THE DIRECTOR

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill S. 1029 - Manufactured Housing Program User Fee Authority
Sponsors - Senator Sarbanes (D) Maryland and 10 cosponsors

Last Day for Action

The Department of Housing and Urban Development recommends approval of S. 1029 "as expeditiously as possible" to avoid disruption of its manufactured housing program.

Purpose

Authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development to spend user fee receipts from its manufactured housing program for expenses of the program in FY 2001.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
Department of Justice

Approval
No objection (Informally)

Discussion

HUD regulates the manufactured housing industry for safety, consumer protection, and other purposes. (Manufactured housing is built to be transportable in one or more sections, and assembled on a permanent chassis, e.g., mobile homes.) The manufactured housing program is financed through fees HUD collects from the industry. Previously, HUD could spend these funds as needed to conduct the program.

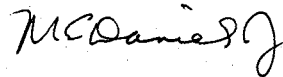

In an attempt to increase congressional oversight of the program, the "Manufactured Housing Improvement Act" (enacted December 27, 2000, in Public Law 106-569) made the spending of program fees subject to advance approval in appropriations acts. However, the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act was enacted after enactment of HUD's FY 2001 appropriations act, so the appropriators made no provision to authorize HUD to spend the funds collected through these fees in FY 2001. As a result, HUD continues to collect the fees, but is not spending them. The Department advises that it believes it has the authority to spend the fee proceeds in FY 2001, but acknowledges that "HUD's appropriations committees have expressed reservations with that interpretation." Therefore, HUD agreed to limit spending to fees collected before December 27, 2000, pending the enactment of legislation to clarify HUD's authority.

S. 1029 would allow HUD to spend the fees collected in FY 2001 to continue to run the manufactured housing program until the enactment of the FY 2002 appropriation for this program. At that time, HUD's use of the fees will be subject to approval in appropriations acts, as required by last year's Manufactured Housing Improvement Act.

Conclusion and Recommendations

HUD advises that it has exhausted virtually all of the fee revenues collected before December 27, 2000, and "recommends that the President approve the bill as expeditiously as possible to ensure continuous operation and avoid any further disruption of this important homeownership program."

We join HUD in recommending approval of S. 1029, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill S. 1029 - Manufactured Housing Program User Fee Authority
Sponsors - Senator Sarbanes (D) Maryland and 10 cosponsors

Last Day for Action

The Department of Housing and Urban Development recommends approval of S. 1029 "as expeditiously as possible" to avoid disruption of its manufactured housing program.

Purpose

Authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development to spend user fee receipts from its manufactured housing program for expenses of the program in FY 2001.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget	Approval
Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)	Approval
Department of Justice	No objection (Informally)

Discussion

HUD regulates the manufactured housing industry for safety, consumer protection, and other purposes. (Manufactured housing is built to be transportable in one or more sections, and assembled on a permanent chassis, e.g., mobile homes.) The manufactured housing program is financed through fees HUD collects from the industry. Previously, HUD could spend these funds as needed to conduct the program.

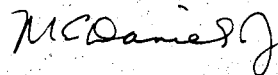

In an attempt to increase congressional oversight of the program, the "Manufactured Housing Improvement Act" (enacted December 27, 2000, in Public Law 106-569) made the spending of program fees subject to advance approval in appropriations acts. However, the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act was enacted after enactment of HUD's FY 2001 appropriations act, so the appropriators made no provision to authorize HUD to spend the funds collected through these fees in FY 2001. As a result, HUD continues to collect the fees, but is not spending them. The Department advises that it believes it has the authority to spend the fee proceeds in FY 2001, but acknowledges that "HUD's appropriations committees have expressed reservations with that interpretation." Therefore, HUD agreed to limit spending to fees collected before December 27, 2000, pending the enactment of legislation to clarify HUD's authority.

S. 1029 would allow HUD to spend the fees collected in FY 2001 to continue to run the manufactured housing program until the enactment of the FY 2002 appropriation for this program. At that time, HUD's use of the fees will be subject to approval in appropriations acts, as required by last year's Manufactured Housing Improvement Act.

Conclusion and Recommendations

HUD advises that it has exhausted virtually all of the fee revenues collected before December 27, 2000, and "recommends that the President approve the bill as expeditiously as possible to ensure continuous operation and avoid any further disruption of this important homeownership program."

We join HUD in recommending approval of S. 1029, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill S. 1029 - Manufactured Housing Program User Fee Authority
Sponsors - Senator Sarbanes (D) Maryland and 10 cosponsors

Last Day for Action

The Department of Housing and Urban Development recommends approval of S. 1029 "as expeditiously as possible" to avoid disruption of its manufactured housing program.

Purpose

Authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development to spend user fee receipts from its manufactured housing program for expenses of the program in FY 2001.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

Approval

Department of Justice

No objection (Informally)

Discussion

HUD regulates the manufactured housing industry for safety, consumer protection, and other purposes. (Manufactured housing is built to be transportable in one or more sections, and assembled on a permanent chassis, e.g., mobile homes.) The manufactured housing program is financed through fees HUD collects from the industry. Previously, HUD could spend these funds as needed to conduct the program.

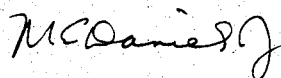

In an attempt to increase congressional oversight of the program, the "Manufactured Housing Improvement Act" (enacted December 27, 2000, in Public Law 106-569) made the spending of program fees subject to advance approval in appropriations acts. However, the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act was enacted after enactment of HUD's FY 2001 appropriations act, so the appropriators made no provision to authorize HUD to spend the funds collected through these fees in FY 2001. As a result, HUD continues to collect the fees, but is not spending them. The Department advises that it believes it has the authority to spend the fee proceeds in FY 2001, but acknowledges that "HUD's appropriations committees have expressed reservations with that interpretation." Therefore, HUD agreed to limit spending to fees collected before December 27, 2000, pending the enactment of legislation to clarify HUD's authority.

S. 1029 would allow HUD to spend the fees collected in FY 2001 to continue to run the manufactured housing program until the enactment of the FY 2002 appropriation for this program. At that time, HUD's use of the fees will be subject to approval in appropriations acts, as required by last year's Manufactured Housing Improvement Act.

Conclusion and Recommendations

HUD advises that it has exhausted virtually all of the fee revenues collected before December 27, 2000, and "recommends that the President approve the bill as expeditiously as possible to ensure continuous operation and avoid any further disruption of this important homeownership program."

We join HUD in recommending approval of S. 1029, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

Discussion

HUD regulates the manufactured housing industry for safety, consumer protection, and other purposes. (Manufactured housing is built to be transportable in one or more sections, and assembled on a permanent chassis, e.g., mobile homes.) The manufactured housing program is financed through fees HUD collects from the industry. Previously, HUD could spend these funds as needed to conduct the program.

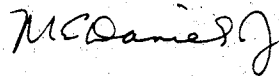

In an attempt to increase congressional oversight of the program, the "Manufactured Housing Improvement Act" (enacted December 27, 2000, in Public Law 106-569) made the spending of program fees subject to advance approval in appropriations acts. However, the Manufactured Housing Improvement Act was enacted after enactment of HUD's FY 2001 appropriations act, so the appropriators made no provision to authorize HUD to spend the funds collected through these fees in FY 2001. As a result, HUD continues to collect the fees, but is not spending them. The Department advises that it believes it has the authority to spend the fee proceeds in FY 2001, but acknowledges that "HUD's appropriations committees have expressed reservations with that interpretation." Therefore, HUD agreed to limit spending to fees collected before December 27, 2000, pending the enactment of legislation to clarify HUD's authority.

S. 1029 would allow HUD to spend the fees collected in FY 2001 to continue to run the manufactured housing program until the enactment of the FY 2002 appropriation for this program. At that time, HUD's use of the fees will be subject to approval in appropriations acts, as required by last year's Manufactured Housing Improvement Act.

Conclusion and Recommendations

HUD advises that it has exhausted virtually all of the fee revenues collected before December 27, 2000, and "recommends that the President approve the bill as expeditiously as possible to ensure continuous operation and avoid any further disruption of this important homeownership program."

We join HUD in recommending approval of S. 1029, which passed the Senate by unanimous consent and the House by voice vote.

One Hundred Seventh Congress of the
United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday, the third day of January, two thousand and one

An Act

To clarify the authority of the Department of Housing and Urban Development with respect to the use of fees during fiscal year 2001 for the manufactured housing program.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. MANUFACTURED HOUSING.

(a) AVAILABILITY OF FEES.—Notwithstanding section 620(e)(2) of the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5419(e)(2)), any fees collected under that Act, including any fees collected before the date of enactment of the American Homeownership and Economic Opportunity Act of 2000 (12 U.S.C. 1701 note) and remaining unobligated on the date of enactment of this Act, shall be available for expenditure to offset the expenses incurred by the Secretary under the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5401 et seq.), otherwise in accordance with section 620 of that Act.

(b) DURATION.—The authority for the use of fees provided for in subsection (a) shall remain in effect during the period beginning in fiscal year 2001 and ending on the effective date of the first appropriations Act referred to in section 620(e)(2) of the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5419(e)(2)) that is enacted with respect to a fiscal year after fiscal year 2001.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

*Vice President of the United States and
