RESPONSE:

Ed Rogers discussed this speech with Jim Cicconi late last night and early this morning. Consider that discussion the nature of his "comments". Sorry... but thanks.

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: PETE WILSON, CENTURY PLAZA HOTEL
12:30 p.m., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1990

((It's a delight to be back in the Golden State. Let me begin by recognizing a great two-term governor and Republican leader -- George Deukmejian.\\)) ((Acknowledgements to come.))

((Sorry to hear about the A's.\\ I guess it was that first pitch that Barbara threw to the Reds.\\) In fact, George, Jr.'s been after her to pitch relief for a year and a half.

((Then there's that other formidable woman involved in this gubernatorial race \\) -- Gayle Wilson.\\)) And, of course, it's always a pleasure to be back to say a few words of support for your next governor -- Governor Pete Wilson.\\)

((Pete can tell you, this is the season in Southern California when those hot, dry Santa Ana winds kick up. Of course, during an election, you're not sure if all that hot air is blowing in from the desert or from the liberal Democrats.))\\)

I know, because I saw the gubernatorial debate on cable. My guess is, after your opponent's performance, even incumbent Democrats are beginning to see the hand-writing on the wall.\\)

Californians, like Americans across the country, are sadly coming to the conclusion that the only way to reform our government is to limit terms for lawmakers. But the Democrats, including Pete's opponent, are oblivious to the mood of the country. They actually believe you should be happy with the government you're getting from your Assembly and your Congress; they truly believe they deserve to be re-elected from now until kingdom-come. ((These Democrat incumbents remind me of the Michael Keaton character in "Pacific Heights" -- once they move into your basement, they never move out.))\\

Well, Pete Wilson says enough is enough -- and so do I.\\
 We don't need perpetual legislators and Congressmen to rule for eternity.\\
 We need more Republicans like Pete Wilson and we need a Congress that works.\\

We need a clean sweep, because we've had it with Democrat incumbents in Sacramento. And we've had it with Washington.\\

In child care, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children. In the most desolate inner cities, we want reform -- so we strive to create zones of opportunity, to remove barriers to mobility and success, to empower people with the spirit of enterprise. In education, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools.

But this is a Congress that held up education reform for a year, while passing a proclamation declaring "The Decade of the Brain." This is a Congress that would rather issue feel-good proclamations, than address problems. This is a Congress that broke every self-imposed deadline in the budget process -- and is just now delivering a budget, almost a full month into the new fiscal year.

There is an alternative. I met yesterday at the White House with the Republican leadership from the House and Senate. I made clear to the leadership -- and to our negotiators from the White House -- how much we owe to their untiring efforts these past eight months. // And that meeting proved to me that we in the Republican Party stand united -- we stand on principle -- and we stand against the failed tax and spend policies of the Democrats who control both houses of the Congress. ///

We're working to turn things around in Washington. Right here in California -- reform begins with Pete Wilson. In our war on crime and drugs, Pete Wilson has been a notable exception -- a true leader. // As your next governor, Pete says, "I will not have California under siege to rapists and thugs and drug dealers." Is it any surprise that he, and not his opponent, is endorsed by the Women Prosecutors of California?

They know Pete Wilson wants to govern a California where women need no longer fear the night because drug dealers and criminals will fear the law. They know he would make your streets safer by extending capital punishment in California to major drug traffickers, the same as my proposal before Congress.

The first time I called on Congress to pass a tough, comprehensive crime bill, I was surrounded by hundreds of law-enforcement officers at the foot of the Capitol on a rain-soaked morning in May of 1989. And after a year and a half, this Democrat Congress still has not passed our crime bill -- and it's been up to Republicans to prevent passage of a bill that would leave our courts, our cops and ultimately our citizens weaker than the criminals who plague our cities.

When the Democrats tried to push through an exclusionary rule that would have handcuffed law enforcement officers -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to assure criminals a process of endless appeals -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to gut the death penalty -- Republicans held the line. // The hour is late, but if Congress sends me a bill that is tougher on criminals than it is on cops. - - I will sign it the instant it lands on my desk.

It troubles me that our Democratic Congress doesn't bother to listen to the most vulnerable of our society -- families living in fear in West L.A., or in Watts -- in neighborhoods where just going to school or the corner store is an act of courage. If the Democrats in Congress want real justice, if they want peace in our neighborhoods, they would have protected Americans -- all Americans -- with the tough laws we proposed so very long ago.\\**

Well, California can do something about the arrogance of the liberal state legislature. You can do something because -- you, the voters -- are the true incumbents. \\ You can elect more Republicans -- and you can elect a governor who never wavers in fighting crime, standing firm for fiscal sanity and protecting the environment.

In short, your next governor must be someone who won't need crib notes to govern. Your next governor must be Pete Wilson.\\**

To reform the system, all we need to do is to fulfill our prime responsibility as citizens -- and vote for reform.

November 6th is just 11 days away. Already, absentee ballots are streaming in from the Persian Gulf -- thousands of votes from our men and women in uniform. If they can find the time to do their civic duty under such demanding conditions, I know that Californians at home will turn out as well.

With the support and leadership of Californians like you, I am confident that when the voters do go to the polls, they will vote for change. They will vote for reform. They will vote Republican.

Thank you, may God bless you, and the United States of America.

PETE WILSON \ CENTURY PLAZA HOTEL
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1990 \ 12:30 P.M.

IT'S A DELIGHT TO BE BACK IN THE GOLDEN STATE. LET ME BEGIN BY RECOGNIZING A GREAT TWO-TERM GOVERNOR AND REPUBLICAN LEADER -- GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN (GLORIA). THANK YOU FOR THAT GRACIOUS AND GENEROUS INTRODUCTION.
GAYLE, GREAT TO BE WITH YOU AGAIN. I SEE THE REST OF THE STATEWIDE TICKET HERE: MARIAN BERGESON (LT. GOV.),
JOAN MILKEY FLORES (SEC. STATE), THOMAS HAYES
(TREASURER), MATT FONG (CONTROLLER). LET'S HAVE A HAND

OUR LEADERSHIP IN THE LEGISLATURE, KEN MADDY (SEN. MIN.
LDR.) AND ROSS JOHNSON (ASSEM. MIN. LDR.). SCOTT BIAO
[BAY-0] (ACTOR), MEL TORME (THE VELVET FOG), DONALD O'CONNOR (ENTERTAINER/DANCER EXTRAORDINAIRE). IT'S GREAT TO BE WITH YOU ALL TODAY.

I BRING YOU GREETINGS FROM THE SILVER FOX. IF I MAY SAY SO, SHE'S DOING AN OUTSTANDING JOB ON BEHALF OF LITERACY ACROSS THIS COUNTRY. ((I'M SURE YOU'RE SORRY
ABOUT THE BASEBALL TEAM FROM UP NORTH.\\

I GUESS IT WAS THAT FIRST PITCH THAT BARBARA THREW TO THE REDS.)) \\\

IT'S ALWAYS A PLEASURE TO BE BACK TO SAY A FEW WORDS OF SUPPORT FOR YOUR NEXT GOVERNOR -- GOVERNOR PETE WILSON.\\\

YOU KNOW, PETE UNDERSTANDS CALIFORNIA. HE KNOWS CALIFORNIANS WANT A GOVERNMENT THAT IS RESPONSIVE, RESPONSIBLE AND IN SHORT, A GOVERNMENT WORTHY OF RESPECT.

THAT'S WHY PETE ENDORSED PROPOSITION 140 -- TO REFORM OUR GOVERNMENT BY LIMITING TERMS FOR LAWMAKERS. THE 1988 REPUBLICAN PLATFORM CALLED FOR LIMITING TERMS FOR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. AND NOW MOMENTUM IS BUILDING ALL ACROSS THE COUNTRY. BUT THE DEMOCRATS, INCLUDING PETE'S OPPONENT, DON'T UNDERSTAND THE MOOD OF THE COUNTRY. THEY TRULY BELIEVE THEY DESERVE TO BE RE-ELECTED FROM NOW UNTIL KINGDOM-COME.

I BELIEVE IN CITIZEN LEGISLATORS RETURNING TO LIVE UNDER THE LAWS THEY'VE MADE. I BELIEVE TERM LIMITATION IS AN IDEA WHOSE TIME HAS COME.// ((THESE DEMOCRAT INCUMBENTS REMIND ME OF THE MICHAEL KEATON CHARACTER IN "PACIFIC HEIGHTS" -- ONCE THEY MOVE INTO YOUR BASEMENT, THEY NEVER MOVE OUT.))\\

WELL, PETE WILSON SAYS ENOUGH IS ENOUGH -- AND SO DO I.\\ WE DON'T NEED PERPETUAL LEGISLATORS AND CONGRESSMEN TO RULE FOR ETERNITY.\\

WE NEED MORE REPUBLICANS LIKE PETE WILSON AND WE NEED A CONGRESS THAT WORKS. WE NEED A CONGRESS THAT WORKS FOR THE NATIONAL INTEREST, NOT THE SPECIAL INTEREST.\\

IN EDUCATION, WE WANT REFORM -- TO EMPOWER PARENTS TO CHOOSE THEIR CHILDREN'S SCHOOLS. IN CHILD CARE, REPUBLICANS WANT REFORM -- TO EMPOWER PARENTS TO CHOOSE WHO WILL WATCH OVER THEIR CHILDREN. IN THE MOST DESOLATE INNER CITIES, WE WANT REFORM -- SO WE STRIVE TO CREATE ZONES OF OPPORTUNITY, TO REMOVE BARRIERS TO MOBILITY AND SUCCESS, TO EMPOWER PEOPLE WITH THE SPIRIT OF ENTERPRISE.

IN CIVIL RIGHTS, WE WANT EXPANDED GUARANTEES OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL -- WITHOUT QUOTAS. AND IN HOUSING, WE WANT TO EMPOWER PUBLIC-HOUSING TENANTS TO TAKE CHARGE OF THEIR OWN LIVES.

BUT THIS IS A CONGRESS THAT WOULD RATHER PROCLAIM "NATIONAL HOME CARE WEEK" THAN GIVE ME A HOUSING BILL. THIS IS A CONGRESS THAT WOULD RATHER ISSUE FEEL-GOOD PROCLAMATIONS, THAN ADDRESS PROBLEMS. THIS IS A CONGRESS THAT IS JUST NOW DELIVERING A BUDGET, ALMOST A FULL MONTH INTO THE NEW FISCAL YEAR, AND AFTER EIGHT MONTHS OF FOOT-DRAGGING NEGOTIATIONS.

YOU KNOW, ALMOST 40 TIMES IN THE LAST TEN YEARS CONGRESS HAS HAD TO PASS EMERGENCY MEASURES JUST TO KEEP THE GOVERNMENT OPERATING. THEY DID IT AGAIN JUST LAST WEDNESDAY -- FOR THE THIRD TIME THIS MONTH. I BELIEVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE HAD ENOUGH.

THERE IS AN ALTERNATIVE. I MET YESTERDAY AT THE WHITE HOUSE WITH THE REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP FROM THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

I MADE CLEAR TO THE LEADERSHIP -- AND TO OUR NEGOTIATORS FROM THE WHITE HOUSE -- HOW MUCH WE OWE TO THEIR UNTIRING EFFORTS THESE PAST EIGHT MONTHS -- EFFORTS TO FIGHT THE DEMOCRATS' DETERMINATION TO TAX AND SPEND. // OUR MEETING PROVED TO ME THAT WE IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY STAND UNITED -- WE STAND ON PRINCIPLE -- AND WE STAND AGAINST THE FAILED TAX AND SPEND POLICIES OF THE DEMOCRATS WHO CONTROL BOTH HOUSES OF THE CONGRESS. ///

WE'RE WORKING TO TURN THINGS AROUND IN WASHINGTON. RIGHT HERE IN CALIFORNIA -- REFORM BEGINS WITH PETE WILSON. IN OUR WAR ON CRIME AND DRUGS, PETE WILSON HAS BEEN EXCEPTIONAL -- A TRUE LEADER. // AS YOUR NEXT GOVERNOR, PETE SAYS, "I WILL NOT HAVE CALIFORNIA UNDER SIEGE TO RAPISTS AND THUGS AND DRUG DEALERS." IS IT ANY SURPRISE THAT HE, AND NOT HIS OPPONENT, IS ENDORSED BY THE WOMEN PROSECUTORS OF CALIFORNIA?

THEY KNOW PETE WILSON WANTS TO GOVERN A CALIFORNIA WHERE WOMEN NEED NO LONGER FEAR THE NIGHT BECAUSE DRUG DEALERS AND CRIMINALS WILL FEAR THE LAW. THEY KNOW HE WOULD MAKE YOUR STREETS SAFER BY EXTENDING CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN CALIFORNIA TO MAJOR DRUG TRAFFICKERS, THE SAME AS MY PROPOSAL BEFORE CONGRESS.

THE FIRST TIME I CALLED ON CONGRESS TO PASS A TOUGH, COMPREHENSIVE CRIME BILL, I WAS SURROUNDED BY HUNDREDS OF LAW-ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AT THE FOOT OF THE CAPITOL ON A RAIN-SOAKED MORNING IN MAY OF 1989.

AND AFTER A YEAR AND A HALF, THIS DEMOCRAT CONGRESS STILL HAS NOT PASSED OUR CRIME BILL -- THE ONLY CRIME BILL THE DEMOCRATS HAVE EVER TALKED ABOUT PASSING IS ONE THAT WOULD LEAVE OUR COURTS, OUR COPS AND ULTIMATELY OUR CITIZENS WEAKER THAN THE CRIMINALS WHO PLAGUE OUR CITIES.

WHEN THE DEMOCRATS TRIED TO PUSH THROUGH AN EXCLUSIONARY RULE THAT WOULD HAVE HANDCUFFED LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS -- REPUBLICANS HELD THE LINE.

WHEN THE DEMOCRATS TRIED TO ASSURE CRIMINALS A PROCESS OF ENDLESS APPEALS -- REPUBLICANS HELD THE LINE. WHEN THE DEMOCRATS TRIED TO GUT THE DEATH PENALTY -- REPUBLICANS HELD THE LINE. // THE HOUR IS LATE, BUT IF CONGRESS SENDS ME A BILL THAT IS TOUGHER ON CRIMINALS THAN IT IS ON COPS -- I WILL SIGN IT THE INSTANT IT LANDS ON MY DESK.

IT TROUBLES ME THAT OUR DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS DOESN'T BOTHER TO LISTEN TO THE MOST VULNERABLE OF OUR SOCIETY -- FAMILIES LIVING IN FEAR IN WEST L.A., OR IN WATTS -- IN NEIGHBORHOODS WHERE JUST GOING TO SCHOOL OR THE CORNER STORE IS AN ACT OF COURAGE. IF THE DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS WANT REAL JUSTICE, IF THEY WANT PEACE IN OUR NEIGHBORHOODS, THEY WOULD HAVE PROTECTED AMERICANS -- ALL AMERICANS -- WITH THE TOUGH LAWS WE PROPOSED SO VERY LONG AGO.\\\

WELL, CALIFORNIA CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT THE ARROGANCE OF THE LIBERAL STATE LEGISLATURE. YOU CAN DO SOMETHING BECAUSE -- YOU, THE VOTERS -- ARE THE TRUE INCUMBENTS. \ \ YOU CAN ELECT MORE REPUBLICANS -- AND YOU CAN ELECT A GOVERNOR WHO NEVER WAVERS IN FIGHTING CRIME, STANDING FIRM FOR FISCAL SANITY AND PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT. YOU CAN ELECT PETE WILSON.

NOVEMBER 6TH IS JUST 11 DAYS AWAY. ALREADY, ABSENTEE BALLOTS ARE STREAMING IN FROM THE PERSIAN GULF -- THOUSANDS OF VOTES FROM OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM. IF THEY CAN FIND THE TIME TO DO THEIR CIVIC DUTY UNDER SUCH DEMANDING CONDITIONS, I KNOW THAT CALIFORNIANS AT HOME WILL TURN OUT AS WELL.

WITH THE SUPPORT AND LEADERSHIP OF CALIFORNIANS LIKE YOU, I AM CONFIDENT THAT WHEN THE VOTERS DO GO TO THE POLLS, THEY WILL VOTE FOR CHANGE.

THEY WILL VOTE FOR REFORM. THEY WILL VOTE REPUBLICAN, AND BEST OF ALL THEY WILL SEND PETE WILSON TO SACRAMENTO.

THANK YOU, MAY GOD BLESS YOU, AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

When the Democrats tried to push through an exclusionary rule that would have handcuffed law enforcement officers -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to assure criminals a process of endless appeals -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to gut the death penalty -- Republicans held the line. // The hour is late, but if Congress sends me a bill that is tougher on criminals than it is on cops - - I will sign it the instant it lands on my desk.

It troubles me that our Democratic Congress doesn't bother to listen to the most vulnerable of our society -- families living in fear in West L.A., or in Watts -- in neighborhoods where just going to school or the corner store is an act of courage. If the Democrats in Congress want real justice, if they want peace in our neighborhoods, they would have protected Americans -- all Americans -- with the tough laws we proposed so very long ago.\\**

Well, California can do something about the arrogance of the liberal state legislature. You can do something because -- you, the voters -- are the true incumbents. \\ You can elect more Republicans -- and you can elect a governor who never wavers in fighting crime, standing firm for fiscal sanity and protecting the environment.

In short, your next governor must be someone who won't need crib notes to govern. Your next governor must be Pete Wilson.\\**

To reform the system, all we need to do is to fulfill our prime responsibility as citizens -- and vote for reform.

November 6th is just 11 days away. Already, absentee ballots are streaming in from the Persian Gulf -- thousands of votes from our men and women in uniform. If they can find the time to do their civic duty under such demanding conditions, I know that Californians at home will turn out as well.

With the support and leadership of Californians like you, I am confident that when the voters do go to the polls, they will vote for change. They will vote for reform. They will vote Republican.

Thank you, may God bless you, and the United States of America.

October 26, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: JIM PINKERTON J

SUBJECT: Pete Wilson Fundraiser

A terrific speech. We particularly like the term limitation language on page one, the empowerment language on page two, and the Trumanesque language throughout, e.g., "You, the voters, are the incumbents."

*I see that we offer sort of a semi-endorsement of term limits.
When does the real thing come?*

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: PETE WILSON, CENTURY PLAZA HOTEL
12:30 p.m., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1990

((It's a delight to be back in the Golden State. Let me begin by recognizing a great two-term governor and Republican leader -- George Deukmejian.\\)) ((Acknowledgements to come.))

((Sorry to hear about the A's.\\ I guess it was that first pitch that Barbara threw to the Reds.\\ \\ In fact, George, Jr.'s been after her to pitch relief for a year and a half.

((Then there's that other formidable woman involved in this gubernatorial race \\ \\ -- Gayle Wilson.\\)) And, of course, it's always a pleasure to be back to say a few words of support for your next governor -- Governor Pete Wilson.\\ \\

((Pete can tell you, this is the season in Southern California when those hot, dry Santa Ana winds kick up. Of course, during an election, you're not sure if all that hot air is blowing in from the desert or from the liberal Democrats.))\\ \\

I know, because I saw the gubernatorial debate on cable. My guess is, after your opponent's performance, even incumbent Democrats are beginning to see the hand-writing on the wall.\\ \\

Californians, like Americans across the country, are sadly coming to the conclusion that the only way to reform our government is to limit terms for lawmakers. But the Democrats, including Pete's opponent, are oblivious to the mood of the country. They actually believe you should be happy with the government you're getting from your Assembly and your Congress; they truly believe they deserve to be re-elected from now until kingdom-come. ((These Democrat incumbents remind me of the Michael Keaton character in "Pacific Heights" -- once they move into your basement, they never move out.))\ \ \ \

Well, Pete Wilson says enough is enough -- and so do I. \ \ We don't need perpetual legislators and Congressmen to rule for eternity. \ \ We need more Republicans like Pete Wilson and we need a Congress that works. \ \ \

We need a clean sweep, because we've had it with Democrat incumbents in Sacramento. And we've had it with Washington. \ \

In child care, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children. In the most desolate inner cities, we want reform -- so we strive to create zones of opportunity, to remove barriers to mobility and success, to empower people with the spirit of enterprise. In education, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools.

But this is a Congress that held up education reform for a year, while passing a proclamation declaring "The Decade of the Brain." This is a Congress that would rather issue feel-good proclamations, than address problems. This is a Congress that broke every self-imposed deadline in the budget process -- and is just now delivering a budget, almost a full month into the new fiscal year.

Chris - you should be aware that HHS was an enthusiastic supporter of this & that the President participated in a signing ceremony of the legislation ~~proposed~~ to have a Proc. for the Decade of the Brain, which S. Conte (Rep.) introduced. In addition, it's a slap to scientists which the Proc. is commensuring. Jhp, Holler (also we submitted a schedule prop. for HHS to have a ceremony for it)

There is an alternative. I met yesterday at the White House with the Republican leadership from the House and Senate. I made clear to the leadership -- and to our negotiators from the White House -- how much we owe to their untiring efforts these past eight months. // And that meeting proved to me that we in the Republican Party stand united -- we stand on principle -- and we stand against the failed tax and spend policies of the Democrats who control both houses of the Congress. ///

We're working to turn things around in Washington. Right here in California -- reform begins with Pete Wilson. In our war on crime and drugs, Pete Wilson has been a notable exception -- a true leader. // As your next governor, Pete says, "I will not have California under siege to rapists and thugs and drug dealers." Is it any surprise that he, and not his opponent, is endorsed by the Women Prosecutors of California?

They know Pete Wilson wants to govern a California where women need no longer fear the night because drug dealers and criminals will fear the law. They know he would make your streets safer by extending capital punishment in California to major drug traffickers, the same as my proposal before Congress.

The first time I called on Congress to pass a tough, comprehensive crime bill, I was surrounded by hundreds of law-enforcement officers at the foot of the Capitol on a rain-soaked morning in May of 1989. And after a year and a half, this Democrat Congress still has not passed our crime bill -- and it's been up to Republicans to prevent passage of a bill that would leave our courts, our cops and ultimately our citizens weaker than the criminals who plague our cities.

When the Democrats tried to push through an exclusionary rule that would have handcuffed law enforcement officers -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to assure criminals a process of endless appeals -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to gut the death penalty -- Republicans held the line. // The hour is late, but if Congress sends me a bill that is tougher on criminals than it is on cops -- I will sign it the instant it lands on my desk.

It troubles me that our Democratic Congress doesn't bother to listen to the most vulnerable of our society -- families living in fear in West L.A., or in Watts -- in neighborhoods where just going to school or the corner store is an act of courage. ((Then there's that other formidable woman involved in this gubernatorial race \\ -- Gayle Wilson.\\)) And, of course, it's always a pleasure to be back to say a few words of support for your next governor -- Governor Pete Wilson.\\)

((Pete can tell you, this is the season in Southern California when those hot, dry Santa Ana winds kick up. Of course, during an election, you're not sure if all that hot air is blowing in from the desert or from the liberal Democrats.))\\)

I know, because I saw the gubernatorial debate on cable. My guess is, after your opponent's performance, even incumbent Democrats are beginning to see the hand-writing on the wall.\\)

Californians, like Americans across the country, are sadly coming to the conclusion that the only way to reform our government is to limit terms for lawmakers. But the Democrats, including Pete's opponent, are oblivious to the mood of the country. They actually believe you should be happy with the government you're getting from your Assembly and your Congress; they truly believe they deserve to be re-elected from now until kingdom-come. ((These Democrat incumbents remind me of the Michael Keaton character in "Pacific Heights" -- once they move into your basement, they never move out.))\\\

We don't need perpetual legislators and Congressmen to rule for eternity.\** We need more Republicans like Pete Wilson and we need a Congress that works.\\**

We need a clean sweep, because we've had it with Democrat incumbents in Sacramento. And we've had it with Washington.\\

In child care, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children. In the most desolate inner cities, we want reform -- so we strive to create zones of opportunity, to remove barriers to mobility and success, to empower people with the spirit of enterprise. In education, we want reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools.

But this is a Congress that held up education reform for a year, while passing a proclamation declaring "The Decade of the Brain." This is a Congress that would rather issue feel-good proclamations, than address problems. This is a Congress that broke every self-imposed deadline in the budget process -- and is just now delivering a budget, almost a full month into the new fiscal year.

There is an alternative. I met yesterday at the White House with the Republican leadership from the House and Senate. I made clear to the leadership -- and to our negotiators from the White House -- how much we owe to their untiring efforts these past eight months. // And that meeting proved to me that we in the Republican Party stand united -- we stand on principle -- and we stand against the failed tax and spend policies of the Democrats who control both houses of the Congress. ///

We're working to turn things around in Washington. Right here in California -- reform begins with Pete Wilson. In our war on crime and drugs, Pete Wilson has been a notable exception -- a true leader. // As your next governor, Pete says, "I will not have California under siege to rapists and thugs and drug dealers." Is it any surprise that he, and not his opponent, is endorsed by the Women Prosecutors of California?

They know Pete Wilson wants to govern a California where women need no longer fear the night because drug dealers and criminals will fear the law. They know he would make your streets safer by extending capital punishment in California to major drug traffickers, the same as my proposal before Congress.

The first time I called on Congress to pass a tough, comprehensive crime bill, I was surrounded by hundreds of law-enforcement officers at the foot of the Capitol on a rain-soaked morning in May of 1989. And after a year and a half, this Democrat Congress still has not passed our crime bill -- and it's been up to Republicans to prevent passage of a bill that would leave our courts, our cops and ultimately our citizens weaker than the criminals who plague our cities.

When the Democrats tried to push through an exclusionary rule that would have handcuffed law enforcement officers -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to assure criminals a process of endless appeals -- Republicans held the line. When the Democrats tried to gut the death penalty -- Republicans held the line. // The hour is late, but if Congress sends me a bill that is tougher on criminals than it is on cops -- I will sign it the instant it lands on my desk.

It troubles me that our Democratic Congress doesn't bother to listen to the most vulnerable of our society -- families living in fear in West L.A., or in Watts -- in neighborhoods where just going to school or the corner store is an act of courage. If the Democrats in Congress want real justice, if they want peace in our neighborhoods, they would have protected Americans -- all Americans -- with the tough laws we proposed so very long ago.\\**

Well, California can do something about the arrogance of the liberal state legislature. You can do something because -- you, the voters -- are the true incumbents. \\ You can elect more Republicans -- and you can elect a governor who never wavers in fighting crime, standing firm for fiscal sanity and protecting the environment.

In short, your next governor must be someone who won't need crib notes to govern. Your next governor must be Pete Wilson.\\**

To reform the system, all we need to do is to fulfill our prime responsibility as citizens -- and vote for reform.

November 6th is just 11 days away. Already, absentee ballots are streaming in from the Persian Gulf -- thousands of votes from our men and women in uniform. If they can find the time to do their civic duty under such demanding conditions, I know that Californians at home will turn out as well.

With the support and leadership of Californians like you, I am confident that when the voters do go to the polls, they will vote for change. They will vote for reform. They will vote Republican.

Thank you, may God bless you, and the United States of America.
