MAY 18, 1992

I didn't want to let this convention go by without a "Hello" and "Thank you" to all my friends from the International Mass Retailers Association. [[When Barbara found out you were down in Orlando, she said you had probably seen enough of Dumbo and Goofy without hearing from me. \\ What can I say, Barbara Bush -- America's Fairy Godmother.]] Anyway, my best wishes and congratulations to all my good friends and supporters -- especially your President, Bob Verdisco, and your Chairman of the Board, Warren White.

I understand that my friend Norman Schwarzkopf is standing by. When "The Bear" speaks, people listen -- or else they dive into their bunkers. General Schwarzkopf is a man of courage who helped us change the world. Now it's people like you, and the International Mass Retailers Association, that are helping us change America.

IMRA [IM - rah] represents the overwhelming majority of the nearly $170 billion mass retail industry -- the strongest segment of overall retail. Recent retail stats paint a picture of an economy on the rise. I have faith in this recovery -- because I have faith in people like you. All of you have earned your stars in turning this economy around.

This President and this Administration stand committed to growth -- you can count on it. And I personally appreciate the strong support IMRA has announced -- support for my economic growth package announced in my State of the Union address, support for my regulatory reform initiatives, and your support for our civil justice reforms at the heart of the Access to Justice Act of 1992.

You're out there on the front lines of this economic recovery. You understand the deadly process that can turn regulatory red tape into pink slips for businesses. You've seen how the heavy hand of government can tie the Invisible Hand of a free market at work. Together, we can bring real change to our federal government. That's my goal and I need your support.

Barbara joins me in congratulating all of you on your successful convention in beautiful Florida. Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: INDEPENDENCE DAY MESSAGE TO ARMED FORCES
MAY 6, 1992

A little over two hundred years ago, this country won a victory that has resounded down throughout the centuries as a landmark event in the history of freedom. The courage of those early patriots who secured liberty for future generations has lived on in you -- America's sons and daughters, who have so courageously served this nation in peace and war.

For more than two centuries, our ideals of democracy and individual rights have helped keep alight the torch of liberty. And hundreds of millions of people, both here and abroad, owe thanks to America's armed forces for your willingness to go in harm's way to defend the principles we hold dear.

This year, millions more have a new reason to be grateful to America's servicemen and women. Because of your dedication, we have weathered the long, often lonely vigil to secure victory in the Cold War. Democracy is spreading into the furthest corners of the former communist world. I'm reminded of a proverb: "By wisdom peace, by peace plenty." Literally around the world, newly independent countries are embracing the freedoms and principles established by our forefathers some two centuries ago. Together, we join the peoples of this new freedom front in forging a path into the next century -- a new world we enter with great promise for a true world at peace.

As we approach this new era, your vigilance will remain a cornerstone of our security. On behalf of all Americans, I want to mark this Independence Day by thanking you for the sacrifices you willingly make for this nation.

Happy Fourth of July to you and all your families. And may God bless each and every one of you and this, the freest, most blessed nation on Earth, the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE: STATE GOP
Monday, May 18, 1992

Thank you Rich. Greetings from the White House. Let me begin by thanking you all for your dedication and hard work. We're united by what we have in common -- our commitment to family, to jobs, to peace. We want great things for this nation.

Together we've made a great beginning. And I've laid out an aggressive and ambitious agenda for change -- to take us to a new American future. Already, we've sparked a revolution in education through America 2000. Now it's time for parents, not government, to choose where their kids will go to school.

Our quality of health care is the best in the world -- the problem is access. We need to reform health care and make it affordable for everyone.

It's time to reform our legal system -- eliminate frivolous lawsuits that strain our economy and sap our strength. Because if we spend less time suing one another, we'll have more time to help one another.

We need to expand trade, open markets abroad that mean more American jobs at home. The new reality is simply this: to succeed economically at home we have to compete economically abroad.

Finally, we need a new approach -- one built on Republican principles -- to bring hope and opportunity to our inner cities.

We changed the world, now we can change America -- a good place to start is the Congress. Think of what we'd accomplish with a Republican Senate and House. Majority 2000 is an ambitious goal -- but it's within our reach. We can be the majority party by the year 2000 if we start right now.

We'll see lots of Republican wins this year -- but only with your help. American leadership changed the world. Republican leadership will change America.

Thank you all. Have a great convention.

Good day, Nobles. Best wishes to you and your lovely ladies on this, the occasion of your 118th annual Imperial Council Session.

I am delighted to congratulate a fellow Texan, Everett Evans, on being named to the highest office in Shrinedom -- that of your Imperial Potentate.

Everett is not only a great Texan, he's a great American and I know he will do an excellent job in leading the Shrine during the coming year.

I could speak volumes about the collective contributions of the Shrine. Foremost among them is your world-renowned work with crippled and burned children. Fine organizations like yours are the backbone of our great country. On behalf of a grateful nation, I salute you for your compassion and your commitment. For kids in need -- you have made a wonderful difference.

Best of luck to all of you for a productive and enjoyable convention. May God bless you and the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: AIR COMMAND & STAFF COLLEGE GRADUATION
MONDAY, MAY 18, 1992

Good evening. I wanted very much to join these aviation greats in honoring your graduation. Wherever pilots gather, I feel right at home, and I wish I could be there in person. I have fond memories of my visit to Maxwell last year. ((And I'm sure I'll be back, \\ due to the excellent foresight of the Air Force, which put the Air University near my favorite fishing spot in Pintlala.)) \\\

Last year, you -- the members of the armed forces -- left the comfort of your homes and families to meet a formidable challenge -- not just to U.S. interests but to the world as well. Like the millions who have served this nation before, you went half-way 'round the world to defeat those who would take away their neighbor's freedom, and you made our nation proud.

As I told you last year, the men and women of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines joined those from other countries in showing just how decisive airpower can be. But as I'm sure you've learned from this distinguished "Gathering of Eagles," the successful application of force requires the proper training, expertise and contribution of everyone in uniform.

This Eagles program, I believe, is an excellent way for those who have met the challenges of the past to share their experiences and help prepare you for the challenges of the future. In doing so, these aviators, some of whom were on opposing sides, forge new and lasting bonds of friendship.

As your year of study at A-C-S-C draws to a close, I hope you have made similar bonds that can sustain and enrich your career. For as any veteran knows, friends made in the military are friends for life.

Many of you will become leaders in your services, so I hope you have learned your lessons well. Because as we saw in Desert Storm, the security and freedom of our nation and our allies will depend on your skill, your courage, and your leadership. Your country needs you, and I salute you. \\ \\ Good luck -- aim high -- and may God bless the United States of America.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAVID DEMAREST DMcA for DD

SUBJECT: 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUILDERS

On Monday, May 18th at 11:15 a.m., you will address 2,000 attendees on the South Lawn at the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the National Association of Home Builders. Your remarks (10 minutes, cards) focus on the importance of passing our housing initiatives to help fuel the economy.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUILDERS
50TH ANNIVERSARY
SOUTH LAWN
MONDAY, MAY 18, 1992

Members; National Directors; and friends of the National Association of Home Builders. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Jack Kemp. ((As someone who lives in public housing, I'm glad to see the HUD Secretary here -- and let me tell you: He's doing a terrific job.)) // Ladies and gentlemen, fellow business men and women.

Welcome to the White House -- which I often call the People's House. ((For the record: With all these appliances out here, I just want to head off any rumor that the White House is having a yard sale.)) //

Instead, we are here to mark a special birthday: The 50th anniversary of the NAHB. And to salute a special team with whom I just met inside. First, your president -- Jay Buchert [BUE-kirt]. Next, the other members of your leadership -- Roger Glunt, Tommy Thompson, Jim Irvine, Mark Tipton, Bob Bannister, and of course, Kent Colton. //

I want to thank you for your support. Even more, we Bushes are grateful for your friendship. / ((It's true: Millie was disappointed when I broke the news to her that the structure behind me is not her new doghouse.)) / But Barbara and our kids believe in the same things as you do: Community and country -- respect and responsibility -- family, jobs, and peace. / We know we put America first when we put America's families first. /

For 50 years, that's what you've done -- helped to fulfill the American Dream -- and enlarge the American Pie. When the NAHB was founded, one third of the nation lived in substandard housing and only 4 in 10 Americans owned their own homes. Today, more than 70 million new homes and apartment units later -- 2 in 3 households own their home. //

For that, I salute you. Once again you're helping our economy work -- so that America can get back to work. / Yes, we've had tough times. But consider this: 264,000 housing starts in the first three months of this year. A 2 percent GDP growth rate in the first quarter -- more than a quarter of that resulting from residential construction. / The old adage is coming true: As housing goes, so goes the economy. Your industry employs more than 6 million Americans. More and more they're helping other Americans turn recession into recovery. //

I speak here as a participant -- not bystander. From my Texas business days, I know what it means to meet a payroll, balance a budget, and help people put food on the table. / Like you, I know that strong housing can help a strong economy. I know how that helps Americans worried about providing for their families -- meeting the challenges of paying the bills, buying that home, and setting aside for retirement. //

That's why in my State of the Union Address I announced a program for economic growth. I called for penalty-free withdrawals from IRAs for the purchase of a first home. Changes in the passive loss tax rules to spur real estate and housing development, an extension of mortgage revenue bonds and the low income housing tax credit. And, yes, I called for a job-generating cut in the tax on capital gains. //

Then, there's the proposal I'm especially proud of: A $5,000 tax credit for first-time homebuyers. We need this $5,000 tax credit to keep the housing market on the mend -- helping people like you sell and build homes -- and here's why: Five thousand dollars could pay seven months of mortgage payments on the average American home. According to your own figures, these housing initiatives would mean 415,000 new construction industry jobs, and $20 billion in new economic activity. This is just one more way that your slogan, "housing equals jobs" can be realized.

Sadly, some in Congress don't get the message. They seem to care more about the spending they do in the Congressional House -- than making it easier for average Americans to spend on their house. / ((I only wish they were as enthusiastic about the first-time homebuyer as they are about the first-time taxpayer)) The NAHB ran an ad in the Washington Post. The headline read: "Earth to Congress: Enough is Enough." / I couldn't have said it better myself. And believe me, the voters will have the last word on this when they go to the polls in November.

You've heard the definition of a contractor: "A gambler who never gets to shuffle, cut, or deal." We have to make it easier to deal, sell, hire, and invest. So I will continue to sound the message that sound banks should make sound loans. The bankers should also work with borrowers experiencing temporary difficulties from the remnants of the recession. For our part, we've been working with the Federal Reserve to keep interest rates low and we've been fighting for common sense regulation of banks and thrifts.

We've made over thirty specific regulatory policy changes -- many with help from your leadership -- to enhance the ability of banks and thrifts to raise new capital, make new loans, and work with troubled borrowers. Treasury Secretary Brady and I will continue to work to ensure that these measures are carried out.

Next, I will push hard for our HOPE Initiative -- requesting $1 billion in funding for FY '93 -- a key part of my plan for a new America to bring opportunity to our inner cities. // Jack Kemp knows how HOPE can give poor families a stake in their communities. Bottom line: HOPE will turn housing into homes.

But, HOPE is only one part of my 6-point plan for a New America, which will use opportunity, not bureaucracy, to combat poverty and inequality. The plan also includes our Weed and Seed anti-crime initiative. Enterprise Zones. Education Reform, welfare reform, and a strong jobs program for city youth. This plan makes a promising start, and I'm going to do my level best to get it passed.

And, yes, I will continue to push for regulatory reform -- because I want government to help -- not hurt -- the ability of private enterprise to expand and create jobs. / So I have extended for another 120 days the blanket moratorium on Federal regulation. / Jay Buchert says: "Let builders build." I know he agrees: We need policies that also let buyers buy. //

I wish everyone understood this concept. On the other hand, you know that it takes more than bricks, lumber, and mortar to build a home. It takes heart and skill -- it takes dreams. You know that owning a home helps America -- makes it better, more caring. You show this in your "Homes Across America" program -- where NAHB members build and renovate homes for the needy. //

So far, this program has housed more than 600 families. With us today is one of them -- Gerald and Angela Williams and their four children -- Murria, Charlease, Gerald, and Latoya, who moved into their new home in Jacksonville, Florida, on Mother's Day. / The Williams' home was built by the builders of the Jacksonville Association of NAHB and Habitat for Humanity. I salute them -- and also the Williams family. / Won't you please stand up: You show how the dream of home ownership keeps the American Dream alive. //

That dream seemed elusive a half-century ago -- but you have aided it / nurtured it / as a parent does a child. For that, I thank you -- and salute you on behalf of each American. May God bless you all and this great country -- the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: STATESMAN'S DINNER HONORING BARBARA BUSH
ROOM 450

[[Thank you, Noelle -- you can relax now.]] Good evening everyone. As you know, Barbara's our White House philosopher, and I greatly rely on her advice. \ Sometimes it can be a little intimidating though. \ I mean, imagine sitting across the dinner table from Plato in pearls. \\ So this video provides a unique opportunity: whatever I say -- I get the last word.

I think it's appropriate that Barbara would be honored at the Statesman's Dinner. - Someone once said that "a politician thinks of the next election; [but] a statesman thinks of the next generation." I guess that's why they call her "America's Grandmother."

Barbara believes, as I do, that for better or for worse, in sickness and in health, America is one family -- that's the real First Family. Every time she reads aloud to schoolchildren, or comforts an AIDS victim, or helps feed the hungry -- she puts that family first.

I guess Barbara's greatest gift could be called "giving." I remember our early years, when my job took the family from place to place, home for us was a person named Barbara Bush. Remember her Wellesley commencement speech? Some students protested, saying she was just a woman who followed her husband. They got it wrong. In countless ways -- I have followed her. God bless you, and God bless the United States of America as much as he blessed me \ the day I met Barbara Bush.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: AIR COMMAND & STAFF COLLEGE GRADUATION
ROOM 459
MONDAY, MAY 18, 1992

Good evening. I wanted very much to join these aviation greats in honoring your graduation. Wherever pilots and airmen gather, I feel right at home, and I wish I could be there in person. I have fond memories of my visit to Maxwell last year.
((And I'm sure I'll be back, \\ due to the excellent foresight of the Air Force, which put the Air University near my favorite fishing spot in Pintlala.)) \\\

Last year, you -- the members of the armed forces -- left the comfort of your homes and families to meet a challenge. Just as those in a long, blue line before you, you went half-way
'round the world to defeat those who would take away their neighbor's freedom, and you made our nation proud.

As I told you last year, the airmen of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines joined those from other countries in showing just how decisive airpower can be. But as I'm sure you've learned from this distinguished "Gathering of Eagles," the successful application of force requires the proper training and expertise of everyone in uniform.

This Eagles program, I believe, is an excellent way for those who have met the challenges of the past to share their experiences and help prepare you for the challenges of the future. In doing so, these aviators, some of whom were on opposing sides, forge new and lasting bonds of friendship.

As your year of study at A-C-S-C draws to a close, I hope you have made similar bonds that can sustain and enrich your career. For as any veteran knows, friends made in the military are friends for life.

Many of you will become leaders in your services, so I hope you have learned your lessons well. Because as we saw in Desert Storm, the security and freedom of our nation and our allies will depend on your skill, your courage, and your leadership. Your country needs you, and I salute you. \\\ Good luck -- aim high -- and may God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE: STATE GOP
 Monday, May 18, 1992

Thank you Rich. Greetings from the White House. Let me begin by thanking you all for your dedication and hard work. We're united by what we have in common -- our commitment to family, to jobs, to peace. We want great things for this nation.

Together we've made a great beginning. And I've laid out an aggressive and ambitious agenda for change -- to take us to a new American future. Already, we've sparked a revolution in education through America 2000. Now it's time for parents, not government, to choose where their kids will go to school.

Our quality of health care is the best in the world -- the problem is access. We need to reform health care and make it affordable for everyone.

It's time to reform our legal system -- eliminate frivolous lawsuits that strain our economy and sap our strength. Because if we spend less time suing one another, we'll have more time to help one another.

We need to expand trade, open markets abroad that mean more American jobs at home. The new reality is simply this: to succeed economically at home we have to compete economically abroad.

Finally, we need a new approach -- one built on Republican principles -- to bring hope and opportunity to our inner cities.

We changed the world, now we can change America -- a good place to start is the Congress. Think of what we'd accomplish with a Republican Senate and House. Majority 2000 is an ambitious goal -- but it's within our reach. We can be the majority party by the year 2000 if we start right now.

We'll see lots of Republican wins this year -- but only with your help. American leadership changed the world. Republican leadership will change America.

Thank you all. Have a great convention.

I didn't want to let this convention go by without a "Hello" and "Thank you" to all my friends from the International Mass Retail Association. [[When Barbara found out you were down in Orlando, she said you had probably seen enough of Dumbo and Goofy without hearing from me. \\ What can I say, Barbara Bush -- America's Fairy Godmother.]] Anyway, my best wishes and congratulations to all my good friends and supporters -- especially your President, Bob Verdisco, and your Chairman of the Board, Warren White.

I understand that my friend Norman Schwarzkopf is standing by. When "The Bear" speaks, people listen -- or else they dive into their bunkers. General Schwarzkopf is a man of courage who helped us change the world. Now it's people like you, and the International Mass Retail Association, that are helping us change America.

IMRA [IM - rah] represents the overwhelming majority of the nearly $170 billion mass retail industry -- the strongest segment of overall retail. Recent retail stats paint a picture of an economy on the rise. I have faith in this recovery -- because I have faith in people like you. All of you have earned your stars in turning this economy around.

This President and this Administration stand committed to this growth -- you can count on it. And I personally appreciate the strong support IMRA has announced -- support for my economic growth package announced in my State of the Union address, support for my regulatory reform initiatives, and your support for our civil justice reforms at the heart of the Access to Justice Act of 1992.

You're out there on the front lines of this economic recovery. You understand the deadly process that can turn regulatory red tape into pink slips for businesses. You've seen how the hand of government can tie the Invisible Hand of a free market at work. Together, we can bring real change to our federal government. That's my goal and I need your support.

Two hundred years ago, this country won a victory that has resounded down throughout the centuries as a landmark event in the history of freedom. The courage of those early patriots who secured liberty for future generations has lived on in you -- America's sons and daughters, who have so courageously served this nation in peace and war.

For more than two centuries, our ideals of democracy and individual rights have helped keep alight the torch of liberty. And hundreds of millions of people, both here and abroad, owe thanks to America's armed forces for your willingness to go in harm's way to defend the principles we hold dear.

This year, millions more have a new reason to be grateful to America's servicemen and women. Because of your dedication, we have weathered the long, often lonely vigil to secure victory in the Cold War. Democracy is spreading into the furthest corners of the former communist world. I'm reminded of a proverb: "By wisdom peace, by peace plenty." Literally around the world, newly independent countries are embracing the freedoms and principles established by our forefathers some two centuries ago. Together, we join the peoples of this new freedom front in forging a path into the next century -- a new world we enter with great promise for a true world at peace.

As we approach this new era, your vigilance will remain a cornerstone of our security. On behalf of all Americans, I want to mark this Independence Day by thanking you for the sacrifices you willingly make for this nation.

Happy Fourth of July to you and all your families. And may God bless each and every one of you and this, the freest, most blessed nation on Earth, the United States of America.

This year, millions more have a new reason to be grateful to America's servicemen and women. Because of your dedication, we have weathered the long, often lonely vigil to secure victory in the Cold War. Democracy is spreading into the furthest corners of the former communist world. I'm reminded of a proverb: "By wisdom peace, by peace plenty." Literally around the world, newly independent countries are embracing the freedoms and principles established by our forefathers some two centuries ago. Together, we join the peoples of this new freedom front in forging a path into the next century -- a new ^{era} world we enter with great promise for a true world at peace.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: AIR COMMAND & STAFF COLLEGE GRADUATION
ROOM 459
MONDAY, MAY 18, 1992

Good evening. I wanted very much to join these aviation greats in honoring your graduation. Wherever pilots and airmen gather, I feel right at home, and I wish I could be there in person. I have fond memories of my visit to Maxwell last year.
((And I'm sure I'll be back, \\ due to the excellent foresight of the Air Force, which put the Air University near my favorite fishing spot in Pintlala.)) \\\

Last year, you -- the members of the armed forces -- left
the comfort of your homes and families to meet a challenge. Just as those in a long, blue line before you, you went half-way
'round the world to defeat those who would take away ~~their~~
neighbor's freedom, and you made our nation proud.

As I told you last year, the airmen of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines joined those from other countries in showing just how decisive airpower can be. But as I'm sure you've learned from this distinguished "Gathering of Eagles," the successful application of force requires the proper training and
expertise of everyone in uniform.

This Eagles program, I believe, is an excellent way for those who have met the challenges of the past to share their experiences and help prepare you for the challenges of the future. In doing so, these aviators, some of whom were on opposing sides, forge new and lasting bonds of friendship.

As your year of study at A-C-S-C draws to a close, I hope you have made similar bonds that can sustain and enrich your career. For as any veteran knows, friends made in the military are friends for life.

Many of you will become leaders in your services, so I hope you have learned your lessons well. Because as we saw in Desert Storm, the security and freedom of our nation and our allies will depend on your skill, your courage, and your leadership. Your country needs you, and I salute you. \\\ Good luck -- aim high -- and may God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE: STATE GOP

Thank you Rich. Greetings from the White House. Let me begin by thanking you all for your dedication and hard work. We're united by what we have in common -- our commitment to family, to jobs, to peace. We want great things for this nation.

Together we've made a great beginning. And I've laid out an aggressive and ambitious agenda for change -- to take us to a new American future. Already, we've sparked a revolution in education through America 2000. Now it's time for parents, not government, to choose where their kids will go to school.

Our quality of health care is the best in the world -- the problem is access. We need to reform health care and make it affordable for everyone.

It's time to reform our legal system -- eliminate frivolous lawsuits that strain our economy and sap our strength. Because if we spend less time suing one another, we'll have more time to help one another.

We need to expand trade, open markets abroad that mean more American jobs at home. The new reality is simply this: to succeed economically at home we have to compete economically abroad.

Finally, we need a new approach -- one built on Republican principles -- to bring hope and opportunity to our inner cities.

We changed the world, now we can change America -- a good place to start is the Congress. Think of what we'd accomplish with a Republican Senate and House. Majority 2000 is an ambitious goal -- but it's within our reach. We can be the majority party by the year 2000 if we start right now.

We'll see lots of Republican wins this year -- but only with your help. American leadership changed the world. Republican leadership will change America.

Thank you all. Have a great convention.

I didn't want to let this convention go by without a "Hello" and "Thank you" to all my friends from the International Mass Retail Association. [[When Barbara found out you were down in Orlando, she said you had probably seen enough of Dumbo and Goofy without hearing from me. \\ [What can I say, Barbara Bush -- America's Fairy Godmother.]]] Anyway, my best wishes and congratulations to all my good friends and supporters -- especially your President, Bob Verdisco, and your Chairman of the Board, Warren White.

I understand that my friend Norman Schwarzkopf is standing by. When "The Bear" speaks, people listen -- or else they dive into their bunkers. General Schwarzkopf is a man of courage who helped us change the world. Now it's people like you, and the International Mass Retail Association, that are helping us change America.

IMRA [IM - rah] represents the overwhelming majority of the nearly $170 billion mass retail industry -- the strongest segment of overall retail. Recent retail stats paint a picture of an economy on the rise. I have faith in this recovery -- because I have faith in people like you. All of you have earned your stars in turning this economy around.

This President and this Administration stand committed to this growth -- you can count on it. And I personally appreciate the strong support IMRA has announced -- support for my economic growth package announced in my State of the Union address, support for my regulatory reform initiatives, and your support for our civil justice reforms at the heart of the Access to Justice Act of 1992.

You're out there on the front lines of this economic recovery. You understand the deadly process that can turn regulatory red tape into pink slips for businesses. Barbara joins me in congratulating all of you on your successful convention in beautiful Florida. Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

Good day, Nobles. Best wishes to you and your lovely ladies on this, the occasion of your 118th annual Imperial Council Session.

I am delighted to congratulate a fellow Texan, Everett Evans, on being named to the highest office in Shrinedom -- that of your Imperial Potentate.

Everett is not only a great Texan, he's a great American and I know he will do an excellent job in leading the Shrine during the coming year.

I could speak volumes about the collective contributions of the Shrine. Foremost among them is your world-renowned work with crippled and burned children. Fine organizations like yours are the backbone of our great country. On behalf of a grateful nation, I salute you for your compassion and your commitment. For kids in need -- you have made a wonderful difference.

Best of luck to all of you for a productive and enjoyable convention. May God bless you and the United States of America.

Two hundred years ago, this country won a victory that has resounded ~~down~~^g throughout the centuries as a landmark event in the history of freedom. The courage of those early patriots who secured liberty for future generations has lived on in you -- America's sons and daughters, who have so courageously served this nation in peace and war.

For more than two centuries, our ideals of democracy and individual rights have helped keep alight the torch of liberty. And hundreds of millions of people, both here and abroad, owe thanks to America's armed forces for your willingness to go in harm's way to defend the principles we hold dear.

This year, millions more have a new reason to be grateful to America's servicemen and women. Good evening everyone. I find this a highly interesting situation. \ I can say whatever I like -- and my wife can't talk back. \\

Barbara is my best friend. In the early years, when my job took the family from place to place, home for us was a person named Barbara Bush. Remember her Wellesley commencement speech? Some students protested, saying she was just a woman who followed her husband. They got it wrong. In countless ways -- I have followed Barbara.

So I'm not surprised when so many other Americans look to her leadership. She is waging a war against illiteracy -- and she is winning. She has shared her greatest gift -- her love -- with the tragic victims of AIDS. And through example, she teaches the meaning of family, faith, and friends.

I think it's appropriate that Barbara would be honored at the Statesman's Dinner. Someone once said that "a politician thinks of the next election; [but] a statesman thinks of the next generation." That's Barbara Bush -- in so many ways. Thank you.

[[Thank you, Noelle -- you can relax now.]] Good evening everyone. As you know, Barbara's our White House philosopher, and I greatly rely on her advice. \ Sometimes it can be a little intimidating though. \ I mean, imagine sitting across the dinner table from Plato in pearls. \\ So this video provides a unique opportunity: whatever I say -- I get the last word.

I think it's appropriate that Barbara would be honored at the Statesman's Dinner. Someone once said that "a politician thinks of the next election; [but] a statesman thinks of the next generation." I guess that's why they call her "America's Grandmother."

Barbara believes, as I do, that for better or for worse, in sickness and in health, America is one family -- that's the real First Family. Every time she reads aloud to schoolchildren, or comforts an AIDS victim, or helps feed the hungry -- she puts that family first.

I guess Barbara's greatest gift could be called "giving." I remember our early years, when my job took the family from place to place, home for us was a person named Barbara Bush. Remember her Wellesley commencement speech? Some students protested, saying she was just a woman who followed her husband. They got it wrong. In countless ways -- I have followed her. God bless

ROOM 459
MONDAY, MAY 18, 1992

Good evening. I wanted very much to join these aviation greats in honoring your graduation. Wherever pilots and airmen gather, I feel right at home, and I wish I could be there in person. I have fond memories of my visit to Maxwell last year.
((And I'm sure I'll be back, \\ due to the excellent foresight of the Air Force, which put the Air University near my favorite fishing spot in Pintlala.)) \\\

Last year, you -- the members of the armed forces -- left
the comfort of your homes and families to meet a challenge. Just as those in a long, blue line before you, you went half-way
'round the world to defeat those who would take away their neighbor's freedom, and you made our nation proud.

As I told you last year, the airmen of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines joined those from other countries in showing just how decisive airpower can be. But as I'm sure you've learned from this distinguished "Gathering of Eagles," the successful application of force requires the proper training and
expertise of everyone in uniform.

This Eagles program, I believe, is an excellent way for those who have met the challenges of the past to share their experiences and help prepare you for the challenges of the future. In doing so, these aviators, some of whom were on opposing sides, forge new and lasting bonds of friendship.

As your year of study at A-C-S-C draws to a close, I hope you have made similar bonds that can sustain and enrich your career. For as any veteran knows, friends made in the military are friends for life.

Many of you will become leaders in your services, so I hope you have learned your lessons well. Because as we saw in Desert Storm, the security and freedom of our nation and our allies will depend on your skill, your courage, and your leadership. Your country needs you, and I salute you. \\\ Good luck -- aim high -- and may God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE: STATE GOP

Thank you Rich. Greetings from the White House. Let me begin by thanking you all for your dedication and hard work. We're united by what we have in common -- our commitment to family, to jobs, to peace. We want great things for this nation.

Together we've made a great beginning. And I've laid out an aggressive and ambitious agenda for change -- to take us to a new American future. Already, we've sparked a revolution in education through America 2000. Now it's time for parents, not government, to choose where their kids will go to school.

Our quality of health care is the best in the world -- the problem is access. We need to reform health care and make it affordable for everyone.

It's time to reform our legal system -- eliminate frivolous lawsuits that strain our economy and sap our strength. Because if we spend less time suing one another, we'll have more time to help one another.

We need to expand trade, open markets abroad that mean more American jobs at home. The new reality is simply this: to succeed economically at home we have to compete economically abroad.

Finally, we need a new approach -- one built on Republican principles -- to bring hope and opportunity to our inner cities.

We changed the world, now we can change America -- a good place to start is the Congress. Think of what we'd accomplish with a Republican Senate and House. Majority 2000 is an ambitious goal -- but it's within our reach. We can be the majority party by the year 2000 if we start right now.

We'll see lots of Republican wins this year -- but only with your help. American leadership changed the world. Republican leadership will change America.

Thank you all. Have a great convention.

I didn't want to let this convention go by without a "Hello" and "Thank you" to all my friends from the International Mass Retail Association. [[When Barbara found out you were down in Orlando, she said you had probably seen enough of Dumbo and Goofy without hearing from me. \\ What can I say, Barbara Bush -- America's Fairy Godmother.]] Anyway, my best wishes and congratulations to all my good friends and supporters -- especially your President, Bob Verdisco, and your Chairman of the Board, Warren White.

I understand that my friend Norman Schwarzkopf is standing by. When "The Bear" speaks, people listen -- or else they dive into their bunkers. General Schwarzkopf is a man of courage who helped us change the world. Now it's people like you, and the International Mass Retail Association, that are helping us change America.

IMRA [IM - rah] represents the overwhelming majority of the nearly $170 billion mass retail industry -- the strongest segment of overall retail. Recent retail stats paint a picture of an economy on the rise. I have faith in this recovery -- because I have faith in people like you. All of you have earned your stars in turning this economy around.

This President and this Administration stand committed to this growth -- you can count on it. And I personally appreciate the strong support IMRA has announced -- support for my economic growth package announced in my State of the Union address, support for my regulatory reform initiatives, and your support for our civil justice reforms at the heart of the Access to Justice Act of 1992.

You're out there on the front lines of this economic recovery. You understand the deadly process that can turn regulatory red tape into pink slips for businesses. You've seen how the hand of government can tie the Invisible Hand of a free market at work. Together, we can bring real change to our federal government. That's my goal and I need your support.

Barbara joins me in congratulating all of you on your successful convention in beautiful Florida. Thank you, God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

Good day, Nobles. Best wishes to you and your lovely ladies on this, the occasion of your 118th annual Imperial Council Session.

I am delighted to congratulate a fellow Texan, Everett Evans, on being named to the highest office in Shrinedom -- that of your Imperial Potentate.

Everett is not only a great Texan, he's a great American and I know he will do an excellent job in leading the Shrine during the coming year.

I could speak volumes about the collective contributions of the Shrine. Foremost among them is your world-renowned work with crippled and burned children. Fine organizations like yours are the backbone of our great country. On behalf of a grateful nation, I salute you for your compassion and your commitment. For kids in need -- you have made a wonderful difference.

Best of luck to all of you for a productive and enjoyable convention. May God bless you and the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: INDEPENDENCE DAY MESSAGE TO ARMED FORCES
MAY 6, 1992

Two hundred years ago, this country won a victory that has resounded down throughout the centuries as a landmark event in the history of freedom. The courage of those early patriots who secured liberty for future generations has lived on in you -- America's sons and daughters, who have so courageously served this nation in peace and war.

For more than two centuries, our ideals of democracy and individual rights have helped keep alight the torch of liberty. And hundreds of millions of people, both here and abroad, owe thanks to America's armed forces for your willingness to go in harm's way to defend the principles we hold dear.

This year, millions more have a new reason to be grateful to America's servicemen and women. Because of your dedication, we have weathered the long, often lonely vigil to secure victory in the Cold War. Democracy is spreading into the furthest corners of the former communist world. I'm reminded of a proverb: "By wisdom peace, by peace plenty." Literally around the world, newly independent countries are embracing the freedoms and principles established by our forefathers some two centuries ago. Together, we join the peoples of this new freedom front in forging a path into the next century -- a new world we enter with great promise for a true world at peace.

As we approach this new era, your vigilance will remain a cornerstone of our security. On behalf of all Americans, I want to mark this Independence Day by thanking you for the sacrifices you willingly make for this nation.

Happy Fourth of July to you and all your families. And may God bless each and every one of you and this, the freest, most blessed nation on Earth, the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: STATESMAN'S DINNER HONORING BARBARA BUSH
ROOM 450

Good evening everyone. I find this a highly interesting situation. \ I can say whatever I like -- and my wife can't talk back. \\

Barbara is my best friend. In the early years, when my job took the family from place to place, home for us was a person named Barbara Bush. Remember her Wellesley commencement speech? Some students protested, saying she was just a woman who followed her husband. They got it wrong. In countless ways -- I have followed Barbara.

So I'm not surprised when so many other Americans look to her leadership. She is waging a war against illiteracy -- and she is winning. She has shared her greatest gift -- her love -- with the tragic victims of AIDS. And through example, she teaches the meaning of family, faith, and friends.

I think it's appropriate that Barbara would be honored at the Statesman's Dinner. Someone once said that "a politician thinks of the next election; [but] a statesman thinks of the next generation." That's Barbara Bush -- in so many ways. Thank you.

I UNDERSTAND THAT ESTEEMED LEADER GENERAL NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF IS STANDING BY. WHEN "THE BEAR" SPEAKS, PEOPLE LISTEN -- OR ELSE THEY DIVE INTO THEIR BUNKERS. GENERAL SCHWARZKOPF IS A MAN OF COURAGE WHO HELPED US CHANGE THE WORLD.

THANKING YOU ALL FOR YOUR DEDICATION AND HARD WORK.
WE'RE UNITED BY WHAT WE HAVE IN COMMON -- OUR COMMITMENT TO FAMILY, TO JOBS, TO PEACE. WE WANT GREAT THINGS FOR THIS NATION.

TOGETHER WE'VE MADE A GREAT BEGINNING. AND I'VE LAID OUT AN AGGRESSIVE AND AMBITIOUS AGENDA FOR CHANGE
-- TO TAKE US TO A NEW AMERICAN FUTURE. ALREADY, WE'VE SPARKED A REVOLUTION IN EDUCATION THROUGH AMERICA 2000.
NOW IT'S TIME FOR PARENTS, NOT GOVERNMENT, TO CHOOSE WHERE THEIR KIDS WILL GO TO SCHOOL.

OUR QUALITY OF HEALTH CARE IS THE BEST IN THE WORLD
-- THE PROBLEM IS ACCESS. WE NEED TO REFORM HEALTH CARE AND MAKE IT AFFORDABLE FOR EVERYONE -- OUR PLAN DOES JUST THAT.

IT'S TIME TO REFORM OUR LEGAL SYSTEM -- ELIMINATE FRIVOLOUS LAWSUITS THAT STRAIN OUR ECONOMY AND SAP OUR STRENGTH. BECAUSE IF WE SPEND LESS TIME SUING ONE ANOTHER, WE'LL HAVE MORE TIME TO HELP ONE ANOTHER.

WE NEED TO EXPAND TRADE, OPEN MARKETS ABROAD THAT MEAN MORE AMERICAN JOBS AT HOME. THE NEW REALITY IS SIMPLY THIS: TO SUCCEED ECONOMICALLY AT HOME WE HAVE TO COMPETE ECONOMICALLY ABROAD.

FINALLY, WE NEED A NEW APPROACH -- ONE BUILT ON REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES -- TO BRING HOPE AND OPPORTUNITY TO OUR INNER CITIES. IT'S TIME TO GIVE OUR NEW IDEAS A TRY -- ENTERPRISE ZONES, HOME OWNERSHIP, JOB TRAINING 2000, AND OUR REVOLUTIONARY APPROACH TO EDUCATION -- AMERICA 2000.

WE CHANGED THE WORLD, NOW WE CAN CHANGE AMERICA -- A GOOD PLACE TO START IS THE CONGRESS. THINK OF WHAT WE'D ACCOMPLISH WITH A REPUBLICAN SENATE AND HOUSE. MAJORITY 2000 IS AN AMBITIOUS GOAL -- BUT IT'S WITHIN OUR REACH. WE CAN BE THE MAJORITY PARTY BY THE YEAR 2000 IF WE START RIGHT NOW.

WE'LL SEE LOTS OF REPUBLICAN WINS THIS YEAR -- BUT ONLY WITH YOUR HELP. AMERICAN LEADERSHIP CHANGED THE WORLD. REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP WILL CHANGE AMERICA.

THANK YOU ALL. HAVE A GREAT CONVENTION.

SHRINER'S CONVENTION

GOOD DAY, NOBLES. BEST WISHES TO YOU AND YOUR LOVELY LADIES ON THIS, THE OCCASION OF YOUR 118TH ANNUAL IMPERIAL COUNCIL SESSION.

I AM DELIGHTED TO CONGRATULATE A FELLOW TEXAN, EVERETT EVANS, ON BEING NAMED TO THE HIGHEST OFFICE IN SHRINEDOM -- THAT OF YOUR IMPERIAL POTENTATE.

EVERETT IS NOT ONLY A GREAT TEXAN, HE'S A GREAT AMERICAN AND I KNOW HE WILL DO AN EXCELLENT JOB IN LEADING THE SHRINE DURING THE COMING YEAR.

I COULD SPEAK VOLUMES ABOUT THE COLLECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE SHRINE. FOREMOST AMONG THEM IS YOUR WORLD-RENOWNED WORK WITH CRIPPLED AND BURNED CHILDREN. FINE ORGANIZATIONS LIKE YOURS ARE THE BACKBONE OF OUR GREAT COUNTRY. ON BEHALF OF A GRATEFUL NATION, I SALUTE YOU FOR YOUR COMPASSION AND YOUR COMMITMENT. FOR KIDS IN NEED -- YOU HAVE MADE A WONDERFUL DIFFERENCE.

BEST OF LUCK TO ALL OF YOU FOR A PRODUCTIVE AND ENJOYABLE CONVENTION. MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

INDEPENDENCE DAY MESSAGE TO ARMED FORCES

A LITTLE OVER TWO HUNDRED YEARS AGO, THIS COUNTRY WON A VICTORY THAT HAS RESOUNDED DOWN THROUGHOUT THE CENTURIES AS A LANDMARK EVENT IN THE HISTORY OF FREEDOM. THE COURAGE OF THOSE EARLY PATRIOTS WHO SECURED LIBERTY FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS HAS LIVED ON IN YOU -- AMERICA'S SONS AND DAUGHTERS, WHO HAVE SO COURAGEOUSLY SERVED THIS NATION IN PEACE AND WAR.

FOR MORE THAN TWO CENTURIES, OUR IDEALS OF DEMOCRACY AND INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS HAVE HELPED KEEP ALIGHT THE TORCH OF LIBERTY. AND HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE, BOTH HERE AND ABROAD, OWE THANKS TO AMERICA'S ARMED FORCES FOR YOUR WILLINGNESS TO GO IN HARM'S WAY TO DEFEND THE PRINCIPLES WE HOLD DEAR.

THIS YEAR, MILLIONS MORE HAVE A NEW REASON TO BE GRATEFUL TO AMERICA'S SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN. BECAUSE OF YOUR DEDICATION, WE HAVE WEATHERED THE LONG, OFTEN LONELY VIGIL TO SECURE VICTORY IN THE COLD WAR. DEMOCRACY IS SPREADING INTO THE FURTHEST CORNERS OF THE FORMER COMMUNIST WORLD. I'M REMINDED OF A PROVERB: "BY WISDOM PEACE, BY PEACE PLENTY." LITERALLY AROUND THE WORLD, NEWLY INDEPENDENT COUNTRIES ARE EMBRACING THE FREEDOMS AND PRINCIPLES ESTABLISHED BY OUR FOREFATHERS SOME TWO CENTURIES AGO. TOGETHER, WE JOIN THE PEOPLES OF THIS NEW FREEDOM FRONT IN FORGING A PATH INTO THE NEXT CENTURY -- A NEW WORLD WE ENTER WITH GREAT PROMISE FOR A TRUE WORLD AT PEACE.

AS WE APPROACH THIS NEW ERA, YOUR VIGILANCE WILL REMAIN A CORNERSTONE OF OUR SECURITY. ON BEHALF OF ALL AMERICANS, I WANT TO MARK THIS INDEPENDENCE DAY BY THANKING YOU FOR THE SACRIFICES YOU WILLINGLY MAKE FOR THIS NATION.

AIR COMMAND & STAFF COLLEGE GRADUATION

GOOD EVENING. I WANTED VERY MUCH TO JOIN THESE AVIATION GREATS IN HONORING YOUR GRADUATION. WHEREVER PILOTS GATHER, I FEEL RIGHT AT HOME, AND I WISH I COULD BE THERE IN PERSON. I HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF MY VISIT TO MAXWELL LAST YEAR. ((AND I'M SURE I'LL BE BACK, \\ DUE TO THE EXCELLENT FORESIGHT OF THE AIR FORCE, WHICH PUT THE AIR UNIVERSITY NEAR MY FAVORITE FISHING SPOT IN PINTLALA.)) \\\

LAST YEAR, YOU -- THE MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES -
- LEFT THE COMFORT OF YOUR HOMES AND FAMILIES TO MEET A FORMIDABLE CHALLENGE -- NOT JUST TO U.S. INTERESTS BUT TO THE WORLD AS WELL. LIKE THE MILLIONS WHO HAVE SERVED THIS NATION BEFORE, YOU WENT HALF-WAY 'ROUND THE WORLD TO DEFEAT THOSE WHO WOULD TAKE AWAY THEIR NEIGHBOR'S FREEDOM, AND YOU MADE OUR NATION PROUD.

AS I TOLD YOU LAST YEAR, THE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE, AND MARINES JOINED THOSE FROM OTHER COUNTRIES IN SHOWING JUST HOW DECISIVE AIRPOWER CAN BE. BUT AS I'M SURE YOU'VE LEARNED FROM THIS DISTINGUISHED "GATHERING OF EAGLES," THE SUCCESSFUL APPLICATION OF FORCE REQUIRES THE PROPER TRAINING, EXPERTISE AND CONTRIBUTION OF EVERYONE IN UNIFORM.

THIS EAGLES PROGRAM, I BELIEVE, IS AN EXCELLENT WAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE MET THE CHALLENGES OF THE PAST TO SHARE THEIR EXPERIENCES AND HELP PREPARE YOU FOR THE CHALLENGES OF THE FUTURE. IN DOING SO, THESE AVIATORS, SOME OF WHOM WERE ON OPPOSING SIDES, FORGE NEW AND LASTING BONDS OF FRIENDSHIP.

AS YOUR YEAR OF STUDY AT A-C-S-C DRAWS TO A CLOSE, I HOPE YOU HAVE MADE SIMILAR BONDS THAT CAN SUSTAIN AND ENRICH YOUR CAREER. FOR AS ANY VETERAN KNOWS, FRIENDS MADE IN THE MILITARY ARE FRIENDS FOR LIFE.

MANY OF YOU WILL BECOME LEADERS IN YOUR SERVICES, SO I HOPE YOU HAVE LEARNED YOUR LESSONS WELL. BECAUSE AS WE SAW IN DESERT STORM, THE SECURITY AND FREEDOM OF OUR NATION AND OUR ALLIES WILL DEPEND ON YOUR SKILL, YOUR COURAGE, AND YOUR LEADERSHIP. YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU, AND I SALUTE YOU. \\\ GOOD LUCK -- AIM HIGH -- AND MAY GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

STATESMAN'S DINNER

THANK YOU NOELLE, YOU CAN RELAX NOW. AND GOOD EVENING EVERYONE. AND A SPECIAL HELLO TO SENATOR CONNIE MACK, WHO SERVES FLORIDA WITH SUCH DISTINCTION. I FIND THIS A HIGHLY INTERESTING SITUATION. \ I CAN SAY WHATEVER I LIKE -- AND BARBARA BUSH CAN'T PROTEST.

RECENTLY I REPEATED TO A GROUP AT THE WHITE HOUSE SOMETHING PRIME MINISTER GONZALEZ OF SPAIN TOLD ME. HE SAID "YOUR WIFE IS THE MOST ADMIRERD WOMAN IN THE WORLD." BARBARA BARKED ME OUT FOR SAYING THAT -- BUT HERE, NOW, SHE CAN'T TALK BACK.

SINCE WE GOT MARRIED WE'VE LIVE IN MANY DIFFERENT HOMES -- FROM TINY APARTMENTS TO THE WHITE HOUSE. HOME IS WHEREVER BARBARA IS. REMEMBER HER WELLESLEY COMMENCEMENT SPEECH? SOME STUDENTS PROTESTED, SAYING SHE WAS JUST A WOMAN WHO FOLLOWED HER HUSBAND. THEY GOT IT WRONG. IN COUNTLESS WAY -- I HAVE FOLLOWED BARBARA.

SO I'M NOT SURPRISED WHEN SO MANY OTHER AMERICANS
LOOK TO HER LEADERSHIP. SHE IS WAGING A WAR AGAINST ILLITERACY -- AND SHE IS DETERMINED TO SEE THAT WAR
WON. SHE HAS SHARED HER GREATEST GIFT -- HER LOVE -- WITH THE TRAGIC VICTIMS OF AIDS. AND THROUGH EXAMPLE, SHE TEACHES THE MEANING OF FAMILY, FAITH, AND FRIENDS.

I THINK IT'S APPROPRIATE THAT BARBARA WOULD BE HONORED AT THE STATESMAN'S DINNER. SOMEONE ONCE SAID THAT "A POLITICIAN THINK OF THE NEXT ELECTION; [BUT] A STATESMAN THINKS OF THE NEXT GENERATION." THAT'S BARBARA BUSH -- IN SO MANY WAYS. THANK YOU.
