Preamble

In accordance with the Nuba Mountains Cease-Fire Agreement, signed on 19 January 2002, the Government of the Republic of The Sudan (hereinafter referred to as GOS) and the Sudan Peoples Liberation Movement/Nuba (hereinafter referred to as the SPLM/N), have requested the Friends of Nuba Mountains Group of Nations (FNM), as an impartial third party, to organise, equip and establish an international mission, named Joint Monitoring Mission in the Nuba Mountains area of The Sudan (hereinafter referred to as JMM), identical to the international component of the Joint Military Commission/International Monitoring Unit referred to in the Cease-Fire Agreement, cf. art. The GOS and the SPLM/N have stressed the importance of international monitoring of the Cease-Fire, expressed their willingness to facilitate and support the establishment and administration of the JMM, and have also guaranteed their cooperation with the JMM.

Based on the Cease-Fire Agreement and the abovementioned, the GOS and the Government of the Kingdom of Norway have concluded a Status of Mission Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the SOMA), in which status, privileges and immunities of the JMM and its members are defined and determined. The SPLM/N has in writing declared its commitment to fully implement all parts of the SOMA.

Office of the Press Secretary
(Las Cruces, New Mexico)

For Immediate Release

August 26, 2004

STATEMENT BY THE PRESS SECRETARY

The United States notes with great concern the decision by Democratic Republic of the Congo Vice President Azarias Ruberwa to suspend all Congolese Rally for Democracy-Goma (RCD-G) activities in the transition. We continue to support the transitional government of the Democratic Republic headed by President Kabila.

We call upon the Governments of Burundi, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and Rwanda to support the transitional government and to exercise restraint. It is critical that the Great Lakes countries work together with the assistance of the international community to bring to justice the genocidal forces who have threatened the stability of this region for over a decade. We support the Great Lakes countries' efforts to establish a trilateral mechanism to foster cooperation in the region.

Tripartite Ministerial Meeting

Kampala, Uganda

August 24-25, 2004

Dr. Cindy Courville

Communiqué

The representatives of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Rwanda, and Uganda, with the facilitation efforts of the United States, met in Washington, DC on July 14 – 15, 2004, the second meeting of these parties.

The three Great Lakes countries, in order to enhance peace in the region, reaffirmed their commitment to existing agreements and resolved to:

Continue to work on the Joint Verification Mechanism as agreed in Abuja and Addis Ababa;

Disarm armed groups, including in particular genocidal forces, with the assistance of an international force; and

Normalize the security situation along the common borders between the DRC and its neighbors, and that each state commits itself not to train, harbor on its territory, or render any form of support to elements or armed opposition movements seeking to destabilize the three countries.

The three Great Lakes countries further noted their appreciation for the support of the United States government and its continued commitment to facilitate the establishment of a trilateral mechanism to foster cooperation in the region.

The three Great Lakes countries declared their commitments to promote the strengthening of relations and the creation of a mechanism to address regional instability and resolved to:

Enhance their efforts to prevent the use of their territories to arm and support negative forces in the region,

Continue to encourage the return of refugees in the region to their country of origin,

Support the transitional government of the DRC,

Move forward with a process of political and diplomatic rapprochement, and

Support institution building to help support peace and stability in eastern Congo.

Great Lakes Talks Press Statement
July 14-15, 2004

The United States Government commends and expresses deep appreciation to Rwandan Foreign Minister Charles Murigande, Congolese Foreign Minister Antoine Ghonda, and Ugandan Defense Minister Amama Mbabazi for their on-going efforts toward increasing peace and stability in the Great Lakes region.

The United States hosted the second round of meetings between the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Rwanda and Uganda, helping these countries in facilitating efforts to enhance regional stability. U/S Grossman and Africa Bureau A/S Newman opened the two-day discussions, which ended July 15.

All three countries agreed on the formation of a trilateral commission, to strengthen implementation of existing agreements.

The results were promising, reflecting political will on all sides to work together to deal with armed groups and regional conflict. The parties are issuing a communiqué explaining their work thus far. The three countries will meet soon in the region to continue this important process.
