The Honorable Bobbie Kilberg
Deputy Assistant to the President for Public Liaison
Room 128 OEOB
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Bobbie:

On Friday October 11, 1991 the National Federation of Republican Women will sponsor a Women Candidate Seminar prior to its 26th biennial convention. The seminar will be held from 8:30 - 5:00 p.m. at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Cincinnati, Ohio.

As a key member of the Bush administration and a former candidate for public office, we would be honored if you would agree to be our luncheon speaker at 12:00 p.m. I know the women attending the seminar will be eager to hear your views on issues effecting women candidates in the '92 elections as well as some of your own campaign "war stories."

I realize that Cincinnati is a long way from Washington, and I would be pleased if you would be my guest for our opening ceremonies Friday night. It promises to be an exciting event. We anticipate a convention attendance of 2,500, with 200 women candidates, campaign managers and volunteers attending the candidate seminar.

Should you have any questions regarding your participation in the seminar, please do not hesitate to contact my convention assistant Allison Reid at 202-547-9341.

I look forward to your favorable reply.

Sincerely,

Huda Jones
President
