

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):
S; 2015-1015-F

FOIA Number:
S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13583
Folder ID Number: 13583-002

Folder Title:
First Annual Olympic Dinner 10/1/91 [OA 6037]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	17	3	5

91 SEP 31 4:51 PM
WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 10/1/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: ---

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: OLYMPIC DINNER

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

01 SEP 30 P4:55

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW (S)

SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you, William Hybl [HIB-bil] [USOC President].
Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus, and former
Olympians themselves: Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse
Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole,
Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars.
[[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House.
I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan

and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to greet more of the fantastic people in attendance. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment. As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God' bless you and the United States of America.

#

OLYMPIC DINNER \ WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991 \ 7:45 P.M.

THANK YOU, WILLIAM HYBL [HIB-BIL]. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE OLYMPIC CONGRESSIONAL CAUCUS, AND FORMER OLYMPIANS THEMSELVES: BILL BRADLEY, TOM McMILLEN, BEN NIGHTHORSE CAMPBELL. AND IT'S A PLEASURE TO SEE SO MANY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, INCLUDING THE LEADERSHIP: SEN. MITCHELL, SEN. DOLE, SPEAKER FOLEY, MINORITY LEADER MICHEL.

WE HAVE CELEBRITIES OF ALL VARIETIES: OUR MAGNIFICENT ATHLETES. TOO MANY TO NAME.

- 2 -

OUR MEDIA NOTEABLES: PAULA ZAHN AND BOB COSTAS, WINNER OF THE GREAT STUDIO BASKETBALL SHOOT-OUT.

TO THIS DISTINGUISHED AUDIENCE, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: THANK YOU. YOU KNOW, IT'S A PLEASURE TO BE HERE, WITH SO MANY ATHLETES AND FRIENDS OF THE OLYMPICS. //

I REALLY ADMIRE THE MEN AND WOMEN HERE TODAY; ALL THE STARS. ((I'M ESPECIALLY IMPRESSED BY CARL LEWIS. HE RUNS ALMOST AS FAST AS I PLAY GOLF.)) **

TONIGHT'S FUND-RAISER COMBINES THREE OF MY REAL PASSIONS: SPORTS, PUBLIC SERVICE AND EDUCATION. THE SPORTS PART EXPLAINS ITSELF: WHERE ELSE COULD YOU GET SUCH AN INCREDIBLE GROUP OF CHAMPIONS, OTHER THAN THE OLYMPICS ITSELF? WHEN I SAW PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE ATHLETES ON THIS STAGE A FEW MINUTES AGO, I FELT LIKE YAKOV SMIRNOFF. I WANTED TO SHOUT: "WHAT A COUNTRY!"

THE TOUGHEST THING ABOUT AN EVENT LIKE THIS IS NOT BEING ABLE TO PERSONALLY GREET EVERY SINGLE ONE OF YOU.

SO LET ME SAY, ON BEHALF OF THE ATHLETES, THE OLYMPIC MOVEMENT AND THE AMERICAN PUBLIC: THANKS. \\\

THOSE OF YOU WHO CONTRIBUTE SO GENEROUSLY TONIGHT WILL SEE THE RESULTS NEXT YEAR, IN BARCELONA AND ALBERTVILLE. YOU ALSO WILL ENJOY REWARDS IN YEARS TO COME, AS THE AMERICAN PEOPLE BAND TOGETHER TO SUPPORT THE FANTASTIC YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN WHO FORM OUR OLYMPIC TEAMS. WE ALL LOOK FORWARD TO 1996, WHEN ATLANTA WILL HOST THE SUMMER GAMES.

WE WOULDN'T HAVE THE LUXURY OF HOSTING THE GAMES IF PEOPLE LIKE YOU HADN'T GIVEN OF YOURSELVES -- AND IF
THE PEOPLE OF ATLANTA HADN'T WORKED SO HARD TO SHOW THE INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE SOME SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY. \\

ON THE EDUCATION FRONT, I WILL CONTINUE TO PROMOTE A SERIES OF INITIATIVES THAT WILL REVOLUTIONIZE AMERICAN EDUCATION AND MAKE OUR SCHOOLS THE BEST IN THE WORLD. ALSO AS A NATION, WE MUST REMEMBER THAT PHYSICAL FITNESS IMPROVES MENTAL FITNESS, AND VIGOROUS
EXERCISE HELPS PEOPLE ENJOY LONGER, MORE FRUITFUL LIVES.

I SALUTE THOSE OUTSTANDING AMERICANS WHO ARE SERVING ON THE PRESIDENT'S EDUCATION POLICY ADVISORY COMMITTEE, UNDER THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF PAUL O'NEILL; AND I SALUTE THOSE OUTSTANDING AMERICANS SERVING THE COUNCIL ON PHYSICAL FITNESS & SPORTS UNDER CHAIRMAN ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER.

I WOULD ALSO NOTE THAT OUR DISABLED CHAMPIONS PROVE THAT THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A HANDICAP WHEN YOU HAVE A DREAM. //

NEXT YEAR, I HOPE AMERICANS WILL DO MORE THAN JUST ROOT FOR OUR OLYMPIANS: I HOPE THAT OUR CITIZENS -- OF ALL AGES -- WILL FOLLOW OUR ATHLETES' LEAD. I HOPE THEY WILL EXERCISE, COMPETE, AND FEEL THE JOY OF ACCOMPLISHMENT. MANY OF OUR FORMER OLYMPIC CHAMPIONS CONTINUE TO COMPETE -- AND A FEW HAVE EVEN BEGUN TRYING TO RETURN TO THE GAMES.

AND WHY NOT? THE OLYMPIC GAMES OFFER STIRRING PROOF THAT DETERMINED PEOPLE CAN ACCOMPLISH ANYTHING -- INCLUDING REMAINING YOUNG. OUR ATHLETES INSPIRE US. THEY THRILL US. THEY GIVE US HOPE AND JOY.

THEY DESERVE THE BEST. \ \

WE OUGHT TO DO OUR BEST TO ENCOURAGE THEM AS THEY REPRESENT THEIR COUNTRY -- AND THE IDEALS OF THE OLYMPIC MOVEMENT.

CENTURIES AGO, PERSIAN SOLDIERS WONDERED AT THE DETERMINATION OF GREEK ATHLETES. A PERSIAN SOLDIER, TOLD THAT OLYMPIC ATHLETES TRAINED LONG AND HARD SIMPLY TO WIN AN OLIVE WREATH, DECLARED: "WHAT MANNER OF MEN ARE THESE THAT WE ARE FIGHTING? IT IS NOT FOR MONEY THEY CONTEND BUT FOR THE GLORY OF ACHIEVEMENT."

SO IT IS WITH OUR ATHLETES, BUT IT'S NOT ONLY FOR PERSONAL GLORY. IT ALSO IS FOR OUR COUNTRY.

AS OUR ATHLETES FOLLOW THE MOTTO: "FASTER, HIGHER, STRONGER," WE OUGHT TO DO OUR PART TO PRESERVE THE IDEALS OF BROTHERHOOD AND FAIR COMPETITION -- THE STRIVING FOR THE GLORY OF ACHIEVEMENT.

THESE IDEALS MAKE THE OLYMPICS SPECIAL. THESE IDEALS MAKE AN OLYMPIC MEDAL EVERY ATHLETE'S DREAM. TONIGHT, BY CONTRIBUTING TO THE U.S. OLYMPIC COMMITTEE, WE KEEP THESE IDEALS ALIVE AND GIVE OUR YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN A CHANCE TO EXPLORE THEIR OWN ABILITIES -- AND TO ENRICH OUR GREAT COUNTRY.

AGAIN, THANK YOU. KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

#

#

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW TS
SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

N.B. - Jordan may be a no-show

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you, William Hybl [HIB-bil] [USOC President].
Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus, and former
Olympians themselves: Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse
Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole,
Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars.
[[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\

[Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House.
I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan

and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.]

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to greet more of the fantastic people in attendance. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment. As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

91 SEP 30 P4:55

10/1/91

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW TS

SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

*OK
with changes
9*

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you, William Hybl [HIB-bil] [USOC President].
Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus, and former
Olympians themselves: Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse
Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole,
Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you ~~for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.~~

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars.
[[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\\

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House.
I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan

and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to ^{personally} greet ~~more of the fantastic people in attendance~~ ^{every single one of you}. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

~~Our Administration~~ ^{On the education front I will continue to} has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. ^{Also,} As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

I salute those outstanding Americans who are serving on the Pres Advisory Comm. on education under the Chairship of _____; and I salute those outstanding Americans serving Fitness Council under Chm. Schweitzer.

I would also note ³

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, but it's not only for personal glory it is for our country ~~many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment.~~ As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW ^{TS}
SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you, William Hybl [HIB-bil] [USOC President].
Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus, and former
Olympians themselves: Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse
Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole,
Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars.
[[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House.
I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan

and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to greet more of the fantastic people in attendance. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment. As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW ^{TS}
SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you, William Hybl [HIB-bil] [USOC President].
Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus, and former Olympians themselves: Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars. [[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to greet more of the fantastic people in attendance. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment. As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM

SUBJECT: _____
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

See comments

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon

Oly.TS

Draft One

01 SEP 27 P 5:29
September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winners of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars of the past, present and future. I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan representing this nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you, our athletes, on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this ^{is} not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\
✓
✓

You who contribute so generously tonight will enjoy rewards next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. But you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

✓
✓
✓
Scully
x5178

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: TONY SNOW TS
SUBJECT: OLYMPIC DINNER REMARKS

I. SUMMARY

On Tuesday, October 1, at 7:45 p.m., you will give brief remarks at a fundraising dinner for the U.S. Olympic Committee. About 1800 will attend the black tie gala at the Washington Hilton, including 250 members of Congress.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks (6 minutes, on cards) pay tribute to the Olympic athletes and the ideals they represent.

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft Two
September 30, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many members of Congress, including the leadership: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel.

We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent athletes. Too many to name. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

To this distinguished audience, ladies and gentlemen: Thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. [[Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes.]] //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars. [[I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.]] \\

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan and his Olympic teammates representing this nation in Barcelona.

//

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw past, present and future athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people in attendance. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. You also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams. We all look forward to 1996, when Atlanta will host the Summer Games. We wouldn't have the luxury of hosting the games if people like you hadn't given of yourselves - and if the people of Atlanta hadn't worked so hard to show the International Olympic Committee some Southern Hospitality. \\

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

And why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
.

We ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive wreath, declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

So it is with our athletes, many of whom consider an Olympic medal more precious than any other accomplishment. As our own athletes follow the motto: "Faster, higher, stronger," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition -- the striving for the glory of achievement.

These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

add Atlanta

274241ss

Document No. _____

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 SEP 30 AIO: 01

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER

WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM

SUBJECT: _____ TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY Beach 2898 N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930 NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS

Draft One

01 SEP 27 P 5:29
September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

(OCA)
All Democrats

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- (past, present and future.) Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winners of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

(TRON)

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and ~~get~~ ^{compete for} an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

(PORTER)

I really admire the men and women here today; ~~all the stars of the past, present and future.~~ I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, ~~a future Olympian~~ ^{The Chicago Bulls} dropped by the White House. I ~~think~~ ^{know} the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan ^{and his teammates} representing ~~this~~ ^{our} nation in Barcelona. //

(PORTER)

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains

(TRON)
somewhat controversial in that ~~that~~ Isaiah Thomas was left off the team because of his relationship w/ Jordan or so it is.

itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you, our athletes, on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

awkward?
(read) all of outstanding (Darman) (OCA)

The toughest thing about an event like this is not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\
is (Darman)

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will ~~see~~ see the results next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. ~~But~~ you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

(OCTE)

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

91 SEP 30 10:18 WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

A few thoughts

BT for SR

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon

Oly.TS

Draft One

01 SEP 27 P 5:29 September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; ~~all the stars of the past, present and future.~~ I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan representing this nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains

Somewhat controversial in that Isiah Thomas was left off the team because of his relationship with Jordan -- or so it's reported.

itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I ^{all of outstanding} saw ~~you~~ our athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\
Those of

Those of you who contribute so generously tonight will enjoy rewards next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. But you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our ~~disabled~~ champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 30, 1991

91 SEP 30 P1:47

MEMORANDUM FOR TONY SNOW

FROM:

ROGER B. PORTER RBP

SUBJECT:

Presidential Remarks: First Annual Olympic Dinner

We have reviewed the attached remarks and have noted several suggested changes on the draft.

Please let us know if you have any questions or if we may help in any other way.

cc: Phillip D. Brady

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft One
01 SEP 27 P 5:28
September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and ^{COMPETE FOR} ~~get~~ an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars of the past, present and future. I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, ^{THE CHICAGO BULLS} ~~a future Olympian~~ dropped by the White House. I ^{KNOW} ~~think~~ the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan, ^{AND HIS TEAMMATES} representing ^{OUR} ~~this~~ nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains

itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you our athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\
SEE THE RESULTS

You who contribute so generously tonight will ~~enjoy rewards~~ next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. ~~But~~ you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 SEP 30 10:09

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

See comments Thanks.

Paul Korfonta
09/30/91

PK

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon

Oly.TS

Draft One

01 SEP 27 P 5:21 September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

AK (OCA)
Democrats?] Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars of the past, present and future. I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan representing this nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you our athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

(OCA) ? You who contribute so generously tonight will enjoy rewards next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. But you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

91 SEP 30 ⁵ WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM

SUBJECT: _____
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

Oh DS

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft One
01 SEP 27 P 5:28
September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars of the past, present and future. I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan representing this nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you our athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

You who contribute so generously tonight will enjoy rewards next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. But you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

91 SEP 30 A 9: 56

September 30, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR TONY SNOW, OFFICE OF SPEECHWRITING

FROM: Chester Paul Beach Jr.
CHESTER PAUL BEACH JR.
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks - First Annual Olympic Dinner

This responds to Phil Brady's memorandum of September 27, 1991 requesting our review of these draft remarks.

Upon review, we have no legal objection to these remarks.

cc:
Phil Brady

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 9/27/91 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 a.m. MONDAY 9/30/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER

WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM

SUBJECT: _____ TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE MC	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST MC	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

PLEASE FORWARD COMMENTS DIRECTLY TO TONY SNOW, RM 122, EXT 2930
NO LATER THAN 10:00 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, WITH COPY TO
THIS OFFICE.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Simon
Oly.TS
Draft One
01 SEP 27 P5:28 September 27, 1991

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: FIRST ANNUAL OLYMPIC DINNER
WASHINGTON HILTON BALLROOM
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1991
7:45 P.M.

Thank you [USOC President]. Representatives of the Olympic Congressional Caucus -- Bill Bradley, Tom McMillen, Ben Nighthorse Campbell. And it's a pleasure to see so many prominent members of Congress: Sen. Mitchell, Sen. Dole, Speaker Foley, Minority Leader Michel. We have celebrities of all varieties: Our magnificent champions -- past, present and future. Our media noteables: Paula Zahn and Bob Costas, winner of the great studio basketball shoot-out.

Members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for letting me spend a few minutes with you tonight.

You know, it's a pleasure to be here, with so many athletes and friends of the Olympics. Every time I get around an audience like this, I suddenly feel the urge to train and get an Olympic Medal. Unfortunately, they don't give prizes for horseshoes. //

I really admire the men and women here today; all the stars of the past, present and future. I'm especially impressed by Carl Lewis. He runs almost as fast as I play golf.

Earlier today, a future Olympian dropped by the White House. I think the American people will enjoy watching Michael Jordan representing this nation in Barcelona. //

Tonight's fund-raiser combines three of my real passions: sports, public service and education. The sports part explains itself: Where else could you get such an incredible group of champions, other than the Olympics itself? When I saw you our athletes on this stage a few minutes ago, I felt like Yakov Smirnoff. I wanted to shout: "What a country!"

The toughest thing about an event like this not being able to greet more of the fantastic people here. So let me say, on behalf of the athletes, the Olympic movement and the American public: Thanks. \\

You who contribute so generously tonight will enjoy rewards next year, in Barcelona and Albertville. But you also will enjoy rewards in years to come, as the American people band together to support the fantastic young men and women who form our Olympic teams.

Our Administration has promoted a series of educational initiatives that will revolutionize American education and make our schools the best in the world. As a nation, we must remember that physical fitness improves mental fitness, and vigorous exercise helps people enjoy longer, more fruitful lives.

As some of our disabled champions prove, there is no such thing as a handicap when you have a dream. //

Next year, I hope Americans will do more than just root for our Olympians: I hope that our citizens -- of all ages -- will follow our athletes' lead. I hope they will exercise, compete, and feel the joy of accomplishment. Many of our former Olympic champions continue to compete -- and a few have even begun trying to return to the games.

Well, why not? The Olympic Games offer stirring proof that determined people can accomplish anything -- including remaining young. Our athletes inspire us. They thrill us. They give us hope and joy.

They deserve the best. \\
\\

And we ought to do our best to encourage them as they represent their country -- and the ideals of the Olympic movement.

Centuries ago, Persian soldiers wondered at the determination of Greek athletes. A Persian soldier, told that Olympic athletes trained long and hard simply to win an Olive branch, marveled. He declared: "What manner of men are these that we are fighting? It is not for money they contend but for the glory of achievement."

As our own athletes adhere to the motto: "Stronger, faster, higher," we ought to do our part to preserve the ideals of brotherhood and fair competition, the striving for the glory of achievement. These ideals make the Olympics special. These ideals make an Olympic medal every athlete's dream. Tonight, by contributing to the U.S. Olympic Committee, we keep ideals alive and give our young men and women a chance to explore their own abilities -- and to enrich our great country.

Again, thank you. Keep up the good work.

May God bless you and the United States of America.

#