MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DAN MCGROARTY DMCG
FROM: CAROL AARHUS CA
SUBJECT: CHRISTMAS IN WASHINGTON

On Sunday, December 13 at 6 p.m., you and Mrs. Bush will participate in taping the program "Christmas in Washington". Your remarks are two minutes in length and will be on cards.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: CHRISTMAS IN WASHINGTON
PENSION BUILDING
DECEMBER 13, 1992

To all the performers -- Julie, Peabo, Midori, Neil, the Army's Herald Trumpets, and these two magnificent choirs: Soul Children of Chicago, and the Naval Academy Glee Club -- what a glorious performance! From the Bush family, and on behalf of all those watching this evening, thank you for sharing your wonderful gift of music with us.

The Christmas season reminds me of a favorite Bible verse, which reads, "Though I have the tongues of men and angels, but have not love, I am nothing... So faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love."

This holiday season is a special time for all of us to open our hearts just a little wider. You won't find the meaning of Christmas on a shelf at the toy store, or under your tree on Christmas morning. The real meaning of Christmas is sharing the love in your heart and the joy in your soul. Giving of yourself is the best gift anyone can ask for.

So, in all the preparations for this festive holiday season, take a moment to celebrate, in your own way, God's gift to us -- his son, the Lord, Jesus Christ. Help a neighbor in need... take a hot meal to a homeless shelter... make sure every child has someone they can turn to... someone who knows their name. It takes just a moment to care, and the rewards will sustain your spirits for a lifetime.

May God bless each and every one of you, and may He grant us everlasting peace. Merry Christmas.

The Christmas season reminds me of a favorite Bible verse, which reads, "Though I have the tongues of men and angels, but have not love, I am nothing... So faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love."

This holiday season is a special time for all of us to open our hearts just a little wider. You won't find the meaning of Christmas on a shelf at the toy store, or under your tree on Christmas morning. The real meaning of Christmas is sharing the love in your heart and the joy in your soul. Giving of yourself is the best gift anyone can ask for.

So, in all the preparations for this festive holiday season, take a moment to celebrate, in your own way, God's gift to us -- his son, the Lord, Jesus Christ. Help a neighbor in need... take a hot meal to a homeless shelter... make sure every child has someone they can turn to... someone who knows their name. It takes just a moment to care, and the rewards will sustain your spirits for a lifetime.

May God bless each and every one of you, and may He grant us everlasting peace. Merry Christmas.
