

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13548
Folder ID Number: 13548-003

Folder Title:
Frank Bond for Governor Campaign Event 11/3/90 [OA 6027]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	5	5

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 OCT 2 A 8: 09

DATE: 11/01/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: _____

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BOND FOR GOVERNOR, ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
(11/01 2:30 p.m. draft)

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	CARNEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ANDERSON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

90 NOV -1 PM 6:51

McGroarty/Dooley
November 1, 1990
2:30 pm

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BOND FOR GOVERNOR CAMPAIGN EVENT
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
NOVEMBER 3, 1990
XX:00 ??

Thank you, [Frank,] for those kind words. My thanks to all of you for this warm welcome. // Sorry I had to stand you up back a week or so ago. But my daughter-in-law, Columba, was able to come out and show the Bush Family's strong support for Frank Bond -- and today I'm here to do the same. //

I spent twelve years next door to New Mexico -- just across the state line from Eunice and Hobbs. I've always felt at home here -- and I'm delighted to be back. [[I'm sorry I missed the International Balloon Festival. What a spectacle. Just imagine -- more hot air than on Capitol Hill. //]]

[Introductory acknowledgements.] My friend, and your present Governor: Garrey Carruthers -- the man who's leadership, courage and common sense have done so much for New Mexico these past four years. Add my name to the long list of admirers of a great Governor and a good man. //

And of course, the man who's going to keep New Mexico on the path to prosperity and progress -- New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. ///

Next Tuesday marks a turning point for New Mexico. You face a choice: whether to turn back the clock -- pretend this new decade stretching out before us will be nothing more than an instant replay of the 1970s. [[In the words of a famous American

mystic -- that's right, Yogi Berra: deja vu, all over again.]]
// But there's another choice: New Mexico can make this election its first step towards a future as bright as the broad New Mexico sky. // There's not a doubt in my mind about the right choice. Starting November 6th -- New Mexico will move forward with Frank Bond. //

I think one of the most important things we can do together is to get more Republicans elected -- in every town, in every state and for every federal seat in this land. Because the Republican party is the party with an agenda -- the party of change, not the status quo -- the party of new ideas.

Take the critical issue for New Mexico -- and for all Americans: the economy. // Frank Bond knows what it takes to make New Mexico even more competitive, how to open up new markets -- national and international. He knows what the move towards a free trade pact with Mexico can mean for this state's economy: New jobs for New Mexico. //

There is no higher domestic priority on the Republican agenda than America's economy -- because the economy is the job-creating engine that every family in this country counts on.

In recent months we've seen some uncertainty and concern about slower economic growth. That's why a budget agreement was crucial -- and why I was willing to go the extra mile to get it.

Despite tough negotiations, we finally reached a budget agreement with the Democrats controlling Congress. There were clear differences between the parties in how to cut the deficit.

The Democrats wanted to raise taxes, including income tax rates for working Americans. I wanted to reduce the deficit with spending cuts. What we got was a compromise: some taxes but almost $500 billion in deficit reduction in five years. $350 billion in spending cuts -- the largest in history. Incentives to make America less dependent on foreign oil.

And we put Congress on the pay-as-you-go plan. The enforcement provisions in this agreement are real -- they are strong. No longer will federal programs be funded with red ink. // Finally, we held the line against reckless cuts of our Armed Forces to ensure that America's defenses remain strong -- second to none. We owe that to our men and women in the Persian Gulf.

But getting our fiscal policy on track is just part of what we have accomplished as the party of change. // Let's start with the environment -- our sacred trust. Frank Bond's grown up here -- in the shadows of the Rocky Mountains, amid the grandeur and vastness of New Mexico's endless deserts. // As a fourth generation New Mexican, you can count on Frank Bond to preserve New Mexico's rich natural heritage in all its singular splendor.

I want everyone here in the land of enchantment to know we're working hard in Washington to protect our environment. More than a year ago, I challenged the Congress to break the stalemate that has hindered progress on tougher Clean Air legislation for the past decade -- to turn technology and the power of the marketplace to the advantage of the environment. To create. To innovate. To tip the scales in favor of recovery, restoration, and renewal.

Today, thanks to the innovation and cooperation of industry, government, and environmental experts, we've broken a 13 year legislative logjam. Finally, I have a Clean Air bill I can sign.

This landmark legislation will remove from the air 10 million tons of the emissions that cause acid rain; it will bring to the nation's 100 most smog-laden cities safer, healthy air; and it encourages the use of alternative fuels, that are safer for our environment, and reduce our excessive dependence on foreign energy. // But most important, it's going to make every man, woman, and child in America breathe a little easier. Because Republicans care about change, we've got a Clean Air Bill. // I think that's something to celebrate. ///

But of course there is still work to be done on the Republican agenda. Education, for example. Frank Bond knows America can't have a first-class economy with second-rate schools. // Better schools doesn't mean building a bigger bureaucracy -- or imposing on the cities and towns of New Mexico a one-size-fits-all program sent from on-high in Washington.

That's why we sent Congress the Educational Excellence Act - - our action plan for fundamental education reform, to reward achievement, encourage accountability -- and to give parents more choice in their children's education. Because Frank Bond and I agree: when it comes to our kids' education, the bureaucracy doesn't know best -- parents do. //

Republicans truly want to build a better America -- but to do it, we need more Republicans. So November 6th, vote Frank Bond for Governor: I need him, New Mexico needs him, but most of all -- America needs him. //

Today, we're here to express our partisan point of view -- to participate with pride in our political process. But now, let me put partisan politics aside. I know that everyone in this country is vitally interested in the situation in the Middle East, so let me bring you up to date. Former Senator Vandenberg was right when he said, "Politics ends at the water's edge." I am grateful to the leaders and other Members of Congress -- Democrat and Republican -- for their bipartisan support.

On August 2nd, Iraq invaded Kuwait. They literally raped, pillaged, and plundered this once-peaceful land -- this nation that is a member of the Arab League, a member of the United Nations. Iraq began to brutally and systematically dismantle Kuwait -- shipping its medical equipment, its machines, its records, its gold -- back to Baghdad. They have tried to silence Kuwaiti dissent and courage with firing squads. In a confirmed incident, a 15 year-old boy gunned down, his family forced to watch. His crime -- passing out leaflets.

The United States and the rest of the world, united in anger and outrage, determined to force Saddam Hussein out of Kuwait. On August 5th, Saddam Hussein announced he was pulling his forces out of Kuwait. At that very moment he sent his armor and his troops south to mass along the Saudi border, threatening yet another member of the U.N. and Arab League.

Subsequently, the United Nations Security Council passed ten resolutions of condemnation and disapproval. On August 5th, I said Saddam Hussein's aggression will not stand. Today I am more determined than ever: This aggression will not stand. ///

Right now over 300 Americans, innocent civilians, are held against their will in Iraq. Many of them reportedly staked out as human shields, near possible military targets -- something even Adolf Hitler didn't do.

Many more Americans are in hiding in Kuwait, their lives at stake. 27 are imprisoned in the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait City -- cut off from food and other supplies. They are surrounded by Iraqi troops. Our flag still flies but the rights of these American citizens are, at this very moment, being denied by Iraq's brutal dictator.

Let me be clear: we bear no hostility to the people of Iraq, nor do any of the over 25 countries represented on land and sea in the Gulf area. We have no argument with the Iraqi people. Our problem is with Saddam Hussein -- alone.

I want a peaceful resolution to this crisis. Indeed, we have worked closely with the United Nations in putting sanctions into effect, in passing resolutions and in speaking with one voice against the invader's aggression.

We are giving the sanctions time to work. I hope there will never be a shot fired in anger, but let me be very, very clear:

There will be no compromise on the stated objectives of the United Nations Security Council resolutions -- none at all. // The brutality against innocent civilians will not be tolerated and will not stand. // Saddam's clear violations of international law will not stand. // And that means, yes, Saddam Hussein's brutal aggression will not stand. //

No one wants a peaceful solution to this crisis more than I do. No one is more determined to see this aggression turned back than I am. ///

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young men and women of our Armed Services -- the finest forces ever to serve -- stand ready in the sand and heat of the desert sun. // The last several weeks, many of them have taken time out from their responsibilities, to fulfill a duty of a different sort: to fill out an absentee ballot, and send it to the city and towns back home. // There's a lesson there -- a lesson in the love of liberty, the precious freedom that gives America its meaning. // So next Tuesday, I urge all New Mexicans: take that lesson to heart. Get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.

Once again, my thanks for this warm welcome. // In the 1990's, many of the ideas that shape government -- and much of the action -- won't originate in Washington. They'll be generated right here -- at the grass roots. // That's why next Tuesday is critical -- and that's why I'm here today to show my strong support for New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. // May God bless the great state of New Mexico.

McGroarty/Dooley
November 1, 1990
2:30 pm

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BOND FOR GOVERNOR CAMPAIGN EVENT
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
NOVEMBER 3, 1990
XX:00 ??

Thank you, [Frank,] for those kind words. My thanks to all of you for this warm welcome. // Sorry I had to stand you up back a week or so ago. But my daughter-in-law, Columba, was able to come out and show the Bush Family's strong support for Frank Bond -- and today I'm here to do the same. //

I spent twelve years next door to New Mexico -- just across the state line from Eunice and Hobbs. I've always felt at home here -- and I'm delighted to be back. [[I'm sorry I missed the International Balloon Festival. What a spectacle. Just imagine -- more hot air than on Capitol Hill. //]]

[Introductory acknowledgements.] My friend, and your present Governor: Garrey Carruthers -- the man who's leadership, courage and common sense have done so much for New Mexico these past four years. Add my name to the long list of admirers of a great Governor and a good man. //

And of course, the man who's going to keep New Mexico on the path to prosperity and progress -- New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. ///

Next Tuesday marks a turning point for New Mexico. You face a choice: whether to turn back the clock -- pretend this new decade stretching out before us will be nothing more than an instant replay of the 1970s. [[In the words of a famous American

mystic -- that's right, Yogi Berra: deja vu, all over again.]]
// But there's another choice: New Mexico can make this election its first step towards a future as bright as the broad New Mexico sky. // There's not a doubt in my mind about the right choice. Starting November 6th -- New Mexico will move forward with Frank Bond. //

I think one of the most important things we can do together is to get more Republicans elected -- in every town, in every state and for every federal seat in this land. Because the Republican party is the party with an agenda -- the party of change, not the status quo -- the party of new ideas.

Take the critical issue for New Mexico -- and for all Americans: the economy. // Frank Bond knows what it takes to make New Mexico even more competitive, how to open up new markets -- national and international. He knows what the move towards a free trade pact with Mexico can mean for this state's economy: New jobs for New Mexico. //

There is no higher domestic priority on the Republican agenda than America's economy -- because the economy is the job-creating engine that every family in this country counts on.

In recent months we've seen some uncertainty and concern about slower economic growth. That's why a budget agreement was crucial -- and why I was willing to go the extra mile to get it.

Despite tough negotiations, we finally reached a budget agreement with the Democrats controlling Congress. There were clear differences between the parties in how to cut the deficit.

The Democrats wanted to raise taxes, including income tax rates for working Americans. I wanted to reduce the deficit with spending cuts. What we got was a compromise: some taxes but almost $500 billion in deficit reduction in five years. $350 billion in spending cuts -- the largest in history. Incentives to make America less dependent on foreign oil.

And we put Congress on the pay-as-you-go plan. The enforcement provisions in this agreement are real -- they are strong. No longer will federal programs be funded with red ink. // Finally, we held the line against reckless cuts of our Armed Forces to ensure that America's defenses remain strong -- second to none. We owe that to our men and women in the Persian Gulf.

But getting our fiscal policy on track is just part of what we have accomplished as the party of change. // Let's start with the environment -- our sacred trust. Frank Bond's grown up here -- in the shadows of the Rocky Mountains, amid the grandeur and vastness of New Mexico's endless deserts. // As a fourth generation New Mexican, you can count on Frank Bond to preserve New Mexico's rich natural heritage in all its singular splendor.

I want everyone here in the land of enchantment to know we're working hard in Washington to protect our environment. More than a year ago, I challenged the Congress to break the stalemate that has hindered progress on tougher Clean Air legislation for the past decade -- to turn technology and the power of the marketplace to the advantage of the environment. To create. To innovate. To tip the scales in favor of recovery, restoration, and renewal.

Today, thanks to the innovation and cooperation of industry, government, and environmental experts, we've broken a 13 year legislative logjam. Finally, I have a Clean Air bill I can sign.

This landmark legislation will remove from the air 10 million tons of the emissions that cause acid rain; it will bring to the nation's 100 most smog-laden cities safer, healthy air; and it encourages the use of alternative fuels, that are safer for our environment, and reduce our excessive dependence on foreign energy. // But most important, it's going to make every man, woman, and child in America breathe a little easier. Because Republicans care about change, we've got a Clean Air Bill. // I think that's something to celebrate. ///

But of course there is still work to be done on the Republican agenda. Education, for example. Frank Bond knows America can't have a first-class economy with second-rate schools. // Better schools doesn't mean building a bigger bureaucracy -- or imposing on the cities and towns of New Mexico a one-size-fits-all program sent from on-high in Washington.

That's why we sent Congress the Educational Excellence Act - - our action plan for fundamental education reform, to reward achievement, encourage accountability -- and to give parents more choice in their childrens education. Because Frank Bond and I agree: when it comes to our kids' education, the bureaucracy doesn't know best -- parents do. //

Republicans truly want to build a better America -- but to do it, we need more Republicans. So November 6th, vote Frank Bond for Governor: I need him, New Mexico needs him, but most of all -- America needs him. //

Today, we're here to express our partisan point of view -- to participate with pride in our political process. But now, let me put partisan politics aside. I know that everyone in this country is vitally interested in the situation in the Middle East, so let me bring you up to date. Former Senator Vandenberg was right when he said, "Politics ends at the water's edge." I am grateful to the leaders and other Members of Congress -- Democrat and Republican -- for their bipartisan support.

On August 2nd, Iraq invaded Kuwait. They literally raped, pillaged, and plundered this once-peaceful land -- this nation that is a member of the Arab League, a member of the United Nations. Iraq began to brutally and systematically dismantle Kuwait -- shipping its medical equipment, its machines, its records, its gold -- back to Baghdad. They have tried to silence Kuwaiti dissent and courage with firing squads. In a confirmed incident, a 15 year-old boy gunned down, his family forced to watch. His crime -- passing out leaflets.

The United States and the rest of the world, united in anger and outrage, determined to force Saddam Hussein out of Kuwait. On August 5th, Saddam Hussein announced he was pulling his forces out of Kuwait. At that very moment he sent his armor and his troops south to mass along the Saudi border, threatening yet another member of the U.N. and Arab League.

Subsequently, the United Nations Security Council passed ten resolutions of condemnation and disapproval. On August 5th, I said Saddam Hussein's aggression will not stand. Today I am more determined than ever: This aggression will not stand. ///

Right now over 300 Americans, innocent civilians, are held against their will in Iraq. Many of them reportedly staked out as human shields, near possible military targets -- something even Adolf Hitler didn't do.

Many more Americans are in hiding in Kuwait, their lives at stake. 27 are imprisoned in the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait City -- cut off from food and other supplies. They are surrounded by Iraqi troops. Our flag still flies but the rights of these American citizens are, at this very moment, being denied by Iraq's brutal dictator.

Let me be clear: we bear no hostility to the people of Iraq, nor do any of the over 25 countries represented on land and sea in the Gulf area. We have no argument with the Iraqi people. Our problem is with Saddam Hussein -- alone.

I want a peaceful resolution to this crisis. Indeed, we have worked closely with the United Nations in putting sanctions into effect, in passing resolutions and in speaking with one voice against the invader's aggression.

We are giving the sanctions time to work. I hope there will never be a shot fired in anger, but let me be very, very clear:

There will be no compromise on the stated objectives of the United Nations Security Council resolutions -- none at all. // The brutality against innocent civilians will not be tolerated and will not stand. // Saddam's clear violations of international law will not stand. // And that means, yes, Saddam Hussein's brutal aggression will not stand. //

No one wants a peaceful solution to this crisis more than I do. No one is more determined to see this aggression turned back than I am. ///

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young men and women of our Armed Services -- the finest forces ever to serve -- stand ready in the sand and heat of the desert sun. // The last several weeks, many of them have taken time out from their responsibilities, to fulfill a duty of a different sort: to fill out an absentee ballot, and send it to the city and towns back home. // There's a lesson there -- a lesson in the love of liberty, the precious freedom that gives America its meaning. // So next Tuesday, I urge all New Mexicans: take that lesson to heart. Get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.

Once again, my thanks for this warm welcome. // In the 1990's, many of the ideas that shape government -- and much of the action -- won't originate in Washington. They'll be generated right here -- at the grass roots. // That's why next Tuesday is critical -- and that's why I'm here today to show my strong support for New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. // May God bless the great state of New Mexico.

McGroarty/Dooley
November 1, 1990
2:30 pm

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BOND FOR GOVERNOR CAMPAIGN EVENT
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
NOVEMBER 3, 1990
XX:00 ??

Thank you, [Frank,] for those kind words. My thanks to all of you for this warm welcome. // Sorry I had to stand you up back a week or so ago. But my daughter-in-law, Columba, was able to come out and show the Bush Family's strong support for Frank Bond -- and today I'm here to do the same. //

I spent twelve years next door to New Mexico -- just across the state line from Eunice and Hobbs. I've always felt at home here -- and I'm delighted to be back. [[I'm sorry I missed the International Balloon Festival. What a spectacle. Just imagine -- more hot air than on Capitol Hill. //]]

[Introductory acknowledgements.] My friend, and your present Governor: Garrey Carruthers -- the man who's leadership, courage and common sense have done so much for New Mexico these past four years. Add my name to the long list of admirers of a great Governor and a good man. //

And of course, the man who's going to keep New Mexico on the path to prosperity and progress -- New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. ///

Next Tuesday marks a turning point for New Mexico. You face a choice: whether to turn back the clock -- pretend this new decade stretching out before us will be nothing more than an instant replay of the 1970s. [[In the words of a famous American

mystic -- that's right, Yogi Berra: deja vu, all over again.]]
// But there's another choice: New Mexico can make this election its first step towards a future as bright as the broad New Mexico sky. // There's not a doubt in my mind about the right choice. Starting November 6th -- New Mexico will move forward with Frank Bond. //

I think one of the most important things we can do together is to get more Republicans elected -- in every town, in every state and for every federal seat in this land. Because the Republican party is the party with an agenda -- the party of change, not the status quo -- the party of new ideas.

Take the critical issue for New Mexico -- and for all Americans: the economy. // Frank Bond knows what it takes to make New Mexico even more competitive, how to open up new markets -- national and international. He knows what the move towards a free trade pact with Mexico can mean for this state's economy: New jobs for New Mexico. //

There is no higher domestic priority on the Republican agenda than America's economy -- because the economy is the job-creating engine that every family in this country counts on.

In recent months we've seen some uncertainty and concern about slower economic growth. That's why a budget agreement was crucial -- and why I was willing to go the extra mile to get it.

Despite tough negotiations, we finally reached a budget agreement with the Democrats controlling Congress. There were clear differences between the parties in how to cut the deficit.

The Democrats wanted to raise taxes, including income tax rates for working Americans. I wanted to reduce the deficit with spending cuts. What we got was a compromise: some taxes but almost $500 billion in deficit reduction in five years. $350 billion in spending cuts -- the largest in history. Incentives to make America less dependent on foreign oil.

And we put Congress on the pay-as-you-go plan. The enforcement provisions in this agreement are real -- they are strong. No longer will federal programs be funded with red ink. // Finally, we held the line against reckless cuts of our Armed Forces to ensure that America's defenses remain strong -- second to none. We owe that to our men and women in the Persian Gulf.

But getting our fiscal policy on track is just part of what we have accomplished as the party of change. // Let's start with the environment -- our sacred trust. Frank Bond's grown up here -- in the shadows of the Rocky Mountains, amid the grandeur and vastness of New Mexico's endless deserts. // As a fourth generation New Mexican, you can count on Frank Bond to preserve New Mexico's rich natural heritage in all its singular splendor.

I want everyone here in the land of enchantment to know we're working hard in Washington to protect our environment. More than a year ago, I challenged the Congress to break the stalemate that has hindered progress on tougher Clean Air legislation for the past decade -- to turn technology and the power of the marketplace to the advantage of the environment. To create. To innovate. To tip the scales in favor of recovery, restoration, and renewal.

Today, thanks to the innovation and cooperation of industry, government, and environmental experts, we've broken a 13 year legislative logjam. Finally, I have a Clean Air bill I can sign.

This landmark legislation will remove from the air 10 million tons of the emissions that cause acid rain; it will bring to the nation's 100 most smog-laden cities safer, healthy air; and it encourages the use of alternative fuels, that are safer for our environment, and reduce our excessive dependence on foreign energy. // But most important, it's going to make every man, woman, and child in America breathe a little easier. Because Republicans care about change, we've got a Clean Air Bill. // I think that's something to celebrate. ///

But of course there is still work to be done on the Republican agenda. Education, for example. Frank Bond knows America can't have a first-class economy with second-rate schools. // Better schools doesn't mean building a bigger bureaucracy -- or imposing on the cities and towns of New Mexico a one-size-fits-all program sent from on-high in Washington.

That's why we sent Congress the Educational Excellence Act - - our action plan for fundamental education reform, to reward achievement, encourage accountability -- and to give parents more choice in their childrens education. Because Frank Bond and I agree: when it comes to our kids' education, the bureaucracy doesn't know best -- parents do. //

Republicans truly want to build a better America -- but to do it, we need more Republicans. So November 6th, vote Frank Bond for Governor: I need him, New Mexico needs him, but most of all -- America needs him. //

Today, we're here to express our partisan point of view -- to participate with pride in our political process. But now, let me put partisan politics aside. I know that everyone in this country is vitally interested in the situation in the Middle East, so let me bring you up to date. Former Senator Vandenberg was right when he said, "Politics ends at the water's edge." I am grateful to the leaders and other Members of Congress -- Democrat and Republican -- for their bipartisan support.

On August 2nd, Iraq invaded Kuwait. They literally raped, pillaged, and plundered this once-peaceful land -- this nation that is a member of the Arab League, a member of the United Nations. Iraq began to brutally and systematically dismantle Kuwait -- shipping its medical equipment, its machines, its records, its gold -- back to Baghdad. They have tried to silence Kuwaiti dissent and courage with firing squads. In a confirmed incident, a 15 year-old boy gunned down, his family forced to watch. His crime -- passing out leaflets.

The United States and the rest of the world, united in anger and outrage, determined to force Saddam Hussein out of Kuwait. On August 5th, Saddam Hussein announced he was pulling his forces out of Kuwait. At that very moment he sent his armor and his troops south to mass along the Saudi border, threatening yet another member of the U.N. and Arab League.

Subsequently, the United Nations Security Council passed ten resolutions of condemnation and disapproval. On August 5th, I said Saddam Hussein's aggression will not stand. Today I am more determined than ever: This aggression will not stand. ///

Right now over 300 Americans, innocent civilians, are held against their will in Iraq. Many of them reportedly staked out as human shields, near possible military targets -- something even Adolf Hitler didn't do.

Many more Americans are in hiding in Kuwait, their lives at stake. 27 are imprisoned in the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait City -- cut off from food and other supplies. They are surrounded by Iraqi troops. Our flag still flies but the rights of these American citizens are, at this very moment, being denied by Iraq's brutal dictator.

Let me be clear: we bear no hostility to the people of Iraq, nor do any of the over 25 countries represented on land and sea in the Gulf area. We have no argument with the Iraqi people. Our problem is with Saddam Hussein -- alone.

I want a peaceful resolution to this crisis. Indeed, we have worked closely with the United Nations in putting sanctions into effect, in passing resolutions and in speaking with one voice against the invader's aggression.

We are giving the sanctions time to work. I hope there will never be a shot fired in anger, but let me be very, very clear:

There will be no compromise on the stated objectives of the United Nations Security Council resolutions -- none at all. // The brutality against innocent civilians will not be tolerated and will not stand. // Saddam's clear violations of international law will not stand. // And that means, yes, Saddam Hussein's brutal aggression will not stand. //

No one wants a peaceful solution to this crisis more than I do. No one is more determined to see this aggression turned back than I am. ///

Right now -- half a world away -- brave young men and women of our Armed Services -- the finest forces ever to serve -- stand ready in the sand and heat of the desert sun. // The last several weeks, many of them have taken time out from their responsibilities, to fulfill a duty of a different sort: to fill out an absentee ballot, and send it to the city and towns back home. // There's a lesson there -- a lesson in the love of liberty, the precious freedom that gives America its meaning. // So next Tuesday, I urge all New Mexicans: take that lesson to heart. Get out and vote. Don't take democracy for granted.

Once again, my thanks for this warm welcome. // In the 1990's, many of the ideas that shape government -- and much of the action -- won't originate in Washington. They'll be generated right here -- at the grass roots. // That's why next Tuesday is critical -- and that's why I'm here today to show my strong support for New Mexico's next Governor: Frank Bond. // May God bless the great state of New Mexico.