

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

---

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

---

OA/ID Number: 13559
Folder ID Number: 13559-013

---

Folder Title:
Republican Inner Circle Luncheon 3/18/91 [OA 6031]

---

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	7	2

---

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 14, 1991

91 MAR 15 12:36

Inner Circle

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAVID DEMAREST AD

FROM: BETH HINCHLIFFE

SUBJECT: INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON

On Monday, March 18, you will address approximately 1200 major donors at the Republican "Inner Circle" Luncheon. You will arrive at the Omni-Shoreham at 11:30 for photos, and begin speaking at about 11:50.

You will be introduced by the group's new Chairman, Senator Phil Gramm. Also at the head table with you will be his wife, Wendy; and Master of Ceremonies Willard Scott.

This year's conference's theme is "A Salute to America," and the luncheon theme is "A Salute to our Commander-in-Chief." The audience is described as consisting of "very conservative, very partisan supporters who want to cheer." So your remarks (7 minutes, cards, closed press) begin with reference to the Gulf, then expand to the idea of patriotism. Patriotism is then the lead-in to a discussion of your domestic agenda and the vision behind it -- concentrating on conservative, family values. The speech issues a call to action for new nationwide unity to come up with creative solutions for domestic issues.

*2 sets
cards*

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 3 p.m.
INNER

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
Omni Shoreham
March 18, 1991, 11:30 a.m.

Thanks, Phil. It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support meant a great deal to Barbara and me. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons. Americans want to celebrate -- not war, but our commitment to doing what's right. I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". The troops of Desert Storm not only helped rescue a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty illuminated our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

2

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

They were not ~~only willing to die for our country~~; they are also willing to ~~live for it~~ -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's ~~what's making Americans cheer~~. And ~~that's the call we will follow~~.

~~We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be.~~ When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

We laid the foundations last year for a quiet revolution in the way in which we solve our problems. Our child care bill lets parents choose which places can best care for their children. Our Clean Air Act includes market reforms that had been discussed for years, but never had been acted on. Our housing bill offers housing tenants the promise of home ownership. And our budget agreement placed real caps on spending. If you want to know why Congress is talking about holding spending below the inflation rate this year, look at the agreement. Despite what some people say, that agreement derailed the tax-and-spend gravy train. And our reforms told the American people: We trust you. We believe that you know how best to solve your problems.

This year we want to build on those successes. I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. Our package will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package and drug bill. A fairer America -- with a Civil Rights Bill that invites people to fight prejudice together, rather than to sue one another. A smarter America -- with greater freedom of choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy. A more mobile America, with a highway bill that more than triples the size of our interstate highway system.

good

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- an America free to express its decency, optimism and ingenuity.

limited

~~We need to understand that Americans are tired of fighting one another. We all want the same things: safe streets, good schools, successful children. But we need programs that work -- not just programs that sound good. Every time Washington tries to impose virtue on the nation,~~ <sup>by adding the committee with mandated</sup> benefits ~~people look for loopholes.~~

~~We don't need laws to make us do the right things. Just look around this room. When I look out and see the faces I know, I'll~~ <sup>be</sup> ~~tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency.~~

to mind

At one point in the movie, "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

4

That's what we need to celebrate -- our natural belief in unlimited possibilities.

And we have to start with the family. Our most precious resource. <sup>Trust</sup> ~~People tell me~~ of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that young American men and women are still ~~be~~ the finest in the world. We have to stop hiding our thousands of points of light beneath a bushel. We ought to celebrate the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall." ~~Rationalism~~ ~~-- not flag-burning~~. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

5

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this new era together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 2 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support meant a great deal to Barbara and me. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. ~~Thanks.~~

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons. Americans want to celebrate -- not war, but our commitment to doing what's right. I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". The troops of Desert Storm not only helped rescue a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty illuminated our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

They were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we will follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

We laid the foundations last year for a quiet revolution in the way in which we solve our problems. Our child care bill lets parents choose which places can best care for their children. Our Clean Air Act includes market reforms that had been discussed for years, but never had been acted on. Our housing bill offers housing tenants the promise of home ownership. And our budget agreement placed real caps on spending. If you want to know why Congress is talking about holding spending below the inflation rate this year, look at the agreement. Despite what some people say, that agreement derailed the tax-and-spend gravy train. And our reforms told the American people: We trust you. We believe that you know how best to solve your problems.

This year we want to build on those successes. I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. Our package will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package and drug bill. A fairer America -- with a Civil Rights Bill that invites people to fight prejudice together, rather than to sue one another. A smarter America -- with greater freedom of choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy. A more mobile America, with a highway bill that more than triples the size of our interstate highway system.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- an America free to express its decency, optimism and ingenuity.

We need to understand that Americans are tired of fighting one another. We all want the same things: safe streets, good schools, successful children. But we need programs that work -- not just programs that sound good. Every time Washington tries to impose virtue on the nation, people look for loopholes. ~~Laws that demand "goodness" usually prevent it.~~

Just look around this room. When I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency.

At one point in the movie, "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need to celebrate -- our natural belief in unlimited possibilities.

And we have to start with the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that young American men and women are still be the finest in the world. We have to stop hiding our thousands of points of light beneath a bushel. We ought to celebrate the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall." Patriotism -- not flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this ~~next battle~~ New Era together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 12 P2: 48

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH OK	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Carney	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 12 P2:48

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH ok	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON _____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Carney	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
 Assistant to the President
 and Staff Secretary
 Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

Dave Corney

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

*Too much
Gulf*

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

*talk
100 day plan
educ.
energy*

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

*more
domestic*

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 13 P3:10

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See comments

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st Century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

✓ scully
FS178

✓

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

91 MAR 13 12:20

March 13, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR
COMMUNICATIONS AND DIRECTOR OF SPEECHWRITING

FROM:  GREGORY S. WALDEN
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Republican Inner Circle Luncheon

The Counsel's Office has no legal objection to the above captioned subject matter. See attached page 3 for comments.

Attachment

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not [court-approved] flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

*Is this necessary?
We're against flag burning, even if courts are opposed. Are we saying the courts are not patriotic? - would delete.*

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 13 P2:54 MAR 12 1991

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious <sup>resource</sup> resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 13 A 8:36

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

March 13, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

The NSC staff concurs with the draft presidential remarks as amended.

Brent Scowcroft
Brent Scowcroft

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

cc: Phillip D. Brady

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only <sup>helped</sup> rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

Document No. 219891SS

91 MAR 13 A10: 15

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 3/12/91

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*Please see suggestions
3/13/91*

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLEPRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart.

And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

Washington
I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a ~~safer~~ <sup>Jugs?</sup> safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

And ambitious but achievable national goals we worked with the country.

add: our housing initiative to give people hope, and our...

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM
91 MAR 13 P4:06

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

NO COMMENTS. THANKS.
HOLLY WILLIAMSON HW
3-13-91

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 13 All: 31

DATE: 3/12/91

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD 	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

No Comment

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

OK, S.R.

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 MAR 12 P2:48

DATE: 3/12/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3/13/91 4:00 p.m.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON - 3/18/91

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH ok	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Corney	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 13, with a copy to this office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

91 MAR 12 PM 2:06

(Hinchliffe/Cawley)
March 11, 1991 1 p.m.
CIRCLE

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON
March 18, 1991

It's great to see so many friends here -- I go back quite a few years with a lot of you. And I want to tell you -- you're the ones who keep this party going. And I also want to take a minute to tell you something personally. Your prayers and letters of support -- I knew they were coming in from all over the country and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. And today's ad in The Times. It meant a lot to me. Thanks.

I hope you know you're really in store for something, with Phil as your Chairman. Wendy says she imagines on his first day in heaven, he'd tell St. Peter: "I'll reorganize your choir. We need 10,000 each sopranos, altos and tenors." St. Peter will say: "What about the basses?" "Oh," Phil will say, "I'll sing bass."

And Willard. Looking at that face makes me remember what I heard a couple of weeks ago -- that Willard Scott must be the most extraordinary man in America. Not only did he do the weather every morning, but he still found time to run the war.

But we can't let any opportunity go past without paying tribute to our real American heroes. Dick Cheney, Colin Powell, Willard's lookalike Norman Schwarzkopf, and those servicemen and women who spoke with the power of their very lives for decency, for morality, and for humanity.

There's a terrific spirit alive in the country right now -- this country that's draped in flags and decked in yellow ribbons.

Americans want to celebrate -- I don't have to tell you that, I'm thrilled by your theme -- "A Salute to America". And maybe it's because the troops of Desert Storm not only rescued a nation abroad; they also transformed a nation at home. That confidence, that quiet pride, that sense of duty showed us a glimpse into our better selves. We liked what we saw. We want to see more.

And we will, because the lesson of those servicemen and women who stood tall and withstood all -- was that Americans have integrity and courage and strength. Together we can do anything.

For they were not only willing to die for our country: they are also willing to truly live for it -- every day of their lives. That's what's inspired us. That's what's making Americans cheer. And that's the call we're going to follow.

We love America for what it is. But perhaps we love it even more for what it will be. When I spoke to Congress, I introduced our new domestic agenda -- our vision of the America we'll forge together. An America whose economy is bursting upward. An America whose children are prepared for the 21st century.

I'm calling on Congress to pass our proposals for reform and renewal as quickly as possible. For our bills will make this a safer America -- with our comprehensive crime package. A fairer America -- with our Civil Rights Bill. A smarter America -- with expanded choice in education. A more efficient America -- with our National Energy Strategy and our highway bill.

And, above all, the legacy of this administration and of the Republican party must be -- a more caring America.

We need to launch a new war, you and I. A battle for our kids' futures. When I talked to so many of you a few minutes ago, and when I look out and see the faces I know, I'll tell you what words come to mind. Honesty and decency. And that's exactly what we've got to instill in our kids.

At one point in a movie called "Awakenings," a fellow who's been asleep for decades wakes up and has the whole world in front of him. When his doctor asks him what he wants to do that day, his face breaks into a huge grin and he shouts: "Everything!"

That's what we need in America -- that belief in unlimited possibilities.

And I tell you where we have to start. With the family. Our most precious resource. People tell me of lost kids, stoned on drink or drugs or emptiness. Kids who are isolated, underachieving, uncaring. Well, I look at Desert Storm and I see that American kids can still be the finest in the world. But we have to reclaim the values our country was founded upon. With a national call to action that emphasizes family -- not alienation. Right and wrong -- not "moral free fall". Patriotism -- not court-approved flag-burning. Responsibility, hard work, self-discipline.

And it's in the family that those values take root. Where kids learn they can -- and they must -- control their own lives. Where they learn that character means the courage to reach for dreams. For to make it through this world, we must each navigate by the dictates of our own inner moral compass. The family must shape that compass early. That's how our children will thrive -

- and how our nation will survive.

And that's the spirit that's so richly in the air during this great celebration of patriotism. From border to border, sea to sea, Americans are saying: We believe in ourselves and in our future. We're going to make this the best country it can be. We can do it. We are Americans.

You can carry this call across the country. You can live the example and spread the message so that when Americans speak with their ballots in the fall of 1992, they will say: We're voting for men and women who know what we feel, what we believe. We're voting for men and women who care about our heartlands and our heartaches. We're voting for men and women who will return the moral fibre to this country. We're voting for Republicans.

Thank you again for your support -- your loyalty, your commitment, and your faith. Let's enter this next battle together, with strength and pride, knowing that we will win. And may God bless the United States of America.

# # #

REPUBLICAN INNER CIRCLE LUNCHEON \ OMNI SHOREHAM
MARCH 18, 1991 \ 11:30 A. M.

THANKS, PHIL [GRAMM]. IT'S GREAT TO SEE SO MANY FRIENDS HERE -- I GO BACK QUITE A FEW YEARS WITH A LOT OF YOU. AND I WANT TO TELL YOU -- YOU'RE THE ONES WHO KEEP THIS PARTY GOING. \

AND I ALSO WANT TO TAKE A MINUTE TO TELL YOU SOMETHING PERSONALLY. YOUR PRAYERS AND LETTERS OF SUPPORT MEANT A GREAT DEAL TO BARBARA AND ME. I WANT TO THANK YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART. \

- 2 -

I HOPE YOU KNOW YOU'RE REALLY IN STORE FOR SOMETHING, WITH PHIL [GRAMM] AS YOUR CHAIRMAN. WENDY SAYS SHE IMAGINES THAT ON HIS FIRST DAY IN HEAVEN, HE'D TELL ST. PETER: "I'LL REORGANIZE YOUR CHOIR. WE NEED 10,000 EACH SOPRANOS, ALTOS AND TENORS." ST. PETER WILL SAY: "WHAT ABOUT THE BASSES?" "OH," PHIL WILL RESPOND, "I'LL SING BASS." \

AND WILLARD. LOOKING AT THAT FACE MAKES ME REMEMBER WHAT I HEARD A COUPLE OF WEEKS AGO -- THAT WILLARD SCOTT MUST BE THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MAN IN AMERICA. NOT ONLY DID HE DO THE WEATHER EVERY MORNING, BUT HE STILL FOUND TIME TO RUN THE WAR. \\\

BUT WE CAN'T LET ANY OPPORTUNITY GO PAST WITHOUT PAYING TRIBUTE TO OUR REAL AMERICAN HEROES.

DICK CHENEY, \\\ COLIN POWELL, \\\ WILLARD'S LOOKALIKE NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF, \\\ AND THOSE SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN WHO SPOKE WITH THE POWER OF THEIR VERY LIVES FOR DECENCY, FOR MORALITY, AND FOR HUMANITY. \\\

THERE'S A TERRIFIC SPIRIT ALIVE IN THE COUNTRY RIGHT NOW -- THIS COUNTRY THAT'S DRAPED IN FLAGS AND DECKED IN YELLOW RIBBONS. AMERICANS WANT TO CELEBRATE -- NOT WAR, BUT OUR COMMITMENT TO DOING WHAT'S RIGHT. I DON'T HAVE TO TELL YOU THAT, I'M THRILLED BY YOUR THEME -- "A SALUTE TO AMERICA".

THE TROOPS OF DESERT STORM NOT ONLY HELPED RESCUE A NATION ABROAD -- THEY ALSO TRANSFORMED A NATION AT HOME. THAT CONFIDENCE, THAT QUIET PRIDE, THAT SENSE OF DUTY ILLUMINATED OUR BETTER SELVES. WE LIKED WHAT WE SAW. WE WANT TO SEE MORE. \\\

AND WE WILL, BECAUSE THE LESSON OF THOSE SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN WHO STOOD TALL AND WITHSTOOD ALL -- WAS THAT AMERICANS HAVE INTEGRITY AND COURAGE AND STRENGTH. TOGETHER WE CAN DO ANYTHING. \\\

WHEN I SPOKE TO CONGRESS, I INTRODUCED OUR NEW DOMESTIC AGENDA -- OUR VISION OF THE AMERICA WE'LL FORGE TOGETHER. AN AMERICA WHOSE ECONOMY IS BURSTING UPWARD. AN AMERICA WHOSE CHILDREN ARE PREPARED FOR THE 21ST CENTURY.

LAST YEAR, WE LAID THE FOUNDATIONS LAST YEAR FOR A QUIET REVOLUTION IN THE WAY IN WHICH WE SOLVE OUR PROBLEMS.

OUR CHILD CARE BILL LETS PARENTS CHOOSE WHICH PLACES CAN BEST CARE FOR THEIR CHILDREN.

OUR CLEAN AIR ACT INCLUDES MARKET REFORMS THAT HAD BEEN DISCUSSED FOR YEARS, BUT NEVER HAD BEEN ACTED ON.

OUR HOUSING BILL OFFERS HOUSING TENANTS THE PROMISE OF HOME OWNERSHIP.

AND OUR BUDGET AGREEMENT PLACES REAL CAPS ON SPENDING. IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHY CONGRESS IS TALKING ABOUT HOLDING SPENDING BELOW THE INFLATION RATE THIS YEAR, LOOK AT THAT AGREEMENT.

DESPITE WHAT SOME PEOPLE SAY, THAT AGREEMENT DERAILED THE TAX-AND-SPEND GRAVY TRAIN. AND OUR REFORMS TOLD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE -- WE TRUST YOU. WE BELIEVE THAT YOU KNOW HOW BEST TO SOLVE YOUR PROBLEMS. \\\

THIS YEAR WE WANT TO BUILD ON ALL OF THOSE SUCCESSES. I'M CALLING ON CONGRESS TO PASS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE OUR PROPOSALS FOR REFORM AND RENEWAL.

OUR PACKAGE WILL MAKE THIS A SAFER AMERICA -- WITH OUR COMPREHENSIVE CRIME PACKAGE AND DRUG BILL.

A SMARTER AMERICA -- WITH GREATER FREEDOM OF CHOICE IN EDUCATION.

A MORE EFFICIENT AMERICA -- WITH OUR NATIONAL ENERGY STRATEGY.

A MORE MOBILE AMERICA -- WITH A HIGHWAY BILL THAT MORE THAN TRIPLES THE SIZE OF OUR INTERSTATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM.

AND A FAIRER AMERICA -- WITH A CIVIL RIGHTS BILL
THAT INVITES PEOPLE TO BATTLE PREJUDICE TOGETHER, RATHER THAN TO SUE ONE ANOTHER. \\\

FRANKLY, I THINK THAT AMERICANS ARE TIRED OF FIGHTING ONE ANOTHER. WE ALL WANT THE SAME THINGS -- SAFE STREETS, GOOD SCHOOLS, SUCCESSFUL CHILDREN. BUT WE NEED PROGRAMS THAT WORK -- NOT JUST PROGRAMS THAT SOUND GOOD.

EVERY TIME WASHINGTON TRIES TO IMPOSE VIRTUE ON THE NATION BY SADDLING THE COUNTRY WITH MANDATED BENEFITS -- PEOPLE LOOK FOR LOOPHOLES INSTEAD OF FOR INCENTIVES.

\\

AT ONE POINT IN THE MOVIE "AWAKENINGS," A FELLOW WHO'S BEEN ASLEEP FOR DECADES WAKES UP AND HAS THE WHOLE WORLD IN FRONT OF HIM. WHEN HIS DOCTOR ASKS HIM WHAT HE WANTS TO DO THAT DAY, HIS FACE BREAKS INTO A HUGE GRIN AND HE SHOUTS: "EVERYTHING!"

THAT'S WHAT WE NEED TO CELEBRATE -- OUR NATURAL BELIEF IN UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES. \\

AND WE HAVE TO START WITH THE FAMILY. OUR MOST PRECIOUS RESOURCE.

THINK OF LOST KIDS, STONED ON DRINK OR DRUGS OR EMPTINESS. KIDS WHO ARE ISOLATED, UNDERACHIEVING, UNCARING. WELL, I LOOK AT DESERT STORM AND I SEE THAT YOUNG AMERICAN MEN AND WOMEN ARE STILL THE FINEST IN THE WORLD. WE HAVE TO STOP HIDING OUR THOUSANDS OF POINTS OF LIGHT BENEATH A BUSHEL. \\

WE OUGHT TO CELEBRATE THE VALUES OUR COUNTRY WAS FOUNDED UPON. WITH A NATIONAL CALL TO ACTION THAT EMPHASIZES FAMILY -- NOT ALIENATION. RIGHT AND WRONG
-- NOT "MORAL FREE FALL." RESPONSIBILITY, HARD WORK, SELF-DISCIPLINE. \\\

AND IT'S IN THE FAMILY THAT THOSE VALUES TAKE ROOT.
WHERE KIDS LEARN THEY CAN -- AND THEY MUST -- CONTROL
THEIR OWN LIVES. WHERE THEY LEARN THAT CHARACTER MEANS THE COURAGE TO REACH FOR DREAMS.

FOR TO MAKE IT THROUGH THIS WORLD, WE MUST EACH NAVIGATE BY THE DICTATES OF OUR OWN INNER MORAL COMPASS. THE FAMILY MUST SHAPE THAT COMPASS EARLY.
THAT'S HOW OUR CHILDREN WILL THRIVE -- AND HOW OUR NATION WILL SURVIVE. \\\

FROM BORDER TO BORDER, SEA TO SEA, OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE SAYING: WE BELIEVE IN OURSELVES AND IN OUR FUTURE. WE'RE GOING TO MAKE THIS THE BEST COUNTRY IT CAN BE. WE CAN DO IT. WE ARE AMERICANS. \\\

YOU CAN CARRY THIS CALL ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

YOU CAN LIVE THE EXAMPLE AND SPREAD THE MESSAGE SO THAT WHEN AMERICANS SPEAK WITH THEIR BALLOTS IN THE FALL OF 1992, THEY WILL SAY: WE'RE VOTING FOR MEN AND WOMEN WHO KNOW WHAT WE FEEL, WHAT WE BELIEVE. \

WE'RE VOTING FOR MEN AND WOMEN WHO CARE ABOUT OUR HEARTLANDS AND OUR HEARTACHES. \ WE'RE VOTING FOR MEN AND WOMEN WHO WILL RETURN THE MORAL FIBER TO THIS COUNTRY. \ WE'RE VOTING FOR REPUBLICANS. \\\

THANK YOU AGAIN FOR YOUR SUPPORT -- YOUR LOYALTY -- YOUR COMMITMENT -- AND YOUR FAITH. LET'S ENTER THIS NEW ERA TOGETHER, WITH STRENGTH AND WITH PRIDE, KNOWING THAT WE CAN DO ANYTHING -- WE ARE AMERICANS.

AND MAY GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

# # #