

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13607
Folder ID Number: 13607-007

Folder Title:
Georgia GOP 2/29/92 [OA 6098] [2]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	17	7	1

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

92 FEB 27 P4:34

February 27, 1992

MEMORANDUM FOR DAN MCGROARTY

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Georgia G.O.P. Rally

We have reviewed the attached presidential remarks and have noted a few suggested changes on the draft.

If you have any questions or we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

cc: Phillip D. Brady

Document No. 31121255

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 2/27/92

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE

3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992

SUBJECT: 2:00 P.M.

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SKINNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MOORE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CALIO	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROLLINS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	YEUTTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	FINDLAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
			MCGROARTY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

BOSKIN

REMARKS:

Please forward your comments directly to Dan McGroarty
Rm 122, Ext. 2930 NO LATER THAN 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27/92
with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

02 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

2

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. ~~And~~ ⁹ yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms. ↗

↖ And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our ^{NATION'S} legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, ^{THE QUALITY} ~~OF~~ American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, ^{DO NOT HAVE} ~~without~~ health insurance ^{COVERAGE.} ~~And you know how~~ even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't ^{NATIONALIZED} ~~socialized~~ medicine. My plan focuses on ~~opening up~~ ^{OPENING UP} access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see ^A ~~some~~ connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

~~We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait.~~ That's why in my State of the Union ^{Address,} I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. ⁹ ~~And~~ because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

4

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats ~~PRODUCED~~ surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

~~THEIR~~ ^{AMOUNTS} ~~That~~ tax cut ~~works out~~ to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. ^{Set} ~~You heard right.~~ ^{9 35,000 dollar} For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet. ✓

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote (2/27/92) on tax plan.]

CONGRESS MUST

5
MY PLAN CONTAINS AN

Pass my plan ~~to give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an~~ ^{TO CREATE} ~~incentive~~ ^{FOR AMERICAN BUSINESSES} to buy new equipment ~~and~~ ^{AND} hire more workers. ~~if we want~~ ⁹ to bolster that sagging real estate markets, ~~pass my plan~~ ⁹ ~~to give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home.~~ ^{WILL} ~~For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home.~~ //

NO ONE IS FOOLED BY YOUR

And let me say to my opponents: ~~quit~~ ⁹ paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

~~The truth is:~~ ⁹ If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: ~~you~~^{WE} do. //

6

But my opponents aren't about to let fact ~~intrude on~~^{DISRUPT THEIR} fantasy. ^{153.} They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. ~~We~~^I look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

~~I put my faith in~~^{STAND BEHIND} the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who ~~became the~~^{WAS A} liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. ~~Yes,~~^{AND} there were those who didn't support us then there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. ~~Because, you see,~~ Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

7

We're ^{BRINGING} ~~going to bring~~ that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

gam

Memorandum for Speechwriting Staff

From: Dan McGroarty

Regarding: Georgia GOP

Please return your comments to Room
122 by:

ASAP

Today's Date: FEB 27 1992

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

COMMENT ON Page 3 - REMARKS
ON ECONOMY

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. // but they want to see some connection between welfare and work.

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care:

And if ever there is a time when governments should intervene, at every level should intervene, it's to become the enforcer -- to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. WE KNOW that a strong economy keeps families together That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my

Values strong

I think we ought to connect "Economy & Family" - two key issues that show an awareness that a family might have a hard time holding together in a poor economy.

help

WJL

two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - ~~- it's the white flag of surrender.~~ /// → GOOD!

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
 Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

Carol

Memorandum for Speechwriting Staff

From: Dan McGroarty

Regarding: Georgia GOP

Please return your comments to Room 122 by:

ASAP

Today's Date: FEB 27 1992

Great Speech!

CBA

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington, ^{DC} the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- ^{Supreme Court} Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party ~~prospered~~ ^{prosper} here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, ~~these~~ ^{these} values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that Should be higher up in the acknowledgements.

✓
✓
✓
✓
✓

plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values ~~we never forgot.~~ that never left their hearts. ✓

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in ~~lives,~~ their children's Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms. ✓

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

Warning If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our ~~way~~ direction. ✓ And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, ^{are} without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing ~~we~~^I want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments ~~at~~ at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we ~~re~~ ^{must} ~~going to~~ do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds^Y folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason ~~willie~~ ^{Jesse James} ~~Sutton~~ robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

"Willie" will invoke the thought of Willie Horton...

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster ~~that~~ sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar ^{tax} credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing maybe move this to the beginning. It seems out of place here & it disrupts the flow.

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. // GOOD!

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win. GOOD!

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. / !!!
 Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

EXCELLENT!!

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

Dan - terrific speech!

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

92 FEB 27 P 3: 12

DATE: 2/27/92 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
SUBJECT: FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SKINNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MOORE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMETER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CALIO	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROLLINS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	YEUTTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	FINDLAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
			MCGROARTY		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS: BOSKIN

Please forward your comments directly to Dan McGroarty
Rm 122, Ext. 2930 NO LATER THAN 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27/92
with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Please see comments.

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

32 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

→ We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as ~~of~~ a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

The foundation of every community is a commitment to children, youth, developing good character and values, and strong families.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

All Americans deserve quality health care and a sense of well being, but

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

Americans want meaningful employment opportunities and the hope of economic advancement.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster ^{those} ~~that~~ sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on capital gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

FEB 27 P4:07

DATE: 2/27/92 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
 SUBJECT: FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SKINNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MOORE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CALIO	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROLLINS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	YEUTTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	FINDLAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
			MCGROARTY		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS: BOSKIN

Please forward your comments directly to Dan McGroarty
 Rm 122, Ext. 2930 NO LATER THAN 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27/92
 with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*speechwriting -
 a few minor comments.
 Thanks for 2/27*

PHILLIP D. BRADY
 Assistant to the President
 and Staff Secretary
 Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

92 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. // no longer in state!

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

→ in the Federal courts (2)

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's ^{Middle America} ~~the mini-van~~ and ~~McDonalds'~~ folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

→ This sounds like talking down to these people.

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

Jennifer

Memorandum for Speechwriting Staff

From: Dan McGroarty

Regarding: Georgia GOP

Please return your comments to Room 122 by:

ASAP

Today's Date: FEB 17 1992

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children, "Why? Because" parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. // echoes of Buchanan's theme.

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness. banal

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track. "on the wrong foot" - going down the wrong track

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. his dad, isn't there something more pernicious / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

fear at the social fabric of our society

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to ~~25 cents~~ ^{a quarter a} ~~per person per day~~ -- and ^{unpickle - dime"} ~~and~~ ^{"25 cents worth buy you a postage stamp"} to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van ^{how bout "champagne & Chanel"? Conky kidding} ~~and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit.~~ ^{"The K-Mart Crowd"} // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote (2/27/92) on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the ^{pseudo-} patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War ^{Two} isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

92 FEB 27 P2:28

DATE: 2/27/92 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SKINNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MOORE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CALIO	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROLLINS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	YEUTTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	FINDLAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
			MCGROARTY		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS: BOSKIN

Please forward your comments directly to Dan McGroarty Rm 122, Ext. 2930 NO LATER THAN 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27/92 with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Good - a few suggestions.

BT for SR

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

82 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's ~~favorite son~~ ^{own} Supreme Court -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you ^{and I} know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And ⁱⁿ ~~some~~ 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

92 FEB 27

~~McGroarty~~ NOTT!!!
CALIO'S
COMMENTS

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

92 FEB 27 P12:34

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

Bsb

Memorandum for Speechwriting Staff

From: Dan McGroarty

Regarding: Georgia GOP

Please return your comments to
Room 122 by:

ASAP

Good

Today's Date:

FEB 27 1992

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. (The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor.) // DON'T USE. IT'S WHAT THE PRO-

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // IT'S WHAT THE PRO- ABORTION FOLKS SAY

// They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

92 FEB 27 P4: 50

February 27, 1992

MEMORANDUM FOR DAN MCGROARTY
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT AND
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF SPEECHWRITING

FROM: NELSON LUND NL
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Georgia G.O.P. Rally

At the request of Phillip D. Brady, Counsel's office has reviewed the captioned remarks. Changes are marked on the attached hard copy.

We appreciate the opportunity to review these remarks.

Attachment

cc: Phillip D. Brady

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

82 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster ~~that~~ sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home -- we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

Cabinet Affairs
Pg. 5

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote (2/27/92) on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

*(Treas)
Give 1st time Home buyers a credit of up to $5000 to help them buy that home*

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 2/27/92 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
SUBJECT: FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HORNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SKINNER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCBRIDE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MOORE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PETERSMEYER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BRADY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BROMLEY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CALIO	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROLLINS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SMITH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	YEUTTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	FINDLAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HOLIDAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	KAUFMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
			MCGROARTY		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS: BOSKIN

Please forward your comments directly to Dan McGroarty
Rm 122, Ext. 2930 NO LATER THAN 3:00 P.M. TODAY 2/27/92
with a copy to this office.

Thank you.

RESPONSE:

ok done

PHILLIP D. BRADY
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Bunton
February 27, 1992
GA-9:00 am

52 FEB 27 P12:34
PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: GEORGIA G.O.P. RALLY
FEBRUARY 29, 1992
2:00 P.M.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of the Georgia General Assembly. Mack Mattingly. Newt Gingrich -- one of the real firebrands of the Republican Party. // And my thanks to all of you for coming to Atlanta from Macon to Marietta and from the four corners of this great state. //

This gathering marks a great triumph. To look around this room is to see just how far we've come. Must be something about the Republican Party and red clay. In this state, and all across the South -- the Republican Party is here to stay.

With this rise comes a new generation of Georgia Republicans -- reformers, who're trying to teach Washington the wisdom of their ways. I'm talking about Newt Gingrich and Mack Mattingly, about Bo Callaway and Lou Sullivan. And when we call the roll, let's not forget Georgia's favorite son -- Justice Clarence Thomas. ' //

Our Party prospered here because the great strengths of the Republican party are the great strengths of the South: bedrock belief in faith and family. Community and country. The virtues of hard work and humble worship.

All across America, those values are growing stronger -- coming back by popular demand. // As a nation, we've begun to see in these values a solution to so many of the crises that plague our cities, our schools and our streets. People are coming home -- to the values we never forgot.

We believe that parents -- not the government -- should make the decisions that matter in life. Parents -- not government -- should choose their children's schools. Parents -- not government -- should choose who cares for their children -- parents know better than some bureaucrat in Washington, D.C. And yes, we believe there's a place for voluntary prayer in our children's classrooms.

And we believe America is first so long as we put the family first. //

These bedrock beliefs don't fade with age. They don't change from one election to the next. They're the home truths that call this nation forward to greatness.

If America holds fast to these truths we will never lose our way. And still, right now, there's no denying it: in too many ways, we're going down the wrong track.

Look at our legal system. The home of the free has become the land of the lawsuit. That's why we've introduced a bill to put a stop to frivolous lawsuits. Nuisance suits sap our economy and strain our patience. / When you're as likely to serve your neighbor a subpoena as of a cup of coffee -- something's wrong. When doctors won't deliver babies, and Dads won't coach little league for fear of lawsuits -- something's wrong. // America won't find its way out of this mess until we spend more time helping one another than we do suing one another.

Look at this nation's health care system. Right now, American health care is the best in the world -- bar none. The problem is access: too many Americans, many with families, without health insurance. And you know how even a short stay in the hospital can rip a hole right through a family's budget.

The answer isn't socialized medicine. My plan focuses on opening up access to all Americans. If we wanted long lines and revolving-door health care, we'd put our doctors to work at the Department of Motor Vehicles. The last thing we want is to put the government between you and your doctor. //

Finally, look at our welfare system. People are willing to support benefits for families in need -- yes, Americans care: but they want to see some connection between welfare and work. They want to see governments at every level work together to track down the dead-beat Dads -- the ones who can't be bothered to pay child-support. // They want to see us break the cycle of dependency that destroys dignity -- passes down poverty from one generation to the next. That's wrong. That's cruel. And we're going to do something to change it. //

But the number one issue today is the economy. That's what's keeping people up late at night -- worrying about how they're going to pay the bills, put food on the table, care for their kids, and still manage to put away something for their own retirement.

We know we've got to get this economy moving -- and we can't wait. That's why -- in my State of the Union -- I laid out my two-part plan to spark economic recovery: a seven-point short-term plan to stimulate the economy as early as this Spring -- and a long-term plan to keep America growing tomorrow, and into the next Century. And because I knew I couldn't wait for Congress to act -- I set a deadline to help them along the way.

But instead of working on my plan, liberal Democrats surfaced their own. True to form, it's a temporary tax cut -- in exchange for a permanent tax hike.

That tax cut works out to 25 cents per person per day -- and to make that two-bit tax cut permanent, the liberals would have to jack up the tax rate for every American making more than 35,000 dollars. You heard right: For a plan that's supposed to help the Middle Class, that's going to come as real news to a lot of factory workers and school teachers -- people you know: every-day Americans struggling to make ends meet.

Let's face it: when the tax-and-spend crowd talks about taking aim at the champagne and caviar set -- it's the mini-van and McDonalds' folks who always take the hit. // The liberals are going to tax the Middle Class for the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks -- because that's where the money is. //

Ask any economist: they'll tell you the quickest way to cut this recovery off at the knees is to raise taxes. So if the Democrats want to go that route -- if they want to send me a plan that piles on more taxes: I'll spare them the suspense. Get moving on my plan -- or get ready for a veto. // [Result of House vote {2/27/92} on tax plan.]

Pass my plan: give American businesses my Investment Tax Allowance, and give them an incentive to buy new equipment -- hire more workers. If we want to bolster that sagging real estate markets, pass my plan: give first-time homebuyers a 5000 dollar credit to help them buy that home. For families here in the Atlanta area -- that credit is worth six months' mortgage on the average Atlanta home. //

And let me say to my opponents: Quit paying lip-service to competitiveness -- and practicing class warfare. Quit punishing the people who create jobs -- pass my plan and cut the tax on cap gains. //

My plan is shaped to meet the new economic realities -- realities that have helped make Atlanta the South's great international city. And come 1996, Atlanta comes of age -- as America's very own Olympic City. //

[[There's a popular saying: when I pass into the hereafter, I don't know if I'll be going "up" or "down" -- but I know wherever I go, I'll change planes in Atlanta. //]]

The truth is: If we want to succeed economically at home - - we've got to lead economically abroad. We create jobs right here in America when we open up export markets around the world. Here in Georgia, in the past four years, manufacturing exports have almost doubled. Today, in the manufacturing sector alone, over [180,000] Georgia jobs are tied to trade. So get past all the tough talk, all the patriotic posturing about fighting back by shutting out foreign goods. If this country starts closing

it's markets -- other countries will close theirs. When that happens, who get's hurt? Easy: you do. //

But my opponents aren't about to let fact intrude on fantasy. They're peddling protectionism -- a retreat from economic reality into a dangerous pre-World War two isolationism. Well look closely. That's not the American flag they're waving - - it's the white flag of surrender. //

That's not the America you and I know. We don't cut and run -- we compete. Never in this nation's long history have we turned our backs on a challenge -- and we won't start now.

I put my faith in the American worker: level the playing field, and the American worker will out-think, out-produce and out-perform anyone, anywhere, anytime. I say: Let the world know -- America is in it to win.

Don't listen to talking heads out there -- the folks who can't seem to feel good unless they've got something bad to say about this great country. America isn't a nation that gets ahead by tearing others down. //

Time after time -- America has been called upon.

Time after time -- American has met the challenge.

This time, America will do it again.

Think back one year ago today -- to the calm after Desert Storm. Ask any one of the proud sons and daughters of Georgia who became the liberators of Kuwait: they'll tell you military strength is nothing without moral support right here at home. /
Yes, there were those who didn't support us then -- there are those who second guess us now. / But not the good people of Georgia. In those difficult days, when our kids laid it all on the line: Georgia never wavered. Because, you see, Georgia kept its faith in freedom. //

We're going to bring that same spirit to the fight we face today. From next Tuesday through the first Tuesday in November, we're going to take our message all across the country. So if you want to send a message to Washington, send this President back for four more years -- and send more good Georgia Republicans to the Congress. ///

I want to close today with a few words from the heart. Barbara and I are blessed -- blessed to serve at this moment in time when so many of the old fears have been driven away. When so many new hopes stand within our reach.

Since the day I took the oath of office, I've made it my duty always to do what's right for America. I've done my level best -- and I'm not done yet. / I ask the good people of Georgia: Together we've made a great beginning. Give me four more years to finish the job. //

Thank you for this warm Georgia welcome -- and may God bless the United States of America.

#