Discussion

At this time, none of the regular thirteen FY 2002 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 70 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution, one that is free of extraneous provisions. This continuing resolution extends the date of P.L. 107-53, the third FY 2002 continuing resolution, through Friday, November 16th. H.J. Res. 70 passed the House by a vote of 419 to 0 on October 25th and passed the Senate by unanimous consent on the same day.

H.J. Res. 70 provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms:

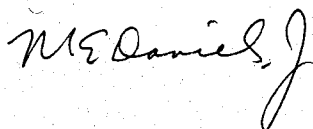

- The funding level is the current rate.
- FY 2001 terms and conditions will apply.
- This fourth continuing resolution will run through November 16th.
- The continuing resolution includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to take care of a number of anomalies, such as authorizing FEMA flood insurance.

Under the continuing resolution, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may not make such obligations if doing so would impinge on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 70 is a clean continuing resolution that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,
