Republicans

June 25, 2007, 12:00 a.m.

Rep. Gresham Barrett (S.C.)

Hits R
Catcher Throws R
Elected 2002 Votes R

This is the fifth Roll Call Congressional Baseball Game for Barrett, who caught for The Citadel as a walk-on player. Last year, Barrett went 0-for-1. He will sport an Erskine College uniform.

Home Westminster

Rep. Joe Barton (Texas)

Hits R
Manager Throws R
Elected 1984 Votes R

Barton hopes to continue the success of his predecessor, Rep. Mike Oxley (Ohio). While this is his first year as skipper, he has been a coach for the Republicans since 1995. The former high school baseball and football player will once again don a Texas Rangers uniform.

Home Ennis

Rep. Kevin Brady (Texas)

Hits R
Second Base Throws R
Elected 1996 Votes R

Brady, a former MVP, didn't have his most stellar performance last year but at least he didn't get hurt. The former University of South Dakota center fielder had been hurt three times in previous contests. At press time, Brady was still awaiting the outcome of the Texas high school baseball championships to determine what jersey he would wear.

Home The Woodlands

Rep. Steve Buyer (Ind.)

Hits R
First-Base Coach Throws R
Elected 1992 Votes R

Buyer returns again this year as one of the GOP coaches. Like past years, he will don an Indiana University uniform.

Home Monticello

Rep. Shelley Moore Capito (W.Va.)

	Hits R
Infield	Throws R
Elected 2000	Votes R

Playing for the sixth year, Capito is one of two female Members on the Republican squad. She will wear a Marshall University uniform this year.

Home Charleston

Rep. Mike Conaway (Texas)

First Base	Hits R
Outfield	Throws R
Elected 2004	Votes R

More of a football player than a baseball player, Conaway played on the offensive and defensive lines on the first state championship team at Permian High School in Odessa, Texas, before playing at what was then East Texas State University. He will wear a Houston Astros jersey.

Home Midland

Rep. Tom Davis (Va.)

Pinch Hitter	Hits R
Outfield	Throws R
Elected 1994	Votes S

Davis returns to the diamond after a solid game last year. He was 1-for-1 with an RBI. You can find him sporting a Washington Nationals uniform.

Home Falls Church

Sen. John Ensign (Nev.)

Pitcher	Hits R
Shortstop	Throws R
Elected 2000	Votes R

With former Sen. Rick Santorum's (Pa.) defeat in November, Ensign is the only Member of the Senate on the Republican squad this year. He had a strong performance last year with a hit and a run scored.

Home Las Vegas

Rep. Jeff Flake (Ariz.)

	Hits L
Outfield	Throws R

Elected 2000 Votes R
Flake will wear his lucky No. 13 Arizona
Diamondbacks uniform when he takes to the diamond. Last year, he contributed a run to the Republicans' victory with an RBI.

Home Mesa

Rep. Phil Gingrey (Ga.)
Shortstop Hits R
Pinch Hitter Throws R
Elected 2002 Votes R
Gingrey batted 1.000 again last year going 1-for-1.
You will see him on the field wearing a Berry
College uniform.

Home Marietta

Rep. Louie Gohmert (Texas)
 Hits R
Outfield Throws R
Elected 2004 Votes R
Gohmert is making his Congressional baseball debut this year. The former Eagle Scout will sport a Tyler Junior College jersey.

Home Tyler

Rep. Virgil Goode (Va.)
 Hits L
Outfield Throws R
Elected 1996 Votes R
After failing to get a hit last year, Goode hopes that will change when he steps into the batter's box tonight. He will be wearing a Martinsville High School uniform.

Home Rocky Mount

Rep. Sam Graves (Mo.)
 Hits R
Outfield Throws R
Elected 2000 Votes R
Coming out to play for the first time since his election to Congress seven years ago, Graves will wear a Kansas City Royals jersey.

Home Tarkio

Rep. Kenny Hulshof (Mo.)

Hits R
 First Base Throws R
 Elected 1996 Votes R

Hulshof added another MVP trophy to his collection last year when he was picked as the game's top player after knocking a key double at the bottom of the third inning that broke a 1-1 tie. He also received the award in 2001. He will don a Missouri Tigers uniform.

Home Columbia

Rep. Jack Kingston (Ga.)

Hits R
 Second Base Throws R
 Elected 1992 Votes R

Kingston scored two runs last year, but it wasn't enough to get any offers from major league clubs. Kingston once said he hoped his performance during the Congressional baseball game would get some attention from pro scouts. He will again wear the uniform of the Savannah Chain.

Home Savannah

Rep. Connie Mack IV (Fla.)

Infield Hits R
 Catcher Throws R
 Elected 2004 Votes R

Mack, whose great-grandfather was a Hall of Fame baseball manager and owner of the then-Philadelphia Athletics, will be wearing a vintage A's jersey again this year.

Home Fort Myers

Rep. Kevin McCarthy (Calif.)

Hits R
 Utility Throws R
 Elected 2006 Votes R

One of only two members of the 2006 Republican freshman class playing, McCarthy will begin his Congressional baseball career sporting a California State University at Bakersfield No. 22 jersey.

Home Bakersfield

Rep. Thaddeus McCotter (Mich.)

Hits R

Outfield Throws R

Elected 2002 Votes R

McCotter will be playing this year for the sixth time. In 2006, he batted .500. On the field, McCotter will don the jersey of the Detroit Tigers.

Home Livonia

Rep. Steve Pearce (N.M.)

Hits R

Pinch Hitter Throws R

Elected 2002 Votes R

Last year, Pearce went 1-for-1 and scored a run. He will wear a New Mexico State University uniform.

Home Hobbs

Rep. Chip Pickering (Miss.)

Hits R

Infield Throws R

Elected 1996 Votes R

Bouncing back from a Congressional baseball knee injury, Pickering went 1-for-3 last year. A high school catcher, he went on to play football at the University of Mississippi. He will be donning his Mississippi State University uniform again tonight.

Home Hebron

Rep. Adam Putnam (Fla.)

Hits L

Utility Throws L

Elected 2000 Votes R

Putnam, again the youngest player in the game at 32, will wear a Florida Gators jersey, the uniform of his alma mater.

Home Bartow

Rep. Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (Fla.)

Hits R

Second Base Throws R

Elected 1989 Votes R

This GOP team veteran, who was the first woman to get on base in a Roll Call Congressional Baseball Game, will again wear a No. 18 Florida Marlins uniform in honor of the state's 18th district, which she represents. She hopes to live up to the great Cuban baseball heritage from which she comes.

Home Miami

Rep. Bill Sali (Idaho)

	Hits R
Utility	Throws R
Elected 2006	Votes R

The fiery freshman Congressman from Idaho hopes to add some of his energy to the Republican squad this year. Sali will wear a Lewis-Clark State College uniform in his debut game.

Home Meridian

Rep. John Shimkus (Ill.)

Pitcher	Hits R
Catcher	Throws R
Elected 1996	Votes R

Some watching the game last year thought Shimkus should receive a third MVP award.

He pitched a complete game, allowing just seven hits and one run. He also threw five strikeouts.

Shimkus will wear the uniform of Metro-East Lutheran High School in Edwardsville, Ill., where he was once a teacher.

Home Collinsville

Rep. Bill Shuster (Pa.)

	Hits R
Utility	Throws R
Elected 2001	Votes R

Shuster scored a run last year but it wasn't quite the MVP performance he put together in 2004.

Wearing an Altoona Curve uniform, he will again be a player the Democrats need to keep an eye on.

Home Hollidaysburg

Rep. Todd Tiahrt (Kan.)

	Hits R
First Base	Throws R
Elected 1994	Votes R

Tiahrt, who played college football for the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology from 1969 to 1971, will again sport a Wichita State University uniform. He scored a run last year.

Home Goddard

Rep. Zach Wamp (Tenn.)

Shortstop

Hits R

Third Base

Throws R

Elected 1994

Votes R

Wamp extended his hitting streak last year to 10 games. He hopes to repeat his 1999 MVP performance while once again wearing a University of Tennessee uniform.

Democrats

June 25, 2007, 12:00 a.m.

Rep. Jason Altmire (Pa.)

Pitcher Hits R
Outfield Throws R
Elected 2006 Votes S

The former health executive hopes to breathe some life back into the Democrats. A two-sport letterman in high school, Altmire was on Florida State University's first Sugar Bowl championship team in 1989.

Home McCandless

Rep. Michael Arcuri (N.Y.)

Pitcher Hits R
Outfield Throws R
Elected 2006 Votes S

Wearing a Yankees jersey, Arcuri will help try to topple the GOP. His district includes the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, which may turn out to be a good omen for the Democrats. Also a good sign: Arcuri is a lifelong athlete, having played football in college and earned a first-degree black belt in tae kwon do.

Home Utica

Rep. Joe Baca (Calif.)

Pitcher Hits R
Infield Throws R
Elected 1999 Votes L

Baca, a former semipro baseball player, successfully predicted last year that the Democrats would end the GOP's dominance in November, but he was not such an oracle when it came to predicting similar success on the diamond. Baca started at pitcher in 2006 and allowed eight runs in just more than four innings.

Home Rialto

Rep. Brian Baird (Wash.)

Pitcher Hits R

Outfield Throws R
 Elected 1998 Votes L
 Wearing a Camas High School uniform, the veteran Baird hopes to continue his success from last year when he batted 1.000. Though the former high school baseball player got only one turn at bat, he made the most of it.

Home Olympia

Rep. Tim Bishop (N.Y.)
 Hits R
 Infield Throws R
 Elected 2002 Votes L
 While Bishop has a track record of batting well, last year's performance didn't reflect it. He had the most chances at-bat last year but couldn't get on base in any of his three attempts. He will be wearing a St. Joseph's College jersey as he tries to get back on track.

Home Southampton

Rep. Bruce Braley (Iowa)
 Hits R
 Utility Throws R
 Elected 2006 Votes L
 In a year loaded with new Democratic players, Braley is another guy the manager, Rep. Mike Doyle (Pa.), is looking at to help change his team's recent negative momentum. He will be wearing a jersey from the University of Northern Iowa.

Home Waterloo

Sen. Sherrod Brown (Ohio)
 Hits L
 Outfield Throws L
 Elected 2006 Votes L
 After missing the game last year, Brown returns to RFK for the first time as a Senator. He began playing for the Democratic squad in 1993 as a freshman in the House. Now he is the only Senator playing on the Democratic side.

Home Lorain

Rep. Russ Carnahan (Mo.)
 Hits R
 Utility Throws R
 Elected 2004 Votes L
 After a stellar inaugural performance going 1-for-1 in 2005, Carnahan failed to get a hit last year. The former junior high shortstop and third baseman will hope to change course this year wearing a St.

Louis Cardinals jersey.

Home St. Louis

Rep. Christopher Carney (Pa.)

	Hits R
Utility	Throws R
Elected 2006	Votes L

The former lieutenant commander in the Navy Reserves hopes to provide the boost that the Democrats have long been seeking. Carney will be wearing an Elk Lake High School jersey.

Home Dimock

Rep. Ben Chandler (Ky.)

	Hits R
Infield	Throws R
Elected 2004	Votes L

Chandler batted a respectable 1-for-2 last year, accounting for one of the Democrats' seven hits. While he previously wore both University of Kentucky and Kentucky State University jerseys, he will be sporting an Eastern Kentucky University uniform this year.

Home Versailles

Rep. William Lacy Clay (Mo.)

First Base	Hits L
Outfield	Throws L
Elected 2000	Votes L

Like many members of the Democratic squad, Clay underperformed last year. He went 0-for-1 as his team was blown out by the Republicans, 12-1. He will be wearing St. Louis Cardinals gear.

Home St. Louis

Rep. Joe Donnelly (Ind.)

First Base	Hits R
Outfield	Throws L
Elected 2006	Votes S

Donnelly, a rookie member of the squad, is new to Congress. He joins nine others from the class of 2006 in trying to get a win for the Democrats.

Home Granger

Rep. Mike Doyle (Pa.)

	Hits R
Manager	Throws R
Elected 1994	Votes L

Doyle, a two-time MVP, is back at the helm for the second consecutive year. While his team didn't do as well as he would have liked last year, he believes November's electoral victories brought new talent that will help overcome the Democrats' six-game losing streak. Doyle will be wearing Pittsburgh Pirates jersey No. 14.

Home Swissvale

Rep. Jay Inslee (Wash.)

Third Base	Hits R
	Throws R
Elected 2000	Votes L

Inslee put his money where his mouth was last year, going 1-for-1 after telling Roll Call that "Shimkus' fastball wouldn't hurt if it hit you in the ribs. ... They should finally give me a deed to John Shimkus because I own him." This time, the Democrats need him to help them score some runs.

Home Bainbridge Island

Rep. Stephen Lynch (Mass.)

First	Hits R
Outfield	Throws R
Elected 2001	Votes L

Lynch failed to impress last year in his inaugural performance. This year, he is still looking to record his first hit. He will be wearing a Boston Red Sox uniform.

Home South Boston

Rep. Jim Marshall (Ga.)

Infield	Hits S
Outfield	Throws R
Elected 2002	Votes S

Last year's marquee performer on the Democratic side, Marshall went 2-for-3 and scored the Democrats' only run of the game. He again will be sporting a Georgia Military College jersey as he hopes to propel the Democrats to victory.

Home Macon

Rep. Stephen Lynch (Mass.)

First Hits R
 Outfield Throws R
 Elected 2001 Votes L

Lynch failed to impress last year in his inaugural performance. This year, he is still looking to record his first hit. He will be wearing a Boston Red Sox uniform.

Home South Boston

Rep. Mike McIntyre (N.C.)

Infield Hits R
 Elected 1996 Throws R
 Votes S

A Congressional baseball veteran, McIntyre will be wearing the uniform of his alma mater, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Home Lumberton

Rep. Christopher Murphy (Conn.)

Infield Hits R
 Elected 2006 Throws R
 Votes L

While not the youngest person on the Democratic side — he is a couple of months older than Patrick Murphy (no relation) — Christopher Murphy has yet to reach his 34th birthday. He will wear a Wilby High School uniform.

Home Cheshire

Rep. Patrick Murphy (Pa.)

Utility Hits R
 Elected 2006 Throws R
 Votes L

The youngest player on the Democratic side at 33 years old, Murphy trails only Republican Adam Putnam for the honor of being the youngest player in the entire game. The Democrats hope his youthful exuberance will help guide them to victory as he dons a Bensalem Ramblers jersey.

Home Bristol

Rep. Ed Perlmutter (Colo.)

Catcher Hits R
Infield Throws R
Elected 2006 Votes L

Perlmutter makes his debut at RFK Stadium as the class of 2006 hopes to lead the Democrats to the baseball promised land. He will wear a Wheat Ridge High School uniform.

Home Golden

While not the youngest person on the Democratic side — he is a couple of months older than Patrick Murphy (no relation) — Christopher Murphy has yet to reach his 34th birthday. He will wear a Wilby High School uniform.

Home Cheshire

Rep. Tim Ryan (Ohio)

Infield Hits R
Elected 2002 Throws R
Votes L

Though this is Ryan's fifth year in Congress, he is just 33 years old. The team will look to him to bring two seemingly conflicting characteristics: youth and experience. He will be wearing the No. 7 jersey of the Cleveland Indians.

Home Niles

Rep. Linda Sánchez (Calif.)

Infield Hits S
Elected 2002 Throws R
Votes L

Sánchez is wearing a California State University at Long Beach uniform emblazoned with lucky number IX on it. She hopes her extracurricular success will follow her to the field. Last fall she won the Funniest Celebrity in Washington contest. If things don't go well, at least she will be able to entertain her teammates.

Home Lakewood

Rep. Heath Shuler (N.C.)

	Hits R
Designated Hitter	Throws R
Elected 2006	Votes S

The former University of Tennessee and NFL quarterback is seen by some as the Democratic version of ex-Rep. Steve Largent (R-Okla.). While a career-ending foot injury will prevent Shuler from playing the field, many hope he will light up the scoreboard when he bats. He will be wearing an Asheville Tourists uniform.

Home Waynesville

Rep. Adam Smith (Wash.)

	Hits L
Infield	Throws R
Elected 1996	Votes L

Smith went 1-for-2 last year, but it wasn't on par with his past MVP performance. Maybe this year will be different. He will be in a Tacoma Rainiers uniform.

Home Tacoma

Rep. Bart Stupak (Mich.)

Pitcher	Hits R
Infield	Throws R
Elected 1992	Votes L

One of the team's strongest arms, Stupak pitched one inning last year, allowing two runs. He will again be wearing a Menominee American Legion Post 146 jersey.

Home Menominee

Rep. Mel Watt (N.C.)

	Hits R
Pitcher	Throws R
Elected 1992	Votes L

The longtime starting pitcher and three-time MVP (1995, 1996 and 2000) lost his starting job last year to Rep. Joe Baca (Calif.). Like last year, he likely will see some relief pitching duty.

Home Charlotte

Rep. Anthony Weiner (N.Y.)

Infield Hits R
Outfield Throws R
Elected 1998 Votes L

Weiner went 0-for-2 last year so he has no where to go but up. Maybe he hopes to harness some of the success his New York Met's are having this year by wearing the team's No. 9 jersey.
