PRESS CONFERENCE \ ROOM 450
THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1992 \ 2:30 P.M.

BEFORE I LEAVE FOR EUROPE, I WANT TO SAY A FEW WORDS ABOUT WHY I BELIEVE IT IS SO IMPORTANT TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THAT I MAKE THIS TRIP.

THANKS TO THE COURAGE AND SACRIFICE OF MILLIONS OF AMERICANS, WE HAVE WON THE COLD WAR. OUR TASK NOW IS TO SECURE THE PEACE -- TO BUILD AN EXPANDING WORLD ECONOMY: ONE THAT OPENS NEW MARKETS ABROAD AND CREATES NEW JOBS HERE AT HOME.

OUR TASK WILL NOT BE COMPLETED ON ONE FIVE-DAY TRIP. BUT WE CAN, AT THESE MEETINGS, ADVANCE THE WELL-BEING OF EVERY AMERICAN. IN THE NEW GLOBAL ECONOMY NOW EMERGING, AMERICA'S ECONOMIC INTERESTS DON'T STOP AT THE WATER'S EDGE. WE WILL NOT PROSPER IN A WORLD STIFLED BY TRADING BLOCS AND TARIFF BARRIERS. 70% OF OUR ECONOMIC GROWTH IN THE LAST FIVE YEARS HAS COME FROM EXPORTS. I WILL CONTINUE TO FIGHT FOR MORE ECONOMIC GROWTH -- AND THAT MEANS FREE TRADE.

OUR PROGRESS SO FAR HAS BEEN SUBSTANTIAL. ALREADY, THE NEW DEMOCRACIES OF THE EAST ARE BECOMING ATTRACTIVE SITES FOR U.S. INVESTMENT -- NEARLY $2 BILLION DOLLARS COMMITTED THIS YEAR ALONE. AND THOSE INVESTMENTS WILL HELP OUR NEW ALLIES SECURE DEMOCRACY'S GREAT GAINS AND CREATE NEW JOBS FOR AMERICAN WORKERS.

THAT IS MY MISSION -- TO SECURE THESE BENEFITS FOR AMERICA AND THE WORLD.

IN WARSAW, BIRTHPLACE OF THE REVOLUTION OF '89, I WILL STAND WITH THE POLISH PEOPLE -- SHOW OUR SUPPORT FOR THEIR EFFORTS TO CONSOLIDATE THEIR HARD-WON FREEDOM.

IN MUNICH, I WILL WORK WITH LEADERS OF THE WORLD'S GREAT INDUSTRIALIZED DEMOCRACIES TO BUILD A NEW WORLD ECONOMY.

I WILL ALSO MEET WITH PRESIDENT YELTSIN -- TO BUILD ON THE HISTORIC STEPS WE TOOK HERE AT THE WHITE HOUSE, AND TO UNDERSCORE OUR STRONG SUPPORT FOR RUSSIA'S REFORMS. AND ON THIS ONE THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT: AN INVESTMENT IN RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY IS AN INVESTMENT IN WORLD PEACE.

FINALLY, IN HELSINKI I WILL MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME WITH THE MEMBERS OF A CSCE NOT DIVIDED EAST FROM WEST -- BUT UNITED IN A DEMOCRATIC COMMUNITY OF MORE THAN FIFTY NATIONS.

LET ME ADD ONE POINT, ON THE EVE OF THE FOURTH OF JULY: WE MUST NEVER FORGET THAT IN EUROPE TODAY REST 20 AMERICAN MILITARY CEMETERIES. AND WE MUST ENSURE THAT THERE WILL NEVER BE A 21ST.

LOOK AT HOW FAR WE'VE ALREADY COME. WHEN I TOOK OFFICE THREE YEARS AGO, ADVERSARIES FACED US ACROSS A DIVIDED EUROPE. TODAY, THE NEW DEMOCRACIES OF CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE ARE OUR PARTNERS. THE THREAT OF NUCLEAR WAR IS MORE DISTANT NOW THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE ADVENT OF THE NUCLEAR AGE. AND THINK OF WHAT THAT MEANS -- NOT FOR PRESIDENTS OR PRIME MINISTERS, NOT FOR HISTORIANS OR HEADS OF STATE -- BUT FOR PARENTS, AND THEIR CHILDREN: IT MEANS A FUTURE FREE FROM FEAR.

FOR MUCH OF THIS CENTURY IT HAS BEEN AMERICA'S DESTINY TO STAND FOR LIBERTY AND AGAINST INTOLERANCE; TO FIGHT FOR FREEDOM AND AGAINST OPPRESSION. NOW, AT LONG LAST, THE MOMENT HAS COME FOR THE LOVERS OF FREEDOM AROUND THE WORLD TO REAP THE REWARDS OF OUR VIGILANCE.

THE OPPORTUNITY WE FACE IS HISTORIC -- THE FIRST CHANCE IN MORE THAN A HALF-CENTURY TO BUILD DEMOCRATIC PEACE AND PROSPERITY FOR AMERICA AND THE WORLD. THIS TRIP WILL BRING US ANOTHER STEP CLOSER TO OUR GOAL.

Opening Remarks for July 2 Press Conference

is so believe it to the important people American that I

Before ~~leaving~~^I for Europe, I want to say a few words about why I am making this trip ~~and what it means to the American people.~~

Because of the courage and sacrifice of millions of Americans

We ~~have~~ won the Cold War; ~~this~~^o trip is about securing the peace. And it is about building an expanding world economy that can ~~insure~~ new markets abroad and new jobs at home.

These tasks will not be completed on one five-day trip. The meetings I attend will not all be exciting, headline-producing events, for the process of building peace and prosperity is serious and laborious. But this work is vital to the well-being of every American.

~~There are some who would say that with the Cold War won, we should turn inward and get on with our domestic business. To them I would answer: this is domestic business.~~

Too defensive

Let there be no doubt

Let us never forget

And I would ~~remind~~^{will} them that there are now fewer than 20 American military cemeteries in Europe. I am working to insure that there never ~~has to~~ be a 21st. This is America's business.

Our country is interconnected^o more than we sometimes realize with the outside world. 70% of our economic growth in the last five years came from exports. Our security and prosperity rises ~~or~~^{and} falls with that ~~of~~^{use} of our friends and allies.

We have made great progress. The democratic revolutions of the past three years ~~has~~^{have} brought enormous benefits to every American. The ~~nuclear balance of terror~~^{threat of large-scale war} is over; Russian ICBMs no longer stand at high alert.

Three and a half years ago, when I began my first term as your President, adversaries faced us as part of the Warsaw Pact across a divided Europe; now the new democracies of central and eastern Europe are our partners. ~~They stood with us in the Gulf War; they are with us today in trying to bring peace to their neighbors in the former Yugoslavia.~~ And they are becoming attractive sites for U.S. investment -- more than $2 billion already this year -- that helps them secure their democracies and also brings new profits and new jobs to America. Across the territory of the former Soviet empire, vast new markets are opening up. All these are tangible benefits for our security and our prosperity.

Too jarring a transition - from Yugoslavia to U.S. investment.

This trip is about extending and securing those benefits. It is about peace, freedom, and prosperity -- America's business.

In Warsaw, where I saw the democratic revolution begin three years ago, I want to show the Poles our support and encourage them to continue their courageous reforms and consolidate their hard-won freedom. They and others in central Europe were the pioneers; they can show the way to all those trying to escape Communism's shadow. They must succeed.

In Munich, the world's leading industrialized democracies will work to build a new global economic order -- one that integrates the emerging market democracies of the east, with their huge markets and vast potential, together with all the developing countries, into an expanding world economy. We want steady, sustainable global economic growth that will increase

Is this phrase indispensable? LDCs have used New Economic Order to mean system of developed to - transfers.

I know we say "New World economic order" but word carries baggage.

prosperity here at home and around the world. And we will also meet with President Yeltsin to answer his offer of friendship by extending our support to Russia's reforms -- an investment in Russian democracy that it also an investment in our own future.

In Helsinki, the leaders of North America, Europe, and the former Soviet Union will meet for this first time as a democratic community of more than fifty countries. We will take new steps toward building a peaceful European order, in which conflicts are solved before they turn violent and the military forces of East and West can be deployed together in peacekeeping missions.

Our goal is to secure a permanent peace in an area beset in this century by confrontation and conflict. We can achieve that goal only through our commitment, involvement, and leadership.

America cannot prosper in a world of turmoil, violence, or closed trading blocs. But we can give a strong boost to our own economic resurgence by securing a democratic peace and a vibrant, open world economy.

We may not have another opportunity like this to establish a democratic peace in the world, and we must seize it. This trip will ~~not solve all the problems before us, but it can~~ bring us a step closer toward our goal, ~~laying the groundwork for what we can achieve in the years ahead for our country and the world.~~ ^{we'll}

Before leaving for Europe, I want to say a few words about why I am making this trip and what it means to the American people.

We have won the Cold War; this trip is about securing the peace. And it is about building an expanding world economy that can insure new markets abroad and new jobs at home.

These tasks will not be completed on one five-day trip. The meetings I attend will not all be exciting, headline-producing events, for the process of building peace and prosperity is serious and laborious. But this work is vital to the well-being of every American.

There are some who would say that with the Cold War won, we should turn inward and get on with our domestic business. To them I would answer: this is domestic business.

And I would remind them that there are ~~now~~ fewer than 20 American military cemeteries in Europe. I am working to insure that there never has to be a 21st. This is America's business.

Opening Remarks for July 2 Press Conference

Before leaving for Europe, I want to say a few words about why I am making this trip and what it means to the American people.

Because of the courage + sacrifice of millions of Americans,
We have won the Cold War; this trip is about securing the peace. And it is about building an expanding world economy that can insure new markets abroad and new jobs at home.

These tasks will not be completed on one five-day trip. The meetings I attend will not all be exciting, headline-producing events, for the process of building peace and prosperity is serious and laborious. But this work is vital to the well-being of every American.

~~There are some who would say that with the Cold War won, we should turn inward and get on with our domestic business. To them I would answer: this is domestic business.~~

And I would remind them that there are now fewer than 20 American military cemeteries in Europe. I am working to insure that there never has to be a 21st. This is America's business.

Our country is interconnected more than we sometimes realize with the outside world. 70% of our economic growth in the last five years came from exports. I WILL CONTINUE TO FIGHT FOR MORE ECONOMIC GROWTH Our security and prosperity rises or falls with that of our friends and allies.

We have made great progress. The democratic revolutions of the past three years ^{we} has brought enormous benefits to every American. The ^{threat of large-scale} nuclear balance of terror ^{war} is over; Russian ICBMs no longer stand at high alert. has Vanished --

Three and a half years ago, ^{took office,} when I ~~began my first term as~~ ~~your President,~~ adversaries faced us as part of the Warsaw Pact across a divided Europe; now the new democracies of central and eastern Europe are our partners. They stood with us in the Gulf War; they are with us today in trying to bring peace to their neighbors in the former Yugoslavia. And they are becoming attractive sites for U.S. investment -- more than $2 billion already this year -- that helps them secure their democracies and also brings new profits and new jobs to America. Across the territory of the former Soviet empire, vast new markets are opening up. All these are tangible benefits for our security and our prosperity.

This trip is about extending and securing those benefits.
 It is about peace, freedom, and prosperity -- America's business.

In Warsaw, ^{birthplace of the Revolution of '89, that} where I saw the democratic revolution begin three years ago, ^{a I will stand with} I want to show the Poles ^{(s) people -- show} our support and encourage ~~them to continue~~ ^{for} their courageous reforms and ^{their effort to} consolidate their hard-won freedom. They and others in central Europe were the pioneers; they can show the way to all those trying to escape Communism's shadow. They must succeed.

In Munich, the world's leading industrialized democracies will work to build a new ^{world economy} ~~global economic~~ order -- one that integrates the emerging market democracies of the east, with their huge markets and vast potential, together with all the developing countries, into an expanding world economy. ~~We want~~ ~~steady, sustainable global economic growth that will increase~~ prosperity here at home and around the world. And ^{in Helsinki,} we will also meet with President Yeltsin to answer his offer of friendship by extending our support to Russia's reforms -- an investment in Russian democracy that it also an investment in our own future.

In Helsinki, the leaders of North America, Europe, and the former Soviet Union will meet for this first time as a democratic community of more than fifty countries. We will take new steps toward building a peaceful European order, in which conflicts are solved before they turn violent and the military forces of East and West can be deployed together in peacekeeping missions.

Our goal is to secure a permanent peace in an area beset in this century by confrontation and conflict. We can achieve that goal only through our commitment, involvement, and leadership.

America cannot prosper in a world of turmoil, violence, or closed trading blocs. But we can give a strong boost to our own economic resurgence by securing a democratic peace and a vibrant, open world economy.

The opportunity now open to us is historic. it
 We may not have another opportunity like ~~this~~ to establish a democratic peace in the world o and we must seize it. This trip ~~will not solve all the problems before us, but it~~ can bring us a step closer toward our goal o ~~laying the groundwork for what we can achieve in the years ahead for our country and the world.~~
