OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

May 4, 1992

MEMORANDUM FOR BOBBI SCHLEIBAUM
ANNE HATHAWAY

FROM: JIM PITTS

SUBJECT: NEW MEXICO FOLLOW UP NOTES

The following persons should have personal notes written and signed by the Vice President.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunzio DeSantis (Sherolyn)--They hosted the fundraiser and were both in the private "pull away" meeting. Nunzio dominated the conversation about golf. He just took up the game 3 years ago and has gone from a 40 handicap to a 10. His goal is to play on the Senior Tour when he turns fifty. He and the V.P. exchanged golf equipment information. The V.P. gave him two golf hats and a sleeve of V.P. golf balls. I would mention his golf in the note as well as the V.P.'s offer to play sometime.

I would do a separate one for his wife, who was impressive in her own right. She is involved with a charitable foundation which is trying to preserve the American Family. She would be someone we should communicate with directly also.

Mr. Frank Bond--He was the driving force behind this fundraiser. He introduced the V.P. at the major donor reception and attended the "pull away". I would put in his note "thanks for your support as an attorney for my litigation reform package" (BS--as always clean up my language in your succinct fashion).

Ms. Betty Rivera--Very impressive. Should be on all our residence lists. She was trying to sell Al a convertible Infiniti. I would say "Al Hubbard tells me you are quite a salesperson, good luck closing the deal" (God, I'm humorous).

Former Gov. and Mrs. Garrey Carruthers (Katherine)--He was not in attendance but wrote a letter to the V.P., which Frank Bond read at the Major Donor Reception. Say something to the effect "I appreciate your kind words. I am sorry to have missed you but Katherine, as usual did a great job filling in. Check and see if she goes by Kathy.

Mr. Edward Lujan--Secretary Lujan's brother--wants to be a major player but does not deliver. Because he was in the private pull away I would do a note but nothing special and would not have him on the residence list.

Congressman Steven Schiff (Steve ?)--Rode in the limo to the first event (included an impromptu stop at Goody's restaurant, sort of like a Shoney's). He was not in the private pull away but was at all of the events today. I am not aware of any private conversations, but I would mention something about the impromptu in order to personalize the note.

Senator Pete Domenici--while he was not at any of the events he is the dominant GOP force in the State. A telegram to the V.P. was read from him at the General Reception. A note to the effect "sorry you were stuck in D.C., but thanks for the kind words."

MEMORANDUM FOR THE VICE PRESIDENT

FROM: ZELDA J. NOVAK ZJ
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS

BARBARA J. SCHLEIBAUM BP
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: NEW MEXICO BUSH/QUAYLE '92 FUNDRAISER

Date of Event: Monday, May 4, 1992
Location: Nunzio DeSantis Residence
Albuquerque, New Mexico
Time: 4:20 p.m.

I. Purpose

To participate in a VIP reception/photo opportunity (50-60 people @ $500 - $1,000 per person), and a general reception (120 people @ $150 per person). You will make brief remarks.

II. Background

Nunzio DeSantis will host the event. Mr. DeSantis is CEO and Chairman of Diagnostek, Inc. Diagnostek provides mail service pharmaceuticals to Fortune 500 Companies, Union Trust Funds, and large insurers. The company also manages 156 hospital pharmacies nationwide. Mr. DeSantis was born in Italy, moved to Venezuela at the age of four, and immigrated to New Mexico in 1960 at the age of nine. He graduated from the University of New Mexico College of Pharmacy in 1974. He and his wife Sherolyn have three children: Louie, 17, Rhonda, 12, and Paul, 7. His biography is attached.

NOTE: Louie DeSantis would like to ask you some questions about the Vice Presidency for a school project. His list of questions are attached.

Frank Bond will introduce you at the VIP reception. Mr. Bond is an attorney, and businessman and cattle rancher. He was the Republican candidate for Governor in 1990, losing to Democrat Bruce King by a 55 to 45 percent margin. His biography is attached.

Congressman Steven Schiff (R-1) will be in attendance. Schiff was first elected in 1988, and currently serves on the following committees: House Science, Space and Technology; Judiciary; and Government Operations. After receiving his B.A. in political science at the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, he served with the New Mexico Air National Guard. Schiff is a graduate of the University of New Mexico Law School. His biography is attached.

NEW MEXICO BUSH/QUAYLE '92:

New Mexico's Presidential primary date is June 2, 1992.

The New Mexico Bush/Quayle '92 Chairman is Senator Pete Domenici. Aubrey Cookman, a long-time GOP activist, is the Honorary Chairman. The Finance Chairman is former Governor Garrey Carruthers. He will not be in attendance, however, his wife Katherine will be present. Their biographies are attached.

According to the State GOP, H. Ross Perot does not have a visible campaign organization in the state.

In 1988, the Bush/Quayle ticket won by a 52 - 47 percent margin in New Mexico.

NEW MEXICO POLITICAL UPDATE:

Congressional Redistricting and Election:

The New Mexico Legislature drew new lines in September of 1991. According to the RNC, incumbents were not significantly affected by the new map.

Congressman Steve Schiff (R-1) will have all of Albuquerque in his new district, which increased in Democrat registration marginally. He is expected to retain his seat, but will have a tough fight on his hands. The Democrat frontrunner is millionaire Jim Nance, a member of the state's horse racing commission.

Congressman Joe Skeen (R-2) is expected to retain his seat. According to the State GOP, Skeen may be weakened by rumors that Skeen's health is failing.

Democrat Congressman Bill Richardson's (D-3) seat is reported to be slightly weakened, but safe. Republican businessman Greg Bemis is expected to give Richardson a tough fight.

State Legislature:

State Senate

16 R

24 D

State House

21 R

49 D

Legislative Redistricting:

Completed in September of 1991, the new legislative redistricting map, carved out by the Democrats, gives House and Senate Democrat four to six more seats.

Since there are no senatorial or gubernatorial races in 1992, the New Mexico GOP is concentrating on trying to win at least 4 seats in the State Senate. Tim Wigley, the GOP's recently hired executive director, was brought on for his experience in running legislative campaigns. As a note, GOP Chairman John Lattaudio will not be in attendance.

NOTE: This event will take place in Rep. Steven Schiff's (R-1) congressional district. The Mayor of Albuquerque is Democrat Louis Saavedra.

GARREY CARRUTHERS

Garrey Carruthers, a senior and founding principal of Cimarron Business Development Corporation, is the President and Chief Executive Office of the firm. The firm is a capital formation corporation, raising capital for on going businesses interested in expansion or acquisitions.

Through Cimarron Business Development Corporation efforts, a sister company was formed in 1991. Cimarron Insurance Service Corporation is the holding company which purchased Martin Group Administration Service, Inc., and Claims Service Inc. - two Albuquerque based third party administrator companies for health insurance claims. Governor Carruthers is also President and Chief Executive Officer for these entities and spends the majority of his time in this endeavor.

Carruthers served as Governor of New Mexico from January 1987 through December 1990. His public service includes four years in the United States Department of the Interior as Assistant Secretary from 1980 - 1984 and twelve years of teaching as a professor at New Mexico State University. Carruthers earned his Bachelor of Science and Master Degrees at New Mexico State University and his PhD. in economic at Iowa State University.

Carruthers and his wife, Katherine, have three children and two grandsons. They reside in Albuquerque.

KATHERINE CARRUTHERS

Kathy and Garrey Carruthers, Governor of New Mexico, were married on May 13, 1961, and are the proud parents of three children: Debi, Carol, and Steven. They have two grandsons, Justin and Daniel.

A graduate of Espanola Valley High School, Mrs. Carruthers attended New Mexico State University in Las Cruces. She was vice president of Garrey Carruthers, Inc., a consulting firm.

Mrs. Carruthers began her political activities more than 20 years ago, and has worked on the campaigns of U.S. Senator Pete Domenici, U.S. Congressman Joe Skeen, and former U.S. Senator Harrison Schmitt. Mrs. Carruthers was also a caseworker in Senator Schmitt's Las Cruces office.

As New Mexico's First Lady, Mrs. Carruthers concentrates on literacy, having created the New Mexico Coalition for Literacy; the American Cancer Society, of which she was the Honorary Chairman; the New Mexico Wine Industry; the arts; and the boards for the New Mexico Endowment for the Humanities. In 1989 she is the Honorary Chairman for the Hall of Fame Awards with the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women, and the Honorary Commander of the 150th Tactical Fighter Group of the New Mexico Air National Guard. Her interests are many and varied, and while she works toward other goals, these remain her priorities.

In past years, Mrs. Carruthers has served as board member, officer, and chairman of a number of organizations, including hospital auxiliary, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, secretary of the Dona Ana County Federated Republican Women, and chairman of the Spouse Education Association in Washington, D.C., while her husband, Garrey, was a White House Fellow.

Mrs. Carruthers' hobbies include reading, golf, fishing, horseback riding, hunting, and she is an expert marksman.

The Honorable Dan Quayle
Vice President of the United States
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20501

Dear Mr. Vice President:

The Arizona Republican Party is holding its State Convention in Phoenix on May 30, 1992, commencing at 9:00 a.m. On the preceding evening, the Party will host the annual Chairman's Award Dinner, where we honor our outstanding Republican volunteers.

As Chairman of the Republican Party of Arizona, I am honored to extend to you an invitation to address our convention and/or the dinner. I know our delegates would appreciate your comments and your presence.

If this office can provide you with further information about the events, please let us know.

Very truly yours,

Gerald J. Davis
State Chairman

cc

Jim -
Buckanan may attend GOP Convention on May 30. We're doing well thus far in the caucuses, but must lock the 896 delegates down at the convention.
Strongly urge voters to attend.

NAME: Kathy Carruthers
SPOUSE: Garrey Carruthers
ADDRESS: 6412 Glen Oak, NE
Albuquerque, NM 87111
PHONE: (505)298-5165
OCCUPATION: Former First Lady of New Mexico
GOP ACTIVITY: Kathy has been involved in political campaigns since the mid 1970's. She was instrumental in Garrey's campaign for governor and she was very active as the first lady of New Mexico. She has worked on the campaigns of U.S. Senator Pete Domenici, Representative Joe Skeen and former U.S. Senator Harrison Schmitt. As the first lady of NM, Mrs. Carruthers concentrated on literacy, the American Cancer Society, the NM Wine Industry, the arts and the NM endowment for the Humanities.
COMMENTS: Kathy was awarded the Apollo Award for her work with the New Mexico Coalition for Literacy, June 1989. She serves as the honorary chair of ARTS NEW MEXICO, her brainchild - a state wide organization for local and county arts councils. Her hobbies include golf, fishing, horseback riding, hunting and she is an expert marksman.

Chairman JOHN LATTAUZIO

Elected: May 1989, re-elected Dec. 90

Next Election: Dec. 1992

JOHN LATTAUZIO, owner of seven convenience stores throughout New Mexico. He serves on the 1992 Committee on Call and Contest Committee.

Committeeman PHELPS ANDERSON

Elected: August 1988

Next Election: June 1992

PHELPS ANDERSON is the son of ROBERT O. ANDERSON, the person who put ARCO on the map. Anderson is an investor and entrepreneur in energy resources. He serves on the RNC Executive Council and the convention's Arrangements Committee.

Committeewoman SHIRLEY LESLIE

Elected: August 1988

Next Election: June 1992

SHIRLEY LESLIE, a wealthy Albuquerque Realtor, is extremely pleasant and enjoys working with the RNC. She serves on the Rules Committee.

State Party Overview:

The current team at the New Mexico GOP has been better than most over the years. As with many state parties, a good team is in place, lacking only the monetary resources to fully exploit its potential. Republicans in New Mexico really have no history of giving to the state party in sizable amounts. They choose instead to throw all their support behind their favorite candidate. Chairman JOHN LATTAUZIO is slowly changing this trend. He has made pitches to big money contributors who will most likely give if they see a consistency of people and programs in place.

Mark Gromek the Executive Director has accepted a position at the RNC as DRPD under Fred Wolf. He will most likely be replaced by Jim Wiggley from Mississippi.

Financial Status:

The state party struggles to exist month-to-month. The RNC is working with the party to put it on a more sound financial footing, but this will take a while. JOHN DENDAHL was selected state party finance chairman in September 1991 and is setting about his tasks with a refreshing zeal.

The Lincoln Day Dinner is March 14th. This is the largest fundraiser of the year thus far and the results are forthcoming.

ELECTION UPDATE1992 Ballot:

President

U.S. House, 2R, 1D

JOE SKEEN (R) (2nd D)

STEVEN SCHIFF (R) (1st D)

BILL RICHARDSON (D) (3rd D)

State House, all 70 members, currently 25R, 45D

State Senate, all 42 members, currently 16R, 26D

1992 Electoral Votes: 5

NM p. 3

POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT/OVERVIEW

Key Congressional Races:

The New Mexico Legislature drew new lines in September 1991. The consensus has Republican JOE SKEEN keeping his seat as long as he wants, but making it competitive for a Democrat once the 64 year-old lawmaker decides to retire. Skeen will probably face opposition from Bruce Wilson, a failed state Senate candidate from last election, or more likely, from Dan Sosa, a former chief justice of the New Mexico Supreme Court. Republican Congressman STEVE SCHIFF will have all of Albuquerque in his new district, which increased in Democrat registration marginally. Republicans believe Schiff should retain the seat, but will require a little more work. DIANA DAGGETT will serve as the general consultant, as well as finance director, for the Schiff reelection. Schiff may draw opposition from millionaire Jim Nance, a Democrat and member of the state's horse racing commission. Democrat BILL RICHARDSON'S seat is safe for as long as he wants it.

State GOP Central Committee voted to pass on their April platform convention which ensures that an abortion plank will not be discussed until '93. A delegate selection convention date of June 14 is set.

Redistricting:

Completed September 1991, Republicans running for U.S. House seats fared better than their counterparts in the legislature. Democrats carved the Senate to give them four to six more seats and design the house for the same take. The current balance is 46 Democrat seats to 24 Republican seats in the state House and 26 Democrat seats to 16 Republican seats in the state Senate.

Some GOP seats were diluted a bit, however Democrat Congressman BILL RICHARDSON'S district was also weakened. All and all the incumbents were not significantly affected.

After mulling over New Mexico reapportionment, the U. S. Justice Department asked that the legislature only alter the boundaries in two state senate districts.

- o Acknowledgements:
Frank Bond;
Nunzio and Sherolyn DeSantis, our hosts;
Ed Lujan;
Kathy Carruthers, the former First Lady of New Mexico
- o It's good to be with all of you this evening, and to thank you personally for doing so much on behalf of our re-election campaign.
- o This is a year of unmatched opportunity for our party.
- o We have the ideas, the vision, and the leaders this country needs.
- o Issues for 1992:
 - o Reform agenda:
 - Regulatory Relief
 - Education Reform
 - Legal Reform
 - Reforms in Washington --
 - o Fiscal reform and line item veto
 - o Term limits
- o Republicans changed the world, and now we're going to change America. And it all begins with four more years for President Bush, and a Republican Congress.
- o And, because of people like you, we have the support we need to win big in November.

He graduated from the University of New Mexico College of Pharmacy in 1974, founded and operated several nuclear pharmacies before founding Diagnostek in 1983. Diagnostek provides mail service pharmaceuticals to Fortune 500 Companies, Union Trust Funds, and large insurers; and manages 156 hospital pharmacies nationwide. Diagnostek is the second largest mail service pharmaceutical provider nationwide, and the number one provider of pharmacy management services to the HMO industry. Business Week recently named Diagnostek as the number one fastest growing company on the New York Stock Exchange, and Inc. Magazine named the company number ten in their list of the 100 fastest growing small public companies. Diagnostek employs 2,800 people nationwide and is the second largest public company in New Mexico.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE VICE PRESIDENT

FROM: ZELDA J. NOVAK ZN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS

BARBARA J. SCHLEIBAUM BS
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: NEW MEXICO BUSH/QUAYLE '92 FUNDRAISER

Date of Event: Monday, May 4, 1992
Location: Nunzio DeSantis Residence
Albuquerque, New Mexico
Time: 4:20 p.m.

I. Purpose

To participate in a VIP reception/photo opportunity (50-60 people @ $500 - $1,000 per person), and a general reception (120 people @ $150 per person). You will make brief remarks.

II. Background

Nunzio DeSantis will host the event. Mr. DeSantis is CEO and Chairman of Diagnostek, Inc. Diagnostek provides mail service pharmaceuticals to Fortune 500 Companies, Union Trust Funds, and large insurers. The company also manages 156 hospital pharmacies nationwide. Mr. DeSantis was born in Italy, moved to Venezuela at the age of four, and immigrated to New Mexico in 1960 at the age of nine. He graduated from the University of New Mexico College of Pharmacy in 1974. He and his wife Sherolyn have three children: Louie, 17, Rhonda, 12, and Paul, 7. His biography is attached.

NOTE: Louie DeSantis would like to ask you some questions about the Vice Presidency for a school project. His list of questions are attached.

Frank Bond will introduce you at the VIP reception. Mr. Bond is an attorney, and businessman and cattle rancher. He was the Republican candidate for Governor in 1990, losing to Democrat Bruce King by a 55 to 45 percent margin. His biography is attached.

Congressman Steven Schiff (R-1) will be in attendance. Schiff was first elected in 1988, and currently serves on the following committees: House Science, Space and Technology; Judiciary; and Government Operations. After receiving his B.A. in political science at the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, he served with the New Mexico Air National Guard. Schiff is a graduate of the University of New Mexico Law School. His biography is attached.

NEW MEXICO BUSH/QUAYLE '92:

New Mexico's Presidential primary date is June 2, 1992.

The New Mexico Bush/Quayle '92 Chairman is Senator Pete Domenici. Aubrey Cookman, a long-time GOP activist, is the Honorary Chairman. The Finance Chairman is former Governor Garrey Carruthers. He will not be in attendance, however, his wife Katherine will be present. Their biographies are attached.

According to the State GOP, H. Ross Perot does not have a visible campaign organization in the state.

In 1988, the Bush/Quayle ticket won by a 52 - 47 percent margin in New Mexico.

NEW MEXICO POLITICAL UPDATE:

Congressional Redistricting and Election:

The New Mexico Legislature drew new lines in September of 1991. According to the RNC, incumbents were not significantly affected by the new map.

Congressman Steve Schiff (R-1) will have all of Albuquerque in his new district, which increased in Democrat registration marginally. He is expected to retain his seat, but will have a tough fight on his hands. The Democrat frontrunner is millionaire Jim Nance, a member of the state's horse racing commission.

Congressman Joe Skeen (R-2) is expected to retain his seat. According to the State GOP, Skeen may be weakened by rumors that Skeen's health is failing.

Democrat Congressman Bill Richardson's (D-3) seat is reported to be slightly weakened, but safe. Republican businessman Greg Bemis is expected to give Richardson a tough fight.

State Legislature:

State Senate

16 R

24 D

State House

21 R

49 D

Legislative Redistricting:

Completed in September of 1991, the new legislative redistricting map, carved out by the Democrats, gives House and Senate Democrat four to six more seats.

Since there are no senatorial or gubernatorial races in 1992, the New Mexico GOP is concentrating on trying to win at least 4 seats in the State Senate. Tim Wigley, the GOP's recently hired executive director, was brought on for his experience in running legislative campaigns. As a note, GOP Chairman John Lattaudio will not be in attendance.

NOTE: This event will take place in Rep. Steven Schiff's (R-1) congressional district. The Mayor of Albuquerque is Democrat Louis Saavedra.

GARREY CARRUTHERS

Garrey Carruthers, a senior and founding principal of Cimarron Business Development Corporation, is the President and Chief Executive Office of the firm. The firm is a capital formation corporation, raising capital for on going businesses interested in expansion or acquisitions.

Through Cimarron Business Development Corporation efforts, a sister company was formed in 1991. Cimarron Insurance Service Corporation is the holding company which purchased Martin Group Administration Service, Inc., and Claims Service Inc. - two Albuquerque based third party administrator companies for health insurance claims. Governor Carruthers is also President and Chief Executive Officer for these entities and spends the majority of his time in this endeavor.

Carruthers served as Governor of New Mexico from January 1987 through December 1990. His public service includes four years in the United States Department of the Interior as Assistant Secretary from 1980 - 1984 and twelve years of teaching as a professor at New Mexico State University. Carruthers earned his Bachelor of Science and Master Degrees at New Mexico State University and his PhD. in economic at Iowa State University.

Carruthers and his wife, Katherine, have three children and two grandsons. They reside in Albuquerque.

KATHERINE CARRUTHERS

Kathy and Garrey Carruthers, Governor of New Mexico, were married on May 13, 1961, and are the proud parents of three children: Debi, Carol, and Steven. They have two grandsons, Justin and Daniel.

A graduate of Espanola Valley High School, Mrs. Carruthers attended New Mexico State University in Las Cruces. She was vice president of Garrey Carruthers, Inc., a consulting firm.

Mrs. Carruthers began her political activities more than 20 years ago, and has worked on the campaigns of U.S. Senator Pete Domenici, U.S. Congressman Joe Skeen, and former U.S. Senator Harrison Schmitt. Mrs. Carruthers was also a caseworker in Senator Schmitt's Las Cruces office.

As New Mexico's First Lady, Mrs. Carruthers concentrates on literacy, having created the New Mexico Coalition for Literacy; the American Cancer Society, of which she was the Honorary Chairman; the New Mexico Wine Industry; the arts; and the boards for the New Mexico Endowment for the Humanities. In 1989 she is the Honorary Chairman for the Hall of Fame Awards with the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women, and the Honorary Commander of the 150th Tactical Fighter Group of the New Mexico Air National Guard. Her interests are many and varied, and while she works toward other goals, these remain her priorities.

In past years, Mrs. Carruthers has served as board member, officer, and chairman of a number of organizations, including hospital auxiliary, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, secretary of the Dona Ana County Federated Republican Women, and chairman of the Spouse Education Association in Washington, D.C., while her husband, Garrey, was a White House Fellow.

Mrs. Carruthers' hobbies include reading, golf, fishing, horseback riding, hunting, and she is an expert marksman.
