KENTUCKY HARVEST ANNIVERSARY \ LOUISVILLE, KY
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1992

THANK YOU STAN (CURTIS). THANK YOU ALSO TO DALE OWENS. AND LET ME CONGRATULATE MAGGIE LAWSON ON HER BEAUTIFUL RENDITION OF THE NATIONAL ANTHEM.

BARBARA AND I ARE IN THE MIDDLE OF A BUSY WEEKEND. FOUR STATES, SEVEN STOPS -- IN JUST THREE DAYS.

BUT WE COULDN'T RESIST YOUR INVITATION -- TO STOP BY AND SEE THE REDBIRDS.//

AS YOU KNOW, WE HAVE A GRUELING CAMPAIGN AHEAD -- FULL OF LONG DAYS AND LONG HOURS. IN FACT, THE ONLY ONE WITH A TOUGHER SCHEDULE THIS FALL -- IS HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER AND THE U OF L CARDINALS.//

I DON'T WANT TO SPOIL THIS BEAUTIFUL DAY WITH TALK OF POLITICS. SO LET ME JUST SAY THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL HAVE TWO VISIONS BEFORE THEM THIS FALL.

ONE SEES A SOLUTION TO EVERY PROBLEM IN GOVERNMENT -- AND BELIEVES EVERY PATH LEADS TO WASHINGTON D.C.

I OFFER A DIFFERENT VISION. A BELIEF THAT AMERICA'S HEART BEATS LOUDEST IN PLACES LIKE LUBBOCK, LINCOLN -- AND RIGHT HERE IN LOUISVILLE.//

AMERICA FACES BIG CHALLENGES IN THE NEW ECONOMIC AGE -- AS WE TRY TO BUILD A NATION STRONG AND SECURE.

YES, GOVERNMENT HAS A ROLE IN SOLVING THESE CHALLENGES.
BUT ULTIMATELY -- THE GENIUS OF AMERICA IS NOT TUCKED AWAY IN SOME MARBLE BUILDING ALONG THE POTOMAC -- IT LIES IN THE FERTILE MINDS AND COMPASSIONATE HEARTS OF PEOPLE LIKE YOU -- YOU AND YOUR NEIGHBORS. //

I CAME HERE TODAY TO SALUTE THOSE WHO KEEP THE BRIGHT LIGHT OF AMERICA ALIVE -- THE VOLUNTEERS OF KENTUCKY HARVEST.//

SOME SEE HUNGER IN AMERICA AND ASK -- "WHY?" YOU SEE HUNGRY PEOPLE AND SAY -- "WHY NOT FEED THEM?"

FOR ALL OF YOU WHO SPEND YOUR SATURDAY MORNINGS OR YOUR WEEKDAY NIGHTS LUGGING CHICKEN OUT OF THE LOCAL RESTAURANT -- OR DRIVING OVER TO THE NEAREST FOOD BANK -- YOU ARE PROVING THAT AMERICA IS -- TRULY -- A NATION OF NEIGHBORS -- A NATION FILLED WITH POINTS OF LIGHT.

I'M ESPECIALLY GLAD THAT ALL THE FOOD DONATED TODAY -- WILL GO TO THE SURVIVORS OF HURRICANE ANDREW.

THE RELIEF PROCESS CONTINUES IN FLORIDA AND LOUISIANA. HOMES MAY BE DESTROYED, BUT BELIEVE ME -- THE AMERICAN SPIRIT IS ALIVE AND KICKING.

THIS WEDNESDAY, THE RED CROSS RECEIVED THE MOST DONATIONS IN ONE DAY -- IN THEIR HISTORY.

AND I SPEAK FOR ALL WHO STOOD IN ANDREW'S PATH -- WHEN I SAY THANKS TO ALL AMERICANS -- FOR THIS TREMENDOUS OUTPOURING OF SUPPORT AND GENEROSITY.//

I TRIED TO CONVINCED BARBARA TO PULL HER OLD GLOVE OUT OF THE CLOSET, BUT SHE INSISTED THAT I THROW OUT THE FIRST PITCH INSTEAD.

MY ONLY ADVICE GOES TO THOSE SITTING BEHIND THE BACKSTOP. KEEP YOUR HANDS IN FRONT OF YOUR FACE!

THANK YOU FOR INVITING US. HAPPY BIRTHDAY KENTUCKY HARVEST. MAY GOD BLESS THE MOST GENEROUS NATION ON EARTH -- THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: STEVE PROVOST SP

SUBJECT: PROPOSED REMARKS, KENTUCKY HARVEST AT RED BIRD STADIUM

Summary:

On Sunday, September 6, 1992, at approximately 12:50 pm you will speak at the Annual Kentucky Harvest at Red Bird Stadium in Louisville, Kentucky.

Discussion:

Your remarks (4 minutes / cards) applaud the spirit of volunteers.

Draft

Thank you Stan (Curtis).

Barbara and I are in the middle of a busy weekend. Four states, seven stops -- in just three days.

But we couldn't resist your invitation -- to stop by and see the Redbirds.//

As you know, we have a grueling campaign ahead -- full of long days and long hours. In fact, the only one with a tougher schedule this fall -- is Howard Schnellenberger and the U of L Cardinals.//

I don't want to spoil this beautiful day with talk of politics. So let me just say that the American people will have two visions before them this fall.

One sees a solution to every problem in government -- and believes every path leads to Washington D.C.

I offer a different vision. A belief that America's heart beats loudest in places like Lubbock, Lincoln -- and right here in Louisville.//

America faces big challenges in the new economic age -- as we try to build a nation strong and secure.

Our goal is simple and straightforward: In the 21st Century, America must not only be a military superpower, but an economic superpower -- an export superpower. //

And on this Labor Day weekend, let me tell you why I know America will win: Because the American worker can out-think, out-compete and out-produce any worker in the world -- anytime, anyplace, anywhere. //

Yes, Government has a role in solving these challenges. But ultimately -- the genius of America is not tucked away in some marble building along the Potomac -- it lies in the fertile minds and compassionate hearts of people like you -- you and your neighbors. //

I came here today to salute those who keep the bright light of America alive -- the volunteers of Kentucky Harvest.//

Some see hunger in America and ask -- "why?" You see hungry people and say -- "why not feed them?"

For all of you who spend your Saturday mornings lugging chicken out of the local restaurant -- or driving over to the nearest food bank -- you are proving that America is -- truly -- a nation of neighbors -- a nation filled with Points of Light.

I'm especially glad that all the food donated today -- will go to the survivors of Hurricane Andrew.

The relief process continues in Florida and Louisiana. Homes may be destroyed, but believe me -- the American spirit is alive and kicking.

This Wednesday, the Red Cross received the most donations in one day -- in their history. And I speak for all who stood in Andrew's path -- when I say thanks to all Americans -- for this tremendous outpouring of support and generosity.//

I tried to convince Barbara to pull her old glove out of the closet, but she insisted that I throw out the first pitch instead.

My only advice goes to those sitting behind the backstop. Keep your hands in front of your face!

Thank you for inviting us. Happy Birthday Kentucky Harvest. May God Bless the most generous nation on earth -- the United States of America.

Draft

Thank you Stan (Curtis).

Barbara and I are in the middle of a busy weekend. Four states, seven stops -- in just three days.

But we couldn't resist your invitation -- to stop by and see the Redbirds.//

As you know, we have a grueling campaign ahead -- full of long days and long hours. In fact, the only one with a tougher schedule this fall -- is Howard Schnellenberger and the U of L Cardinals.//

I don't want to spoil this beautiful day with talk of politics. So let me just say that the American people will have two visions before them this fall.

One sees a solution to every problem in government -- and believes every path leads to Washington D.C.

I offer a different vision. A belief that America's heart beats loudest in places like Lubbock, Lincoln -- and right here in Louisville.//

America faces big challenges in the new economic age -- as we try to build a nation strong and secure. Yes, Government has a role in solving these challenges. But ultimately -- the genius of America is not tucked away in some marble building along the

Potomac -- it lies in the fertile minds and compassionate hearts of people like you -- you and your neighbors.//

I came here today to salute those who keep the bright light of America alive -- the volunteers of Kentucky Harvest.//

Some see hunger in America and ask -- "why?" You see hungry people and say -- "why not feed them?"

For all of you who spend your Saturday mornings lugging chicken out of the local restaurant -- or driving over to the nearest food bank -- you are proving that America is -- truly -- a nation of neighbors.

I'm especially glad that all the food donated today -- will go to the survivors of Hurricane Andrew.

The relief process continues in Florida and Louisiana. Homes may be destroyed, but believe me -- the American spirit is alive and kicking.

This Wednesday, the Red Cross received the most donations in one day -- in their history. And I speak for all who stood in Andrew's path -- when I say thanks to all Americans -- for this tremendous outpouring of support and generosity.//

I tried to convince Barbara to pull her old glove out of the closet, but she insisted that I throw out the first pitch instead.

My only advice goes to those sitting behind the backstop. Keep your hands in front of your face!

Thank you for inviting us. Happy Birthday Kentucky Harvest.
May God Bless the most generous nation on earth -- the United States of America.

White House Statement on Disaster Relief for Louisiana
September 5, 1992

The President today announced that he has amended his August 26, 1992, declaration of a major disaster in the State of Louisiana to waive State and local cost sharing requirements, where permitted to do so by law, and to allow reimbursement of 100 percent of eligible public assistance costs exceeding $10 per capita.

This additional relief provided by the President is consistent with a request made by Governor Edwin Edwards. It was taken in response to the unprecedented damage and destruction caused by Hurricane Andrew. By waiving customary State and local cost sharing requirements, the President can provide maximum Federal assistance to the people of Louisiana whose lives have been so severely disrupted by this disaster.

This waiver applies to all authorized public assistance. It will provide additional help to the State in its efforts to remove debris from the disaster areas, eliminate immediate threats to public health and safety, and carry out emergency work to save lives. Assistance for temporary housing, crisis counseling, and disaster unemployment will continue to be 100 percent federally funded where allowed under the law.

Remarks Prior to a Redbirds Baseball Game in Louisville, Kentucky

September 6, 1992

Thank you all. What a wonderful holiday welcome. We've got to see a ball game now. Thank you very much. May I just first say what a privilege and thrill it is for Barbara and me to be here. I want to thank Stan for the introduction. I've just been in one of the dugouts talking to the Redbirds, and I also salute the Indianapolis ball club here today. We've going to treat them very kindly. Aren't we, you guys?

But may I also say as an old baseball fan, to be here with Pee Wee Reese, that's a great treat for me, an old fan of his. Also Paul

Sept. 5 / Administration of George Bush, 1992

Hornung, I've watched him day-in and day-out, not only in college ball but when he was up there at Green Bay, a superb athlete, a great citizen of Kentucky.

And single out two coaches, Coach Crum and Coach Schnellenberger. Somebody once told me that playing a tie ball game is like kissing your sister. Well, I want to tell you this: The coach did the right thing yesterday. He did it the American way. He took a real shot at it, and we are proud of him and proud of that ball club of his, the Cardinals.

Let me end it by just simply saying I'm here to salute Harvest U.S.A. and Kentucky Harvest. Stan is right, the heartbeat in Louisville and Lexington, Indianapolis, is far louder and far clearer than the heartbeat up in Washington. When one American pitches in to help another, as you're doing now for the victims of this terribly devastating hurricane in south Florida and then again in Louisiana, we salute you. One neighbor helping another, that is the American spirit, the American way. That is what we mean when we talk about Points of Light.

May God bless you all, and may God bless this wonderful American spirit. Thank you so much.

Note: The President spoke at 12:46 p.m. at Cardinal Stadium. In his remarks, he referred to Stan Curtis, founder of Kentucky Harvest; and Denny Crum, head basketball coach, and Howard Schnellenberger, head football coach, University of Louisville. A tape was not available for verification of the content of these remarks.

Another old friend, Wally Dudycz, glad to see him and Jack O'Malley and Lou Kasper. The Polish consul general came to greet me, Mr. Jankowski. Ed Moskal, of course, our old, dear friend. And again, I'd like to salute Secretary Ed Derwinski, known so well to everybody here, an outstanding American that has served his country with such distinction.

This past Independence Day, some of you were with us, I traveled to the heartland of Poland to bury a treasure. In the crypt of an ancient cathedral, I stood with President Lech Walesa as the remains of the great patriot Ignacy Paderewski was finally laid to rest in the rich and free Polish soil that conceived and sustained him. And it struck me, this was the fulfillment of Poland's dreams.

Think of what we have seen together in the last few years. We watched a Gdansk electrician, a humble man, stand up for freedom, electrify the world with the charge that all people should be free and be heard. We watched the nation of Poland reform, brimming with a new and different fluid of life, inspired by the passion for freedom. And we watched a Pope named John Paul II, a proud Pole. And as we gather today at this festival, a good time to count our blessings, I can say something no President ever could say before: The cold war is over, and freedom finished first. And Poland is free.

You know, my opponents say—

Audience members. Four more years! Four more years! Four more years!

The President. We've got a lot of work to do for 4 more, I'll tell you.

These critics, the Clinton-Gore ticket, say that I spend too much time on foreign policy. Well, let me tell you this: American school-children used to hide under their desks in drills to prepare for nuclear war. We saw the chance to cut down the threat of nuclear war, and we did it. And does that matter? You bet it matters to the young people that are here right here today. You know, over the past—and everybody in this crowd understands this, Democrat, Republican, liberal, it doesn't matter, you understand this point:

Over the past 4 years, more people have breathed the fresh air of freedom than in all of human history. We saw a chance to help, and I did it. And do you say, does that matter? Of course, it does. You bet it does.

Now our challenges are straightforward. This Labor Day weekend we must dedicate ourselves to the challenge: economic security for the working men and working women of America. That is the big challenge, jobs for the American people. You know, in this 21st century America must not only be a military superpower, we've got to be an export superpower, and we've got to be an economic superpower.

Audience members. Four more years! Four more years! Four more years!

The President. My vision is to look forward, to open new markets, to prepare our people to compete, to save and to invest, to strengthen the American family so that we can win.

You know, I've spent half my life in public service, half in the private sector. I built a business, and I met a payroll. And I believe that is a good qualification for being President of the United States, to know what it is to hold a job in the private sector. And Governor Clinton has spent all but a handful of years of his adult life in government. Now he says he respects the small businessman, he loves the private sector. Well, maybe it's a good chance now to give him a chance to experience what it's like to be in the private sector. Because he isn't going to be President of the United States.

I agree with you, Government has got to help people. But Government is too big, and it taxes too much, and it spends too much of your money. And we've got to get it under control. And so I put a freeze on domestic discretionary spending, plus a plan to control mandatory Federal spending except Social Security. I said at the beginning, don't mess with Social Security. And we are not going to let them touch Social Security. My plan, and it is up before the Congress now, would save nearly $300 billion in over 5 years. And I want to say Do widzenia to more than 4,000 wasteful Federal projects, like a national research program, and get into this one, the mating habits of the mink. We do not need
