BERNADETTE PETERS

Bernadette Peters won the 1999 Outer Critics, Drama Desk and Tony Award for Best Actress for her portrayal of Annie Oakley on Broadway in Annie Get Your Gun. She garnered the 1989 Tony, Drama Desk, and Drama League Awards for her electrifying performance in Andrew Lloyd Webber's Song and Dance; earned Tony nominations for her work in Stephen Sondheim's Sunday in the Park with George, Neil Simon's The Goodbye Girl, Jerry Herman's Mack and Mabel, and Leonard Bernstein's On the Town; and earned a Drama Desk Award nomination for her portrayal of the Witch in Sondheim's Into the Woods.

In 1996 Ms. Peters made her solo debut at Carnegie Hall in a benefit concert—a performance she repeated in London at Royal Festival Hall which was filmed for PBS.

Her television credits include Hey, Mr. Producer! The Musical World of Cameron Mackintosh, the star-studded Sondheim: A Celebration at Carnegie Hall, and Terrence McNally's The Last Mile, all for PBS. She recently appeared in two episodes of Ally McBeal, for which she received an Emmy nomination, and will be seen this June on Showtime in Bobbie's Girl. Television movies include: The Odyssey, Cinderella, What the Deaf Man Heard, and Holiday in Your Heart. Film credits include Pennies From Heaven, Silent Movie, The Jerk, Annie, Woody Allen's Alice, and an independent feature, Let It Snow.

Ms. Peters has recorded four solo albums including Sondheim, Etc: Bernadette Peters Live at Carnegie Hall and I'll Be Your Baby Tonight—both Grammy nominated. Her highly anticipated CD, Bernadette Peters Loves Rodgers & Hammerstein, will be released next month.
