND CAMPUS IN THE WAR ON DRUGS.

FOR ALL OF THE PEOPLE OF GEORGIA, JOHNNY ISAKSON UNDERSTANDS THE IMPORTANCE OF PARTNERSHIPS FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH. HE'S BUILT THEM HIMSELF, IN BUSINESS -- AND HE KNOWS HOW TO BRING NEW BUSINESS TO GEORGIA.

JOHNNY ISAKSON ALSO KNOWS HOW TO KEEP GOVERNMENT SPENDING UNDER CONTROL, UNLIKE HIS LIBERAL OPPONENT.

FOR OVER A DECADE, HE'S FOUGHT FOR CHANGES THAT WOULD HAVE PREVENTED GEORGIA'S FISCAL PROBLEMS. AND HE'S STILL ASKING, WITH GOOD REASON, HOW A STATE GOVERNMENT COULD RUN OUT OF MONEY A YEAR AFTER THE LARGEST TAX INCREASE IN STATE HISTORY.

HE MAY NEVER GET AN ANSWER -- BUT HE KNOWS HOW TO MAKE SURE IT NEVER HAPPENS AGAIN. THAT'S BY GETTING AT THE ROOT OF THE PROBLEM -- BY REFORMING THE PROCESS.

THAT'S WHAT WE'RE WORKING FOR, AT THE FEDERAL LEVEL -- AND BELIEVE ME, IT ISN'T EASY. RIGHT NOW, THE FEDERAL BUDGET PROCESS IS LIKE A HUGE RUBE GOLDBERG MACHINE, OUT OF CONTROL -- PRODUCING NOISE, SMOKE, HEAT, AND NO LIGHT. SUCKING UP MORE AND MORE TAX DOLLARS ON ONE END -- AND CHURNING THEM INTO SPENDING PROGRAMS WITHOUT END.

FRANKLY, IF WE HAD MORE REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS, WE WOULDN'T BE IN THIS MESS. BUT FOR EIGHT LONG MONTHS WE'VE WRESTLED TO GET THIS DEFICIT DOWN. FOR EIGHT LONG MONTHS, I'VE NEGOTIATED IN GOOD FAITH. I PUT IT ALL ON THE TABLE -- EVEN TAXES -- AND I TOOK THE HEAT. I PUSHED HARD FOR THE BIPARTISAN BUDGET AGREEMENT -- NOT BECAUSE IT WAS THE BEST PLAN EVER -- BUT BECAUSE IT WAS THE BEST PLAN POSSIBLE.

- 13 -

AND I WILL CONTINUE TO PRESS HARD FOR A BUDGET THAT FULFILLS THE SPIRIT OF THAT BIPARTISAN PLAN -- AND PROVES TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ONCE AND FOR ALL THAT WE CAN DEAL WITH THIS DEFICIT.

WE'VE HAD A FEW DAYS NOW FOR THE SMOKE TO CLEAR.

- 14 -

NOW IT'S TIME TO MOVE FORWARD -- IT'S TIME FOR CONGRESS TO PUT TOGETHER A BUDGET PACKAGE THAT DELIVERS A FULL $500 BILLION DOLLARS IN DEFICIT REDUCTION OVER THE NEXT FIVE YEARS: THE SINGLE LARGEST DEFICIT REDUCTION PROGRAM IN HISTORY.

AND I CALL ON THE CONGRESS TO ENSURE THAT THE BUDGET MEETS FOUR CRUCIAL TESTS. IT MUST BE CONSISTENT WITH THE BIPARTISAN BUDGET SUMMIT AGREEMENT -- WITH FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL VOICES TO BE HEARD, REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRAT ALIKE.

- 15 -

IT MUST INCLUDE PRO-GROWTH INCENTIVES, TO CREATE NEW JOBS AND KEEP THIS ECONOMY MOVING. \\ THE SPENDING CUTS WE AGREE ON MUST BE FULLY ENFORCEABLE -- WITH THE SIGNIFICANT BUDGET PROCESS REFORMS HAMMERED OUT IN THE BIPARTISAN BUDGET AGREEMENT. AND FINALLY, THE BUDGET MUST DELIVER REAL SPENDING CUTS -- WITH REAL SAVINGS -- BECAUSE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE FED UP WITH THE RUBE GOLDBERG BUDGET MACHINE.

- 16 -

THE TEST COMES NINE DAYS FROM NOW: THIS BUDGET BILL MUST BE PASSED BY BOTH HOUSES NO LATER THAN OCTOBER 19. I'M CONFIDENT CONGRESS CAN COMPLETE ITS VITAL WORK -- AND PASS A SOUND BUDGET THAT PUTS THIS NATION ON THE PATH TO LONG-TERM ECONOMIC GROWTH.

HERE IN GEORGIA, YOU'RE ALSO APPROACHING A DEADLINE -- A REFERENDUM ON THE KIND OF LEADERSHIP YOU WANT IN THE COMING DECADE.

- 17 -

SO THIS RACE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP SHOULD RIGHTLY BE UNDERSTOOD AS A CHOICE -- BETWEEN WHAT HAS BEEN, AND WHAT SHOULD BE.

WELL, WE KNOW HOW BRIGHT GEORGIA'S FUTURE CAN BE. AND IF A JOURNEY OF A THOUSAND MILES BEGINS WITH A SINGLE STEP, GEORGIA'S JOURNEY TOWARD THE FUTURE BEGINS WITH A SINGLE VOTE. EVERY VOTE IS GOING TO COUNT THIS FALL -- SO LET ME ASK ALL OF YOU -- DO ALL YOU CAN TO GET PEOPLE TO THE POLLS.

- 18 -

AND, FINALLY -- MAKE SURE THOSE VOTES DELIVER A BRIGHTER FUTURE FOR GEORGIA. MAKE SURE THEY'RE VOTES FOR JOHNNY ISAKSON, FOR GOVERNOR.

THANK YOU ALL. AND GOD BLESS THE GREAT STATE OF GEORGIA.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RECEPTION, ISAKSON FOR GOVERNOR

Thank you, Johnny. The Isakson family; Alec Poitevint, Fred Cooper, [Ms.] Saye Sutton; Joe Rogers, Paul Coverdell, [John Robson], Mack Mattingly; Ann and John Parker, Charlie Ackerman, Jack Guy; Lee Greenwood.

Thank you for that warm welcome. [[Really, it's not often I bring a crowd to its feet like this. \\ Well, I know you've all been standing for a while -- so I'll be brief.

of the state of Georgia. \\\

There may be some in the other party who think they've got a lock on the Georgia electorate. We say -- you may be in for a surprise.

The world is changing. Who would've thought the Soviets would move to a multi-party system? Well, come November, I think we're going to see the rebirth of two-party politics here in Georgia. \\\

There may be some who take Georgia's vote for granted -- who think people will settle for the policies of the past. We know those policies haven't worked -- and that the people of Georgia are ready for leadership they can trust. Leadership that uses its head, feels with its heart, and extends an offered hand.

Georgia is ready for Johnny Isakson. **

You know, this man has devoted himself to the governor's race as a "candidate for the children." Because he understands that the future begins and ends with our kids -- their education, their safety, their future. So he's comitted to real school reform -- beginning with the classroom, not the bureaucracy. And because no kid can be safe, as long as drug dealers wander the streets peddling poison, Johnny Isakson has already written tougher state laws for these merchants of death. As governor, he wants to enlist every public institution, business, school and campus in the war on drugs.

For all of the people of Georgia, Johnny Isakson understands the importance of partnerships for economic growth. He's built them himself, in business -- and he knows how to bring new business to Georgia.

Johnny Isakson also knows how to keep government spending under control, unlike his liberal opponent. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

He may never get an answer -- but he knows how to make sure it never happens again. That's by getting at the root of the problem -- by reforming the process.

That's what we're working for, at the federal level -- and believe me, it isn't easy. Right now, the federal budget process is like a huge Rube Goldberg machine, out of control -- producing noise, smoke, heat, and no light. Sucking up more and more tax dollars on one end -- and churning them into spending programs without end.

Frankly, if we had more Republicans in Congress, we wouldn't be in this mess. But for eight long months we've wrestled to get this deficit down. For eight long months, I've negotiated in good faith. I put it all on the table -- even taxes -- and I took the heat. I pushed hard for the bipartisan budget agreement -- not because it was the best plan ever -- but because it was the best plan possible. And I will continue to press hard for a budget that fulfills the spirit of that bipartisan plan -- and proves to the American people once and for all that we can deal with this deficit.

We've had a few days now for the smoke to clear. Now it's time to move forward -- it's time for Congress to put together a budget package that delivers a full $500 billion dollars in deficit reduction over the next five years: the single largest deficit reduction program in history.

And I call on the Congress to ensure that the budget meets four crucial tests. It must be consistent with the Bipartisan Budget Summit Agreement -- with full and fair opportunities for all voices to be heard, Republican and Democrat alike. It must include pro-growth incentives, to create new jobs and keep this economy moving. \\ The ^{spending} ~~budget~~ cuts we agree on must be fully enforceable -- with the significant ⁽¹⁾ budget process reforms hammered out in the bipartisan budget agreement. And finally, the budget must ^{spending cuts -- with real savings.} deliver real savings, through real reductions in ~~spending~~ -- because the American people are fed up with the Rube Goldberg budget machine.

The test comes nine days from now: This budget bill must be passed by both Houses no later than October 19. I'm confident Congress can complete its vital work -- and pass a sound budget that puts this nation on the path to long-term economic growth.

And here in Georgia, you're also approaching a deadline -- a referendum on the kind of leadership you want in the coming decade. So this race for the governorship should rightly be understood as a choice -- between what has been, and what should be.

Well, we know how bright Georgia's future can be. And if a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, Georgia's journey toward the future begins with a single vote. Every vote is going to count this fall -- so let me ask all of you -- do all you can to get people to the polls this fall.

And, finally -- make sure those votes deliver a brighter future for Georgia. Make sure they're votes for Johnny Isakson, for Governor.

Johnny has called for a "New Partnership for Georgia's Future." He wants to make Georgia government open to all citizens. He's said it's time to "unshackle the limitations of one party rule."

There may be some in the other party who think they've got a lock on the Georgia electorate. We say -- you may be in for a surprise.

The world is changing. Who would've thought the Soviets would move to a multi-party system? Well, come November, I think we're going to see the rebirth of two-party politics here in Georgia. \\\

There may be some who take Georgia's vote for granted -- who think people will settle for the policies of the past. We know those policies haven't worked -- and that the people of Georgia are ready for leadership they can trust. Leadership that uses its head, feels with its heart, and extends an offered hand. Georgia is ready for Johnny Isakson. \\\

You know, this man has devoted himself to the governor's race as a "candidate for the children." Because he understands that the future begins and ends with our kids -- their education, their safety, their future. So he's comitted to real school reform -- beginning with the classroom, not the bureaucracy. And because no kid can be safe, as long as drug dealers wander the streets peddling poison, Johnny Isakson has already written tougher state laws for these merchants of death. As governor, he wants to enlist every public institution, business, school and campus in the war on drugs.

For all of the people of Georgia, Johnny Isakson understands the importance of partnerships for economic growth. He's built them himself, in business -- and he knows how to bring new business to Georgia.

Finally, Johnny Isakson knows how to keep government spending under control, unlike his liberal opponent. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

He may never get an answer -- but he knows how to make sure it never happens again. That's by getting at the root of the problem -- by reforming the process.

That's what we're working for, at the federal level.

[BUDGET INSERT]

This race for the governorship of Georgia should rightly be understood as a choice -- between what has been, and what should be.

Well, we know how bright Georgia's future can be. And if a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, Georgia's journey toward the future begins with a single vote. Every vote is going to count this fall -- so let me ask all of you -- do all you can to get people to the polls this fall.

And, finally -- make sure those votes deliver a brighter future for Georgia. Make sure they're votes for Johnny Isakson, for Governor.

Thank you all. And God bless the great state of Georgia.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RECEPTION, ISAKSON FOR GOVERNOR
WAVERLY STOUFFER, ATLANTA
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1990
6:30 P.M.

Thank you, Johnny. The Isakson family; Alec Poitevint, Fred Cooper, [Ms.] Saye Sutton; Joe Rogers, Paul Coverdell, [John Robson], Mack Mattingly; Ann and John Parker, Charlie Ackerman, Jack Guy; Lee Greenwood.

Thank you for that warm welcome. [[Really, it's not often I bring a crowd to its feet like this. \\ \\ Well, I know you've all been standing for a while -- so I'll be very brief.

Finally, Johnny Isakson knows how to keep government spending under control. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

He may never get an answer -- but he knows how to make sure it never happens again. That's by getting at the root of the problem -- by reforming the process.

That's what we're working for, at the federal level.

[BUDGET INSERT]

This race for the governorship of Georgia should rightly be understood as a choice -- between what has been, and what should be.

Well, we know how bright Georgia's future can be. And if a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, Georgia's journey toward the future begins with a single vote. A vote for Johnny Isakson, for Governor.

Thank you all. And God bless the great state of Georgia.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RECEPTION, ISAKSON FOR GOVERNOR
WAVERLY STOUFFER, ATLANTA
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1990
6:30 P.M.

Thank you, _____. The Isakson family; Joe Rogers, Paul Coverdell, John Robson, Mack Mattingly...

Thank you for that warm welcome. [[Really, it's not often I bring a crowd to its feet like this. \\ Well, I know you've all been standing for a while -- so I'll be very brief.

It's a pleasure to be in Atlanta -- proud home of the 1996 Olympic Games. I hear they're already planning all the new facilities. The stadiums, the pools, the tracks, the horseshoe pits... \\

Of course, you're no stranger to great spectacles. There's the Superbowl, coming in 1994. And you remember the summer of 1988 -- Atlanta was witness to some amazing feats of rhetorical gymnastics. \\]]

Well, today I've come to the capital of the New South -- this Great International City -- with a message for the status quo. Georgia has potential unrealized -- dreams, yet unfulfilled. This state stands at the threshold of a new era, bright with possibility. But you understand that Georgia won't get there on old ideas.

It's time for new leadership. So I'm here to lend my wholehearted support to the man who can lead Georgia toward a brilliant future -- Johnny Isakson. \\

Johnny's been been called "Mr. Cobb County." The Jaycees call him "outstanding." His fellow legislators call him "effective and fair." Well, come the Sixth of November, there just one more thing I'd like to call Johnny Isakson. Governor \\
of the state of Georgia. \\

Johnny has called for a "New Partnership for Georgia's Future." He wants to make Georgia government open to all citizens. He's said it's time to "unshackle the limitations of one party rule."

There may be some in the other party who think they've got a lock on the Georgia electorate. We say -- you may be in for a surprise.

The world is changing. Who would've thought the Soviets would move to a multi-party system? Well, come November, I think we're going to see the rebirth of two-party politics here in Georgia. \\

There may be some who take Georgia's vote for granted -- who think people will settle for the policies of the past. We know those policies haven't worked -- and that the people of Georgia are ready for leadership they can trust. Leadership that uses its head, feels with its heart, and extends an offered hand. Georgia is ready for Johnny Isakson. **

You know, this man has devoted himself to the governor's race as a "candidate for the children." Because he understands that the future begins and ends with our kids -- their education, their safety, their future. So he's comitted to real school reform -- beginning with the classroom, not the bureaucracy. And because no kid can be safe, as long as drug dealers wander the streets peddling poison, Johnny Isakson has already written tougher state laws for these merchants of death. As governor, he wants to enlist every public institution, business, school and campus in the war on drugs.

For all of the people of Georgia, Johnny Isakson understands the importance of partnerships for economic growth. He's built them himself, in business -- and he knows how to bring new business to Georgia.

Finally, Johnny Isakson knows how to keep government spending under control. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

Thank you, Johnny. The Isakson family; Alec Poitevint, Fred Cooper, [Ms.] Saye Sutton; Joe Rogers, Paul Coverdell, [John Robson], Mack Mattingly; Ann and John Parker, Charlie Ackerman, Jack Guy; Lee Greenwood.

Thank you for that warm welcome. [[Really, it's not often I bring a crowd to its feet like this. \\ Well, I know you've all been standing for a while -- so I'll be brief.

are ready for leadership they can trust. Leadership that uses its head, feels with its heart, and extends an offered hand.

Georgia is ready for Johnny Isakson. \\\

You know, this man has devoted himself to the governor's race as a "candidate for the children." Because he understands that the future begins and ends with our kids -- their education, their safety, their future. So he's comitted to real school reform -- beginning with the classroom, not the bureaucracy. And because no kid can be safe, as long as drug dealers wander the streets peddling poison, Johnny Isakson has already written tougher state laws for these merchants of death. As governor, he wants to enlist every public institution, business, school and campus in the war on drugs.

For all of the people of Georgia, Johnny Isakson understands the importance of partnerships for economic growth. He's built them himself, in business -- and he knows how to bring new business to Georgia.

Johnny Isakson also knows how to keep government spending under control, unlike his liberal opponent. For over a decade, he's fought for changes that would have prevented Georgia's fiscal problems. And he's still asking, with good reason, how a state government could run out of money a year after the largest tax increase in state history.

He may never get an answer -- but he knows how to make sure it never happens again. That's by getting at the root of the problem -- by reforming the process.

That's what we're working for, at the federal level -- and believe me, it isn't easy. Right now, the federal budget process is like a huge Rube Goldberg machine, out of control -- producing noise, smoke, heat, and no light. Sucking up more and more tax dollars on one end -- and churning them into spending programs without end.

Frankly, if we had more Republicans in Congress, we wouldn't be in this mess. But for eight long months we've wrestled to get this deficit down. For eight long months, I've negotiated in good faith. I put it all on the table -- even taxes -- and I took the heat. I pushed hard for the bipartisan budget agreement -- not because it was the best plan ever -- but because it was the best plan possible. And I will continue to press hard for a budget that fulfills the spirit of that bipartisan plan -- and proves to the American people once and for all that we can deal with this deficit.

We've had a few days now for the smoke to clear. Now it's time to move forward -- it's time for Congress to put together a budget package that delivers a full $500 billion dollars in deficit reduction over the next five years: the single largest deficit reduction program in history.

And I call on the Congress to ensure that the budget meets four crucial tests. It must be consistent with the Bipartisan Budget Summit Agreement -- with full and fair opportunities for all voices to be heard, Republican and Democrat alike. It must include pro-growth incentives, to create new jobs and keep this economy moving. \\ The spending cuts we agree on must be fully enforceable -- with the significant budget process reforms hammered out in the bipartisan budget agreement. And finally, the budget must deliver real spending cuts -- with real savings -- because the American people are fed up with the Rube Goldberg budget machine.

The test comes nine days from now: This budget bill must be passed by both Houses no later than October 19. I'm confident Congress can complete its vital work -- and pass a sound budget that puts this nation on the path to long-term economic growth.

Here in Georgia, you're also approaching a deadline -- a referendum on the kind of leadership you want in the coming decade. So this race for the governorship should rightly be understood as a choice -- between what has been, and what should be.

Well, we know how bright Georgia's future can be. And if a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, Georgia's journey toward the future begins with a single vote. Every vote is going to count this fall -- so let me ask all of you -- do all you can to get people to the polls, ~~this fall.~~^e

And, finally -- make sure those votes deliver a brighter future for Georgia. Make sure they're votes for Johnny Isakson, for Governor.

Thank you all. And God bless the great state of Georgia.
