Discussion

The Export-Import Bank (Ex-Im) is a Federal agency that finances foreign purchases of U.S. goods through low-interest direct loans, loan guarantees, and export credit insurance. The Bank's operating authority, which was last authorized under Public Law 105-121, expired on September 30, 2001, but was extended until March 31, 2002, by the FY 2002 Foreign Operations Appropriations Act.

S. 2019 extends the Bank's operating authority for another month until April 30, 2002. This one-month extension is intended to provide time for Congress to complete action on an Ex-Im reauthorization bill. The Senate passed a five-year reauthorization bill earlier this month; the House has not yet acted.

513007

100-10-0

Conclusion and Recommendations

Ex-Im, in its views letter, recommends approval of S. 2019, noting that without the extension the Bank "would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures."

We join Ex-Im and the other concerned agencies in recommending the approval of S. 2019, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

March 20, 2002

Mr. Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Director
Office of Management and Budget
Old Executive Office Building
17th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20503

Dear Mr. Daniels:

The Senate and House have now both passed S. 2019, "An Act to extend the authority of the Export-Import Bank until April 30, 2002."

The legislation provides a simple one-month extension of the operating authority of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) until April 30, 2002. It is hoped that this one-month extension will allow sufficient time for Congress to complete action on Ex-Im Bank's reauthorization bill. Without this simple extension, Ex-Im Bank would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures.

Ex-Im Bank recommends that the bill in its final form should be signed as quickly as possible given that our current operating authority expires March 31, 2002.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Daniels:

The Senate and House have now both passed S. 2019, "An Act to extend the authority of the Export-Import Bank until April 30, 2002."

The legislation provides a simple one-month extension of the operating authority of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) until April 30, 2002. It is hoped that this one-month extension will allow sufficient time for Congress to complete action on Ex-Im Bank's reauthorization bill. Without this simple extension, Ex-Im Bank would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures.

Ex-Im Bank recommends that the bill in its final form should be signed as quickly as possible given that our current operating authority expires March 31, 2002.

Sincerely,

Peter B. Saba
General Counsel

Discussion

The Export-Import Bank (Ex-Im) is a Federal agency that finances foreign purchases of U.S. goods through low-interest direct loans, loan guarantees, and export credit insurance. The Bank's operating authority, which was last authorized under Public Law 105-121, expired on September 30, 2001, but was extended until March 31, 2002, by the FY 2002 Foreign Operations Appropriations Act.

S. 2019 extends the Bank's operating authority for another month until April 30, 2002. This one-month extension is intended to provide time for Congress to complete action on an Ex-Im reauthorization bill. The Senate passed a five-year reauthorization bill earlier this month; the House has not yet acted.

Conclusion and Recommendations

Ex-Im, in its views letter, recommends approval of S. 2019, noting that without the extension the Bank "would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures."

We join Ex-Im and the other concerned agencies in recommending the approval of S. 2019, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill S. 2019 - Export-Import Bank Authority Extension
Sponsor - Sen. Sarbanes (D) Maryland

Last Day for Action

April 1, 2002 - Monday. The Export-Import Bank recommends approval prior to the expiration of its operating authority on March 31, 2002.

Purpose

Extends the Export-Import Bank operating authority until April 30, 2002.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget	Approval
Export-Import Bank of the United States	Approval
Department of Commerce	Approval (Informally)
Department of State	Approval (Informally)
National Security Council	Approval (Informally)
Department of the Treasury	No objection (Informally)

Discussion

The Export-Import Bank (Ex-Im) is a Federal agency that finances foreign purchases of U.S. goods through low-interest direct loans, loan guarantees, and export credit insurance. The Bank's operating authority, which was last authorized under Public Law 105-121, expired on September 30, 2001, but was extended until March 31, 2002, by the FY 2002 Foreign Operations Appropriations Act.

S. 2019 extends the Bank's operating authority for another month until April 30, 2002. This one-month extension is intended to provide time for Congress to complete action on an Ex-Im reauthorization bill. The Senate passed a five-year reauthorization bill earlier this month; the House has not yet acted.

Conclusion and Recommendations

Ex-Im, in its views letter, recommends approval of S. 2019, noting that without the extension the Bank "would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures."

We join Ex-Im and the other concerned agencies in recommending the approval of S. 2019, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

Dear Mr. Daniels:

The Senate and House have now both passed S. 2019, "An Act to extend the authority of the Export-Import Bank until April 30, 2002."

The legislation provides a simple one-month extension of the operating authority of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) until April 30, 2002. It is hoped that this one-month extension will allow sufficient time for Congress to complete action on Ex-Im Bank's reauthorization bill. Without this simple extension, Ex-Im Bank would not be able to continue to do business and would be forced to start liquidation procedures.

Ex-Im Bank recommends that the bill in its final form should be signed as quickly as possible given that our current operating authority expires March 31, 2002.

Sincerely,
