PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS:

BARBEQUE
AGUALEGUAS, MEXICO
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1990
1:45 P.M.

President and Mrs. Salinas: Let me say how pleased Barbara and I are to be in you home town of Agualeguas. We are delighted to spend the kind of informal time together we shared at Camp David last year.//

To Mayor Reynaldo Canales Vela, and the people of this wonderful village: We are thrilled to join you, and thank you for your hospitality. You have shown anew the kindness for which Mexico is so famous.

((Barbara and I loved the barbecue. That goes double for the rodeo. It's amazing to me how a cowboy can chase down a steer, throw a rope around his neck, wrestle him to the ground, and tie his legs. // I have a tough time just catching a fish.))

I first met President Salinas last November in Houston -- and was moved by how he understood the needs and feelings of the people of Mexico. Since then, we've come to know each other well -- and at no time more than today. //

Being here makes me understand what President Salinas learned as a boy, growing up half a block away -- things like community and hard work, love of country and of God.// I am told Agualeguas means "Far Waters." President Salinas has traveled far to advance peace and prosperity. Yet never has he forgotten the roots and the values of his youth. Mr. President, Barbara and I have enjoyed this special time together -- sharing with you the beauty of your home and the joy of your family and friends. Thank you for a wonderful day.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BARBECUE
AGUALEGUAS, MEXICO
1:45 P.M.

President and Mrs. Salinas, Secretary Mosbacher, Secretary Brady, Ambassador Hills, Ambassador Negro Ponte [NEG-ro-ponti]. Let me say how pleased Barbara and I are to be in your home town of Agualeguas [AG-WA-LAY-GWAS]. We are delighted to spend the kind of informal time together we shared at Camp David last year.

To Mayor Reynaldo Canales Vela [VAY-la], and the people of this wonderful village: We are thrilled to join you, and thank you for your hospitality. You have shown anew the kindness for which Mexico is so famous. //

((Barbara and I loved the barbecue. That goes double for the rodeo. It's amazing to me how a cowboy can chase down a steer, throw a rope around his neck, wrestle him to the ground, and tie his legs. // I have a tough time just catching a fish.))

I first met President Salinas two years ago in Houston -- and was moved by how he understood the needs and feelings of the people of Mexico. Since then, we've come to know each other better -- and at no time more than today. //

Being here in President Salinas's hometown allows me to appreciate your values of community and hard work, love of country and of God. / I am told Agualeguas means "Far Waters."
