October 3, 1977

President Carter
White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Twenty-nine years ago, the state of Israel came into being at the behest of the United Nations. Immediately its Arab neighbors beset it on all sides. The local Arab population was exhorted to flee, so that the invaders could settle the Jewish problem in that area with dispatch. The Jewish leadership pleaded with their Arab neighbors to remain and live side by side with them, but to no avail. Large numbers of Israeli Arabs listened to the exhortation of the Nazi Mufti his ilk and fled, to return after Israel was made Judenrein, and take all the marbles.

At enormous costs in lives, the fledgeling state managed to survive.

Many of these misled Arab DP's wound up in refugee camps. Instead of trying to integrate these unfortunates into their societies, Israel's neighbors chose to isolate them in festering squalor, dependent on handouts paid for with United States funds. The results were of course predictable. Generations of embittered murderers were spawned in these sun baked hell-holes, as witness the carnage in Jordan in 1972 and lately in Lebanon.

The United States has now joined Russia in demanding that Israel sit down and negotiate with these Marxist terrorists.

Hitler and Stalin could not have written a more diabolical scenario! The survivor of four concerted attacks and countless dastardly terror acts perpetrated with Russian arms, financed by extorted oil money, is pressured not only by the Red Scourge but by the United States of America to negotiate its own suicide!!

Shouldn't we ask why Jordan didn't offer, and the PLO did not accept, a "Homeland" while they had control of the West-Bank? Isn't this all just a subterfuge to get the Katyusha's closer to the Israeli heartland?

Respectfully yours,

SS/es

Dear Mr. Schick:

I am responding to your April 3, 1990 letter to President Bush regarding the Administration's dialogue with the PLO.

We initiated the dialogue with the PLO only after the PLO met long-standing U.S. conditions, including the renunciation of terrorism. The U.S./PLO dialogue is not an end in itself, but rather a means to fashion a workable peace process. Thus, we are using the dialogue to urge the PLO to give practical application to the commitments Arafat undertook in December, 1988. Since May, 1989 we have been urging the PLO to take a position which allows progress toward elections and negotiations. We have not asked Israel to negotiate with the PLO.

The U.S. commitment to Israel's survival and security remains unshakeable. We believe that security for Israel can best be achieved and guaranteed over the long term in the context of a comprehensive peace.

Sincerely,

John L. Hirsch, Director
Office of Israel and
Arab-Israeli Affairs

President Bush,
White House
Washington, D.C.

The undue pressure on Israel to negotiate with it's sworn enemy, the P.L.O., is reminiscent of 1977 and President Carter's efforts.

The only ones pleased by your efforts are Arafat and his henchmen. Enclosed, find letters I wrote to President Carter in 1977. Deja vu!
