THE HARVARD SALIENT

P.O. BOX 1053, Cambridge, MA 02238
(617) 492-0069

Dear Ms. Grover:

Enclosed please find the October 1989 issue of The Harvard Salient. In addition to the President's letter, there are several student articles you might find of interest, including an analysis of the President's proposal by Tad Dibbern and related discussions by Timothy Shah and Rich Cusick.

We very much appreciate your interest in our magazine, and would be pleased to help you further. Please contact Timothy Shah or myself at (617) 493-7305 for any immediate assistance; other messages may be left at our office number, (617) 492-0069.

We hope our issue is useful to you.

Sincerely yours,

Eric Reis
Managing Editor, The Harvard Salient

Institute For Educational Affairs

June 29, 1989

Dear

Ms. Grant

IEA's Summer in Washington program has now begun. Our next event will be an informal discussion and happy hour with two mainland Chinese students, Xiaoxing Han and Shengpeng Feng, on Monday, July 10. Mr. Xiaoxing is a doctoral candidate in government at Georgetown and the author of a number of op-ed pieces in the Washington Post. Mr. Shengping is a doctoral candidate in politics at Princeton and a leader of the Chinese Alliance for Democracy. The event will be held in Rooms A, B and C at the University Club (1135 16th St. NW) from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Later in the summer, we're planning a number of other events: discussions with Health and Human Services undersecretary Constance Horner on July 18 and Judge Robert Bork on July 25, and on August 3 a roundtable with alumni of the student journalism program who are now working professionally in D.C. We'll also be hosting a softball game/barbeque on August 5. Please mark your calendar now.

If you can attend the July 10th session, please R.S.V.P. as soon as possible to Kim Bowling or myself at 833-1801. If you know anyone else who might be interested in coming to these events, let us know.

I look forward to seeing you this summer.

Sincerely,

Jon Bacal
Program Officer
