OCT 23 2002

The Honorable Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Director
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Director Daniels:

This is in reply to your request of October 21, 2002, concerning the views of the Department of Agriculture (USDA) on the enrolled bill S.1210, "To reauthorize the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996."

USDA recommends that the President sign the enrolled bill.

The bill would extend, through the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the authorization of appropriations for the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 through fiscal year 2007. The bill would provide for formula block grant funds for tribal housing entities to carry out their housing programs, including the necessary related infrastructure, economic development, and technical assistance to families of very-low and low income. The bill would direct the Secretary of HUD to: (1) conduct feasibility studies and submit reports to Congress on demonstration projects for improving the delivery of housing assistance to Native American communities, and (2) conduct a study on the extent of black mold infestation of Native American housing construction and submit a report to Congress on measures to address this infestation.

Sincerely,

NATIVE AMERICAN HOUSING ASSISTANCE AND SELF- DETERMINATION ACT OF 1996

AUGUST 28, 2002.—Ordered to be printed

Filed under authority of the order of the Senate of July 29, 2002

Mr. INOUE, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 1210]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (S. 1210) to reauthorize the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon with amendment and recommends that the bill as amended do pass.

PURPOSES

The purpose of S. 1210 is to re-authorize the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996, to improve the delivery of housing assistance to Indian tribes in a manner that recognizes the right of tribal self-governance, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND

The United States Housing Act of 1937 created the Public Housing Program in order to provide decent and safe housing for low-income families. For many years, this act was interpreted to exclude Native Americans living in or near tribal areas. It was not until the 1960's that Indian housing programs were undertaken by the Public Housing Administration, the predecessor of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Eventually, HUD assumed responsibility for Indian housing programs and in 1988 the Indian Housing Act established a separate Indian housing program with regulations specific to this program.

Native American housing stock is often characterized as "poor" and substandard. In fact, Native American housing has been found to be the worst in the nation and has been compared to that of Third World countries.

The following statistics demonstrate the dire need for additional housing stock and improvements in current housing stock. As determined by the 1990 census, one out of every five Indian homes lacks complete plumbing facilities. In addition, a full forty percent (40%) of Native Americans residing on trust land live in overcrowded or physically inadequate housing, compared to six percent (6%) of the overall United States population.¹ Finally, the demand for Indian housing is increasing as the Native American population continues to grow.

In 1996, the NAHASDA² was enacted and became effective on October 1, 1997. Building on the highly successful Indian Self Determination and Education Assistance Act (ISDEAA) of 1975, as amended, 25 U.S.C. 450 et seq., which authorized Indian tribes to assume responsibility for the administration of many Federal programs and services, NAHASDA reflects the unique government-to-government relationship between Indian tribes and the Federal government.

Before passage of the NAHASDA, the planning, financing, and building of Indian housing was largely determined by Federal officials with scant input from the affected parties—the Indians. NAHASDA was groundbreaking in that it established a single, flexible block grant for Indian tribes or their tribally-designated housing entities (TDHEs) to design and administer housing assistance to tribal members. Tribes must file annual audits and monitoring and oversight of the block grant funding continues to be provided by HUD.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

As introduced, S. 1210 provided a routine re-authorization of the 1996 Act, as amended, through FY 2007. A section-by-section description of the changes contained in the substitute amendment is set out below.

Section 1. Short title

The short title for this legislation is the Native American Housing and Self-Determination Reauthorization Act of 2001.

Sec. 2. Reauthorization

This legislation tracks the letter and spirit of the NAHASDA in large part. In the findings of the original Act, Congress found that the Federal government has a trust responsibility for the protection and preservation of Indian tribes; that there is a need for affordable homes in safe and healthy environments; and that Congress should assist in the goals of achieving economic self-sufficiency and self-determination for tribes and their members. With this legislation, the goals of the NAHASDA will be furthered with a renewed emphasis on infrastructure and community development.

¹ Assessment of American Indian Housing Needs and Programs, Urban Institute, May 1996.

² Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996, Pub. L. 104-330, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 4104-4195 (Supp. 1996).

Sec. 3. Definitions

Section 4 of the Act is amended to include the following definition:

"(22) HOUSING RELATED COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT.—The term "housing related community development" means a tribally-owned and operated facility, business activity, or infrastructure that is necessary to the direct construction of reservation housing, and that would help the Indian tribe or its tribally-designated housing authority reduce the cost of construction of Indian housing or otherwise promote the findings of this act. For purposes of this section, the term "housing related community development" shall not include activities conducted by any Indian tribe under the provisions of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act 25 U.S.C. 2710 et seq. as amended.

Sec. 4. Block grants and grant requirements

With regard to comprehensive housing and community development planning, changes to this section would authorize community development planning activities as part of NAHASDA's administrative and planning expense category. The intent of the Committee is to make NAHASDA funds available for purposes of development a community master plan consisting of roads, schools, businesses and recreational areas.

Sec. 5. Treatment of program income and labor standards

Currently, HUD views any revenue or income derived from housing built using NAHASDA funds as "program income". In turn, all program income must be expended before a tribe may make further use of its NAHASDA funds.

Changes included in section 5 clarify that tribes or their tribally-designated housing entities may expend NAHASDA funds even if they are receiving program income from their residential projects built using prior Indian housing funds.

Sec. 6. Regulations

This section clarifies NAHASDA as requiring that negotiated rule-making procedures are applicable to regulations issued pursuant to the 1996 Act as well as all amendments made to the Act subsequent to 1996.

Sec. 7. Federal guarantees or financing for tribal housing activities

Changes included in section 7 remove the current restriction that requires tribes or their TDHEs to seek alternative financing before utilizing Title VI guaranteed loan funds. These changes would similarly authorize Title VI funding to be used for "housing related or community development".

Sec. 8. Feasibility studies to improve the delivery of housing assistance in native communities

Section 8 requires that the Secretary undertake and complete two feasibility studies: first, to determine whether a community development demonstration project using NAHASDA funds for strictly economic development purposes is feasible; and second, whether NAHASDA funding should be made available to tribes and tribal organizations in a manner consistent with the provisions of the Indian Self Determination and Education Assistance Act, 25 U.S.C. 450 et seq., in order to maximize tribal authority and decision-making in the design and implementation of housing activities.

Sec. 9. Insurance and housing contingencies

Section 9 amends the NAHASDA to provide an effective Federal response to the life-threatening problems of black mold which have rendered and may continue to render NAHASDA-assisted housing uninhabitable. Section 9 proposes relief to address black mold remediation and repair. This section authorizes the development of appropriate protocols and construction practices to be required in all NAHASDA-assisted housing to eliminate the conditions that give rise to black mold. A report to Congress on the effectiveness of the protocol implementation and construction practices is required within one year of enactment of this legislation.

Sec. 10. Native Hawaiian housing

Section 10 amends NAHASDA to authorize the Secretary of HUD to enter into negotiated rulemaking with representatives of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) to determine the conditions under which OHA may participate in the block grant assistance program to provide affordable housing for low income Native Hawaiians. The amendment also authorizes the Secretary to make grants to OHA to carry out affordable housing activities for Native Hawaiians and to require the submission of housing plans by OHA to the Secretary.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

The Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Reauthorization Act of 2002 (S. 1210) was introduced on July 20, 2001, by Senator Campbell, for himself, and for Senators Inouye, Burns and Johnson. Subsequent to July 20, Senators Akaka, Bingaman, Cantwell, Domenici, Inhofe, Baucus, Daschle, Feingold and McCain were added as co-sponsors. S. 1210 was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs and a hearing was held on the bill on February 13, 2002. On July 18, 2002, the Committee on Indian Affairs convened a business meeting to consider S. 1210 and other measures that had been referred to it, and on that date, the Committee favorably reported a substitute amendment to S. 1210.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION AND TABULATION OF VOTE

On July 18, 2002, the Committee on Indian Affairs, in an open business session, adopted an amendment in the nature of a substitute to S. 1210 by voice vote and ordered the bill, as amended, reported favorably to the Senate.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATION

The cost estimate for S. 1210 as calculated by the Congressional Budget Office, is set forth below:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, July 31, 2002.

Hon. DANIEL K. INOUE,
Chairman, Committee on Indian Affairs,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for S. 1210, the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Reauthorization Act of 2002.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Chad Chirico.

Sincerely,

BARRY B. ANDERSON
(For Dan L. Crippen, Director).

Enclosure.

S. 1210—Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Reauthorization Act of 2002

Summary: Programs under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 (NAHASDA) were authorized through 2001 and were continued in 2002 by the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 2002. Enacting S. 1210 would reauthorize these programs through 2007 and would authorize appropriations for HUD to develop protocols and construction standards to eliminate black mold in NAHASDA assisted properties.

CBO estimates that the bill would authorize total appropriations of $669 million in 2003 and about $3.5 billion over the 2003–2007 period, assuming that annual levels are adjusted to keep pace with inflation. CBO estimates that appropriations of those amounts would result in additional outlays of $2.3 billion over the 2003–2007 period.

Enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or receipts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. S. 1210 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of S. 1210 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget functions 600 (income security) and 370 (commerce and housing credit).

¹ The 2002 level is the amount appropriated for that year for all programs authorized under NAHASDA, including Native American Housing Block Grants, Title VI Loan Guarantees, Technical Assistance, and Title I Indian Housing Loan Guarantees.

Basis of estimate: Block Grants, Title VI Loan Guarantees, and Technical Assistance. Section 2 would authorize the appropriation of such sums as necessary through 2007 for Native American Housing Block Grants, Title VI loan guarantees, and training and technical assistance. For 2002, $649 million was appropriated for these purposes. Assuming inflation-adjusted appropriations, CBO estimates that the bill would authorize $3.4 billion for the 2003–2007 period, with outlays of $2.3 billion (from the new funding) over the same period.

Indian Housing Loan Guarantees. Section 2 also would authorize the appropriation of such sums as necessary through 2007 for loan guarantees for Indian families, housing authorities, and tribes. For 2002, $6 million was appropriated for such loan guarantees. Assuming funded activities would remain at similar levels, CBO estimates that implementing these provisions would cost $6 million in 2003 and $30 million over the next five years.

Develop Protocols and Construction Practices. Section 9 would authorize the appropriation of such sums as necessary to develop and implement appropriate protocols and construction practices to eliminate the conditions that give rise to black mold and other cumulative maladies that render housing assisted under NAHASDA dangerous or uninhabitable. This section would also require HUD to complete and submit two reports to the Congress on the extent of black mold infestation of Native American housing and the effectiveness of the implementation of the new protocols. Based on information from HUD, CBO estimates that implementing this section would cost $2 million in 2003.

Pay as you go considerations: None.

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: S. 1210 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. The bill would benefit any tribal government receiving grants under this bill, and any costs they incur would be voluntary.

Estimate prepared by: Federal costs: Chad Chirico and Susanne S. Mehlman; impact on State, local, and tribal governments: Greg Waring; impact on the private sector: Cecil McPherson.

Estimate approved by: Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires that each report accompanying a bill to evaluate the regulatory paperwork impact that would be incurred in implementing the legislation. The Committee has concluded that enactment of S. 1210 will create only de minimis regulatory or paperwork burdens.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

The Committee has received no official communication from the Administration on the provisions of the bill.
