Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks on the United States, FY 2001

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

September 26, 2001 -- Wednesday

Your signature is recommended as soon as possible in order to provide the immediate resources necessary to respond to the terrorist attacks on the United States that occurred on September 11, 2001.

Purpose

Provides $40 billion in emergency FY 2001 supplemental appropriations to provide assistance to the victims and to address other consequences of the attacks, including funding for: providing Federal, State, and local preparedness for mitigating and responding to the attacks; providing support to counter, investigate, or prosecute domestic or international terrorism; providing increased transportation security; repairing public facilities and transportation systems damaged by the attacks; and, supporting national security.

Agency Recommendation

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Other affected Departments
and agencies

Approval (assumed)

Summary

The enrolled bill provides $40 billion in emergency discretionary budget authority to an Emergency Response Fund in the Executive Office of the President, to be transferred to any authorized Federal Government activity to meet the needs resulting from the disaster. Of this amount, $20 billion will be used directly for disaster recovery activities and assistance related to the terrorist acts in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania.

The bill provides $10 billion that will be available without any further congressional action. An additional $10 billion would be available 15 days after the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has submitted proposed allocations to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. Twenty billion dollars would be available for obligation following enactment of a subsequent emergency appropriations bill.

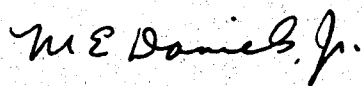

OMB will provide quarterly reports to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on the use of these funds, beginning no later than January 2, 2002. If additional resources are necessary beyond this request, I will prepare for your approval a request for additional funding.

H.R. 2888 passed the House by a vote of 422 to 0 and the Senate by 96 to 0.

Recommendation

I join the heads of the affected Departments and agencies in recommending approval of the enrolled bill.

I will be forwarding to you our recommendation for the required emergency designation of the funds provided by this Act.

One Hundred Seventh Congress of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

*Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday,
the third day of January, two thousand and one*

An Act

Making emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2001 for additional disaster assistance, for anti-terrorism initiatives, and for assistance in the recovery from the tragedy that occurred on September 11, 2001, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to provide emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2001, namely:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT

EMERGENCY RESPONSE FUND

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

For emergency expenses to respond to the terrorist attacks on the United States that occurred on September 11, 2001, to provide assistance to the victims of the attacks, and to deal with other consequences of the attacks, $40,000,000,000, to remain available until expended, including for the costs of: (1) providing Federal, State, and local preparedness for mitigating and responding to the attacks; (2) providing support to counter, investigate, or prosecute domestic or international terrorism; (3) providing increased transportation security; (4) repairing public facilities and transportation systems damaged by the attacks; and (5) supporting national security: Provided, That these funds may be transferred to any authorized Federal Government activity to meet the purposes of this Act: Provided further, That the Congress designates the entire amount as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985: Provided further, That $40,000,000,000 shall be available only to the extent that an official budget request, that includes designation of the $40,000,000,000 as an emergency requirement as defined in the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, is transmitted by the President to the Congress: Provided further, That the President shall consult with the chairmen and ranking minority members of the Committees on Appropriations prior to the transfer of these funds: Provided further, That of the $40,000,000,000 made available herein, $10,000,000,000 shall not be available for transfer to any Department or Agency until 15 days after the Director of the Office of Management and Budget has submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a proposed allocation and plan for use of the funds for that

H. R. 2888—2

Department or Agency; $20,000,000,000 may be obligated only when enacted in a subsequent emergency appropriations bill, in response to the terrorist acts on September 11, 2001: Provided further, That the President shall transmit an amended budget request proposing an allocation of funds: Provided further, That not less than one-half of the $40,000,000,000 shall be for disaster recovery activities and assistance related to the terrorist acts in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania on September 11, 2001, as authorized by law: Provided further, That the Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall provide quarterly reports to the Committees on Appropriations on the use of these funds, beginning not later than January 2, 2002: Provided further, That the President shall submit to the Congress as soon as practicable detailed requests to meet any further funding requirements for the purposes specified in this Act.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. Funds appropriated by this Act, or made available by the transfer of funds in this Act, for intelligence activities are deemed to be specifically authorized by the Congress for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 414).

SEC. 102. Funds appropriated by this Act, or made available by the transfer of funds in this Act, may be obligated and expended notwithstanding section 10 of Public Law 91-672, section 313 of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, fiscal years 1994 and 1995, and section 15 of the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956.

This Act may be cited as the "2001 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks on the United States".

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.R. 2888 -- Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for
Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks on the United States, FY 2001

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

September 26, 2001 -- Wednesday

Your signature is recommended as soon as possible in order to provide the immediate resources necessary to respond to the terrorist attacks on the United States that occurred on September 11, 2001.

Purpose

Provides $40 billion in emergency FY 2001 supplemental appropriations to provide assistance to the victims and to address other consequences of the attacks, including funding for: providing Federal, State, and local preparedness for mitigating and responding to the attacks; providing support to counter, investigate, or prosecute domestic or international terrorism; providing increased transportation security; repairing public facilities and transportation systems damaged by the attacks; and, supporting national security.

Agency Recommendation

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Other affected Departments
and agencies

Approval (assumed)

Summary

The enrolled bill provides $40 billion in emergency discretionary budget authority to an Emergency Response Fund in the Executive Office of the President, to be transferred to any authorized Federal Government activity to meet the needs resulting from the disaster. Of this amount, $20 billion will be used directly for disaster recovery activities and assistance related to the terrorist acts in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania.

The bill provides $10 billion that will be available without any further congressional action. An additional $10 billion would be available 15 days after the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has submitted proposed allocations to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. Twenty billion dollars would be available for obligation following enactment of a subsequent emergency appropriations bill.

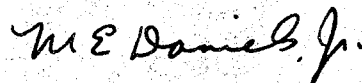

OMB will provide quarterly reports to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on the use of these funds, beginning no later than January 2, 2002. If additional resources are necessary beyond this request, I will prepare for your approval a request for additional funding.

H.R. 2888 passed the House by a vote of 422 to 0 and the Senate by 96 to 0.

Recommendation

I join the heads of the affected Departments and agencies in recommending approval of the enrolled bill.

I will be forwarding to you our recommendation for the required emergency designation of the funds provided by this Act.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.R. 2888 -- Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for
Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks on the United States, FY 2001

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

September 26, 2001 -- Wednesday

Your signature is recommended as soon as possible in order to provide the immediate resources necessary to respond to the terrorist attacks on the United States that occurred on September 11, 2001.

Purpose

Provides $40 billion in emergency FY 2001 supplemental appropriations to provide assistance to the victims and to address other consequences of the attacks, including funding for: providing Federal, State, and local preparedness for mitigating and responding to the attacks; providing support to counter, investigate, or prosecute domestic or international terrorism; providing increased transportation security; repairing public facilities and transportation systems damaged by the attacks; and, supporting national security.

Agency Recommendation

Office of Management and Budget

Approval

Other affected Departments
and agencies

Approval (assumed)

Summary

The enrolled bill provides $40 billion in emergency discretionary budget authority to an Emergency Response Fund in the Executive Office of the President, to be transferred to any authorized Federal Government activity to meet the needs resulting from the disaster. Of this amount, $20 billion will be used directly for disaster recovery activities and assistance related to the terrorist acts in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania.

The bill provides $10 billion that will be available without any further congressional action. An additional $10 billion would be available 15 days after the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has submitted proposed allocations to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. Twenty billion dollars would be available for obligation following enactment of a subsequent emergency appropriations bill.

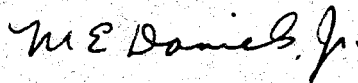

OMB will provide quarterly reports to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on the use of these funds, beginning no later than January 2, 2002. If additional resources are necessary beyond this request, I will prepare for your approval a request for additional funding.

H.R. 2888 passed the House by a vote of 422 to 0 and the Senate by 96 to 0.

Recommendation

I join the heads of the affected Departments and agencies in recommending approval of the enrolled bill.

I will be forwarding to you our recommendation for the required emergency designation of the funds provided by this Act.

One Hundred Seventh Congress of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

*Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday,
the third day of January, two thousand and one*

An Act

Making emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2001 for additional disaster assistance, for anti-terrorism initiatives, and for assistance in the recovery from the tragedy that occurred on September 11, 2001, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to provide emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2001, namely:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT

EMERGENCY RESPONSE FUND

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

For emergency expenses to respond to the terrorist attacks on the United States that occurred on September 11, 2001, to provide assistance to the victims of the attacks, and to deal with other consequences of the attacks, $40,000,000,000, to remain available until expended, including for the costs of: (1) providing Federal, State, and local preparedness for mitigating and responding to the attacks; (2) providing support to counter, investigate, or prosecute domestic or international terrorism; (3) providing increased transportation security; (4) repairing public facilities and transportation systems damaged by the attacks; and (5) supporting national security: Provided, That these funds may be transferred to any authorized Federal Government activity to meet the purposes of this Act: Provided further, That the Congress designates the entire amount as an emergency requirement pursuant to section 251(b)(2)(A) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985: Provided further, That $40,000,000,000 shall be available only to the extent that an official budget request, that includes designation of the $40,000,000,000 as an emergency requirement as defined in the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, is transmitted by the President to the Congress: Provided further, That the President shall consult with the chairmen and ranking minority members of the Committees on Appropriations prior to the transfer of these funds: Provided further, That of the $40,000,000,000 made available herein, $10,000,000,000 shall not be available for transfer to any Department or Agency until 15 days after the Director of the Office of Management and Budget has submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations a proposed allocation and plan for use of the funds for that
