TALKING POINTS: NEW HAMPSHIRE LAW ENFORCEMENT
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1992

- 0 THANK YOU, DICK FLYNN, COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY. GOVERNOR GREGG. ROBERT TURNER, DIRECTOR OF MOTOR VEHICLES. COL. LYNN PRESBY, DIRECTOR OF STATE POLICE. JOSEPH CANOLIS, DIRECTOR OF FIRE SERVICES. KEVIN MONAHAN, DIRECTOR OF SAFETY SERVICES.

- 0 IT'S GREAT TO BE BACK IN NEW HAMPSHIRE -- A STATE FOR WHICH I HAVE A SPECIAL AFFECTION, AND TO WHICH I OWE A SPECIAL DEBT. THE LAST FOUR YEARS HAVE BEEN AN INCREDIBLE TIME TO BE PRESIDENT. WE HAVE SEEN COMMUNISM CRUMBLE IN EASTERN EUROPE AND THE FORMER SOVIET UNION. WE HAVE FREED PANAMA FROM A DICTATOR. THEN, OF COURSE, THERE'S THE PERSIAN GULF -- A GREAT MOMENT FOR AMERICA, AND THE FREE WORLD. //

0 IF WE CAN CHANGE THE WORLD, WE CAN CHANGE AMERICA.
// I'VE LAID OUT MY PROPOSALS BEFORE THE CONGRESS.
TAX CREDITS FOR FIRST-TIME HOMEBUYERS. AN INVESTMENT TAX ALLOWANCE. R&D EXPANSION. A CUT IN THE CAPITAL GAINS TAX. HEALTH CARE REFORM. / MY PROPOSALS ARE SOUND AND WILL WORK. THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE PUT OUT AN S.O.S. -- AND THEY WANT ACTION A.S.A.P. AND THEY WANT IT WITHOUT AN INCREASE IN TAX RATES. //

0 THAT'S WHY I'VE SET A DEADLINE FOR ACTION. MARCH
20. / 37 DAYS AWAY. THE DEADLINE IS DEAD SERIOUS -
- IF CONGRESS DOUBTS IT, THEY'RE DEAD WRONG. SOME SAY: THE DEADLINE IS UNFAIR, AND UNREASONABLE. I SAY: THE DEADLINE IS MARCH 20. / IT'S A MODERN "D-DAY." "D" FOR DOMESTIC -- DOMESTIC ACTION /
DOMESTIC RECOVERY / DOMESTIC JOBS. // I ASK FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF MY PLAN -- AND MY CANDIDACY. //

0 WE'VE ALL HEARD THE SAYING "TAKE A BITE OUT OF CRIME." CONGRESS GOT IT BACKWARDS -- IT TOOK A BITE OUT OF MY CRIME BILL. / I WANT A FEDERAL DEATH PENALTY THAT WORKS. / I WANT TO STOP ENDLESS DEATH ROW APPEALS BY REFORMING HABEAS CORPUS LAWS. / I WANT TO STOP EVIDENCE FROM BEING THROWN OUT ON TECHNICALITIES BY REFORMING THE EXCLUSIONARY RULE. / I WANT MANDATORY SENTENCING THAT ENSURES FELONS DO ALL THEIR TIME AND PAY THE FULL PRICE FOR BREAKING THE LAW. WE WANT A KINDER AND GENTLER AMERICA, NOT A KINDER AND GENTLER CRIME BILL.

0 I THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING ME IN 1988. YOU AGREE WITH ME: WE MUST REJECT THOSE WHO SOFT-PEDAL THE NEED TO BE HARD ON CRIME. / OUR TOUGH POLICIES ARE HELPING TURN THE TABLES ON DRUG DEALERS AND ORGANIZED CRIME. TOGETHER, LET'S SHOW MORE SYMPATHY FOR CRIME'S VICTIMS AND LESS FOR THE CRIMINALS.

- o It's great to be back in New Hampshire -- a state for which I have a special affection, and to which I owe a special debt. Four years ago, we charted our course. Freedom was our guiding light. Opportunity lifted our sails. Around the world, freedom has found safe harbor. Tyranny defeated in the Gulf. Democracy in Eastern Europe. And communism is dead in the water.

- o I have said, and I'll repeat: If we can change the world, we can change America. If the will is in our hearts, the power is in our hands. I've laid out my proposals. Tax credits for first-time homebuyers. An Investment Tax Allowance. R&D expansion. A cut in the capital gains tax. Health care reform. My proposals are sound and will work. The American people have put out an S.O.S., and they want action A.S.A.P.

- o That's why I've set a deadline for action. March 20. \ 37 days away. The deadline is dead serious -- if Congress doubts it, they're dead wrong. Some say: the deadline is unfair. Some say: the deadline is unreasonable. I say: the deadline is March 20. \ \

- o We've all heard the saying "Take a Bite out of Crime."
Congress went one further -- it took a bite out of my crime bill. I want habeus corpus reform. I want a federal death penalty. I want exclusionary rule reform. I want mandatory sentencing. I want a kinder and gentler America, not a kinder and gentler crime bill.

- o I thank you for supporting me in 1988. You agree with me: we must reject those who soft-pedal the need to be hard on crime.

all the patriotic posturing, and protectionism amounts to nothing more than a smokescreen for a country that's running scared. And that's not the America you and I know.

The America we know is a country ready to take on the world and ready to rise to new levels, not run for cover. Our national symbol isn't the ostrich; it's the eagle. And that's the way it should be. Never in this Nation's long history has America turned its back on a challenge, and we are not going to start now. A proud America will never be protectionist. It will never be protectionist.

Bring it close to home, make no mistake about it, no State would be hurt more by economic isolationism than New Hampshire. Right now, New Hampshire businesses reap more than $1.2 billion a year from exports. Across this State, that's 35,000 jobs tied directly to foreign trade. And even in these hard times, New Hampshire's manufacturing exports increased 80 percent in the past 5 years alone.

It's an economic fact of life: If we close our markets, other countries will close theirs. And when the walls go up, who gets hurt? That's an easy one. You do. You get hurt. And I cannot, and I will not, let that happen to New Hampshire or to any of the rest of the States in this country. We are not going to have protectionism. We're going to compete, not cut and run. And let the world know, we're in this to win.

Two weeks ago, I urged the Congress to work with me to do the will of the American people. I laid out the action plan I've sketched, that I've outlined here, and yes, I set a deadline to help move the Congress along the way. Today, back in Washington, maybe at this very minute, the House Ways and Means Committee is at work; they started work this morning. And I challenge them once again to pass this short-term action plan, seven specific actions to stimulate, immediately stimulate the economy. They say they are taking up my plan, but they are not.

So I'll say again: Don't relabel my plan. Don't change it. Don't use it as a way to raise tax rates. Just pass this plan, and give the American people a chance to see whether it's going to work, as I'm confident it will. And look, later on—get this passed—later on we can all debate it, put it out there in the political arena, add to it, detract from it. We can all have a big, strong debate.

It must sound strange to the people in this chamber, strange for you legislators who meet for only 45 days a year to hear Congress complain that 52 days isn't enough time to get this done. They say the deadline is arbitrary. They say the deadline is too early. They say the deadline is unfair.

And I say: The deadline is March 20, and we're going to hold their feet to the fire. By March 20th, I want to be able to report to the American people that the liberation of America's economy has begun. I ask the people in this chamber, I ask the good people of New Hampshire to give me your strong support and send a message to the Congress. Tell them the time has come to act.

Today is a special day for me, for Barbara, for my family as well. I think back across the years to the lesson I learned long ago, and I look ahead in wonder to what can be. And I know there is no higher honor than serving this great Nation.

I want to thank you. I want to thank you, New Hampshire, for this warm welcome. And may God bless this land we share. We have much to be grateful for in these troubled times, and I want to be your leader for 4 more years. Thank you very much, and may God bless the United States of America. Thank you.

Note: The President spoke at 2:10 p.m. at the statehouse. In his remarks, he referred to Harold W. Burns, speaker of the New Hampshire House, and his wife, Ellie; Edward C. Dupont, Jr., president of the New Hampshire Senate, and his wife, Andrea; and David A. Brock, State chief justice.

Before I say anything else, I see some new faces in law enforcement here and firefighting. And I see some older faces in law enforcement and, sorry, firefighting here. [Laughter] But I just want to say that Barbara and I are grateful to those of you with whom we've interacted over the last 12 years in one way or another, mainly over on the eastern part of the State, over on the seacoast.

So many of you have had these odd hours, and I'm sure we've inconvenienced your families, but we are very grateful to each and every one of you. And of course, we're grateful for your service to your State, and we're grateful for your line of service. I hope that our administration will stay with this position of backing the firefighters and backing those out in law enforcement all the way.

I want to just mention a couple of things today in terms of the changes in the world. I won't give you the full load on foreign policy or the changes that have happened. But you know, we're having some tough times here. And I think it's good that we sometimes keep things in full perspective.

We've seen an awful lot of change in the world in the last few years. We've seen communism crumble in Eastern Europe. Many of you are young enough to have remembered when you climbed under the desks as schoolchildren for the antinuclear drills that we had in those days. And thank God that the world has changed enough so that your kids and my grandkids don't have quite as much to worry about on that front.

I, of course, was proud of the way New Hampshire responded, starting with the legislature's endorsement but really beginning with the service of the men and women from this State that served in Desert Storm. It was a superb operation. And there was a pride across this State, I'm sure, that still exists, pride in the way this country and this State came together in support of those young men and women. And they served us well, and they set a great example.

And you know, these are cynical days now because we're in this crazy political season. And it's a dance that we go through every 4 years. But I can tell you from a good deal of experience dealing with other countries that we are the envy of the world. And we are clearly the leader of the world. And as long as I'm President I'm going to do my level-best to see that we remain the leader of the free world.

I do not want to make this a partisan political appearance. It's hard not to these days, but I don't want to do it. But I did make a pitch to the legislature today for support for an economic program that avoids the quick fixes, that would stimulate the economy, particularly the homebuying business and homebuilding business in this country. We've put forward some incentives, laser-like incentives that, in my view and in the view of most economists that have looked at it, would really stimulate that area of the economy that has normally led this country out of recession. I'm talking about the real estate business generally, and I'm talking about homebuying and homebuilding. And so, take a look at that. I hope that it's something that will have the broad support, transcending party all across this country.

Actually, I've set a deadline for the United States Congress, saying, look, we can get this thing done. So I set a deadline in that State of the Union Message for March 20th. I said, "Let's move by then. We can do it." And we can do it. And then we can have all of the political debate and the political arguments afterward. But let's pass these seven points. And I've been challenging the Congress today to do that, and I hope those of you that agree with me will weigh in, although our Members of Congress here are very well in tune with this and way out front in support of it. So, the deadline is March 20th, and we're going to go after them in every way possible.

We've all heard the saying, and you all have lived it, really, "Take a bite out of crime." Well, Congress got a little backwards; they took a bite out of our crime bill. What we're trying to do there is to pass a strong anticrime bill that will support the law enforcement officers of this country. There's one that does transcend party, and it should transcend ideology, liberal or conservative. It is just sound common sense. I hope that you all will take a look at it because it backs the police officers. It backs those that are out there in DEA or wherever else they are in this antinarcotics fight, and it puts in tough provisions. There are some 60 tough provi-
