1. Purpose of Legislation. These bills would honor numerous individuals, including persons killed as the result of terrorist attacks on the United States, local and national political figures, famous vocalists, and a letter carrier killed on his route by an assailant, through the honorary designation of postal facilities.

2. Position of the Postal Service. The Postal Service defers to Congress concerning the honorary designation of postal buildings for notable public figures.

3. Timing. No recommendation.

4. Cost or Savings. No information.

5. Recommendation Concerning Presidential Action. The Postal Service does not object to approval of these bills by the President.

Sincerely,

Stanley F. Mires
Chief Counsel, Legislative
