

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13557
Folder ID Number: 13557-002

Folder Title:
Lynn Martin 2/22/91 [OA 6029]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	6	7

Document No. 213888SS

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 20 A10:32

DATE: 2/19/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMEYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒	_____	☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐

REMARKS: Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

No Comments 2/20/91

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

FEB 20 '91 10:07 CHR. COLL. COALITION

Christian College Coalition

For Enduring Values

P. 1/3

An Association of Over
75 Christ-Centered Liberal
Arts Colleges

329 Eighth St., N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002-6158
Telephone (202) 546-8713
Fax (202) 546-8913

Dr. Myron S. Augsburg
President

Dr. John R. Dellenback
President Emeritus

FACSIMILE COVER SHEET

DATE:

2/20

ATTENTION:

Ms. Kathy Rust

Office of Public Liaison

FAX #:

(202) 456-6218

FROM:

Serry Herbert

COMMENTS:

OF PAGES:

3

Christian College Coalition

American Studies Program

February 19, 1991

Dear Kathy:

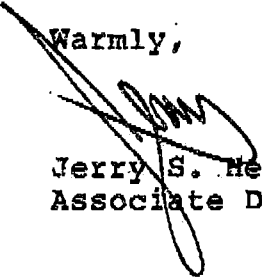

Thanks for speaking with me today on the phone. Just a note to thank you again for your hard work in our behalf in preparing a briefing for our students on the President's budget proposals on Friday, February 22, at 2 pm in the Indian Treaty Room.

I know you must be very busy indeed. And your willingness to help us is of great encouragement to us all. I apologize for not giving you more time, but I want you to know how impressed I am with your desire to help us. We all are looking forward to being at the White House for this briefing.

Please find enclosed a list of the names, dates of birth, and Social Security numbers of all who will be participating in the briefing.

I look forward to your phone call confirming time and place for us. As of now, we will advise our students to gather at the OEB Pennsylvania Avenue entrance around 1:40 pm so we can clear security and be seated in the Indian Treaty Room by 2 pm. Thanks again, Kathy, for your help.

Warmly,

Jerry S. Herbert, Ph.D.
Associate Director

Ms Kathy Rust
Office of Public Liaison
Room 193, OEOB
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

JSH/lp

Encl.

Withdrawal/Redaction Sheet

(George Bush Library)

Document No. and Type	Subject/Title of Document	Date	Restriction	Class.
01. List	List of students participating in White House Briefing; personal information. (1 pp.)	02/20/91	P-6, (b)(6)

Collection:

Record Group: Bush Presidential Records
Office: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File, Drafts
Subseries:
WHORM Cat.:
File Location: Lynn Martin 2/22/91

Date Closed: 9/20/2004	OA/ID Number: 06029
FOIA/SYS Case #:
Re-review Case #: 2004-2249-S
P-2/P-5 Review Case #:
MR Case #:	Appeal Case #:
MR Disposition:	Appeal Disposition:
Disposition Date:	Disposition Date:

RESTRICTION CODES

Presidential Records Act - [44 U.S.C. 2204(a)]

P-1 National Security Classified Information [(a)(1) of the PRA]
P-2 Relating to the appointment to Federal office [(a)(2) of the PRA]
P-3 Release would violate a Federal statute [(a)(3) of the PRA]
P-4 Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential commercial or financial information [(a)(4) of the PRA]
P-5 Release would disclose confidential advise between the President and his advisors, or between such advisors [(a)(5) of the PRA]
P-6 Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(a)(6) of the PRA]

C. Closed in accordance with restrictions contained in donor's deed of gift.

Freedom of Information Act - [5 U.S.C. 552(b)]

(b)(1) National security classified information [(b)(1) of the FOIA]
(b)(2) Release would disclose internal personnel rules and practices of an agency [(b)(2) of the FOIA]
(b)(3) Release would violate a Federal statute [(b)(3) of the FOIA]
(b)(4) Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential or financial information [(b)(4) of the FOIA]
(b)(6) Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(b)(6) of the FOIA]
(b)(7) Release would disclose information compiled for law enforcement purposes [(b)(7) of the FOIA]
(b)(8) Release would disclose information concerning the regulation of financial institutions [(b)(8) of the FOIA]
(b)(9) Release would disclose geological or geophysical information

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 20 P3:48

DATE: 2/19/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMEYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒		☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐		☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐		☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

No comment

PHILLIP D. BRADY
 Assistant to the President
 and Staff Secretary
 Ext. 2702

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN \ DEPT. OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991 \ 10:30 A.M.

THANK YOU, AND GOOD AFTERNOON.

TRULY, IT IS A GREAT HONOR TO GREET YOU ALL TODAY.
I'M VERY PLEASED TO SEE SO MANY CABINET MEMBERS HERE TO WELCOME THEIR NEWEST COLLEAGUE. I SEE SECRETARIES
SKINNER AND DERWINSKI, AND SEC.-DESIGNATE MADIGAN.
((LYNN -- ONE MORE ILLINOISAN [ILL-EH-NOY-AN] AND WE'LL HAVE TO MOVE THE CABINET MEETINGS TO CHICAGO!))

- 2 -

I ALSO WANT TO OFFER MY RESPECTS TO THE FORMER SECRETARIES OF LABOR WHO ARE HERE: SECRETARY USERY.
SECRETARY BROCK. SECRETARY McLAUGHLIN. AND OF COURSE
-- SECRETARY ELIZABETH DOLE. AND IN MARKING THIS MOMENT OF TRANSITION, LET ME BEGIN BY OFFERING OUR CONGRATULATIONS TO SECRETARY DOLE FOR 25 YEARS OF EXCEPTIONAL GOVERNMENT SERVICE, AND OUR BEST WISHES IN HER CONTINUING PUBLIC SERVICE AS PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

SECRETARY DOLE -- ON BEHALF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR -- ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE -- THANK YOU -- AND GOOD LUCK. \\\

WE ARE HERE TODAY TO INTRODUCE THE NEW SECRETARY OF LABOR. AND WE ARE PARTICULARLY GRATEFUL THAT MANY OF
THE DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WITH WHOM SHE HAS SERVED ARE ABLE TO BE HERE WITH US. WE'RE ALSO GLAD TO SEE LANE KIRKLAND.

AND MOST OF ALL, IT IS A DISTINCT AND PERSONAL PLEASURE TO WELCOME TO WASHINGTON THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF THIS EXTRAORDINARY WOMAN.

THE 16TH DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS HAS GREAT HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE. IT WAS A SITE OF THE LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATES, HOME OF PRESIDENT ULYSSES S. GRANT, AND THE BIRTHPLACE OF RONALD REAGAN.

AND IT IS THE DISTRICT SERVED FOR 10 YEARS BY A WOMAN WHO IS ONE OF THE GREAT LEADERS OF THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES -- MY LONGTIME FRIEND -- AMERICA'S NEW SECRETARY OF LABOR, LYNN MARTIN.

BARBARA AND I HAVE CAMPAIGNED WITH HER AT HOME IN THE STREETS AND NEIGHBORHOODS OF ROCKFORD. YOU SHOULD SEE THE LOVE AND AFFECTION THE PEOPLE WHO KNOW HER BEST FEEL FOR HER. AND WITH GOOD CAUSE.

LYNN FIRST BECAME INVOLVED IN POLITICS BECAUSE -- AS A MOTHER AND AS A TEACHER -- SHE KNEW AMERICA'S CHILDREN DESERVED BETTER -- BETTER SCHOOLS, BETTER CHOICES, A BETTER FUTURE. SHE'S BEEN WORKING TO BRING ABOUT IMPROVEMENTS LIKE THESE ALL HER LIFE. AND THAT'S WHY, DURING MY INAUGURATION WEEK, I URGED A GROUP OF 10,000 YOUNG PEOPLE FROM ALL ACROSS THE NATION TO MAKE LYNN MARTIN THEIR ROLE MODEL.

"WATCH HER LEADERSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS," I SAID. "SHE'S TOUGH, SHE'S STRONG AND SHE EXEMPLIFIES THE VERY BEST IN PUBLIC SERVICE." \\\

LYNN -- THIS IS A GOOD DEPARTMENT -- WITH DECENT AND CARING PEOPLE -- AND AN IMPORTANT MISSION. I'VE BEEN HERE SEVERAL TIMES -- EVEN VISITED WITH THE KIDS IN THE CHILD CARE CENTER DOWN THE HALL. INTRODUCED BILL BROCK HERE BACK IN '85, AND ELIZABETH IN '89. I KNOW WHAT YOU DO HERE, AND ALL OVER THE COUNTRY OUT OF YOUR REGIONAL OFFICES, AND IT IS IMPORTANT.

IT INCLUDES PROTECTING AMERICA'S KIDS AGAINST EXPLOITATION, HELPING WORKERS RETRAIN AND BUILD SKILLS FOR THE FUTURE, SAFEGUARDING EMPLOYEES AGAINST HEALTH AND SAFETY HAZARDS, AND ENSURING THE INTEGRITY OF WORKERS' PENSIONS.

I KNOW LYNN IS ALSO COMMITTED TO REACHING OUT TO AMERICAN WORKERS -- AS SHE TOLD THE SENATE RECENTLY -- TO "TOUCHING THEIR LIVES BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER THEIR YEARS IN THE LABOR FORCE."

NOW THOSE ARE THE THOUGHTS OF A VERY DEDICATED AND CARING WOMAN. MATCHED BY HER EXCEPTIONAL TALENTS, THEY PROMISE THAT SECRETARY MARTIN WILL HELP MAKE THE AMERICAN WORKPLACE SAFER, HEALTHIER, AND MORE SECURE -- AND SERVE THE DEPARTMENT AND THE COUNTRY AS A POWERFUL FORCE FOR GOOD.

A FEW MONTHS AGO, I LISTENED AS LYNN TOLD AN ILLINOIS GATHERING ABOUT HOW, ALMOST 30 YEARS AGO, SHE HELD HER LITTLE GIRL JULIA UP ABOVE THE CROWD AS PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY DROVE BY.

LYNN SAID: "IF ONLY ONCE IN HER LIFE, I WANTED HER TO BE ABLE TO SAY SHE HAD SEEN A PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

TODAY, THAT LITTLE GIRL IS THE FINE YOUNG WOMAN WE SEE DOING SUCH A SUPERB JOB UP HERE. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] AND THAT YOUNG MOTHER IS AMERICA'S NEWEST SECRETARY OF LABOR. \\

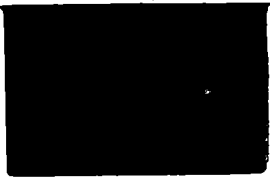

JUST THE OTHER DAY, LYNN REMARKED THAT THE "DREAM IS ALIVE IN PLACES YOU LEAST EXPECT TO FIND IT."

THAT'S SO TRUE. LYNN MARTIN IS THE AMERICAN DREAM.
AND SHE INSPIRES IT IN OTHERS.

MADAME SECRETARY -- CONGRATULATIONS, GOOD LUCK, AND GOD BLESS YOU. \\\

AND NOW I WOULD INVITE YOUR DISTINGUISHED HUSBAND,
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE HARRY LEINENWEBER, WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF YOUR FATHER, TO ADMINISTER THE OATH OF OFFICE. JUDGE LEINENWEBER.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

91 FEB 21 49:37
February 20, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Swearing-In Ceremony for
Lynn Martin

We have reviewed and concur with the attached Presidential remarks for the swearing-in ceremony for Lynn Martin.

cc: Phillip D. Brady

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 2/19/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMEYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒	_____	☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 19 AM : 50

2:50

DATE: 2/19/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER N/C	☒	☐ 3:15pm
DARMAN N/C	☒	☐	ROGICH N/C	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMEYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒		☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐		☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐		☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

D² insert

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]]

And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor.

And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 2/19/91ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMAYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒		☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐		☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐		☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

(note: See insert on Dept. of Labor — on back of last page)

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

Chris - Da most - he has talked to me about this... - 91

Byron,
This is a good department. With decent and caring people - and an important mission. And have had several times - even played with the toddlers in ^{the} day child care center - introduced Bill to the Department back in '85 and Elizabeth in
'89. - and all over the country
I know what you do here - and it is important of

~~Don't want to be on it about committee~~
~~It is with including kids against exploitation,~~
Religious workers return and build skills for the future, Age guarding ~~workplaces~~ ^{employees} against hazards in the workplace and insuring the integrity of workers pension employees

6,000 here
12,000 in the field

Poppy - down hall

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 20 All: 42

DATE: 2/19/91ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMAYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒	_____	☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*See comments. Thanks.
Holly Williamson
2-20-91*

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of

If you want to expand on this,
Freeport is the one where the issue of slavery was mentioned.

✓ Labor - not positive she'll be there.
Will call us back when they find out.

✓ Labor - not positive he'll be there - will let us know.

✓ Labor

President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor.

And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin. ✓ OCA

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 20 A7:28

1225

DATE: 2/19/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMEYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒		☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐		☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐		☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

The NSC staff concurs with the draft presidential remarks.

Brent Scowcroft
February 19, 1991

cc: Phillip D. Brady

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

31 FEB 50 4:58

91 FEB 19 12:22

RECEIVED

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

91 FEB 19 P5:00

February 19, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR
COMMUNICATIONS AND DIRECTOR OF SPEECHWRITING

FROM: NELSON LUND
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Swearing-in Ceremony for
Lynn Martin

At the request of Phillip D. Brady, Counsel's office has reviewed the captioned remarks. We have no legal objections.

We appreciate the opportunity to review this matter.

cc: Phillip D. Brady

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

STAFF-13

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 FEB 19 12:45

DATE: 2/19/91ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 2/20/91 NOON

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	☐	☒	MCCLURE	☒	☐
SUNUNU	☐	☐	NEWMAN	☐	☐
SCOWCROFT	☒	☐	PORTER	☒	☐
DARMAN	☒	☐	ROGICH	☒	☐
BRADY	☐	☒	UNTERMAYER	☐	☐
CARD	☐	☒	ROGERS	☐	☒
DEMAREST	☒	☐	WINSTON	☐	☒
FITZWATER	☐	☒	_____	☐	☐
GRAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐
HOLIDAY	☒	☐	_____	☐	☐

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Wednesday, February 20, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Do you want high # of apps?

large

Phillip D. Brady

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 FEB 19 AM 11:18

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 19, 1991
Draft Two (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service."

Lynn Martin is committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force." Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. And who knows -- maybe someday down the road the mothers and fathers of Rockford will hold their kids up to see another presidential limo drive by -- and waving back from inside will be the irrepressible smile of Lynn Martin.

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you.

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 20, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw
FROM: EDWARD McNALLY EMN
SUBJECT: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN

I. SUMMARY

On Friday, February 22, at 10:30 a.m., you will participate in the swearing-in ceremony for Lynn Martin as Secretary of Labor. The event will take place in the Great Hall at the Labor Department.

II. DISCUSSION

Julia Martin (her daughter) will give the invocation and family introductions. The Pledge of Allegiance will be led by the family of Sgt. First Class Melvin Oliver, an employee of the Labor Department currently serving in the Persian Gulf.

Following your remarks, the Secretary will be sworn into office by her husband, U.S. District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber. Her father, Lawrence Morley, will hold the Bible.

The remarks highlight Secretary Martin's long and distinguished record in public service, emphasizing that this experience will enable her to do an exceptional job as Secretary of Labor.

[One other note on acknowledgements: We do not yet have final confirmation that Secretary Dole and Lane Kirkland will be able to participate. All acknowledgements will be fixed accordingly.]

McNally/Dooley
Feb. 20, 1991
Draft Three (B:MARTIN)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR LYNN MARTIN
THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1991, 10:30 A.M.

Thank you, and good afternoon.

Truly, it is a great honor to greet you all today. I'm very pleased to see so many Cabinet members here to welcome their newest colleague. I see Secretaries Skinner and Derwinski, and Sec.-designate Madigan. ((Lynn -- One more Illinoisan [ill-eh-NOY-an] and we'll have to move the Cabinet meetings to Chicago!))

I also want to offer my respects to the former Secretaries of Labor who are here: Secretary Usery. Secretary Brock. Secretary McLaughlin. And of course -- Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

And in marking this moment of transition, let me begin by offering our congratulations to Secretary Dole for 25 years of exceptional government service, and our best wishes in her continuing public service as president of the American Red Cross. Secretary Dole -- on behalf of the Department of Labor -- on behalf of the American people -- thank you -- and good luck. \\\

We are here today to introduce the new Secretary of Labor. And we are particularly grateful that many of the distinguished Members of Congress with whom she has served are able to be here with us. We're also glad to see Lane Kirkland. And most of all, it is a distinct and personal pleasure to welcome to Washington the family and friends of this extraordinary woman.

The 16th District of Illinois has great historical significance. It was a site of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates, home of President Ulysses S. Grant, and the birthplace of Ronald Reagan. And it is the district served for 10 years by a woman who is one of the great leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives -- my longtime friend -- America's new Secretary of Labor, Lynn Martin.

Barbara and I have campaigned with her at home in the streets and neighborhoods of Rockford. You should see the love and affection the people who know her best feel for her. And with good cause. Lynn first became involved in politics because -- as a mother and as a teacher -- she knew America's children deserved better -- better schools, better choices, a better future. She's been working to bring about improvements like these all her life. And that's why, during my Inauguration week, I urged a group of 10,000 young people from all across the nation to make Lynn Martin their role model. "Watch her leadership in the United States Congress," I said. "She's tough, she's strong and she exemplifies the very best in public service." \\\

Lynn -- this is a good Department -- with decent and caring people -- and an important mission. I've been here several times -- even visited with the kids in the child care center down the hall. Introduced Bill Brock here back in '85, and Elizabeth in '89. I know what you do here, and all over the country out of your regional offices, and it is important. It includes protecting America's kids against exploitation, helping workers retrain and build skills for the future, safeguarding employees against health and safety hazards, and ensuring the integrity of workers' pensions.

I know Lynn is also committed to reaching out to American workers -- as she told the Senate recently -- to "touching their lives before, during, and after their years in the labor force."

Now those are the thoughts of a very dedicated and caring woman. Matched by her exceptional talents, they promise that Secretary Martin will help make the American workplace safer, healthier, and more secure -- and serve the Department and the country as a powerful force for good.

A few months ago, I listened as Lynn told an Illinois gathering about how, almost 30 years ago, she held her little girl Julia up above the crowd as President John F. Kennedy drove by. Lynn said: "If only once in her life, I wanted her to be able to say she had seen a President of the United States."

Today, that little girl is the fine young woman we see doing such a superb job up here. [[JULIA IS MAKING OPENING REMARKS]] And that young mother is America's newest Secretary of Labor. \\\

Just the other day, Lynn remarked that the "dream is alive in places you least expect to find it." That's so true. Lynn Martin is the American dream. And she inspires it in others.

Madame Secretary -- congratulations, good luck, and God bless you. \\\

And now I would invite your husband, United States District Court Judge Harry Leinenweber, with the assistance of your father, to administer the oath of office. Judge Leinenweber.

#