Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). This CR responds to all of the Administration's concerns for continuing the operation of Federal programs under existing authorities. H.J. Res. 111 passed the House by a vote of 370-1 on September 26th and passed the Senate by a voice vote on September 26th.

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.

Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). This CR responds to all of the Administration's concerns for continuing the operation of Federal programs under existing authorities. H.J. Res. 111 passed the House by a vote of 370-1 on September 26th and passed the Senate by a voice vote on September 26th.

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

Today I have signed into law H.J. Res. 111, a short-term continuing resolution for FY 2003. The resolution provides appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through October 4, 2002. It ensures that Government operations continue without interruption at their current operating level, creates no new programs, and contains no increases in spending.

Section 117 of the continuing resolution purports to prohibit all executive branch agencies from spending any funds made available under the continuing resolution "in violation of section 501 of title 44, United States Code." That section would require executive branch agencies to procure printing from the Government Printing Office, a legislative branch entity. The longstanding position of the executive branch, memorialized in a May 1996 opinion by the Department of Justice, is that this language violates the constitutional principles of separation of powers and therefore is not binding on the executive branch. [See Memorandum from Walter Dellinger, Assistant Attorney General, to Emily C. Hewitt, General Counsel, General Services Administration, May 31, 1996.]

My Administration will continue to work with the Congress to ensure that sound fiscal principles are adhered to as we complete action on the FY 2003 appropriations bills.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.J. Res. 111 -- Making Continuing Appropriations for the Fiscal Year 2003, and for Other Purposes

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

October 9, 2002 -- Wednesday

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Monday, September 30th, the final day of fiscal year 2002.

Purpose

Provides FY 2003 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, October 4, 2002.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). This CR responds to all of the Administration's concerns for continuing the operation of Federal programs under existing authorities. H.J. Res. 111 passed the House by a vote of 370-1 on September 26th and passed the Senate by a voice vote on September 26th.

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.

It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.J. Res. 111 -- Making Continuing Appropriations for the Fiscal Year 2003, and for Other Purposes

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

October 9, 2002 -- Wednesday

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Monday, September 30th, the final day of fiscal year 2002.

Purpose

Provides FY 2003 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, October 4, 2002.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). This CR responds to all of the Administration's concerns for continuing the operation of Federal programs under existing authorities. H.J. Res. 111 passed the House by a vote of 370-1 on September 26th and passed the Senate by a voice vote on September 26th.

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.

✓ At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.J. Res. 111 -- Making Continuing Appropriations for the Fiscal Year 2003, and for Other Purposes

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

October 9, 2002 -- Wednesday

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Monday, September 30th, the final day of fiscal year 2002.

Purpose

Provides FY 2003 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, October 4, 2002.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2003 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 111 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution (CR). This CR responds to all of the Administration's concerns for continuing the operation of Federal programs under existing authorities. H.J. Res. 111 passed the House by a vote of 370-1 on September 26th and passed the Senate by a voice vote on September 26th.

H.J. Res. 111 follows historical precedent and is a "clean" CR. It provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms: the funding level is not to exceed the current rate; FY 2002 terms and conditions will apply; the CR will run through October 4th. The CR also includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to address a number of anomalies, such as continuing the authorization for the Department of Veterans Affairs to collect pharmaceutical copayments and the Transportation Security Administration to collect fees.

Consistent with past practice, the Executive Branch has the authority to exclude one-time, non-recurring costs (e.g., we will not rebuild the City of New York twice, we will not rebuild the Pentagon twice, etc.) from the calculation of the current rate under the CR. The spending that we will reduce totals approximately $16 billion on an annual basis. We estimate that spending under this resolution will be $723 billion on an annual basis, an amount below your FY 2003 Budget request and below the House-passed budget resolution.

Under the CR, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may make such obligations consistent with historical patterns. Agencies are required to administer the CR to avoid impinging on the Congress= final funding prerogatives.

One section of the resolution purports to require executive agencies to use the Government Printing Office for their printing needs. The Department of Justice has asked that a statement objecting on constitutional grounds to this provision be included in your signing statement.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 111 is a clean CR that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill. A signing statement is attached for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
