Draft one A:TROOPS
November 8, 1990

THANKSGIVING MESSAGE TO AMERICAN TROOPS WORLDWIDE
VIA ARMED FORCES RADIO
NOVEMBER 13, 1990
THE ROOSEVELT ROOM

As we gather together for Thanksgiving this year, America has much to be truly grateful for. To those of you who are spending this holiday away from your loved ones to defend our nation's security and that of our allies, I am deeply grateful. To those of you on duty in the Persian Gulf, I say a special thank-you.

Recent events prove the world is still a dangerous and unstable place. Along with the triumph of freedom around the world comes new challenges -- especially in the Middle East. Once again, you, the men and women of our Armed Forces, have responded to the call of duty to protect freedom and stand firm against aggression.

And once again, you have the full support of the American people and the thanks of this President.

You know, Barbara and I have spent a lot of Thanksgivings with a family we're proud of. Well, this year is no different. And as Americans celebrate this special day back home, know that you are in their hearts. America is proud of you and the job you're doing.

Almost two years ago, I began my Inaugural Address with a prayer, seeking God's wisdom and guidance in all that we face. Earlier this month, with American troops facing down aggression overseas, I asked the nation to join me in prayer -- a prayer for the brave servicemen and women in whom we entrust the future of this country -- as well as for those Americans held hostage.

Now, this Thanksgiving, I hope that all Americans, of all faiths and walks of life, will bow their heads in appreciation for God's power to protect us and His wisdom to guide us.

As members of our Armed Forces worldwide, your strength and readiness allow the flames of freedom and democracy to glow brightly. You represent America's best -- the world's best hope for the future. No matter where you are, I hope you are safe and well. The entire Bush family wishes you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving. May God bless you -- and bring you home safely and soon.
