IN 1892, PRESIDENT HARRISON TOLD JAMES BURKE, YOUR FIRST CHAIRMAN, THAT "YOUR WORK HAS A DISSEMINATING POWER THAT NO OTHER POLITICAL WORK HAS." / TODAY, 100 YEARS LATER, YOUR WORK REMAINS ABSOLUTELY VITAL TO THE GROWTH OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY -- AND ITS POPULARITY ON CAMPUSES TODAY. //

MY DEAR FRIEND AND PREDECESSOR, RONALD REAGAN, OFTEN CALLED AMERICA "THAT SHINING CITY ON THE HILL."
SINCE YOUR CREATION AS THE AMERICAN COLLEGE REPUBLICAN
LEAGUE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, YOU HAVE ENRICHED
ALMOST EVERY CAMPUS IN AMERICA. YOU HAVE SPREAD THE MESSAGE OF LIBERTY, AND OPPORTUNITY. YOU HAVE KEPT THE FAITH. / FAITH IN PRIVATE ENTERPRISE, AND THE RULE OF LAW. / FAITH IN FAMILY -- AND ABOVE ALL, FAITH IN GOD.

WHEN AMERICA DEFENDED THE SOVEREIGNTY OF KUWAIT IN OPERATION DESERT STORM, YOU WERE THE FIRST TO TAKE TO THE NATION'S CAMPUSES IN SUPPORT OF OUR INVOLVEMENT. / YOU HELPED BURY THE GHOST OF VIET NAM. LINCOLN DAY 1992 MESSAGE

FELLOW REPUBLICANS, I'M PLEASED TO HAVE THE CHANCE TO SPEAK WITH YOU AS WE MARK THE BIRTHDAY OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. HE LEFT FOR US A GREAT LEGACY OF FAITH, BENEVOLENCE AND DETERMINATION. WE ALL LEARN FROM HIS SIMPLE CREED: "I DO THE VERY BEST I KNOW HOW, THE VERY BEST I CAN; AND I MEAN TO KEEP ON DOING SO UNTIL THE END."

THAT'S THE STANDARD BY WHICH WE MUST MEASURE OURSELVES. WE'RE AMERICA'S PROUD PARTY OF OPPORTUNITY -- AMERICA'S BIG HOUSE WITH OPEN DOORS. ANY AMERICAN WHO SHARES OUR VALUES AND HOPES IS WELCOME THROUGH THOSE DOORS: AND EVERY DAY MORE AND MORE COME IN. EVERY DAY HARD-WORKING AMERICANS RECOGNIZE THAT REPUBLICAN VALUES ARE THEIR VALUES. THEY JOIN US BECAUSE THEY REALIZE THAT THEY SHARE REPUBLICAN GOALS, REPUBLICAN BELIEFS, REPUBLICAN DREAMS.

WHEN I BECAME INVOLVED IN REPUBLICAN POLITICS BACK IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS, YOU COULD HAVE HELD A PARTY CAUCUS IN A RESTAURANT BOOTH. LOOK HOW FAR WE'VE COME -- AND YOU'RE THE REASON. YOU'RE CHANGING THE WAY PEOPLE THINK ABOUT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY -- AND WE'RE CLOSER THAN EVER TO BRINGING THE PARTY OF LINCOLN TO MAJORITY STATUS. KEEP WORKING -- AND WE WILL ACHIEVE THAT GOAL BY THE YEAR 2000.

LINCOLN DAY GIVES ME THE CHANCE TO SAY THANK YOU FOR THE HARD WORK AND HIGH PRINCIPLES THAT LAID THE GROUND WORK FOR OUR SUCCESSES. DURING THIS CRUCIAL ELECTION YEAR, I URGE YOU TO REDOUBLE YOUR EFFORTS -- DAY IN AND DAY OUT DOING ALL THE THINGS IT TAKES TO WIN. THAT'S HOW WE'LL GO ON TO NEWER ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND EVEN GREATER HEIGHTS. WE'LL MAKE 1992 A YEAR TO REMEMBER: A YEAR THAT WOULD HAVE MADE ABE LINCOLN PROUD. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

NAT'L CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

I SALUTE THE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION GATHERED FOR YOUR ANNUAL CONVENTION. CATTLEMEN HOLD AN ENDURING PLACE IN THE AMERICAN IMAGINATION -- AND IN THE WHOLE WORLD'S IMAGES OF AMERICA. I REMEMBER WHEN I MOVED TO WEST TEXAS IN THE 1940S, THE WHOLE ETHOS OF THE PLACE HAD BEEN SHAPED BY THE CATTLEMAN'S RUGGED SPIRIT OF ENTERPRISE.

YOU'VE BEEN A POWERHOUSE IN BUILDING THIS NATION. AND THANK GOD, YOU'RE STILL A VITAL FORCE FOR THE PRESENT TIME -- AND FOR OUR FUTURE. THE CATTLE BUSINESS IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MUCH OF OUR SUCCESS IN INTERNATIONAL MARKETS. AMERICAN CATTLEMEN ARE TOUGH COMPETITORS. RECENT YEARS HAVE SEEN A CONTINUING INCREASE IN CATTLE AND BEEF PRODUCT EXPORTS, INCLUDING BEEF FOR JAPAN. I WISH EVERY BUSINESS IN AMERICA WERE AS COMPETITIVE AND RESPONSIVE TO CONSUMERS' NEEDS AS YOURS.

AMERICA NEEDS TO DRAW ON YOUR STRENGTH. AMERICA NEEDS YOUR HELP RIGHT NOW -- TO GET OUR ECONOMY GROWING AGAIN. I DEEPLY APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT FOR A PRO-GROWTH CAPITAL GAINS TAX CUT, AND FOR NEW AGREEMENTS TO OPEN MARKETS IN NORTH AMERICA AND AROUND THE GLOBE. NOW WE NEED TO INTENSIFY OUR EFFORTS TO REACH THESE GOALS. MORE THAN EVER, I WILL NEED YOUR SUPPORT FOR THESE AND THE OTHER PRO-GROWTH PROPOSALS I ~~AM~~ DISCUSSED TUESDAY NIGHT IN THE STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE.

I salute the members of the National Cattlemen's Association gathered for your annual convention. PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: NAT'L CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION
[time]

I salute the members of the National Cattlemen's Association gathered for your annual convention. Cattlemen hold an enduring place in the American imagination -- and in the whole world's images of America. I remember when I moved to west Texas in the 1940s, the whole ethos of the place had been shaped by the cattleman's rugged spirit of enterprise.

You've been a powerhouse in building this nation. And thank God, you're still a vital force for the present time -- and for our future. The cattle business is responsible for much of our success in international markets. American cattlemen are tough competitors. Recent years have seen a continuing increase in cattle and beef product exports, including beef for Japan. I wish every business in America were as competitive and responsive to consumers' needs as yours.

America needs to draw on your strength. America needs your help right now -- to get our economy growing again. I deeply appreciate your support for a pro-growth capital gains tax cut, and for new agreements to open markets in North America and around the globe. Now we need to intensify our efforts to reach these goals. More than ever, I will need your support for these and the other pro-growth proposals I'll discuss Tuesday night in the State of the Union Message.

Barbara joins me in sending warmest wishes for you in this new year. May God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: LINCOLN DAY 1992 MESSAGE

Fellow Republicans, I'm pleased to have the chance to speak with you as we mark the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. He left for us a great legacy of faith, good heart and determination. We all learn from his simple creed: "I do the very best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing so until the end."

That's the standard by which we must measure ourselves. We're America's proud party of opportunity -- America's big house with open doors. Any American who shares our values and hopes is welcome through those doors: and every day more and more come in. Every day hard-working Americans recognize that Republican values are their values. They join us because they realize that they share Republican goals, Republican beliefs, Republican dreams.

When I became involved in Republican politics in Texas, you could have held a party caucus in a restaurant booth. Look how far we've come -- and you're the reason. You're changing the way people think about the Republican Party -- and we're closer than ever to bringing the party of Lincoln to majority status. Keep working -- and we will achieve that goal by the year 2000.

Lincoln Day gives me the chance to say thank you for the hard work and high principles that laid the ground work for our successes. During this crucial election year, I urge you to redouble your efforts -- day in and day out doing all the things it takes to win. That's how we'll go on to newer accomplishments and even greater heights. We'll make 1992 a year to remember: a year that would have made Abe Lincoln proud. God bless you all.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: NAT'L CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION
[time]

I salute the members of the National Cattlemen's Association gathered for your annual convention. Cattlemen hold an enduring place in the American imagination -- and in the whole world's images of America. I remember when I moved to west Texas in the 1940s, the whole ethos of the place had been shaped by the cattleman's rugged spirit of enterprise.

You've been a powerhouse in building this nation. And thank God, you're still a vital force for the present time -- and for our future. The cattle business is responsible for much of our success in international markets. American cattlemen are tough competitors. Recent years have seen a continuing increase in cattle and beef product exports, including beef for Japan. I wish every business in America were as competitive and responsive to consumers' needs as yours.

America needs to draw on your strength. America needs your help right now -- to get our economy growing again. I deeply appreciate your support for a pro-growth capital gains tax cut, and for new agreements to open markets in North America and around the globe. Now we need to intensify our efforts to reach these goals. More than ever, I will need your support for these and the other pro-growth proposals I'll discuss Tuesday night in the State of the Union Message.

Barbara joins me in sending warmest wishes for you in this new year. May God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

PROPOSED PRESIDENTIAL 30 SECOND PSA: CRIME STOPPERS

I'm concerned with the amount of crime and violence in our society today. While law enforcement agencies have done their part, much more needs to be done. Crime Stoppers works in partnership with the police, the media and the community to assist in the battle against crime. Do your part -- support crime stoppers. The good news is -- it works. Working together we can help keep your community free from crime.

PROPOSED PRESIDENTIAL 30 SECOND PSA: NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

I would like to speak with you on a personal level as one American to another. When Barbara and I look back on our years in the White House, we are filled with gratitude for the answers to prayers which we have received: The spread of democracy across the world -- the decisive coalition victory in the Persian Gulf -- the release of hostages in the Middle East. This year's annual National Day of Prayer is the first Thursday in May. Please join with Barbara and me as we pray for our nation.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: LINCOLN DAY 1992 MESSAGE

Fellow Republicans, I'm pleased to have the chance to speak with you as we mark the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. He left for us a great legacy of faith, good heart and determination. We all learn from his simple creed: "I do the very best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing so until the end."

That's the standard by which we must measure ourselves. We're America's proud party of opportunity -- America's big house with open doors. Any American who shares our values and hopes is welcome through those doors: and every day more and more come in. Every day hard-working Americans recognize that Republican values are their values. They join us because they realize that they share Republican goals, Republican beliefs, Republican dreams.

When I became involved in Republican politics in Texas, you could have held a party caucus in a restaurant booth. Look how far we've come -- and you're the reason. You're changing the way people think about the Republican Party -- and we're closer than ever to bringing the party of Lincoln to majority status. Keep working -- and we will achieve that goal by the year 2000.

Lincoln Day gives me the chance to say thank you for the hard work and high principles that laid the ground work for our successes. During this crucial election year, I urge you to redouble your efforts -- day in and day out doing all the things it takes to win. That's how we'll go on to newer accomplishments and even greater heights. We'll make 1992 a year to remember: a year that would have made Abe Lincoln proud. God bless you all.

President Bush Remarks

It gives me great pleasure to send warm greetings and congratulations to everyone attending the 100th Anniversary of the College Republicans.

In 1872
~~100 years ago~~, President Benjamin Harrison told James Burke, your first chairman, that "your work has a disseminating power that no other political work has." Today, 100 years later, I'd like to tell you that your work has been absolutely vital to the growth of the Republican party and its popularity on campuses today.

Since your creation as the American College Republican League at the University of Michigan, you have grown and reached out to almost every campus in America. No other political youth group can claim that. Your work has affected hundreds of thousands of students. Throughout your history, your voices have been there in times of peace and in times of war.

Without a doubt, you have been among the most enthusiastic backers of this administration and its policies. I believe this is because we have the same shared values: a free market economy, the rule of law, and the importance of the family and of human life itself. When our country defended the sovereignty of Kuwait in Operation Desert Storm, you were the first to take to the battlefields at home - the nation's campuses - in support of our involvement and our troops. Your efforts helped assure that the ghost of past failures was put to sleep forever.

On the homefront, you have mobilized the New Republican Generation -- a generation that will continue to work for Republican ideals and Republican candidates long into the future. Your efforts have elected countless numbers of Republican officials at the local, state and national level. With your help, our message is making its way to all Americans, with renewed force and clarity.

This is an exciting time to be a College Republican. Around the country and around the globe, we see renewed appreciation for the freedom and opportunities that democratic government provides. As the face of our world continues to change, you will be at the forefront -- ensuring that our message continues to be heard.

As you enter your second 100 years, I am confident that you will continue to fight for Republican candidates and values, and knowing your fine spirit, I'm excited about the future.

Barbara joins me in sending our best wishes for a successful and enjoyable 100th Anniversary Celebration. God bless you, and God bless America.

Barbara Bush

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

TO: KATHERINE SUPER
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR
APPOINTMENTS AND SCHEDULING

THROUGH: RONALD C. KAUFMAN (CK)
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS

FROM: DAVID M. CARNEY
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF POLITICAL AFFAIRS

REQUEST: For the President to participate in a video for the 100th anniversary of the College Republicans.

PURPOSE: For the President to highlight his strong commitment to and support of the mission of the College Republicans. And to thank them for all their hard work on behalf of the Republican Party.

BACKGROUND: The College Republicans will be celebrating their 100th anniversary as the oldest and largest political student organization in June 1992 here in Washington D.C. It will be a gathering of past and present College Republicans to participate in alumni functions and programs for the students to learn new political skills and prepare for the 1992 elections.

The College Republicans will be putting together a ten minute video, highlighting their accomplishments. Former President Reagan and Secretary Kemp have already contributed to this video.

DATE AND TIME: TBD

LOCATION: Room 459, OEOB

PARTICIPANTS: The President

OUTLINE OF EVENTS: TBD

REMARKS REQUIRED: Script provided by the Office of Political Affairs

Examples of Technical Assistance
for the Former Soviet Union

- o Model Farms: USDA will support model farms near Moscow, Kiev and another major city initially managed by U.S. farmers along commercial lines to serve as demonstration projects and training facilities for farmers.
- o Wholesale Markets: USDA will send experts to help establish private wholesale food markets to replace the state distribution system.
- o Management Advisors: USDA and AID will place volunteers from the U.S. business sector in critical positions as management advisors in food and industrial organizations for 3 to 6 months. Experts will also be provided to assist in privatization of state enterprises.
- o Legal Advisors: The U.S. will provide legal advisors to assist in developing draft legislation to provide the legal foundation for a market economy (private property and intellectual property law, investment law, real estate law, competition and anti-trust law, etc.)
- o U.S. Training: The Commerce Department will support internships in U.S. companies to provide "hands-on" experience in working in the private sector and operating businesses on a for-profit basis.
- o Defense Conversion: The U.S. will support feasibility studies and provide experts to shift resources and people from the defense industry to non-defense commercial activities.
- o Energy: The U.S. will provide private sector experts and low-cost U.S. equipment to help city heating plants, electric power plants, and critical industries improve the delivery and efficiency of energy use. We will also continue efforts to help improve the climate for foreign investment in the former Soviet republics in the energy field.
- o Health Care: The U.S. will provide funding to U.S. medical institutions to share expertise with health care organizations in the former Soviet Union.
- o Democratization: Private U.S. organizations will be tapped to provide equipment, advice and training in the electoral process and the development of a parliamentary system.
- o Rule of Law: The U.S. will establish training programs to help develop an independent judiciary and help in the revision of criminal and civil statutes and administrative procedures.
