Dear Mr. President and Barbara,

I have been planning to write to you both since the election. I am sorry I didn't before. I have just heard on the news about the death of your mother, Mr. President. You have my deepest sympathy. The loss of a parent, at any age, is devastating. I know this must be hard for both of you, especially after the election. I was also very sorry about the election. The best man did not win. I wanted you to know that you have done great things for this country and the world and I thank you for it. Being of Polish descent I am very grateful for all of the work you and President Reagan did to help free Poland. I also feel your policies on health care, the economy and abortion are more in keeping with those of the country than the new administration is. I must say I am very concerned about what will happen to me and my family, the country and the world in the next 4 years. Above all,

I plan to work hard for candidates who hold true to the ideals you believe in, in an effort to minimize the damage. I have heard in the media that you have been very depressed, I hope this is just more negative hype by the media, but if it is true, please know that millions of Americans are behind you, are grateful to you and hold you in the highest regard. I wish you both and your family the very best in the years to come and may God bless you all. You will be in my prayers.

Sincerely,

Cand-Lynn Cada
