

George W. Bush

President George W. Bush

George W. Bush is the 43rd President of the United States.

Birthday

July 6, 1946

Parents

George Herbert Walker Bush, former United States President
Barbara Pierce Bush, former First Lady

Hometown

Midland, Texas

Elementary School

Sam Houston Elementary, Midland, Texas
Favorite Subject: History

College and Graduate School

Yale University, Bachelor of Arts: History
Harvard University, Master of Business Administration

Career

F-102 Pilot for Texas Air National Guard, Owner-Oil and Gas Business,
Managing Partner-Texas Rangers Baseball Team, Governor of Texas,
President of the United States

Family

Married to Laura Welch Bush since 1977
Twin daughters, Jenna and Barbara, college students

Pets

Dogs: Spot, an English Springer Spaniel and Barney, a Scottish Terrier
Cat: India, "Willie," a black, domestic shorthaired

Goals as President

President Bush has pledged to work in a bipartisan spirit, which means he plans to work with both Republicans and Democrats in Congress to pursue goals that are best for all Americans. President Bush's goals include improving the Nation's public schools, reducing taxes for all taxpayers, strengthening the military, saving Social Security and Medicare, and encouraging Americans to be responsible citizens.

www.whitehousekids.gov