PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BASKETBALL CEREMONIES
ROSE GARDEN
MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1991

Good morning. Mike Krzyzewski (shi-SHEF-ski) -- Coach K. -
- graduate of the West Point class of 1969. I understand a few of your academy classmates are with us today, including Bob Kimmitt, a key member of our State Department team. Blue Devil players and staff. / Tennessee Coach Pat Summit and her assistants. And the players who helped Tennessee reach the summit. Representatives of the Midnight Basketball League -- points of light for an entire nation -- and of course Executive Director Van Standifer. High school championship teams from DeMatha High school, coached by Morgan Wootten and from Madison High School, coached by Pat Deegan. It is a pleasure to welcome all of you to the White House. //

Just a few feet from here is where Yogi Berra once said of a
State Dinner, "How could you get a conversation started in there?
Everybody was talking too much." //

Well, today all of America is talking. They are talking about your two teams, and your incredible championships. They're calling it Blue Devil Destiny. Or yet another Volunteer victory.

Consider, first, how Tennessee won its third title in five years. Showing what Hemmingway termed "grace under pressure" -- that depth and quickness, shooting, intelligence, poise and strength of character, which embodies a champion. //

In the Good Book it reads, "And a little child shall lead them." Here, the little child was Pat Summit's 6-month-old son, Tyler. / Before the title game against Virginia, Pat dressed him in a T-shirt with a Cavaliers mascot crossed out -- then presented her son to the team. / The gift helped the Vols upset Virginia -- in overtime. Mission Impossible became Mission Achieved. //

Dena (DEE-nah) Head spurred that mission -- scoring 28 points in the championship game. So did teammate Daedra (DAY-dra) Charles -- 19 points and 12 rebounds. Jodie Adams, whose last-second three-pointers helped get the Lady Vols to the title game. Peggy Evans, a sixth woman -- great center; Lisa Harrison -- great passer, and Kelli Casteel, the "blue collar" Lady Vol, and Most Valuable Player in this year's MidEast Regional. Together, you and your teammates helped Pat win her third NCAA championship title -- more than any coach but John Wooden and Adolph Rupp. / She's fast becoming the most famous legend to come out of Tennessee since Davey Crockett. //

Then, there's the pride of Tennessee's neighboring state. Five times in the last six years -- including the last four -- Duke had made the Final Four. This year, you made a good thing even better. / First, you stunned unbeaten UNLV in one of the greatest games in NCAA tournament history. //

Next, you beat Kansas in the title game with one of the youngest teams in Coach K's tenure -- two seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and five freshmen. //

((Like fans across America, I marveled at the wizardry of the Blue Devils all year. // Actually, when I was in college, I, too, could dribble a ball with either hand, behind my back, and through my legs. // Which got me thrown out of a lot of bowling alleys.)) //

Bobby Hurley never had that quandary. His craft is basketball, and he is a virtuoso on the court. So was Christian Laettner, the Final Four's Most Valuable Player. Grant Hill, Thomas Hill added to the Blue Devils' hit parade. And seniors Greg Koubek (KOO-bek) and Clay Buckley have set a record that can never be broken: They made it to four Final Fours. Together, the Blue Devils slam-dunked opponents and seized Duke's first-ever championship.

Coach K, like Pat Summit, you showed that nice guys can finish first. Moreover, your team, like Pat's, proved that scholar-athlete is not a contradiction in terms. / Let me repeat what you said about your players: "Everything in their lives doesn't hinge on a basket or a rebound. So they can rationalize when there's a roadblock, when maybe they should stay on the same avenue a little longer." //

At Duke and Tennessee, that avenue leads to graduation. Both schools have high academic standards. Each recruits aggressively, but honestly. Both stay within the rules. / Over the last decade, more than 90 percent of Duke and Tennessee players got their diplomas. Both teams have higher graduation rates than the student bodies at their institutions. Like many of your fellow alumni, you players will make an even greater difference after graduation than before. //

I ought to tell the rest of our audience that I just met with the players of both teams and asked them to serve as missionaries for educational excellence -- to help energize our educational system at all levels. I'm proud to report that they agreed -- enthusiastically.

In a real sense, the student-athletes from Duke and Tennessee have become a metaphor for our national education strategy -- a long-term movement that touches every school and student in America. You set high goals, and you reached them. You excelled in the classroom. You demonstrated the kind of commitment and determination that we hope all students will adopt in the future. You showed why education is our most enduring legacy -- vital to everything we are and can become. //

For that, I salute you. Thank you for what you've done, and are doing today. God bless you, and the United States of America.

MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1991 \ 10:25 A.M.

GOOD MORNING. MIKE KRZYZEWSKI (SHI-SHEF-SKI) -- COACH K. -- GRADUATE OF THE WEST POINT CLASS OF 1969.
I UNDERSTAND A FEW OF YOUR ACADEMY CLASSMATES ARE WITH US TODAY, INCLUDING BOB KIMMITT, A KEY MEMBER OF OUR STATE DEPARTMENT TEAM. BLUE DEVIL PLAYERS AND STAFF. / TENNESSEE COACH PAT SUMMIT AND HER ASSISTANTS. AND THE PLAYERS WHO HELPED TENNESSEE REACH THE SUMMIT.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MIDNIGHT BASKETBALL LEAGUE -- POINTS OF LIGHT FOR AN ENTIRE NATION -- AND OF COURSE
THE LEAGUE'S EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR VAN STANDIFER. HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS FROM DEMATHA HIGH SCHOOL, COACHED BY MORGAN WOOTTEN AND FROM MADISON HIGH SCHOOL, COACHED BY PAT DEEGAN. IT IS A PLEASURE TO WELCOME ALL OF YOU TO THE WHITE HOUSE. //

JUST A FEW FEET FROM HERE IS WHERE YOGI BERRA ONCE SAID OF A STATE DINNER, "HOW COULD YOU GET A CONVERSATION STARTED IN THERE? EVERYBODY WAS TALKING TOO MUCH." //

WELL, TODAY ALL OF AMERICA IS TALKING. THEY ARE TALKING ABOUT YOUR TWO TEAMS, AND YOUR INCREDIBLE CHAMPIONSHIPS. THEY'RE CALLING IT BLUE DEVIL DESTINY. OR YET ANOTHER VOLUNTEER VICTORY. //

CONSIDER, FIRST, HOW TENNESSEE WON ITS THIRD TITLE IN FIVE YEARS. SHOWING WHAT HEMMINGWAY TERMED "GRACE UNDER PRESSURE" --THAT DEPTH AND QUICKNESS, SHOOTING, INTELLIGENCE, POISE AND STRENGTH OF CHARACTER, WHICH EMBODIES A CHAMPION. //

BEFORE THE TITLE GAME AGAINST VIRGINIA, PAT DRESSED HIM IN A T-SHIRT WITH A CAVALIERS MASCOT CROSSED OUT -- THEN PRESENTED HER SON TO THE TEAM. / THE GIFT HELPED THE VOLS UPSET VIRGINIA -- IN OVERTIME. MISSION IMPOSSIBLE BECAME MISSION ACHIEVED. //

JODIE ADAMS, WHOSE LAST-SECOND THREE-POINTERS HELPED GET THE LADY VOLS TO THE TITLE GAME. PEGGY EVANS, A SIXTH WOMAN -- GREAT CENTER; LISA HARRISON -- GREAT PASSER, AND KELLI CASTEEL, THE "BLUE COLLAR" LADY VOL, AND MOST VALUABLE PLAYER IN THIS YEAR'S MIDEAST REGIONAL. TOGETHER, YOU AND YOUR TEAMMATES HELPED PAT WIN HER THIRD NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE -- MORE THAN ANY COACH BUT JOHN WOODEN AND ADOLPH RUPP. / SHE'S FAST BECOMING THE MOST FAMOUS LEGEND TO COME OUT OF TENNESSEE SINCE DAVEY CROCKETT. //

THEN, THERE'S THE PRIDE OF TENNESSEE'S NEIGHBORING STATE. FIVE TIMES IN THE LAST SIX YEARS -- INCLUDING THE LAST FOUR -- DUKE HAD MADE THE FINAL FOUR. THIS YEAR, YOU MADE A GOOD THING EVEN BETTER. / FIRST, YOU STUNNED UNBEATEN UNLV IN ONE OF THE GREATEST GAMES IN NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY. //

NEXT, YOU BEAT KANSAS IN THE TITLE GAME WITH ONE OF THE YOUNGEST TEAMS IN COACH K'S TENURE -- TWO SENIORS, THREE JUNIORS, THREE SOPHOMORES, AND FIVE FRESHMEN. //

BOBBY HURLEY NEVER HAD THAT QUANDARY. HIS CRAFT IS BASKETBALL, AND HE IS A VIRTUOSO ON THE COURT. SO WAS CHRISTIAN LAETTNER, THE FINAL FOUR'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER. GRANT HILL, THOMAS HILL ADDED TO THE BLUE DEVILS' HIT PARADE.

AND SENIORS GREG KOUBEK (K00-BEK) AND CLAY BUCKLEY HAVE SET A RECORD THAT CAN NEVER BE BROKEN: THEY MADE IT TO FOUR FINAL FOURS. TOGETHER, THE BLUE DEVILS SLAM-DUNKED OPPONENTS AND SEIZED DUKE'S FIRST-EVER CHAMPIONSHIP.

COACH K, LIKE PAT SUMMIT, YOU SHOWED THAT NICE GUYS CAN FINISH FIRST. MOREOVER, YOUR TEAM, LIKE PAT'S, PROVED THAT SCHOLAR-ATHLETE IS NOT A CONTRADICTION IN TERMS. /

LET ME REPEAT WHAT YOU SAID ABOUT YOUR PLAYERS:
"EVERYTHING IN THEIR LIVES DOESN'T HINGE ON A BASKET OR A REBOUND. SO THEY CAN RATIONALIZE WHEN THERE'S A ROADBLOCK, WHEN MAYBE THEY SHOULD STAY ON THE SAME AVENUE A LITTLE LONGER." //

OVER THE LAST DECADE, MORE THAN 90 PERCENT OF DUKE AND TENNESSEE PLAYERS GOT THEIR DIPLOMAS. BOTH TEAMS HAVE HIGHER GRADUATION RATES THAN THE STUDENT BODIES AT THEIR INSTITUTIONS. LIKE MANY OF YOUR FELLOW ALUMNI, YOU PLAYERS WILL MAKE AN EVEN GREATER DIFFERENCE AFTER GRADUATION THAN BEFORE. //

I OUGHT TO TELL THE REST OF OUR AUDIENCE THAT I JUST MET WITH THE PLAYERS OF BOTH TEAMS AND ASKED THEM TO CONTINUE THEIR VOLUNTEER EFFORTS TOWARD EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE -- TO HELP ENERGIZE OUR EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM AT ALL LEVELS. I'M PROUD TO REPORT THAT THEY AGREED -- ENTHUSIASTICALLY.

YOU SET HIGH GOALS, AND YOU REACHED THEM. YOU EXCELLED IN THE CLASSROOM. YOU DEMONSTRATED THE KIND OF COMMITMENT AND DETERMINATION THAT WE HOPE ALL STUDENTS WILL ADOPT IN THE FUTURE. YOU SHOWED WHY EDUCATION IS OUR MOST ENDURING LEGACY -- VITAL TO EVERYTHING WE ARE AND CAN BECOME. //

FOR THAT, I SALUTE YOU. THANK YOU FOR WHAT YOU'VE DONE, AND ARE DOING TODAY.

I HOPE YOU'LL NOW JOIN ME ON THE BASKETBALL COURT. GOD BLESS YOU, AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MEMORANDUM FOR TONY SNOW

FROM: JENNIFER GROSSMAN
SUBJECT: DUKE/TENNESSEE FACT-CHECK

- 1) page one, graph one, acknowledgments: two local high schools will be there -- the Boy's Championship team from DeMatha High School with Coach Morgan Wootten (WU ten); and the Girl's Championship team from Madison High School with Coach Pat Deegan. Also, we don't know yet if the Midnight Basketball players will be from Hyattsville or D.C., so "representatives of the Midnight Basketball League" would be better. President and Executive Director of the League, Van Standifer, will also be in attendance.
- 2) page two, graph two, first sentence: "Dena" not "Dana" and pronunciation (DEE nah). Also, pronunciation on Daedra: (DAY dra).
- 3) page two, graph three, fourth sentence: rather than "greatest upsets in NCAA history," Duke's sports info suggests "greatest games in NCAA history."
- 4) page two, graph four, last sentence: I have a feeling this bowling joke is going to sink like a lead bowling ball.
- 5) page three, graph one, fourth sentence: "most Valuable Player" should be all capitalized, i.e. "Most Valuable Player."
- 6) page three, graph two, second sentence: "your teams," if we're referring to Coach K., why is it plural rather than "your team"? Also, the quote that follows is incorrect, it should read: "Everything in their lives doesn't hinge on a basket or a rebound. So they can rationalize when there's a roadblock, when maybe they should stay on the same avenue a little longer." Key words to be changed: "their," "when," "when."
- 7) page three, graph three, fifth sentence -- NOTE: Tennessee has a 100% graduation rate. I don't know how you want to finesse that.

- 8) page four, graph one, first sentence: This is not how the quote reads. It should read: "..the Youth of a Nation are the trustees of Posterity."

And the players who helped Tennessee reach the summit. It is a pleasure to welcome you to the White House. //

Just a few feet from here is where Yogi Berra once said of a State Dinner, "How could you get a conversation started in there? Everybody was talking too much." //

Well, today all of America is talking. They are talking about your two teams, and your incredible championships. They're calling it Blue Devil Destiny. Or yet another Volunteer victory. //

Consider, first, how Tennessee won its third title in five years. Showing what Hemmingway termed "grace under pressure" -- that depth and quickness, shooting, intelligence, poise and strength of character, which embodies a champion. //

in a T-shirt with a Cavaliers mascot crossed out -- then presented her son to the team. / The gift helped the Vols upset Virginia -- in overtime. Mission Impossible became Mission Achieved. //

Dana Head spurred that mission -- scoring 28 points in the championship game. So did teammate Daedra Charles -- 19 points and 12 rebounds. Together, you helped Pat win her third NCAA championship title -- more than any coach but John Wooden and Adolph Rupp. / She's fast becoming the most famous legend to come out of Tennessee since Davey Crockett. //

Then, there's the pride of Tennessee's neighboring state. Five times in the last six years -- including the last four -- Duke had made the Final Four. This year, you made a good thing even better. / First, you stunned unbeaten UNLV in one of the greatest upsets in NCAA history. ((I think Jerry Tarkanian knew he was in trouble when he learned his Rebels had to face Duke. Rumor is that he switched to an aspirin-flavored towel.)) // Next, Duke beat Kansas in the title game with one of the youngest teams in Coach K's tenure -- two seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and five freshmen. //

((Like fans across America, I marveled at the wizardry of the Blue Devils all year. // Actually, when I was in college, I, too, could dribble a ball with either hand, behind my back, and through my legs. // Which got me thrown out of a lot of bowling alleys.)) //

Bobby Hurley never had that quandary. His craft is basketball, and he is a virtuoso on the court. Bill McCaffrey, another general on the court. So was Christian Laettner, the Final Four's most Valuable Player. Grant Hill, Thomas Hill added to the Blue Devils' hit parade. Together, the Blue devils slam-dunked opponents and seized Duke's first-ever championship.

Coach K, like Pat Summit, you showed that nice guys can finish first. Moreover, your teams proved that scholar-athlete is not a contradiction in terms. / Let me repeat your words: "Everything in players' lives doesn't hinge on a basket or a rebound. So when they can rationalize there's a roadblock, then maybe they should stay on the same avenue a little longer." //

(OK)

At Duke and Tennessee, that avenue leads to graduation. Both schools have high academic standards. Each recruits aggressively, but honestly. Both stay within the rules. / Over the last decade, more than 90 percent of Duke and Tennessee players got their diplomas. Like many of your fellow alumni, you will make an even greater difference after graduation than before. //

Needs another paragraph that refers to America 2000, the importance of high standards, working toward a goal excellence in the classroom

In a real sense, you have become a metaphor for our national education strategy -- a long-term movement that touches every school and student in America. Showing why education is our most enduring legacy -- vital to everything we are and can become. //

and on the court etc...

For that, I salute you. And let me leave you with the words of a great British statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, who said:

"Youth is the trustee of our posterity." You are the trustees of America. No Nation could be in better hands. //

Thank you for what you've done, and are doing today. God bless you, and the United States of America.

Mike Krzyzewski -- Coach K. -- a 1969 West Point graduate.
And who has many classmates with us today -- including Bob Kimmitt, whom I know rather well. Blue Devil players and staff.
/ Coach Pat Head Summit and her assistants. And the players who helped Tennessee reach the summit. It is a pleasure to welcome you to the White House. //

Just a few feet from here is where Yogi Berra once said of a
State Dinner, "How could you get a conversation started in there?
Everybody was talking too much." //

Well, today all of America is talking. They are talking about your two teams, and your incredible championships. They're calling it Blue Devil Destiny. Or yet another Volunteer victory.
/ Compared with you, Walter Mitty's was a hum-drum existence. Of your success, even Ripley would disbelieve. //

Consider, first, how Tennessee won its third title in five years. Showing what Hemmingway termed "grace under pressure" -- that depth and quickness, shooting, intelligence, and strength of character, which embodies a champion. //

In the Good Book it reads, "And a little child shall lead them." Here, the little child was Pat Summit's 6-month-old son, Tyler. / Before the title game against Virginia, Pat dressed him

Bobby Hurley never had that quandary. His craft is basketball, and he is a virtuoso on the court. So was Christian Laettner, the Final Four's most Valuable Player. Grand Hillard and Thomas Hill added to the Blue Devils' hit parade. Helping slam-dunk opponents and winning Duke's first-ever championship.

Coach K, like Pat Summit, you showed that nice guys can finish first. PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: BASKETBALL CEREMONIES
MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1991

Mike Krzyzewski (shi-SHEF-ski) -- Coach K. -- a 1969 West Point graduate. And who has many classmates with us today -- including Bob Kimmitt, whom I know rather well. Members of the Hyattsville Midnight Basketball League -- points of light for an entire nation. Blue Devil players and staff. / Coach Pat Head Summit and her assistants. And the players who helped Tennessee reach the summit. It is a pleasure to welcome you to the White House. //

Just a few feet from here is where Yogi Berra once said of a State Dinner, "How could you get a conversation started in there? Everybody was talking too much." //

Well, today all of America is talking. They are talking about your two teams, and your incredible championships. They're calling it Blue Devil Destiny. Or yet another Volunteer victory. //

Consider, first, how Tennessee won its third title in five years. Showing what Hemmingway termed "grace under pressure" -- that depth and quickness, shooting, intelligence, poise and strength of character, which embodies a champion. //

in a T-shirt with a Cavaliers mascot crossed out -- then presented her son to the team. / The gift helped the Vols upset Virginia -- in overtime. Mission Impossible became Mission Achieved. //

Dana Head spurred that mission -- scoring 28 points in the championship game. So did teammate Daedra Charles -- 19 points and 12 rebounds. Together, you helped Pat win her third NCAA championship title -- more than any coach but John Wooden and Adolph Rupp. / She's fast becoming the most famous legend to come out of Tennessee since Davey Crockett. //

Then, there's the pride of Tennessee's neighboring state. Five times in the last six years -- including the last four -- Duke had made the Final Four. This year, you made a good thing even better. / First, you stunned unbeaten UNLV in one of the greatest upsets in NCAA history. ((I think Jerry Tarkanian knew he was in trouble when he learned his Rebels had to face Duke. Rumor is that he switched to an aspirin-flavored towel.)) // Next, Duke beat Kansas in the title game with one of the youngest teams in Coach K's tenure -- two seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and five freshmen. //

((Like fans across America, I marveled at the wizardry of the Blue Devils all year. // Actually, when I was in college, I, too, could dribble a ball with either hand, behind my back, and through my legs. // Which got me thrown out of a lot of bowling alleys.)) //

Bobby Hurley never had that quandary. His craft is basketball, and he is a virtuoso on the court. Bill McCaffrey, another general on the court. So was Christian Laettner, the Final Four's most Valuable Player. Grant Hill, Thomas Hill added to the Blue Devils' hit parade. Together, the Blue Devils slam- ✓ dunked opponents and seized Duke's first-ever championship.

Coach K, like Pat Summit, you showed that nice guys can finish first. Moreover, your teams proved that scholar-athlete is not a contradiction in terms. / Let me repeat your words: "Everything in players' lives doesn't hinge on a basket or a rebound. So when they can rationalize there's a roadblock, then maybe they should stay on the same avenue a little longer." //

At Duke and Tennessee, that avenue leads to graduation. Both schools have high academic standards. Each recruits aggressively, but honestly. Both stay within the rules. / Over the last decade, more than 90 percent of Duke and Tennessee players got their diplomas. Like many of your fellow alumni, you will make an even greater difference after graduation than before. //

In a real sense, you have become a metaphor for our national education strategy -- a long-term movement that touches every school and student in America. Showing why education is our most enduring legacy -- vital to everything we are and can become. //

For that, I salute you. And let me leave you with the words of a great British statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, who said:

"Youth is the trustee of our posterity." You are the trustees of America. No Nation could be in better hands. //

Thank you for what you've done, and are doing today. God bless you, and the United States of America.
