WASHINGTON, D.C. 20504

December 1, 2008

MEMORANDUM FOR RECIPIENTS OF NSPD-64

SUBJECT: Distribution of NSPD-64

Attached is your agency's copy of National Security Presidential Directive/NSPD-64. This Presidential document should be carefully safeguarded.

Since NSPDs communicate new Presidential policy on sensitive foreign policy and national security topics, copies should be redistributed within your department or agency only on a need to know basis. Broader dissemination of policy decisions, as necessary, should take place by providing a summary of the NSPD to appropriate staff or by including relevant portions in agency directives or policy guidance.

NSPDs should not be redistributed beyond your department or agency or overseas within your department or agency without the advance approval of the NSC. Likewise, all public requests for copies of or access to NSPDs, or Presidential Directives of prior administrations, should be referred to the NSC. All such requests for redistribution should be faxed to the NSC's Senior Director for Records and Access Management at 202-456-9200.

SUBJECT: Status of National Security Presidential Directives

After an interagency review of Presidential Directives issued prior to October 2008 on national security matters, I direct that the following disposition be made:

- The Directives listed at Tab 1 are still active, even though some may require revisions.
- The Directives listed at Tab 2 are cancelled because they have been superseded, implemented, or because the policy is outdated by subsequent developments. This list is annotated to explain why the Directive is no longer active.
