

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13591
Folder ID Number: 13591-005

Folder Title:
RNC Chairman's Advisory Board 11/20/91 [OA 6039]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	17	4	6

RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD \ THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1991 \ 6:30 P.M.

THANK YOU. I'VE GOT TO TELL YOU, THIS IS AN IMPRESSIVE TURNOUT, ESPECIALLY FOR A SECOND MEETING.
I'D JUST LIKE TO CONGRATULATE CLAYTON YEUTTER FOR
ASSEMBLING ONE OF THE MOST DIVERSE AND PROMISING GROUPS
OF CONTRIBUTORS I'VE EVER SEEN. AND REMEMBER, I'VE
BEEN IN CLAYTON'S SHOES. I KNOW HOW MUCH WORK GOES INTO AN EVENT LIKE THIS.

- 2 -

I THINK WE ALL OUGHT TO CONGRATULATE CHAIRMAN YEUTTER
FOR THIS GREAT START ON 1992. \ **

IT'S ALSO GOOD TO SEE MEMBERS OF OUR CABINET HERE
TONIGHT: SECRETARY MANUEL LUJAN AND HIS WIFE JEAN;
SECRETARY ED DERWINSKI AND BONNIE.

AS YOU KNOW, I'M ALWAYS HAPPY TO SEE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. TO OUR SOLID REPUBLICANS, WELCOME.

RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD \ THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1991 \ 6:30 P.M.

THANK YOU. I'VE GOT TO TELL YOU, THIS IS AN IMPRESSIVE TURNOUT, ESPECIALLY FOR A SECOND MEETING.
I'D JUST LIKE TO CONGRATULATE CLAYTON YEUTTER FOR
ASSEMBLING ONE OF THE MOST DIVERSE AND PROMISING GROUPS
OF CONTRIBUTORS I'VE EVER SEEN. AND REMEMBER, I'VE
BEEN IN CLAYTON'S SHOES. I KNOW HOW MUCH WORK GOES INTO AN EVENT LIKE THIS.

- 2 -

I THINK WE ALL OUGHT TO CONGRATULATE CHAIRMAN YEUTTER
FOR THIS GREAT START ON 1992. \ **

IT'S ALSO GOOD TO SEE MEMBERS OF OUR CABINET HERE
TONIGHT: SECRETARY MANUEL LUJAN AND HIS WIFE JEAN;
SECRETARY ED DERWINSKI AND BONNIE.

AS YOU KNOW, I'M ALWAYS HAPPY TO SEE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. TO OUR SOLID REPUBLICANS, WELCOME.

AND AGAIN, THANKS TO THE PEOPLE WHO MADE THIS EVENT POSSIBLE -- I WAS GOING TO SAY MADE THIS "NIGHT" POSSIBLE, BUT THAT HONOR GOES TO HIGHER AUTHORITIES. FOR THIS EVENT -- CLAYTON YEUTTER, LARRY BATHGATE, THE RNC FINANCE CHAIRMAN; RNC TREASURER BILL McMANUS, AND DOROTHY MOLEY, THE ACTING EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

I WAS HAPPY TO SEE THAT ANDY CARD SPOKE WITH YOU EARLIER TODAY.

NO PRESIDENT CAN GO FAR WITHOUT THE HELP OF A GOOD AND DEDICATED STAFF, AND ANDY -- ALONG WITH JOHN SUNUNU AND ALL OUR OTHER WHITE HOUSE WORKERS -- HELPS ME DO MY JOB.

BUT THEN, SO DO YOU. I LOOK AROUND THIS ROOM, AND I SEE THE POTENTIAL OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. I SEE OLD FRIENDS AND NEW ACQUAINTANCES. I SEE PEOPLE OF ALL BACKGROUNDS.

[[I LOOK AT DON KING AND SEE JUST WHAT YEARS OF DEMOCRAT DOMINATION IN CONGRESS CAN DO TO SOME PEOPLE.
]] \ **

YOU'VE PROBABLY HEARD ME TALK RECENTLY ABOUT MY FRUSTRATIONS WITH CONGRESS, AND I'M SURE MANY OF YOU SHARE IT. BUT WE ALSO OUGHT TO STAND PROUD OF WHAT WE REPUBLICANS BELIEVE, AND WHAT WE'VE ACHIEVED.

WE HAVE WORKED HARD OVER THE YEARS TO TAKE CARE OF PROBLEMS THAT WORRY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE: CRIME, POOR
SCHOOLS, JOBS, PEACE. I HAVE TRIED FOR NEARLY THREE YEARS TO GET A COMPREHENSIVE CRIME PACKAGE THROUGH CONGRESS. WELL, CONGRESS SPENT MORE MONEY. IT REMAINED EXEMPT FROM A HOST OF LAWS. BUT IT HASN'T COME CLOSE TO PASSING A BILL TO TAKE CRIMINALS OFF OUR STREETS, AND TO PROTECT LAW-ABIDING MEN AND WOMEN.

YOU SEE THIS SAME PATTERN IN EDUCATION. JUST ABOUT EVERYONE IN AMERICA AGREES: WE NEED TO IMPROVE OUR SCHOOLS. I HAVE TRIED FOR MOST OF MY TERM TO GET AN EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION ACT THROUGH CONGRESS. NO LUCK. YOU KNOW THE REST. SAT SCORES HAVE FALLEN AGAIN -- VERBAL SATS TO THE LOWEST LEVEL EVER. TOO MANY CHILDREN DROP OUT OF SCHOOL. OUR STUDENTS DON'T MATCH THOSE IN OTHER NATIONS WHEN IT COMES TO MATH AND SCIENCE. BUSINESSES MUST SPEND INCREASING AMOUNTS OF MONEY TEACHING WORKERS THE EDUCATIONAL BASICS.

WHEN YOU TAKE INFLATION INTO ACCOUNT, WE SPEND ONE-THIRD MORE ON EDUCATION TODAY THAN WE DID A DECADE AGO. WE SHELL OUT NEARLY $400 BILLION A YEAR. DOES ANYONE THINK WE'VE GOTTEN OUR MONEY'S WORTH? DOES ANYONE BELIEVE THAT OUR CHILDREN HAVE GOTTEN THE EDUCATIONS THEY DESERVE?

EVERYONE LIKES TO TALK ABOUT EDUCATIONAL REFORM. WE'VE PROPOSED REAL CHANGES THAT CAN MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE.

REPUBLICANS CHAMPION WORLD CLASS EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN FAMILIES, IN FUTURE, IN HOPE. WE ALSO BELIEVE IN OUR CHILDREN. WE KNOW THEY CAN OUTWORK, OUTPRODUCE AND OUT COMPETE WORKERS AND INNOVATORS ANYWHERE ELSE IN THE WORLD.

WITH YOUR HELP, WE WILL TURN MY ADMINISTRATION'S AMERICA 2000 EDUCATION STRATEGY INTO A BLUEPRINT FOR THE WORLD'S FINEST SCHOOLS.

LET ME TOUCH UPON A THIRD FUNDAMENTAL ISSUE, JOBS. REPUBLICANS BELIEVE IN HARD WORK, FAIR PAY, ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY, AND GROWTH. WHEN WE SEE SOMEONE SUCCEED, WE FEEL A SURGE OF PRIDE, NOT A NEW SOURCE OF TAXES. WHEN WE SEE SOMEONE HURTING, WE CARE. WHEN WE SEE SOMEONE OUT OF A JOB WHO WANTS TO WORK, WE WANT TO HELP.

AMERICANS ALWAYS HAVE ENJOYED A ZEST FOR LIFE.

OUR FOREFATHERS CAME HERE BECAUSE THEY BELIEVED IN THEMSELVES, AND THEY WERE WILLING TO RISK HARDSHIP BECAUSE THEY UNDERSTOOD THE VALUE OF FREEDOM.

GENERATION AFTER GENERATION, PEOPLE COME TO OUR SHORES AND GIVE NEW MEANING TO THE AMERICAN DREAM AND NEW VINDICATION TO OUR VALUES: DECENCY, HARD WORK, CREATIVITY, PRODUCTIVITY -- AND TO INSTITUTIONS: FAMILIES, CHURCHES, SCHOOLS.

THINK OF IT THIS WAY. SUPPOSE YOUR NEIGHBOR HAS JUST WON THE LOTTERY. IF YOU'RE A REPUBLICAN, YOU FEEL HAPPY FOR THEM. IF YOU'RE A DEMOCRAT, YOU BEMOAN THE INCREASING DISPARITY BETWEEN RICH AND POOR.

MY ADMINISTRATION HAS PROMOTED COMPREHENSIVE, SENSIBLE ECONOMIC INITIATIVES BECAUSE WE WANT TO MAKE THE MOST OF THOSE OLD-FASHIONED AMERICAN VIRTUES.

WE HAVE PROMOTED A CUT IN THE CAPITAL GAINS TAX, PERMANENT RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT TAX CREDITS, IRAs FOR FIRST-TIME HOMEBUYERS, BANKING REFORM, TORT REFORM, INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENTS, EDUCATIONAL REFORM, SLASHING AWAY UNNECESSARY REGULATIONS. WHEN WE PROPOSE CHANGES LIKE THIS, DEMOCRATS START PLAYING THE TIRED OLD GAME OF CLASS WARFARE. THEY JUST DON'T GET IT.

ALL WE WANT TO DO IS THE RIGHT THING. WE WANT TO REWARD PEOPLE WHO WORK HARD, WHO HAVE GOOD IDEAS, WHO BRING PRODUCTS TO MARKET AND IMPROVE OUR LIVES. WE WANT THE BEST FAIRNESS PROGRAM OF ALL: GOOD JOBS FOR PEOPLE WHO WANT THEM.

BUT THE DEMOCRATS WHO CONTROL CONGRESS SEEM MORE EAGER TO TURN A BRIGHT SPOTLIGHT ON SUFFERING WORKERS THAN IN TRYING TO GIVE THE ECONOMY A JOLT.

THEY SEEM MORE EAGER TO ADVOCATE PROTECTIONISM -- THE GREAT ECONOMY KILLER -- THAN TO GIVE OUR PEOPLE THE RESOURCES THEY NEED TO OUTPACE THE REST OF THE WORLD.

AND THEY SEEM DETERMINED TO WASTE EVERYBODY'S TIME BY SENDING ME OUTRAGEOUS LEGISLATION THAT THEY KNOW I WILL HAVE TO VETO. THEY PASS BILLS THAT NO RESPONSIBLE PRESIDENT COULD SIGN, AND WHEN I VETO THEM THEY ACCUSE ME OF STANDING IN THE WAY OF PROGRESS.

WELL, THEY HAVE STALLED PROGRESS ON ECONOMIC GROWTH, EDUCATION, TRANSPORTATION, ENERGY, CRIME. IN SHORT, THEY HAVEN'T DONE A THING TO ADDRESS THE THINGS THAT AMERICAN FAMILIES CARE ABOUT WHEN THEY RETURN HOME FROM A HARD DAY'S WORK.

I NEED YOUR HELP. POLITICAL PROGRESS REQUIRES TWO WILLING PLAYERS -- A PRESIDENT WITH AN AGENDA AND A CONGRESS WITH A DETERMINATION TO GET THE JOB DONE. SO FAR, WE'VE ONLY GOT THE FIRST HALF.

IF WE WANT TO PUSH THIS NATION AHEAD, WE WILL NEED TO PUSH DEMOCRATS OUT OF CONGRESS. RIGHT NOW, MANY FUNDAMENTAL ITEMS OF BUSINESS REMAIN UNDONE. HERE'S JUST A SNAPSHOT. OUR ADMINISTRATION UNVEILED THE AMERICA 2000 EDUCATION STRATEGY SIX MONTHS AGO. MORE THAN HALF THE STATES HAVE ANNOUNCED PLANS TO BEGIN THEIR OWN REFORMS. BUT WHAT HAVE WE GOTTEN OUT OF CONGRESS? NO BILL.

I SENT BANKING REFORM LEGISLATION TO THE HILL ON MARCH 20 -- 246 DAYS AGO. TODAY, NO BILL. I SENT CRIME LEGISLATION TO THE HILL 255 DAYS AGO. NO BILL. I SENT ENERGY LEGISLATION TO CONGRESS 262 DAYS AGO. NO BILL. I SENT TRANSPORTATION LEGISLATION TO THE HILL 281 DAYS AGO. GUESS WHAT? RIGHT: NO BILL.

CONGRESS GETS THE NO BILL PRIZE

AND AMERICAN WORKERS GET STUCK PAYING THE BILL.

LET'S GET A CONGRESS THAT WORKS -- A REPUBLICAN CONGRESS. LET'S JOIN TOGETHER TO BUILD THE KINDER, GENTLER SOCIETY I HAVE TALKED ABOUT OVER THE YEARS. LET'S PEEL AWAY PROGRAMS THAT INCITE RACIAL STRIFE AND BUILD A NEW ERA OF BROTHERHOOD AND HARMONY. LET'S GET OUR SCHOOLS IN SHAPE, OUR STREETS SAFE AND OUR ECONOMY RUNNING AT FULL SPEED. LET'S SHOW AMERICANS THAT WE CAN MAKE GOVERNMENT WORK FOR THEM -- AND NOT THE OTHER WAY AROUND.

WE HAVE AN INCREDIBLE OPPORTUNITY BEFORE US. YOU CAN HELP LEAD THIS PARTY AND THIS NATION INTO THE NEXT AMERICAN CENTURY. STICK BY YOUR IDEALS, WORK HARD, AND SUPPORT YOUR REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES. TOGETHER, WE WILL WIN.

THANK YOU AGAIN. CONGRATULATIONS ON THIS MEETING. MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

11/20/91

31 NOV 19 P4:51

NOVEMBER 19, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAVE DEMAREST

FROM: TONY SNOW TS

SUBJECT: PROPOSED REMARKS FOR THE RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD

ONE CHANGE
P. 3

I. SUMMARY

On Thursday, November 21 at 6:30 p.m. you will deliver remarks to the RNC Chairman's Advisory Board at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington. Approximately 130 members are expected to attend.

II. DISCUSSION

Your remarks (approximately 9 minutes / cards) acknowledge Chairman Clayton Yeutter's role in assembling this group of contributors and highlight your Administration's accomplishments, the fundamental issue of jobs, and Congress' failure to act on key initiatives.

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 19, 1991
Draft Two

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people. \\

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share it. But we also ought to stand proud of what we believe, and what we've achieved.

We have worked hard over the years to take care of problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. You know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out nearly $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth? Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Everyone likes to talk about educational reform. We've proposed real changes that can make a real difference. Republicans champion world class educational standards because we believe in families, in future, in hope. We also believe in our children. We know they can outwork, outproduce and out compete workers and innovators anywhere else in the world.

With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes.

When we see someone hunting we care what we see someone out of job who wish to work we want to help

Americans always have enjoyed a zest for life. Our forefathers came here because they believed in themselves, and they were willing to risk hardship because they understood the value of freedom. Generation after generation, people come to our shores and give new meaning to the American dream and new vindication to our values: decency, hard work, creativity, productivity -- and to institutions: families, churches, schools.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

My administration has promoted comprehensive, sensible economic initiatives because we want to make the most of those old-fashioned American virtues. We have promoted a cut in the capital gains tax, permanent research and development tax credits, IRAs for first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, slashing away unnecessary regulations. When we propose changes like this,

Democrats start playing the tired old game of class warfare. They just don't get it.

All we want to do is the right thing. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But the Democrats who control Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager to advocate protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than to give our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with ^{by sending me} ~~their veto strategy~~ ^{outgoing legislation that they know I will have to veto.} They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled progress on economic growth, education, transportation, energy, crime. In short, they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families care about when they return home from a hard day's work.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress. We need to put Republicans in.

The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I have talked about over the years. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's show Americans that we can make government work for them -- and not the other way around.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

31 NOV 19 P4: 51

NOVEMBER 19, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAVE DEMAREST

FROM: TONY SNOW TS

SUBJECT: PROPOSED REMARKS FOR THE RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD

I. SUMMARY

On Thursday, November 21 at 6:30 p.m. you will deliver remarks to the RNC Chairman's Advisory Board at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington. Approximately 130 members are expected to attend.

II. DISCUSSION

Your remarks (approximately 9 minutes / cards) acknowledge Chairman Clayton Yeutter's role in assembling this group of contributors and highlight your Administration's accomplishments, the fundamental issue of jobs, and Congress' failure to act on key initiatives.

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 19, 1991
Draft Two

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people. \\

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share it. But we also ought to stand proud of what we believe, and what we've achieved.

We have worked hard over the years to take care of problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. You know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out nearly $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth? Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Everyone likes to talk about educational reform. We've proposed real changes that can make a real difference. Republicans champion world class educational standards because we believe in families, in future, in hope. We also believe in our children. We know they can outwork, outproduce and out compete workers and innovators anywhere else in the world.

With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes.

Americans always have enjoyed a zest for life. Our forefathers came here because they believed in themselves, and they were willing to risk hardship because they understood the value of freedom. Generation after generation, people come to our shores and give new meaning to the American dream and new vindication to our values: decency, hard work, creativity, productivity -- and to institutions: families, churches, schools.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

My administration has promoted comprehensive, sensible economic initiatives because we want to make the most of those old-fashioned American virtues. We have promoted a cut in the capital gains tax, permanent research and development tax credits, IRAs for first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, slashing away unnecessary regulations. When we propose changes like this,

Democrats start playing the tired old game of class warfare. They just don't get it.

All we want to do is the right thing. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But the Democrats who control Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager to advocate protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than to give our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled progress on economic growth, education, transportation, energy, crime. In short, they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families care about when they return home from a hard day's work.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress. We need to put Republicans in.

The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I have talked about over the years. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's show Americans that we can make government work for them -- and not the other way around.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 NOV 18 P3:34

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

— MASTER —

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P 6:08
01 NOV 15 P 6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\\

~~Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.~~ (BT)

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take ^{care of (McC)} ~~on~~ the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out ~~more than~~ ^{(CEA) close to} $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion ^{world class education standards (CEA)} ~~educational reform~~ because we believe ^{* everyone talks about reform} in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. ~~We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.~~ (A. Card)

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they delete (omit)

*delete (A. card)
A growing economy is what we have been working to produce.*

Too much emphasis on rich vs. poor. This sounds more like the President's affluenza.

Series of (MOC) initiatives. They (MOC) making permanent the (CEA)

+ eliminating unnecessary regulations. (CEA)

are we only blaming the "liberal" Democrats?

*to advocate
to give*

haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about ^{NOT} so long ago. ~~Let's~~ ^{3 yrs not a long time} peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony.

Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. ~~Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.~~

*Too 60's
Doesn't sound like POTUS*

*✓ this suggests Americans aren't proud to be Americans.
The only way changed much of this feeling.*

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

*Don't think it's valid
now.*

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH NIC	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P 6:06 01 NOV 15 P 6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

NOVEMBER 19, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAVE DEMAREST

FROM: TONY SNOW TS

SUBJECT: PROPOSED REMARKS FOR THE RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD

I. SUMMARY

On Thursday, November 21 at 6:30 p.m. you will deliver remarks to the RNC Chairman's Advisory Board at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington. Approximately 130 members are expected to attend.

II. DISCUSSION

Your remarks (approximately 9 minutes / cards) acknowledge Chairman Clayton Yeutter's role in assembling this group of contributors and highlight your Administration's accomplishments, the fundamental issue of jobs, and Congress' failure to act on key initiatives.

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 19, 1991
Draft Two

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people. \\

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share it. But we also ought to stand proud of what we believe, and what we've achieved.

We have worked hard over the years to take care of problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. You know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out nearly $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth? Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Everyone likes to talk about educational reform. We've proposed real changes that can make a real difference. Republicans champion world class educational standards because we believe in families, in future, in hope. We also believe in our children. We know they can outwork, outproduce and out compete workers and innovators anywhere else in the world.

With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes.

Americans always have enjoyed a zest for life. Our forefathers came here because they believed in themselves, and they were willing to risk hardship because they understood the value of freedom. Generation after generation, people come to our shores and give new meaning to the American dream and new vindication to our values: decency, hard work, creativity, productivity -- and to institutions: families, churches, schools.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

My administration has promoted comprehensive, sensible economic initiatives because we want to make the most of those old-fashioned American virtues. We have promoted a cut in the capital gains tax, permanent research and development tax credits, IRAs for first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, slashing away unnecessary regulations. When we propose changes like this,

Democrats start playing the tired old game of class warfare. They just don't get it.

All we want to do is the right thing. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But the Democrats who control Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager to advocate protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than to give our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled progress on economic growth, education, transportation, energy, crime. In short, they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families care about when they return home from a hard day's work.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress. We need to put Republicans in.

The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I have talked about over the years. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's show Americans that we can make government work for them -- and not the other way around.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*gk
DR*

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

McClures
comments
91 NOV 18 ALL: 30
11 NOV 15 P6: 08 NOV 15 P6: 06 JIM

Snow/Bunton ✓
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\
\\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

X We have worked hard over the years to take ^{care of} ~~on~~ the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

X With that in mind, our administration has promoted a ^{series of} comprehensive, sensible economic growth ^{initiatives they} package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

✓

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

31 NOV 18 All: 43

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

AC HAS SEEN

RESPONSE:

*I recommend changes as noted
AHC
11/17/91*

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P6:06 01 NOV 15 P6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\
\\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. [We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.]

A growing economy is what we want and what we have been working to produce.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 NOV 18 P3:12

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Ok

[Handwritten initials]

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P 6:08 NOV 15 P 6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\
~~Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.~~

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

✓

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 NOV 18 P5:35

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

31 NOV 15 P6:06 NOV 15 P6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out ~~more than~~ ^{close to 9} $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, ^{making permanent the} tax credits ~~for~~ research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, ^{and eliminating unnecessary regulations,} ~~regulatory reform~~. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 NOV 19 12:16

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See comment

PHILLIP D. BRADY
 Assistant to the President
 and Staff Secretary
 Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P6:06 01 NOV 15 P6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

*Grady
FY84*

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

91 NOV 19 12:37

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Comments from Cabinet Affairs are attached.

Thanks,
B
 Elizabeth Luttig

PHILLIP D. BRADY
 Assistant to the President
 and Staff Secretary
 Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC

November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P 6:06
01 NOV 15 P 6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion World Class Education Standards ^{CCP} ~~educational reform~~ because we believe ^{Note: this distinguishes us from everyone else who talks about "reform"} in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 18, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT A. SNOW
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR
COMMUNICATIONS AND DIRECTOR OF SPEECHWRITING

FROM: GREGORY S. WALDEN GSW/LSL
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: RNC Chairman's Advisory Board -- The Four Seasons Hotel, November 21, 1991

The Counsel's Office has no legal objection to the above-subject, but see comments on attached.

Attachment

cc: Phillip D. Brady

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P6:06 NOV 15 P6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the potential of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the years to take on the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have tried for nearly three years to get a comprehensive crime package through Congress. Well, Congress spent more money. It remained exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

7

You see this same pattern in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. We shell out more than $400 billion a year. Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they delete.

*I'd
they not free enterprise
success*

haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. If we want to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people have become sick of do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about so long ago. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. Let's make Americans proud that they're Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 19, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR TONY SNOW

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP
SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: RNC Chairman's Advisory Board

We have reviewed the attached remarks and have noted several suggested changes on the draft.

Please let us know if you have any questions or if we may help in any other way.

cc: Phillip D. Brady

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 16, 1991 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: NOON, Tues., 11/19/91

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD -- THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, NOVEMBER 21, 1991

SUBJECT: _____

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SNOW	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide any comments directly to Tony Snow, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

Snow/Bunton
RNC
November 15, 1991
Draft One

01 NOV 15 P 6:06
01 NOV 15 P 6:06

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RNC CHAIRMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD
THE FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
NOVEMBER 21, 1991
6:30 p.m.

[INTRODUCTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]

Thank you. I've got to tell you, this is an impressive turnout, especially for a second meeting. I'd just like to congratulate Clayton Yeutter for assembling one of the most diverse and promising groups of contributors I've ever seen. And remember, I've been in Clayton's shoes. I know how much work goes into an event like this. I think we all ought to congratulate Chairman Yeutter for this great start on 1992. \\\

Now, Clayton and Bobby: Go out and recruit more.

You look around this room, and you can see the ^{STRENGTH} ~~potential~~ of the Republican Party. I see old friends and new acquaintances. And I look at Don King and see just what years of Democrat domination in Congress can do to some people.

You've probably heard me talk about my frustrations with Congress, and I'm sure many of you share my frustration.

We have worked hard over the ^{SOLVE} years to ~~take on~~ the problems that worry the American people: crime, poor schools, jobs, peace. I have ^{PRESSED} ~~tried~~ for nearly three years to get ^{THE CONGRESS TO PASS} a comprehensive crime package. ~~through Congress~~. Well, Congress ^{HAS} spent more money. ~~it~~ ^{AND} ~~remained~~ ^{ED ITSELF} exempt from a host of laws. But it hasn't come close to passing a bill to take criminals off our streets, and to protect law-abiding men and women.

OF CONGRESSIONAL INACTION

You see this same pattern^y in education. Just about everyone in America agrees: We need to improve our schools. I have tried for most of my term to get an Excellence in Education Act through Congress. No luck. And you know the rest. SAT scores have fallen again -- verbal SATs to the lowest level ever. Too many children drop out of school. Our students don't match those in other nations when it comes to math and science. Businesses must spend increasing amounts of money teaching workers the educational basics.

When you take inflation into account, we spend one-third more on education today than we did a decade ago. ^{OUR NATION SPENDS} ~~We shell out~~ ^{ON EDUCATION.} more than $400 billion a year! Does anyone think we've gotten our money's worth. Does anyone believe that our children have gotten the educations they deserve?

Republicans champion educational reform because we believe in families, in future, in hope. With your help, we will turn my Administration's America 2000 Education Strategy into a blueprint for the world's finest schools.

Let me close by touching upon a third fundamental issue, jobs. Republicans believe in hard work, fair pay, economic opportunity, and growth. When we see someone succeed, we feel a surge of pride, not a new source of taxes. We see a new example for our kids and ourselves, not a Fat Cat to criticize.

Think of it this way. Suppose your neighbor has just won the lottery. If you're a Republican, you feel happy for them. If you're a Democrat, you bemoan the increasing disparity between rich and poor.

America doesn't have too many rich people. It has too few. And if Republicans got their way, many of today's poor would be rich, and we'd all be better off for it.

With that in mind, our administration has promoted a comprehensive, sensible economic growth package. It includes a cut in the capital gains tax, tax credits for research and development, IRAs for use by first-time homebuyers, banking reform, tort reform, infrastructure improvements, educational reform, regulatory reform. We want to reward people who work hard, who have good ideas, who bring products to market and improve our lives. We want the best fairness program of all: Good jobs for people who want them.

But liberal Democrats in Congress seem more eager to turn a bright spotlight on suffering workers than in trying to give the economy a jolt. They seem more eager in advocating protectionism -- the great economy killer -- than in giving our people the resources they need to outpace the rest of the world.

And they seem determined to waste everybody's time with their veto strategy. They pass bills that no responsible President could sign, and when I veto them they accuse me of standing in the way of progress. Well, they have stalled 11 different domestic initiatives of mine this year, and they haven't done a thing to address the things that American families really care about -- schools, crime and jobs.

I need your help. ~~If we want~~^g to push this nation ahead, we will need to push Democrats out of Congress and put Republicans in. The American people ~~have become sick of~~ ^{WILL NO LONGER BEAR THE BURDEN} do-nothing government. They have become sick of intrusive government. They want Washington to heed their concerns.

Political progress requires two willing players -- a President with an agenda and a Congress with a determination to get the job done. So far, we've only got the first half. Next year, let's elect Republicans, and get America moving again.

Let's join together to build the kinder, gentler society I talked about ~~so long ago~~. Let's peel away programs that incite racial strife and build a new era of brotherhood and harmony. Let's get our schools in shape, our streets safe and our economy running at full speed. ~~Let's make Americans proud that they're~~ Americans.

We have an incredible opportunity before us. You can help lead this party and this nation into the Next American Century. Stick by your ideals, work hard, and support your Republican candidates. Together, we will win.

Thank you again. Congratulations on this meeting. May God bless you and the United States of America.

#