TAPINGS

Thursday, September 9, 2004

10:00 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.

Map Room

Dan Bartlett / Karl Rove / Harriet Miers / Margaret Spellings

I. PURPOSE

To record video messages for:

1. Salvation Army 125th Anniversary Dinner;
2. Department of Justice's Symposium on 10th Anniversary of Violence Against Women Act; and
3. Reverend Murray Family Tribute.

II. BACKGROUND

1. Salvation Army 125th Anniversary Dinner

The Salvation Army will begin its year-long celebration of its 125th anniversary in the United States with a dinner on October 5 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Philadelphia is the site where Salvation Army Lieutenant Eliza Shirley held the first meeting of the Salvation Army in the United States in 1879. The following year, General William Booth, the founder of the Army, sent additional staff to New York to officially start the Army in the United States. Approximately 1,000 people will attend this dinner.

2. Department of Justice's Symposium on 10th Anniversary of Violence Against Women Act

Attorney General Ashcroft requested a video greeting for the "Learning from the Past, Shaping the Future: A Symposium Honoring the 10th Anniversary of the Violence Against Women Act." The Conference will be held September 13 and 14, and approximately 600 advocates, law enforcement personnel, prosecutors, judges, and other Department of Justice officials will attend. The symposium will cover: expanding the community response to violence against women; identifying challenges to responding to violence against women in diverse communities; and working with elderly victims and those who have disabilities. Special sessions will highlight efforts to involve the faith-based community in the community response.

3. Reverend Murray Family Tribute

Reverend Cecil "Chip" Murray, Pastor of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church (FAME) in Los Angeles, is retiring after 27 years of service. This message will be played at the September 18 Murray Family Tribute to honor, congratulate, and thank Reverend Murray, Mrs. Bernadine Murray, and the FAME church for their service to the community of Watts and the country. Under Dr. Murray's leadership, the congregation has grown from 300 to 17,300 members and has approximately 40 task forces that address health issues, substance abuse, homelessness, emergency food and clothing, general and specialized housing, tutoring, entrepreneurial training, and employment services. Reverend Murray will celebrate its 75th birthday next week.

Note: Reverend Murray hosted you in Los Angeles on April 29, 2002, for the observance of the tenth Anniversary of the Los Angeles Riots. You also greeted him at the White House Faith-Based and Community Initiatives Conference in Los Angeles in March 2004.

Thursday, September 9, 2004

11:00 a.m. – 11:10 a.m.

Diplomatic Reception Room

Harriet Miers / Margaret Spellings

I. PURPOSE

To pose for a photo with Principals of the Year from the National Association of Elementary School Principals (NAESP) and the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP).

II. BACKGROUND

Both NAESP and NASSP name a Principal of the Year.

The NAESP National Distinguished Principals (NDP) Program was established in 1984 as an annual event to honor exemplary elementary and middle school principals who set the pace, character, and quality of the education children receive during their early school years. The program is jointly sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education and AIG VALIC (Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company). One principal is chosen annually from each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. Principals representing private K-8 schools, Department of Defense Dependents' Schools, and the U.S. Department of State Overseas Schools are also recognized. Public school principals are nominated by peers in their states, and the final selection for each state's NDP is made by the NAESP state affiliate. A national winner is chosen from among the state finalists. This year's winner of the NDP award is Dr. Carolyn Johnston of Fruitland Primary School in Fruitland, Maryland. Fruitland Primary School made adequate yearly progress for the 2003-2004 school year.

Launched in 1993, the MetLife/NASSP Principal of the Year program annually recognizes outstanding middle level and high school principals. It has become a nationally known vehicle for spotlighting secondary school principals whose schools include some configuration of grades 6-12. Those honored have demonstrated extraordinary leadership, commitment to students and staff, service to their communities, and contributions to the overall profession of educational leadership. Each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Department of Defense Education Activity, and the Department of State Overseas Schools select one middle level and one high school principal. From these state winners, six finalists (three middle level, three high school) are selected and eligible for the National Principal of the Year award. Each finalist receives an award and a $1,500 grant. The two National Principals of the Year receive an award and a $5,000 grant which is used to improve learning at the recipient's school, including, but not limited to, a special school project and/or professional development opportunities. This year's winner of the National Middle Level Principal of the Year award is Douglas Lowery of Hilliard Memorial Middle School in Hilliard, Ohio, and the winner of the National High School Principal of the Year award is James Donnelly of James A. Green High School in Dolgeville, New York. Hilliard Memorial Middle School made adequate yearly progress for the 2003-2004 school year, but New York State has not yet released its AYP ratings for this past school year, so we do not yet know the status of James A. Green High School.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Rod Paige, Secretary of Education
James (Jim) Donnelly, Principal, James A. Green High School, Dolgeville, New York
Vincent (Vince) Ferrandino, Executive Director, NAESP

Byers' Choice

Indoors

Colmar, Pennsylvania

Karl Rove

I. PURPOSE

To deliver remarks highlighting the economy at Byers' Choice.

II. BACKGROUND

Headquartered in the borough of Chalfont in Bucks County, Byers' Choice is a small-business manufacturer of Christmas figurines. The Byers' Choice warehouse, where you will be delivering remarks, is located across the street from its headquarters in the city of Colmar in Montgomery County. County Line Road separates the headquarters from the warehouse.

According to the 2000 Census, Chalfont had a population of 3,900, and Bucks County had a population of 597,635. In 2000, you lost Bucks County by 10,987 votes (46.3 percent to 50.5 percent) and lost Pennsylvania by 204,840 votes (46.4 percent to 50.6 percent).

Bucks County is a swing county due in part to the moderate views of affluent Republicans located in the southern portion of the county and the more conservative views held by voters in the rural areas throughout the county.

According to the 2000 Census, Colmar had a population of 873, and Montgomery County had a population of 750,097. In 2000, you lost Montgomery County by 32,362 votes (43.8 percent to 53.5 percent).

Montgomery County is the third most populous county in Pennsylvania behind Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties. The county's business community includes high-tech and world-renowned pharmaceutical companies. Montgomery County is primarily composed of swing voters.

Pennsylvania's unemployment rate stands at 5.3 percent as of July 2004, 0.6 of a percentage point below its peak of 5.9 percent in February 2003. As of August 2004, the national unemployment rate was 5.4 percent.

Bush-Cheney '04 has registered 61,121 volunteers in Pennsylvania to date and has asked all of today's attendees to sign up as volunteers and to register to vote. The campaign has confirmed target precinct chairs in 3,273 of Pennsylvania's 3,299 target precincts; precinct chairs in 8,184 of Pennsylvania's 9,538 total precincts; and county chairs in each of Pennsylvania's 67 counties. The Pennsylvania Bush-Cheney '04 headquarters in Harrisburg (Dauphin County) has been operating since February 2004. Senator Rick Santorum (R, PA) and Bush-Cheney '04 Mid-Atlantic Regional Chair Leslie Gromis Baker attended the official opening of the headquarters on April 6, 2004.

Note: The Byers' Choice warehouse, where this event is taking place, is in Congressman Joe Hoeffel's (D, PA-13) district, but he will not attend. The Byers' Choice headquarters is in Congressman Jim Greenwood's (R, PA-08) district, and he will attend and introduce you. He is not running for re-election this year.

Note: In Colmar, a loaf of bread costs $1.69, a gallon of milk costs $2.99, and a gallon of gas costs $1.85.

Note: Three Pennsylvanians have died serving in Operation Enduring Freedom. Fifty-two Pennsylvanians have died serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Note: The last day to register to vote in Pennsylvania is October 4. The last day to request an absentee ballot is October 26, and the last day to submit an absentee ballot to the County Board of Elections is October 29.

BACKGROUND ON PARTICIPANT MENTIONED IN REMARKS

Robert "Bob" Byers, Sr., Chairman, Byers' Choice, Ltd. (Chalfont, Pennsylvania) (Small Business Owner)

- S Corporation with approximately $20 million in revenues in 2003 and 189 employees this year.
- Byers' Choice Company is a manufacturer of hand-made Christmas figurines. When the economy began struggling in the late 1970s, Bob and his wife, Joyce, began selling hand-made Christmas figurines at local antique shows and consignment stores to make extra money. They hired their first employee in 1978.
- Today, they sell to 2,700 independent retailers and have a mailing list of over 300,000 customers.
- Employment: Bob hired 19 employees in 2003 and has hired four employees to date this year. He has plans to hire three to four additional employees by the end of the year.
- Investment: Byers' Choice invested approximately $160,000 in 2003 and has plans to invest at least $150,000 in 2004.
- Bob and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Bob, Jr., and Jeff, who also work for the business.
- Tax Savings: If Bob invests $150,000 in 2004, he will save approximately $27,000 from increased small business expensing (assumes Bob is in the top tax bracket).

BACKGROUND ON GREETERS

Robert "Bob" Byers, Sr., is Chairman of Byers' Choice, Ltd.

Joyce Byers is the wife of Bob Byers.

Mayor Joseph DiGirolamo (R) is serving his third term as mayor of Bensalem, Pennsylvania. He is retired but previously served as CEO of DiGirolamo Farms. He is the uncle of State Representative of Gene DiGirolamo (R), who will lead the Pledge of Allegiance during the pre-program.

Patricia "Pat" Poprick serves as the Bush-Cheney '04 Bucks County Chair. She serves as president and CEO of First American Municipals, Inc., an investment banking firm specializing in municipal bond underwriting and financial advisory services that she founded in 1998. She is also the Treasurer of the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania. She has served as a member of the Council Rock School District Board and the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education Board of Governors, which oversees 14 universities throughout the commonwealth.

Harry Fawkes has been the Bucks County Republican Committee Chairman since 1972, making him the longest-serving Republican County Chairman in Pennsylvania. He is a retired businessman.

Robert "Bob" Asher serves as Bush-Cheney '04 Southeast Pennsylvania Regional Chair and as Republican National Committeeman for Pennsylvania. He is Co-Chairman of Asher's Chocolates, a fourth generation family business and major candy-making company in Souderton, Pennsylvania. Asher's Chocolates produces more than six million pounds of confectioneries annually for national and international distribution.

Marie Lalley serves as Bush-Cheney '04 Montgomery County W Stands for Women Co-Chair and Phone Bank Coordinator. She has been an active member of the Montgomery County Republican Party for over 33 years.

REMARKS AT JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, VICTORY 2004 RALLY

Thursday, September 9, 2004

4:55 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Cambria County War Memorial Arena

Indoors

Johnstown, Pennsylvania

Karl Rove

I. PURPOSE

To deliver remarks at a Republican National Committee (RNC) Victory 2004 rally.

II. BACKGROUND

Located in southwestern Pennsylvania in Cambria County, Johnstown is best known for the infamous flood of 1889 where Clara Barton led the first American Red Cross relief effort. According to the 2000 Census, Johnstown had a population of 23,906, and Cambria County had a population of 152,598. The area's leading industries are service, retail, manufacturing, and mining, which originally led to the area's large immigrant population. The area has strong Democrat ties due to its large union and minority populations. In 2000, you lost Cambria County by 2,307 votes (46.4 percent to 50.3 percent) and lost Pennsylvania by 204,840 votes (46.4 percent to 50.6 percent)

The Johnstown area was recently ranked by Money magazine as the most livable area in Pennsylvania and fourth most livable area in the Northeast.

Pennsylvania's unemployment rate stands at 5.3 percent as of July 2004, 0.6 of a percentage point below its peak of 5.9 percent in February 2003. As of August 2004, the national rate was 5.4 percent.

Notes:

- The Congressman will introduce you to speak at the event in Colmar, Pennsylvania.
- The Congressman announced his retirement in July; he will serve as president of Biotechnology Industry Organization, effective January 2005.
- Congressman Greenwood serves as Chairman of the Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations.
- The Congressman's chairmanship placed him at the helm of Congressional investigations into the collapse of the Enron Corporation and the ImClone Systems corporate scandal.

Background:

- U.S. House of Representatives (1993 - Present)
- Pennsylvania State Senate (1987 - 1992)
- Pennsylvania House of Representatives (1981 - 1986)
- Social Service Caseworker (1977 - 1980)
- Social Worker (1974 - 1976)
- Legislative Assistant to Pennsylvania State Representative John Renninger (1972 - 1976)

Politics: Congressman Greenwood is a moderate Republican who has supported most of your major programs and initiatives but consistently votes in favor of cloning and abortion rights. The Congressman won re-election to the House in 2002 in a district that leaned Democratic in the 2000 National election.

Legislation: The Congressman is the chief House sponsor of the HEALTH Act (medical liability legislation) which has passed the House twice this Congress but has been stalled in the Senate. Congruent with his Health Subcommittee assignment on the Energy and Commerce Committee, the majority of the legislation introduced by Congressman Greenwood this Congress has focused on health care and medical issues.

GUEST OF THE PRESIDENT ON AIR FORCE ONE

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

9/9/04

Name: Congressman Patrick Toomey (R, PA-15)
Date: Thursday, September 9, 2004
Participation: Will travel aboard Air Force One from Washington, D.C., to Willow Grove, Pennsylvania.

Purpose: The Congressman will attend your remarks in Colmar, Pennsylvania.

Notes:

- Congressman Toomey challenged Senator Arlen Specter in the 2004 Pennsylvania Republican primary and was narrowly defeated.
- The Congressman serves as Chairman of the Small Business Subcommittee on Tax, Finance and Exports.
- Forbes Magazine labeled Congressman Toomey as "Congressman Courageous" for his principled stand and courage in the House.

Background:

- U.S. House of Representatives (1999 - Present)
- Restaurateur (1991 - Present)
- Financial Consultant (1990)
- Investment Banker (1984 -1989)

Politics: Congressman Toomey is a conservative Republican who has supported most of your major initiatives and positions in the 108th Congress, but voted in favor of the Cuba travel amendment and the drug re-importation bill. The Congressman won re-election comfortably in a district that is considered a classic swing area and leaned slightly Democrat in the 2000 election.

Legislation: Congressman Toomey has introduced an array of legislation in his three terms, but maintains a constant focus on financial services and banking issues due mostly to his career experiences and committee assignments. One of his more active bills in the 108th includes legislation that would improve workplace health incentives, suggesting that reported income should not include workplace gyms and athletic facilities.

Small Business
Term: 3rd

GUEST OF THE PRESIDENT ABOARD AIR FORCE ONE

Name: Senator Arlen Specter (R, PA)

Date: Thursday, September 9, 2004

Participation: The Senator will travel aboard Air Force One from Washington, D.C. to Willow Grove, Pennsylvania and on to Johnstown, Pennsylvania, before returning to Washington, D.C.

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

9/9/04

Purpose: The Senator will attend your remarks in Colmar, Pennsylvania and your BC-04 rally in Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

Notes:

- Senator Specter narrowly defeated Congressman Pat Toomey (R, PA-15) in the 2004 Pennsylvania Republican primary on April 27, 2004.
- The Senator briefly ran for President in 1995 but withdrew before the first primary.
- Senator Specter is Chairman of the Veterans' Affairs Committee.
- The Senator has recently reached out to your staff to discuss his rising concerns about the increase in gun violence in Philadelphia.

Background:

- United States Senate (1981 - Present)
- Philadelphia District Attorney (1965 - 1973)
- Pennsylvania Assistant Attorney General (1964 - 1965)
- Assistant Counsel, Warren Commission (1964)
- Practicing Attorney (1955 - 1956 and 1974 - 1980)
- U.S. Air Force (1951 - 1953)

Politics: Senator Specter is a moderate Republican who receives statewide bipartisan support. (He was the first Pennsylvania Senator elected to four terms.) In 1998, Senator Specter defeated his Democratic opponent by a margin of 61 to 35 percent. In that election, the Senator was endorsed by Philadelphia's Democratic mayor, the AFL-CIO, and the United Steelworkers.

Legislation: The Senator supported the Senate Budget Resolution and opposed efforts to impose PAYGO requirements on extending tax relief in the future. Senator Specter has been a vocal opponent of the Department of Labor's initiative to update regulations governing overtime. Senator Specter voted to confirm Leon Holmes to be a District Judge in Arkansas. The final vote was 51-46.
