

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN
5/10/06

May 4, 2006

Dear Mr. President,

Before the dinner Saturday
I enjoyed our brief conversation about what a fine thing it is that in our great nation a satirist is invited to do his material about the President and Washington politics in person.

While I had hoped more STEPHEN COLBERT

of the audience would laugh at my jokes - even you, sir - I was sincere when, at the end of my speech, I said it was an honor. It remains an honor and always will.

This is the greatest country on Earth, and my Mom had a wonderful time.

I want to thank you and the First Lady for the gracious reception you gave to my entire family.
