Discussion

The Tumacacori National Historical Park in Arizona was established in 1990 to protect and interpret sites associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries. The law establishing the Park authorized the Secretary of the Interior to acquire lands within its boundaries by donation, purchase, or exchange.

H.R. 2234 would expand the current 45-acre boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park and authorize the Secretary of the Interior to acquire through purchase, donation, or exchange two separate parcels of land totaling 310 acres adjacent to the Park. DOI advises that "the owners of the lands proposed for addition have expressed a willingness to sell."

Conclusion and Recommendations

DOI recommends approval of H.R. 2234, advising that the Park expansion would "fulfill one of the goals identified in the park's approved General Management Plan, create more opportunities to expand educational and recreational partnerships, and has received the support of the surrounding community."

We join Interior in recommending approval of H.R. 2234, which passed the House by voice vote and the Senate by unanimous consent.

One Hundred Seventh Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

*Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday,
the twenty-third day of January, two thousand and two*

An Act

To revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2002".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

(1) Tumacacori Mission in southern Arizona was declared a National Monument in 1908 in recognition of its great historical significance as "one of the oldest mission ruins in the southwest".

(2) In establishing Tumacacori National Historical Park in 1990 to include the Tumacacori Mission and the ruins of the mission of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi and the Kino visita and rancheria of Calabazas, Congress recognized the importance of these sites "to protect and interpret, for the education and benefit of the public, sites in the State of Arizona associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries".

(3) Tumacacori National Historical Park plays a major role in interpreting the Spanish colonial heritage of the United States.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

(1) to protect and interpret the resources associated with the Tumacacori Mission by revising the boundary of Tumacacori National Historical Park to include approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the park; and

(2) to enhance the visitor experience at Tumacacori by developing access to these associated mission resources.

SEC. 3. BOUNDARY REVISION, TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK, ARIZONA.

Section 1(b) of Public Law 101-344 (16 U.S.C. 410ss(b)) is amended—

(1) by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "The park shall also consist of approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and generally depicted on the map entitled 'Tumacacori National Historical Park, Arizona Proposed Boundary Revision 2001', numbered 310/80,044, and dated July 2001."; and

H. R. 2234—2

(2) in the last sentence—

(A) by striking "The map" and inserting "The maps";
and

(B) by striking "the offices" and inserting "the appropriate offices".

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
Washington, D.C. 20240

AUG 08 2002

Honorable Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Director, Office of Management and Budget
Attention: Assistant Director for Legislative Reference
Washington, DC 20503

Dear Mr. Daniels:

This letter responds to your request for the views of the Department of the Interior with respect to H.R. 2234, a bill to revise the boundary of Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona.

We recommend that the President approve the enrolled bill.

H.R. 2234 would amend Public Law 101-344, the Act authorizing the establishment of Tumacacori National Historical Park, by expanding the boundary of the park with the addition of two separate parcels, which are adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and total approximately 310 acres. These additions would allow the park to fulfill one of the goals identified in the park's approved General Management Plan, create more opportunities to expand educational and recreational partnerships, and has received the support of the surrounding community. The owners of the lands proposed for addition have expressed a willingness to sell. In addition, the county supervisor on the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors, whose district includes the park, and local community groups, such as the Friends of the Santa Cruz River, the Anza Trail Coalition and the Tubac Historical Society, have expressed their support of the bill.

Tumacacori is one of a chain of missions established by the Spanish in the Pimería Alta (land of the Upper Pima Indians) from Sonora, Mexico to San Xavier del Bac near Tucson. Father Kino established Mission San Cayetano de Tumacacori approximately forty miles south of present day Tucson in 1691. At its height, the mission land grant included nearly 6,000 acres. The 18th and 19th century Tumacacori Mission encompassed not only a church and its associated compound, but also homes for the native people. The mission supported itself by what it could grow and graze on its lands along the Santa Cruz River. Vegetables and fruits grew in a large (5 acre) walled orchard and garden irrigated by the acequia (irrigation ditch). Eventually homesteaders settled mission lands, and by the time Tumacacori National Monument was set aside all of the former mission lands were in private ownership. Today, the mission stands divorced from its land and people. One quarter of the historic orchard and its still visible wall remains. The majority of the acequia, mission farmland and a section of the Santa Cruz River all lie on adjacent private land.

Tumacacori National Historical Park is a 45-acre unit of the National Park System because the mission is an outstanding example of 18th century Spanish Colonial architecture and served as the source and center of a community and a way of life that survived for centuries in a harsh and demanding environment. To tell that story means more than protecting a building. It means protecting the resources that nourished and maintained it - its orchards, crops, and fields. The proposed additions to the boundary contain these resources.

Acquisition costs for the two parcels are estimated at $2,000,000 to $2,500,000, although actual costs would not be known until appraisals on the land are completed. A non-profit group may be willing to purchase the properties and hold them for a short period of time until the National Park Service is able to designate land acquisition funding. Since the National Park Service intends to return the proposed additional lands to a 19th century cultural landscape there will be little additional park operational funding needed. Park staff would be able to provide a basic level of resource protection to lands that are acquired through existing financial resources. In the future, funding will be needed to develop visitor use trails as well as to rehabilitate and replant the mission orchard as called for in the General Management Plan. No other visitor facilities will be built in the new areas. An additional 1.5 FTE would be needed in personnel for the increased maintenance responsibilities. Costs to accomplish these projects would require one-time funding of approximately $250,000 for visitor trail, waysides and bridge construction and $100,000 to reconstruct and replant the orchard. A $78,000 base increase for maintenance staff would be needed.

The Department testified in support of H.R. 2234 at a hearing before the House Resources Subcommittee on National Parks, Recreation, and Public Lands, on November 13, 2001. At markup, the subcommittee adopted an amendment, as suggested by the Department, to correct an inconsistency in the name and number of the map reference in the bill. On February 14, 2002, the Department testified in support of H.R. 2234, as amended, at a hearing before the Senate Energy Subcommittee on National Parks. For the reasons outlined above, we are pleased to recommend the approval of H.R. 2234 to the President.

Sincerely,

submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H.R. 2234]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Resources, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 2234) to revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona, having considered the same, report favorably thereon with an amendment and recommend that the bill as amended do pass.

The amendment is as follows:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2001".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

(1) Tumacacori Mission in southern Arizona was declared a National Monument in 1908 in recognition of its great historical significance as "one of the oldest mission ruins in the southwest".

(2) In establishing Tumacacori National Historical Park in 1990 to include the Tumacacori Mission and the ruins of the mission of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi and the Kino visita and rancheria of Calabazas, Congress recognized the importance of these sites "to protect and interpret, for the education and benefit of the public, sites in the State of Arizona associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries".

(3) Tumacacori National Historical Park plays a major role in interpreting the Spanish colonial heritage of the United States.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

(1) to protect and interpret the resources associated with the Tumacacori Mission by revising the boundary of Tumacacori National Historical Park to include approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the park; and

(2) to enhance the visitor experience at Tumacacori by developing access to these associated mission resources.

SEC. 3. BOUNDARY REVISION, TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK, ARIZONA.

Section 1(b) of Public Law 101-344 (16 U.S.C. 410ss(b)) is amended—

(1) by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "The park shall also consist of approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and generally depicted on the map entitled 'Tumacacori National Historical Park, Arizona Proposed Boundary Revision 2001', numbered 310/80,044, and dated July 2001."; and

(2) in the last sentence—

(A) by striking "The map" and inserting "The maps"; and

(B) by striking "the offices" and inserting "the appropriate offices".

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 2234 is to revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Tumacacori was part of a chain of missions in the Pimeria Alta (land of the Upper Pima Indians) established by the Spanish from north-central Sonora, Mexico, to San Xavier del Bac near present-day Tucson, Arizona. The mission was established by Father Kino in 1691 and a Jesuit mission was constructed at the site in the 1730's. Franciscans later re-established a mission after 1767 and a new church was completed in 1822. In 1908, President Theodore Roosevelt set aside nine acres immediately around the church and declared Tumacacori a National Monument. Over time, the boundaries have been changed to include other significant missions and in 1990 the Monument was declared a National Historical Park.

The park's general management plan was identified the need to acquire additional lands from willing sellers so that park support facilities could be built away from the historic scene, and to obtain the rest of a mission orchard. The boundary expansion would allow the Park Service to replant the orchard and add a program with livestock and farming, develop more of the Juan bautista de Anza National Historic Trail that now exists on private land between Tumacacori and Tubac, and partner with communities all along the river to further develop the recreational and educational values of the trail.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 2234 was introduced on June 19, 2001 by Representative Ed Pastor (D-AZ) and was referred to the Committee on Resources. On June 22, 2001, the bill was referred within the Committee to the Subcommittee on National Parks, Recreation and Public Lands. On November 13, 2001, the Subcommittee held a hearing on the bill. On November 15, 2001, the Subcommittee met to mark up the bill. Representative George Radanovich (R-CA) offered a technical amendment to ensure the bill referred to the appropriate map. It was adopted by unanimous consent. The bill, as amended, was then forwarded to the Full Committee by unanimous consent. On November 28, 2001, the Full Resources Committee met to consider the bill. There were no further amendments, and the bill was ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Article I, section 8, and Article IV, section 3 of the Constitution of the United States grant Congress the authority to enact this bill.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation.—Clause 3(d)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs which would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(3)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

2. Congressional Budget Act.—As required by clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, this bill does not contain any new budget authority, spending authority, credit authority, or an increase or decrease in revenues or tax expenditures.

3. General Performance Goals and Objectives.—This bill does not authorize funding and therefore, clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House Representatives does not apply.

4. Congressional Budget Office Cost Estimate.—Under clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, December 4, 2001.

Hon. JAMES V. HANSEN,
Chairman, Committee on Resources,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 2234, the Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2001.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Deborah Reis.

Sincerely,

BARRY B. ANDERSON
(For Dan L. Crippen, Director).

Enclosure.

H.R. 2234—Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2001

H.R. 2234 would expand the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historic Park in Arizona. Adjusting the boundary would enable the National Park Service (NPS) to acquire about 310 acres of land adjacent to the existing parks, which currently consists of about 46 acres.

Assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would cost the federal government about $3 million over the next five years and about $100,000 annually thereafter. We estimate that the NPS would spend between $2 million and $2.5 million of this amount over the next year or two to purchase the land that would be added to the park by this bill. An estimated $350,000 would be spent over the following two or three years to improve a trail system and rehabilitate an orchard on the property. We estimate that recurring operation and maintenance costs for the park would increase by about $100,000 a year assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts.

H.R. 2234 would not affect direct spending; therefore pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The legislation contains no inter-governmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no significant impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Deborah Reis. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104-4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):

SECTION 1 OF THE ACT OF AUGUST 6, 1990

(Public Law 101-344)

SECTION 1. TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK.

(a) * * *

(b) AREA INCLUDED.—The park shall consist of the existing Tumacacori National Monument, together with (1) the ruins of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi, the first mission in Arizona (consisting of approximately 8 acres) and (2) the Kino visita and rancheria ruins of Calabazas (consisting of approximately 22 acres), each as generally depicted on the map entitled "Boundary Map, Tumacacori National Historical Park", numbered 311/80018, and dated February 1990. The park shall also consist of approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and generally depicted on the map entitled "Tumacacori National Historical Park, Arizona Proposed Boundary Revision 2001", numbered 310/80,044, and dated July 2001. The map maps shall be on file and available for public inspection in the appropriate offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK BOUNDARY REVISION ACT OF 2002

JUNE 27, 2002.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. BINGAMAN, from the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, submitted the following

[To accompany H.R. 2234]

The Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, to which was referred the Act (H.R. 2234) to revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the Act do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of H.R. 2234 is to revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona to authorize the addition of approximately 310 acres to the park.

BACKGROUND AND NEED

During the latter part of the 17th century, the Jesuit missionary Father Eusebio Francisco Kino established several missions in what is now northern Mexico and southern Arizona.

One of the missions established by Father Kino was the mission of San Jose de Tumacacori, approximately 45 miles south of Tucson. The mission was originally built in the latter part of the 17th century and used as a "visita," a site where services were occasionally held. Today the site contains a church and structures constructed under the direction of Jesuit missionaries in the late 1700's and early 1800's.

President Theodore Roosevelt declared the site a National Monument in 1908, and set aside nine acres surrounding the mission. In 1990, Tumacacori National Monument was redesignated as Tumacacori National Historical Park and the Secretary of the Interior acquired the nearby ruins of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi and the Kino visita and rancheria ruins of Calabazas.

The expansion of the park's boundary would allow the National Park Service to enhance the visitor experience at Tumacacori, add a living history program with livestock and farming, develop more of the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail that now exists on private land between Tumacacori and the nearby community of Tubac, and develop and expand the outreach of the park and trail with Native American groups and local communities.

The legislation has received the support of the surrounding community. The current owners of the land at issue are willing sellers and most of the land is already listed for sale.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

H.R. 2234, sponsored by Representative Ed Pastor, was passed by the House of Representatives on November 28, 2001. The Subcommittee on National Parks held a hearing on H.R. 2234 on February 14, 2002. The Committee on Energy and Natural Resources ordered H.R. 2234 favorably reported at its business meeting on June 5, 2002.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

The Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, in open business session on June 5, 2002, by a voice vote of a quorum present, recommends that the Senate pass H.R. 2234.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1 entitles the bill "Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2002."

Section 2 sets forth the findings and the purposes.

Section 3 amends section 1(b) of Public Law 101-344 (16 U.S.C. 410ss(b)) to expand the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park by adding two separate parcels, which are adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park. The addition totals approximately 310 acres.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATIONS

The following estimate of the costs of this measure has been provided by the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, June 11, 2002.

Hon. JEFF BINGAMAN,
Chairman, Committee on Energy and Natural Resources,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 2234, the Tumacacori National Park Boundary Revision Act of 2002.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Deborah Reis.

Sincerely,

BARRY B. ANDERSON
(For Dan L. Crippen, Director).

Enclosure.

H.R. 2234—Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2002

H.R. 2234 would expand the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historic Park in Arizona. Adjusting the boundary would enable the National Park Service (NPS) to acquire about 310 acres of land adjacent to the existing parks, which currently consists of about 46 acres.

Assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2234 would cost the federal government about $3 million over the next five years and about $100,000 annually thereafter. We estimate that the NPS would spend between $2 million and $2.5 million of this amount over the next year or two to purchase the land that would be added to the park by the act. An estimated $350,000 would be spent over the following two or three years to improve a trail system and rehabilitate an orchard on the property. We estimate that recurring operation and maintenance costs for the park would increase by about $100,000 a year, assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts.

H.R. 2234 would not affect direct spending; therefore pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The legislation contains no inter-governmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no significant impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal government.

On December 4, 2001, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for H.R. 2234 as ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on November 28, 2001. The two versions of the legislation are identical, as are our cost estimates.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Deborah Reis. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

REGULATORY IMPACT EVALUATION

In compliance with paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee makes the following evaluation of the regulatory impact which would be incurred in carrying out H.R. 2234. The bill is not a regulatory measure in the sense of imposing Government-established standards or significant responsibilities on private individuals and businesses.

No personal information would be collected in administering the program. Therefore, there would be no impact on personal privacy.

Little, if any, additional paperwork would result from the enactment of H.R. 2234.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

The testimony provided by the National Park Service at the subcommittee hearing follows:

STATEMENT OF DURAND JONES, DEPUTY DIRECTOR, NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Mr. Chairman, thank you for the opportunity to present the Department of the Interior's views on H.R. 2234. This bill would revise the boundary of Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona.

The Department supports H.R. 2234, as passed by the House to correct the name and number of the map reference in the bill. On November 13, 2001 the Department testified in support of H.R. 2234 before the Subcommittee on National Parks, Recreation, and Public Lands, of the House Committee on Resources, suggesting one technical amendment relating to the name and number of the map reference in the bill which was adopted by the subcommittee at the markup held on November 15th.

The legislation would allow the park to fulfill the original purposes for which it was established, create more opportunities to expand educational and recreational partnerships within the new boundary and beyond, and has received the support of the surrounding community. Expanding the boundary of Tumacacori NHP would fulfill one of the goals identified in the park's approved General Management Plan, and the owners of the lands proposed for addition have expressed a willingness to sell.

H.R. 2234 would amend Public Law 101-344, the Act authorizing the establishment of Tumacacori National Historical Park, and expand the boundary of the park by adding two separate parcels, which are adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and total approximately 310 acres. The legislation also defines the purpose for adding these lands.

Tumacacori National Historical Park is a 45-acre unit of the National Park System because the mission is an outstanding example of 18th century Spanish Colonial architecture and served as the source and center of a community and a way of life that survived for centuries in a harsh and demanding environment. To tell that story means more than protecting a building. It means protecting the resources that nourished and maintained it—its orchards, crops, and fields. The proposed additions to the boundary contain these resources.

Tumacacori is one of a chain of missions established by the Spanish in the Pimeria Alta (land of the Upper Pima Indians) from Sonora, Mexico to San Xavier del Bac near Tucson. Father Kino established Mission San Cayetano de Tumacacori approximately forty miles south of present day Tucson in 1691. At its height, the mission land grant included nearly 6,000 acres.

Theodore Roosevelt set aside 9 acres immediately around the church as Tumacacori National Monument in 1908. The boundary of the monument was revised with the addition of 6 acres in 1978. In 1990 the missions of Guevavi (8 acres) and Calabazas (22 acres), to the south along the Santa Cruz River, were added and the park redesignated a National Historical Park.

The 18th and 19th century Tumacacori Mission encompassed not only a church and its associated compound, but also homes for the native people. The mission supported itself by what it could grow and graze on its lands along the Santa Cruz River. Vegetables and fruits grew in a large (5 acres) walled orchard and garden irrigated by the acequia (irrigation ditch). Eventually homesteaders settled mission lands, and by the time Tumacacori National Monument was set aside all of the former mission lands were in private ownership. Today the mission stands divorced from its land and people. One quarter of the historic orchard and its visible wall remains. The majority of the acequia, mission farmland and a section of the Santa Cruz River all lie on adjacent private land.

The park's General Management Plan (1996) identified the need to acquire additional lands to obtain the rest of the mission orchard. Acquisition of the entire historic remains of the orchard, former mission farmlands and the acequia would allow the park to recreate a 19th century cultural landscape. Future visitors would understand that the mission was not just a church but a complete self-sustaining community. The nearby Santa Cruz River, a desert riparian area, is a vital educational tool to understand how the native and mission communities were able to develop and thrive in the desert. In addition, expansion of the park boundary would allow the National Park Service to enhance the recreational experience of visitors along the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail between Tubac and Tumacacori as well as partner with communities all along the Santa Cruz River to further develop the recreational and educational values of the trail.

The two parcels of private land proposed to be included in the Tumacacori NHP boundary are a 90-acre parcel to the south and east and a 220-acre parcel to the north and east. The owners have expressed their interest in selling to the National Park Service. Acquisition costs for the two parcels are estimated at $2,000,000 to $2,500,000, although actual costs would not be known until appraisals on the land are completed. A non-profit group may be willing to purchase the properties and hold them for a short period of time until the National Park Service is able to designate land acquisition funding.

Since the National Park Service intends to return the proposed additional lands to a 19th century cultural landscape there will be little additional park operational funding needed. Park staff would be able to provide a basic level of resource protection to lands that are acquired through existing financial resources. In the future, funding will be needed to develop visitor use trails as well as rehabilitate and replant the mission orchard as called for in the General Management Plan. No other visitor facilities will be built in the new areas. An additional 1.5 FTE would be needed in personnel for the increased maintenance.

nance responsibilities. Costs to accomplish these projects would require one-time funding of approximately $250,000 for visitor trail, waysides and bridge construction and $100,000 to reconstruct and replant the orchard. A $78,000 base increase for maintenance staff would be needed.

H.R. 2234 has generated a cross-section of support. The county supervisor on the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors, whose district includes the park, has expressed support. Local community groups that have expressed support for the legislation include the Friends of the Santa Cruz River, the Anza Trail Coalition and the Tubac Historical Society.

Mr. Chairman, this concludes my prepared remarks. I would be pleased to answer any questions you or other members of the subcommittee may have.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with paragraph 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the Act H.R. 2234, as ordered reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in Roman):

Public Law 101-344

AN ACT To establish the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK.

(a) * * *

(b) AREA INCLUDED.—The park shall consist of the existing Tumacacori National Monument, together with (1) the ruins of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi, the first mission in Arizona (consisting of approximately 8 acres) and (2) the Kino visita and rancheria ruins of Calabazas (consisting of approximately 22 acres), each as generally depicted on the map entitled "Boundary Map, Tumacacori National Historical Park", numbered 311/80018, and dated February 1990. The park shall also consist of approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and generally depicted on the map entitled "Tumacacori National Historical Park, Arizona Proposed Boundary Revision 2001", numbered 310/80,044, and dated July 2001. [The map] The maps shall be on file and available for public inspection in the offices of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

* * * * *

One Hundred Seventh Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

*Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday,
the twenty-third day of January, two thousand and two*

An Act

To revise the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in the State of Arizona.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary Revision Act of 2002".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

(1) Tumacacori Mission in southern Arizona was declared a National Monument in 1908 in recognition of its great historical significance as "one of the oldest mission ruins in the southwest".

(2) In establishing Tumacacori National Historical Park in 1990 to include the Tumacacori Mission and the ruins of the mission of Los Santos Angeles de Guevavi and the Kino visita and rancheria of Calabazas, Congress recognized the importance of these sites "to protect and interpret, for the education and benefit of the public, sites in the State of Arizona associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries".

(3) Tumacacori National Historical Park plays a major role in interpreting the Spanish colonial heritage of the United States.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

(1) to protect and interpret the resources associated with the Tumacacori Mission by revising the boundary of Tumacacori National Historical Park to include approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the park; and

(2) to enhance the visitor experience at Tumacacori by developing access to these associated mission resources.

SEC. 3. BOUNDARY REVISION, TUMACACORI NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK, ARIZONA.

Section 1(b) of Public Law 101-344 (16 U.S.C. 410ss(b)) is amended—

(1) by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "The park shall also consist of approximately 310 acres of land adjacent to the original Tumacacori unit of the park and generally depicted on the map entitled 'Tumacacori National Historical Park, Arizona Proposed Boundary Revision 2001', numbered 310/80,044, and dated July 2001."; and

H. R. 2234—2

- (2) in the last sentence—
 (A) by striking "The map" and inserting "The maps";
and
 (B) by striking "the offices" and inserting "the appropriate offices".

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

*Vice President of the United States and

Discussion

The Tumacacori National Historical Park in Arizona was established in 1990 to protect and interpret sites associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries. The law establishing the Park authorized the Secretary of the Interior to acquire lands within its boundaries by donation, purchase, or exchange.

H.R. 2234 would expand the current 45-acre boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park and authorize the Secretary of the Interior to acquire through purchase, donation, or exchange two separate parcels of land totaling 310 acres adjacent to the Park. DOI advises that "the owners of the lands proposed for addition have expressed a willingness to sell."

Conclusion and Recommendations

DOI recommends approval of H.R. 2234, advising that the Park expansion would "fulfill one of the goals identified in the park's approved General Management Plan, create more opportunities to expand educational and recreational partnerships, and has received the support of the surrounding community."

We join Interior in recommending approval of H.R. 2234, which passed the House by voice vote and the Senate by unanimous consent.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.R. 2234 - Tumacacori National Historical Park Boundary
Revision
Sponsor - Rep. Pastor (D) AZ

Last Day for Action

August 24, 2002 - Saturday

Purpose

Expands the boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park in Arizona to include an additional 310 acres.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Department of the Interior (DOI)
Council on Environmental Quality

Approval
No comment (Informally)

Discussion

The Tumacacori National Historical Park in Arizona was established in 1990 to protect and interpret sites associated with the early Spanish missionaries and explorers of the 17th and 18th centuries. The law establishing the Park authorized the Secretary of the Interior to acquire lands within its boundaries by donation, purchase, or exchange.

H.R. 2234 would expand the current 45-acre boundary of the Tumacacori National Historical Park and authorize the Secretary of the Interior to acquire through purchase, donation, or exchange two separate parcels of land totaling 310 acres adjacent to the Park. DOI advises that "the owners of the lands proposed for addition have expressed a willingness to sell."

Conclusion and Recommendations

DOI recommends approval of H.R. 2234, advising that the Park expansion would "fulfill one of the goals identified in the park's approved General Management Plan, create more opportunities to expand educational and recreational partnerships, and has received the support of the surrounding community."

We join Interior in recommending approval of H.R. 2234, which passed the House by voice vote and the Senate by unanimous consent.
