PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: AMERICAN COMMUNITY GREETING
COLLIER FIELD HOUSE
JANUARY 5, 1992
4:30 P.M. ?

- 0 Thank you. Ambassador Donald Gregg [Don], my close friend, and may I add -- my vice-presidential assistant for national security affairs for over six years.
- 0 DCM Raymond Burghardt [Ray]. You and the Embassy staff are doing a first rate job here at the front lines of foreign policy. Ambassador Gregg told me about your outstanding contributions here in Seoul.
- 0 I know how much work goes into planning a presidential visit
-- especially one that occurs during the holiday season. I appreciate your commitment, and want to say thank you. I remember well what it takes to be a diplomat abroad -- the challenges that come with serving your country overseas. [If you can negotiate the traffic in Seoul -- that's diplomacy.]
- 0 You serve at a time when Korea is reaching new world status, when we can build on the progress and the promise of a new year. More than a military alliance -- our countries are moving toward a political, economic, and security partnership.
We continue to work for peaceful resolution, and restoration of morning calm divided at the 38th parallel.
- 0 Again, I commend you for your support and dedication to the United States of America. May God bless you all.
