JACKSON HIGH SCHOOL BLACK HISTORY TOUR GROUP

The Jackson High School Black History Tour Group, founded and directed by Mrs. Shirley Pitts, was formed in 1994 in Jackson, Michigan, to educate people about diversity and to fight racism. The group of thirty-five young people travels around the country delivering their message of hope, love, and racial harmony. For over ten years the Tour Group has shared their skits, songs, poetry, dramatic readings and cultural history with people all over the United States.
