PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE: 49TH ANNUAL WINGS CLUB DINNER
MONDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1991

I'd like to thank my friend Senator Goldwater for that kind introduction. It's great to be a part of your 49th annual Wings Club Dinner.

Every pilot in this room knows the exhilaration of defying gravity -- racing the wind -- bringing life to a machine that becomes an extension of your self. ^{And} When you do this ^{to protect} ~~in honor of~~ your country's ^{freedom and independence} -- there is no prouder moment. The aviators -- from all branches of the military, and the reservists -- called to duty in Operation Desert Storm, who are here tonight know this.

And it is a fitting tribute that you dedicate this patriotic celebration to all the brave American servicemen and women who participated in Operation Desert Storm. Our troops accomplished their mission -- the liberation of Kuwait -- swiftly, decisively with great skill and exemplary compassion in their humane treatment of surrendering Iraqi forces. Today, many of our military personnel continue serving in the Persian Gulf -- assisting with refugee relief efforts and remaining vigilant, ~~to~~ peace.

As Commander in Chief, I am extremely proud of our troops. They are the envy of the world. And I am delighted to accept your Distinguished Achievement Award on their behalf. It is a great honor to join the ranks of previous recipients, such as the great Jimmy Doolittle, Neil Armstrong, and my good friend, Barry Goldwater.

Again, ~~I give my~~ thanks for this honor. God Bless you and God Bless the United States of America.
