Dear Congressman Feighan:

Thank you for your recent letter to the President enclosing a copy of Mr. Philip E. Price's letter regarding U.S. policy toward the Middle East.

We appreciate being apprised of your constituent's perspective in this important area. Many difficult challenges lie ahead, and President Bush believes the views of individual Americans can play an invaluable role in guiding his Administration's efforts to meet those challenges. You may be assured that your constituent's comments have been shared with his advisors.

Thank you again for your interest in writing.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Frederick D. McClure
Assistant to the President
for Legislative Affairs

Dear Mr. President:

I have enclosed a letter from my constituent, Mr. Philip E. Price, of Beachwood, Ohio.

He makes an excellent point regarding the need for a U.S. policy in the Middle East aimed at finding negotiating partners that are willing to accept the reality and legitimacy of Israel. I would appreciate it if you would favor him with a reply.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Edward F. Feighan 119

18 Jan. 1989

Hon. Repr. Congressman
E.F. Feighan
1223 Longworth Bldg.
Washington, D.C. 20515

Hon: Congressman:

You are an experienced member of the House of Foreign Affairs
Committee... your assistance to the following stance is highly needed.

Please forward this request to our President George Bush:

As our new President, you have stated your support for Israel will not waiver. One of the most important types of support the U.S. can offer is to stand firm in the process to find negotiating partners who truly want peace without destroying Israel and prove it with actions, not words.

With great admiration and thanks,

Yours sincerely,

Philip E. Price
