

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13547
Folder ID Number: 13547-006

Folder Title:
Bob Martinez for Governor Fundraiser 11/1/90 [OA 6027] [1]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	5	4

- 2 -

And on clean air -- I sent up a landmark clean air bill on July 21, 1989 -- a year and a half ago. A hundred amendments were added. It took six weeks to appoint the conferees. 150 Congressional negotiators ~~for~~ squabbled for 15 weeks. Now, 462 days later, it looks like we may get a bill -- thanks to the persistent effort of the likes of Pete Wilson. But we shouldn't wait 462 days for a priority bill. And bills that America needs shouldn't become Christmas trees for the special interests on which Congress feeds.

The environment has been one of our top priorities. But what have we gotten? Let's look at the Congressional Record:

- With global climate change a growing problem, I asked for help with one solution we all agree on -- the resources to plant a billion trees. Well, after all the hot air had been emitted, Congress failed to deliver on a billion trees: Instead, they diverted the funds to pay for special interest projects in their own districts.
- With growing concern about the global environment, I asked to make EPA a Cabinet department. In the House, the bill was loaded up with the pet provisions -- unrelated to cleaning EPA -- of powerful committee members. In the Senate, the bill made it out of committee, but never to a vote.
- On Superfund, I asked for the funds to clean up toxic wastes, but again -- Congress diverted the funds to pay for more pork instead of cleaner drinking water.

Tree
S'ed
CO2
Wish

(POSSIBLE SPACE INSERT)

Last year, in a speech commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Apollo Moon landing, I announced three major space policy objectives: First, to have Space Station Freedom up before the century is out. Second, for the new century, a permanent lunar base: "Back to the Moon, back to the future -- and this time -- back to stay." And third, a manned expedition to Mars. \\\

Together, these initiatives form the cornerstone of my Administration's far-reaching plan for investing in America's future. They will help protect the environment, fuel an educational renaissance, and hone America's competitive edge. They will revolutionize everything from computers to communications, from medicine to metals, regaining and retaining America's high-tech competitive edge. It will create new technologies, new industries, and new jobs.

Especially in the area of education ...
[EDUCATION SECTION GOES HERE]

(CRIME INSERT)

Republicans like _____ also represent one more reason for change: America is fed up with crime. And Republicans know handcuffs belong not on the cops and the courts -- handcuffs belong on the criminals. \\\

Shortly after taking office last year, I stood before the U.S. Capitol and called on Congress to pass tough new laws to help America "Take Back The Streets." And the crime bill that resulted has just passed -- marking important new progress in the war on crime, and especially, white-collar crime.

The new bill contains measures that will ~~allow us to~~ step up our efforts to prosecute and punish white-collar criminals. Crooked S & L kingpins, corporations that defy anti-trust laws or dirty our air, those who think they can cheat the taxpayers out of debts owed to the government -- all these will feel the pain of the new arrows we've added to our law enforcement quiver.

But we must Still we need to do much more. And that means electing the Republicans who are ready to come to Congress to finish the job. America needs the habeas corpus reforms I proposed to stop convicted criminals from endlessly abusing the appeals process. America needs the laws I proposed to reform the exclusionary rule -- a judge-made law that lets the guilty go free. And most important of all -- America needs our proposal for a real federal death penalty -- one that applies to drug kingpins and terrorists. We need to be tough on crime and criminals. Give me more Republicans and we'll get the job done. \\\

I look at men like _____, no-nonsense Republicans who won't tolerate leniency toward those who violate our safety, our homes and our lives. [NAME OF STATE] needs champions like them. The growing vision of the Republican party in [NAME OF STATE] will bring new hope and optimism to both the State and its

The new budget contains a healthy 13.8 percent boost for our America's space program. And

(EP time)

10/31/90

Chriss Winston

ought to mention G-B's OCS decision -> very popular in Florida/Bob G.

or Martin

Tues. Oct. 30
4:00 P.M.

Room 254, Ext. 3060.

Please respond to every staffing request, even if you have no comment.

Distribution Within OMB

Action	FYI		Action	FYI
—	—	Director	—	—	Hodsoll, F.
—	✓	Deputy Director	✓	—	Howard, R.
—	—	Al-Samarrie, A.	✓	—	Legis. Affairs
—	—	Anderson, B.	—	—	Lieberman, S.
✓	—	Burman, A.	—	—	MacRae, J.
—	—	Dale, E.	—	—	Martin, B.
✓	—	Damus, R.	—	✓	Murr, J.
✓	—	Grady, R.	✓	—	Scully, T.
✓	—	Hale, J.	—	—	Other

Comments:

"THE ATTACHED DOCUMENT IS PRESIDENTIAL MATERIAL THAT CONTAINS POLITICAL ELEMENTS. ACCORDINGLY, PLEASE RESTRICT YOUR REVIEW AND COMMENTS TO CHECKING THE ACCURACY OF FACTUAL STATEMENTS AND STATEMENTS ABOUT THE ADMINISTRATION'S OFFICIAL POLICIES AND ACTIVITIES."

Final Action Taken: _____

Date: _____

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 10/30/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

90 OCT 30 PM 12:17

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 29, 1990
Draft: One

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
((Time)), November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.))\\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.))\\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.))\\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.

((Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack.))\\

((Then there are three Dade County Republicans here of my acquaintance: Jeb, Colomba and George, Junior.\\ And no, George, I don't have time to take you bone-fishing again.\\ The fish will wait until the election is over.))\\

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for more opportunity and for streets safe from crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and jobs, especially high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be everlasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And when he picked as a running mate a no-nonsense sheriff to be at his side, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey in the night.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women to demand Congress pass a crime bill and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect the cops on the beat. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors, with the blessing of the majority of Democrats. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror that can obliterate a 747 in the blink of an eye. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. The credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

Of course, there is one good thing about this bill: It strengthens enforcement against white-collar crime. But that's the only good aspect of an otherwise emasculated bill. No wonder

Henry Hyde, a tough-on-crime Republican, said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, the credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents. No wonder that Republicans are outregistering Democrats by the millions in Florida.

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget eight months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August -- any time during the last eight months. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

They even tried to raise income taxes on working Americans -- and would have, had it not been for Republicans.

If the 1970s taught us anything, it's that when a Democratic Congress runs amok, millions of elderly Americans are squeezed into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

The time for bipartisanship is past. We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on America.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

5

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 OCT 31 A 9: 48

DATE: 10/30/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

OK S.R.

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

90 OCT 30 PM 12:17

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 29, 1990
Draft: One

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
(Time), November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.))\ \ \

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\ \ \

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.))\ \ \

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.

((Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack.))\ \ \

((Then there are three Dade County Republicans here of my acquaintance: Jeb, Colomba and George, Junior.\ \ And no, George, I don't have time to take you bone-fishing again.\ \ The fish will wait until the election is over.))\ \ \

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for more opportunity and for streets safe from crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and jobs, especially high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be everlasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And when he picked as a running mate a no-nonsense sheriff to be at his side, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey in the night.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women to demand Congress pass a crime bill and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect the cops on the beat. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors, with the blessing of the majority of Democrats. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror that can obliterate a 747 in the blink of an eye. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. The credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

Of course, there is one good thing about this bill: It strengthens enforcement against white-collar crime. But that's the only good aspect of an otherwise emasculated bill. No wonder

Henry Hyde, a tough-on-crime Republican, said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, the credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents. No wonder that Republicans are outregistering Democrats by the millions in Florida.

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget eight months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August -- any time during the last eight months. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

They even tried to raise income taxes on working Americans - - and would have, had it not been for Republicans.

If the 1970s taught us anything, it's that when a Democratic Congress runs amok, millions of elderly Americans are squeezed into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

The time for bipartisanship is past. We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on America.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 OCT 31 P4: 54
10/31/90

DATE: _____ ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: _____

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ
ORLANDO, FLORIDA
NOVEMBER 1, 1990

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Winston	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Pinkerton	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Carney	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Anderson	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 30, 1990
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
5:20 p.m., November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.\\ \\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\\ \\

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack. Also, Congressman Bill McCollum and your next Congressman -- Bill Tolley.\\ \\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.\\ \\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.\\ \\ Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.))

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. You saw what it takes to be a great governor. You saw a governor offer the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state. You saw Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Bob Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowering people and communities --tapping into the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

So don't tell me there's no difference between Republicans and Democrats. In education, Republicans are the ones fighting for reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools. In child care, Republicans are the ones who demanded reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children.

Little surprise, then, that under a Republican governor, Florida is fighting for a cleaner environment, for better schools, for streets safe from drugs and crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and new jobs, especially in high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to this man -- Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Florida treasures its Everglades, that unique and irreplaceable resource. Last year, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be ever-lasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again

-- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on substance abuse and drug trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to this man -- Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on crime, toughening laws to ensure that criminals stay behind bars -- and adding the prison space to enforce it. Bob picked a no-nonsense sheriff as his running mate, and that tells you something: Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live, and you can count on it.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has been doing about crime.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women, and other potential victims of violent crime, to demand Congress pass a crime bill -- and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty

-- to protect America. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom, late at night. This wasn't democracy in action; this was a legislative mugging. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.\\\ It's time for more Republicans in Congress.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty, believe it or not, for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and even acts of terror. The liberal Democrats gutted the bill. Give me more Republicans so Congress can get tough on crime.\\\

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, believe it or not, this liberal Democratic Congress said no drug-testing for federal parolees. Give me more Republicans, and Congress will say "yes" to drug-testing for criminals.\\\

No wonder one Republican said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee

as Woody Allen. Give me more Republicans, and the law will get tougher, not weaker.\\\

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who left a party that had already left him and his constituents. Bill Grant -- you're a man of principle -- and Florida is stronger for your leadership.\\\

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the time it took to reach agreement on the budget.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress held the budget hostage six months -- waiting for their idea of a ransom. And that ransom was taxes. America could have gotten an agreement in May, in June, or in August. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of partisan advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And we need it now.

And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment. And we need it now.\\\

We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame Republicans for their failures. Well, that's just one more reason why we need more Republicans.\\\

America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- only a President can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork.

This Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords. So let's give the Congress back to the people. Let's elect more Republicans.\\\

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

Of course, this is the season to sharply debate differences between the parties. But both parties understand there are greater issues beyond the water's edge.

Republicans and Democrats agree that what is at stake in the Persian Gulf is more than economics or oil -- it's the principle at the heart of international order: whether aggression pays or whether aggression is punished.\\

We've got to take a good look at what we're up against. Back in the 1930's, before the war -- with America mired in isolationism -- Hitler's tanks rolled uncontested into Poland. Behind the blitzkrieg came the Death's Head Regiment -- the SS unit that swept the towns for any signs of resistance. Made examples of the innocent -- lined them up, and cut them down.\\

The same thing is happening today in Kuwait. Barbarism -- pure and simple. The world has seen it before -- and we can't look the other way.\\ America will not waver -- Saddam's aggression will not stand.\\

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young American men and women are teaching us a lesson about what it means to love liberty.\\ So as November 6th draws near, I urge every Floridian: get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.\\

And when you do vote, I hope you cast your ballot for a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting this state's special way of life.

Vote for a leader who can take Florida forward. // Vote for Governor Bob Martinez.\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

90 OCT 31 P3: 08

October 31, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON CS
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: MARTINEZ FOR GOVERNOR

On Thursday, November 1, at approximately 5:20 p.m., you will address 1,000 attendees at a fundraiser for Bob Martinez, Governor of Florida. Your remarks, 12-15 minutes in length, will be on cards.

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 30, 1990
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
5:20 p.m., November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.\\ \\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\\ \\

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack. Also, Congressman Bill McCollum and your next Congressman -- Bill Tolley.\\ \\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.\\ \\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.\\ \\ Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.))

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. You saw what it takes to be a great governor. You saw a governor offer the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state. You saw Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Bob Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowering people and communities --tapping into the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

So don't tell me there's no difference between Republicans and Democrats. In education, Republicans are the ones fighting for reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools. In child care, Republicans are the ones who demanded reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children.

Little surprise, then, that under a Republican governor, Florida is fighting for a cleaner environment, for better schools, for streets safe from drugs and crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and new jobs, especially in high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to this man -- Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Florida treasures its Everglades, that unique and irreplaceable resource. Last year, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be ever-lasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again

-- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on substance abuse and drug trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to this man -- Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on crime, toughening laws to ensure that criminals stay behind bars -- and adding the prison space to enforce it. Bob picked a no-nonsense sheriff as his running mate, and that tells you something: Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live, and you can count on it.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has been doing about crime.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women, and other potential victims of violent crime, to demand Congress pass a crime bill -- and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty

-- to protect America. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom, late at night. This wasn't democracy in action; this was a legislative mugging. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.\\\ It's time for more Republicans in Congress.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty, believe it or not, for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and even acts of terror. The liberal Democrats gutted the bill. Give me more Republicans so Congress can get tough on crime.\\\

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, believe it or not, this liberal Democratic Congress said no drug-testing for federal parolees. Give me more Republicans, and Congress will say "yes" to drug-testing for criminals.\\\

No wonder one Republican said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee

as Woody Allen. Give me more Republicans, and the law will get tougher, not weaker.\\\

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who left a party that had already left him and his constituents. Bill Grant -- you're a man of principle -- and Florida is stronger for your leadership.\\\

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the time it took to reach agreement on the budget.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress held the budget hostage six months -- waiting for their idea of a ransom. And that ransom was taxes. America could have gotten an agreement in May, in June, or in August. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of partisan advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And we need it now.

And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment. And we need it now.\\\

We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame Republicans for their failures. Well, that's just one more reason why we need more Republicans.

America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- only a President can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork.

This Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords. So let's give the Congress back to the people. Let's elect more Republicans.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.

Of course, this is the season to sharply debate differences between the parties. But both parties understand there are greater issues beyond the water's edge.

Republicans and Democrats agree that what is at stake in the Persian Gulf is more than economics or oil -- it's the principle

at the heart of international order: whether aggression pays or whether aggression is punished.\\

We've got to take a good look at what we're up against. Back in the 1930's, before the war -- with America mired in isolationism -- Hitler's tanks rolled uncontested into Poland. Behind the blitzkrieg came the Death's Head Regiment -- the SS unit that swept the towns for any signs of resistance. Made examples of the innocent -- lined them up, and cut them down.\\

The same thing is happening today in Kuwait. Barbarism -- pure and simple. The world has seen it before -- and we can't look the other way.\\ America will not waver -- Saddam's aggression will not stand.\\

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young American men and women are teaching us a lesson about what it means to love liberty.\\ So as November 6th draws near, I urge every Floridian: get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.\\

And when you do vote, I hope you cast your ballot for a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting this state's special way of life.

Vote for a leader who can take Florida forward. // Vote for Governor Bob Martinez.\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

90 OCT 31 P3:08

October 31, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON CW
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: MARTINEZ FOR GOVERNOR

On Thursday, November 1, at approximately 5:20 p.m., you will address 1,000 attendees at a fundraiser for Bob Martinez, Governor of Florida. Your remarks, 12-15 minutes in length, will be on cards.

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 30, 1990
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
5:20 p.m., November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.\\ \\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\\ \\

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack. Also, Congressman Bill McCollum and your next Congressman -- Bill Tolley.\\ \\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.\\ \\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.\\ \\ Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.))

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. You saw what it takes to be a great governor. You saw a governor offer the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state. You saw Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Bob Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowering people and communities --tapping into the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

So don't tell me there's no difference between Republicans and Democrats. In education, Republicans are the ones fighting for reform -- to empower parents to choose their children's schools. In child care, Republicans are the ones who demanded reform -- to empower parents to choose who will watch over their children.

Little surprise, then, that under a Republican governor, Florida is fighting for a cleaner environment, for better schools, for streets safe from drugs and crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and new jobs, especially in high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to this man -- Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Florida treasures its Everglades, that unique and irreplaceable resource. Last year, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be ever-lasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again

-- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on substance abuse and drug trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to this man -- Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is tough on crime, toughening laws to ensure that criminals stay behind bars -- and adding the prison space to enforce it. Bob picked a no-nonsense sheriff as his running mate, and that tells you something: Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live, and you can count on it.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has been doing about crime.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women, and other potential victims of violent crime, to demand Congress pass a crime bill -- and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty

-- to protect America. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom, late at night. This wasn't democracy in action; this was a legislative mugging. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.\\\ It's time for more Republicans in Congress.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty, believe it or not, for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and even acts of terror. The liberal Democrats gutted the bill. Give me more Republicans so Congress can get tough on crime.\\\

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, believe it or not, this liberal Democratic Congress said no drug-testing for federal parolees. Give me more Republicans, and Congress will say "yes" to drug-testing for criminals.\\\

No wonder one Republican said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee

as Woody Allen. Give me more Republicans, and the law will get tougher, not weaker.\\\

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who left a party that had already left him and his constituents. Bill Grant -- you're a man of principle -- and Florida is stronger for your leadership.\\\

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the time it took to reach agreement on the budget.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress held the budget hostage six months -- waiting for their idea of a ransom. And that ransom was taxes. America could have gotten an agreement in May, in June, or in August. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of partisan advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special- interests. And we need it now.

And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment. And we need it now.\\\

We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame Republicans for their failures. Well, that's just one more reason why we need more Republicans.

America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- only a President can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork.

This Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords. So let's give the Congress back to the people. Let's elect more Republicans.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.

Of course, this is the season to sharply debate differences between the parties. But both parties understand there are greater issues beyond the water's edge.

Republicans and Democrats agree that what is at stake in the Persian Gulf is more than economics or oil -- it's the principle

at the heart of international order: whether aggression pays or whether aggression is punished.\\

We've got to take a good look at what we're up against. Back in the 1930's, before the war -- with America mired in isolationism -- Hitler's tanks rolled uncontested into Poland. Behind the blitzkrieg came the Death's Head Regiment -- the SS unit that swept the towns for any signs of resistance. Made examples of the innocent -- lined them up, and cut them down.\\

The same thing is happening today in Kuwait. Barbarism -- pure and simple. The world has seen it before -- and we can't look the other way.\\ America will not waver -- Saddam's aggression will not stand.\\

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young American men and women are teaching us a lesson about what it means to love liberty.\\ So as November 6th draws near, I urge every Floridian: get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.\\

And when you do vote, I hope you cast your ballot for a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting this state's special way of life.

Vote for a leader who can take Florida forward. // Vote for Governor Bob Martinez.\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

Document No. 186845SS

WHITE HOUSE ● NG MEMORANDUM

OCT 31 P4:50

DATE: 10/30/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Please see comments

10/30/90
05:45 P4:50
90 OCT 31 18 100 06

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment. \\\

~~The time for bipartisanship is past.~~ We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution^{Bipartisan solutions} to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and ^{criticize us for ~~not~~ acting} ~~blame their~~ failures on America. in the national interest.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 30, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON W
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: MARTINEZ FOR GOVERNOR

On Thursday, November 1, at approximately 5:20 p.m., you will address 1,000 attendees at a fundraiser for Bob Martinez, Governor of Florida. Your remarks, 12-15 minutes in length, will be on cards.

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 30, 1990
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
5:20 p.m., November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.\\ \\ \\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\\ \\ \\

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack. Also, Congressman Bill McCollum and your next Congressman -- Bill Tolley.\\ \\ \\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.\\ \\ \\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.\\ \\ \\ Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.))

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for economic opportunity and for streets safe from drugs and crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and new jobs, especially in high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

Florida treasures its Everglades, that unique and irreplaceable resource. Last year, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be ever-lasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And by picking as his running mate a no-nonsense sheriff, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey on the weak and unsuspecting.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women, and other potential victims of violent crime, to demand Congress pass a crime bill -- and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect America. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. Blame the liberal Democrats.

No wonder one Republican said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, blame the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents.

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget six months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage - - all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on me.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- only a President can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

WHITE HOUSE  ING MEMORANDUM

90 OCT 31 AIO: 38

DATE: 10/30/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

October 31, 1990

TO CHRISS WINSTON

The NSC staff concurs with the attached statement with changes as noted.

 BRENT SCOWCROFT

cc: James W. Cicconi

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

RECEIVED

90 OCT 30 P 1: 47

90 OCT 31 11: 38

90 OCT 30 PM 12:17

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 29, 1990
Draft: One

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
((Time)), November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.))\ \ \

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\ \ \

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.))\ \ \

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.

((Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack.))\ \ \

((Then there are three Dade County Republicans here of my acquaintance: Jeb, Colomba and George, Junior.\ \ And no, George,
~~I don't have time to take you bone-fishing again.\ \ The fish-~~
~~will wait until the election is over.])\ \ \~~

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because ^{the} ~~this~~ election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for more opportunity and for streets safe from crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and jobs, especially high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be everlasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And when he picked as a running mate a no-nonsense sheriff to be at his side, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey in the night.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women to demand Congress pass a crime bill and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect the cops on the beat. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors, with the blessing of the majority of Democrats. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror that can obliterate a 747 in the blink of an eye. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. The credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

Of course, there is one good thing about this bill: It strengthens enforcement against white-collar crime. But that's the only good aspect of an otherwise emasculated bill. No wonder

Henry Hyde, a tough-on-crime Republican, said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, the credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents. No wonder that Republicans are outregistering Democrats by the millions in Florida.

✓ ~~Like me,~~ Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go, ^{as I have} And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget eight months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August -- any time during the last eight months. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

They even tried to raise income taxes on working Americans -
- and would have, had it not been for Republicans.

If the 1970s taught us anything, it's that when a Democratic Congress runs amok, millions of elderly Americans are squeezed into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

The time for bipartisanship is past. We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on America.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM
 90 OCT 30 P4: 08

DATE: 10/30/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

90 OCT 30 PM 12:17

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 29, 1990
Draft: One

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
((Time)), November 1, 1990

*add Bill McCollum to Bill Tolley
Dep. Cong. cand.
11th district*

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.))\ \ \

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.))\ \ \

*as of 4pm
Jeb's family will not attend event*

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.))\ \ \

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.

((Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack.))\ \ \

((Then there are three Dade County Republicans here of my acquaintance: Jeb, Colomba and George, Junior. \ \ And no, George, I don't have time to take you bone-fishing again. \ \ The fish will wait until the election is over.))\ \ \

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for more opportunity and for streets safe from crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and jobs, especially high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be everlasting.\\\ The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.\\\

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And when he picked as a running mate a no-nonsense sheriff to be at his side, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey in the night.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women to demand Congress pass a crime bill and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect the cops on the beat. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors, with the blessing of the majority of Democrats. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror that can obliterate a 747 in the blink of an eye. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. The credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

Of course, there is one good thing about this bill: It strengthens enforcement against white-collar crime. But that's the only good aspect of an otherwise emasculated bill. No wonder

Henry Hyde, a tough-on-crime Republican, said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, the credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents. No wonder that Republicans are outregistering Democrats by the millions in Florida.

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget eight months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August -- any time during the last eight months. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

They even tried to raise income taxes on working Americans -
- and would have, had it not been for Republicans.

If the 1970s taught us anything, it's that when a Democratic Congress runs amok, millions of elderly Americans are squeezed

Pls be sensitive on tax wading - Martinez

into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

The time for bipartisanship is past. We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on America.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

32000?

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

Stress as much as possible!

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 OCT 30 P4:23

DATE: 10/30/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/30/90 5:00 PM

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 PM TODAY, Tuesday, October 30, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See comments

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

90 OCT 30 PM 12:17

Davis/Blymire
Title: Orlando
Date: Oct. 29, 1990
Draft: One

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: GOVERNOR MARTINEZ, ORLANDO
((Time)), November 1, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- It's a delight, once again, to be back in this great city of Orlando, and to be here for our old friends -- Governor Martinez and his lovely First Lady, Mary Jane.))\\

((And I see Allison DeFoor -- a man of the law, a man of the people -- and the next lieutenant-governor of Florida.\\

((Then there's our Republican co-chairman: Jeannie, you've shown us how today's Republican success story can be America's story tomorrow. And when that day arrives, we will owe a lot to you. Thank you, Jeannie Austin.))\\

((Van Poole -- Mister Chairman, congratulations on your extraordinary effort in leading a Republican Party to majority status.

((Great to see Alec Courtelis, a true gentleman and a good friend.

((Senator Mack -- Connie, although you're not running this year, you've been campaigning hard. So once again, you're giving Florida Democrats a Mack Attack.))\\

((Then there are three Dade County Republicans here of my acquaintance: Jeb, Colomba and George, Junior.\\ And no, George, I don't have time to take you bone-fishing again.\\ The fish will wait until the election is over.))\\

We're hitting the campaign trail, and hitting it hard, because this election here in Florida is close, and it's crucial.

A few nights ago, you saw what was at stake. One candidate offered the failed solutions and tired logic you would expect from a creature of Congress. The other, Governor Martinez, offered the balanced approach you would expect from a seasoned leader of a city, and now a leader of a great and growing state.

Governor Martinez puts little stock in Washington solutions. He believes the people of Florida know what's best for themselves. He believes in empowerment -- the power that comes when millions work for a common vision.

Under Bob Martinez, you have been given the power to fight for a cleaner environment, for greater strides in education, for more opportunity and for streets safe from crime.

Florida ranks number one in the creation of new businesses and jobs, especially high-tech manufacturing. The credit goes to the people of Florida, and to Governor Martinez.

I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of the Everglades ^{National Park} by more than 100,000 acres. More needs to be done, but we are determined that the Everglades will be everlasting. The credit goes to the people of Florida, their Republican Delegation and -- again -- to Governor Martinez.

Florida is getting tough on drugs. Bob is the lead governor on the substance abuse and drug trafficking for the national task force of the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has been a leader in making sure parolees undergo drug testing and counseling -- to get straight, and stay straight. The credit goes to Governor Martinez.

✓
Taylor
X 3192

Florida is getting tough on crime, stiffening the criminal code and adding the prison space to enforce it. Once again, the credit goes to the governor. And when he picked as a running mate a no-nonsense sheriff to be at his side, you can be sure that Bob Martinez and Allison DeFoor will make Florida an even safer place to live.\\\

Whether he's standing up for the environment, or standing up to criminals, Bob Martinez has compiled a remarkable record of achievement that would make any governor proud. He's never been one to walk away from a job. For Governor Bob Martinez, even the toughest challenge is just another day at the office.\\\

I have told you what Republicans here have done to fight crime in Florida. Now let me tell you what the liberal Democratic Congress has done to make the streets of America safer -- safer for muggers, safer for killers, safer for those who prey in the night.

Almost a year and a half ago, I stood before the Capitol with policemen and women to demand Congress pass a crime bill and pass it soon. We shared high hopes that this Democratic Congress, liberal though it is, would finally pass a workable federal death penalty -- to protect the cops on the beat. Would end the legal loopholes and technicalities that free criminals and handcuff police. And would give our prosecutors the tools they need to keep criminals off the street and behind bars.

Well, they did pass a tough crime bill, only to weaken and water it down later, out of sight, in a backroom. The mutilation of this bill is a legislative crime that could only take place behind closed doors, with the blessing of the majority of Democrats. Only when the doors were shut, safe from public view, was it cut up and left to die. So when it comes to the Congress, all I can say is: What a difference Republican leadership would make.

Here in Florida, Bob Martinez has enforced a death penalty that protects police and public alike. But in Washington, the liberal Democratic Congress stopped the federal death penalty for assassination -- for treason -- for drug kingpins -- for the murder of judges, witnesses and jurors -- for mail bombings and acts of terror that can obliterate a 747 in the blink of an eye. So let criminals and terrorists give credit where credit is due: to the liberal Democrats.

Here in Florida, I told you that Bob Martinez signed into law tough drug-testing provisions for state parolees. But in Washington, this liberal Democratic Congress rejected drug-testing for federal parolees. The credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

Of course, there is one good thing about this bill: It strengthens enforcement against white-collar crime. But that's the only good aspect of an otherwise emasculated bill. No wonder

Henry Hyde, a tough-on-crime Republican, said that the bill left the floor as Arnold Schwarzenegger and came out of the conference committee as Woody Allen. Again, the credit goes to the liberal Democrats.

It is because of shenanigans like the gutting of the crime bill that more and more Florida Democrats are following Congressman Bill Grant, who made a principled decision to leave a party that had already left him and his constituents. No wonder that Republicans are outregistering Democrats by the millions in Florida.

Like me, Bill Grant had seen Congresses come and go. And never have we seen a liberal Congress more afraid, more gridlocked, more paralyzed, more tied up in knots than today's. Just look at the agonizing, protracted and unnecessary negotiations that led to the budget agreement.

You know, by law, the budget was due last April. The Democratic Congress has given me a budget eight months late, holding our prosperity ransom. America could have gotten a budget agreement in May, in June, or in August -- any time during the last eight months. But the Democrats held out, angling for every last morsel of advantage -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

They even tried to raise income taxes on working Americans - - and would have, had it not been for Republicans.

If the 1970s taught us anything, it's that when a Democratic Congress runs amok, millions of elderly Americans are squeezed into poverty by high costs. This year, the Democratic Congress once again put elderly Americans at risk -- all in the name of politics and higher taxes.

Here in Florida, Governor Martinez has used the power of a line-item veto at least 426 times to strike wasteful spending. We need the same power in Washington. We need the line-item veto -- to protect the national interest against the special-interests. And one more thing -- if the Democrats can't stop themselves from spending, maybe a law can do it for them. America needs a Balanced Budget Amendment.\\\

The time for bipartisanship is past. We extended our hand. We worked for a bipartisan solution to fight crime, and to solve this horrible budget mess. We tried very hard to do what's right for America -- only to have a parade of liberal Democrats march to the microphone in the well of the House and blame their failures on America.

Well, America deserves a Better Deal. Harry Truman reminded us that only a President represents all the people -- can stand up for the national interest against the special interests. And I have crossed America in the last few days to tell it like it is: Congress is served by almost 20,000 staff members; it controls the perks and passes out the pork. This liberal Democratic Congress is a confusion of committees and turf-conscious chaos. And the House intended to become closest to the people has become a House of Lords.

Our mission will be long and hard-fought. But starting next week, we can at least begin to send a message to Washington. And the way to send that message to Washington is not to send the liberal Democrats back.\\\

And you can send that same message to Tallahassee, by not rewarding the party that controls Congress, by not electing as Florida's chief executive a liberal Democrat who sat in Congress for eighteen years. That's the wrong mindset, the wrong experience, the wrong resume for Florida.

No. You need a governor who will carefully balance the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life.

You need ^a governor who was once a teacher, someone who learned to live within his means and is teaching the state government to do the same. That's why five days from now, Florida will re-elect Governor Bob Martinez.\\\

Thank you for all you have done for our country and for our party. God bless you and please, on Election Day, vote to give America a Better Deal.

#

#

#