Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Friday, November 16th.

Purpose

Provides FY 2002 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, December 7, 2001 (excluding projects and activities that receive FY 2002 funding through the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, the Department of Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, the Military Construction Appropriations Act, and the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act, which you have signed into law).

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, five of the regular thirteen FY 2002 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 74 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution, one that is free of extraneous provisions. This continuing resolution extends the date of P.L. 107-58, the fourth FY 2002 continuing resolution, through Friday, December 7th. H.J. Res. 74 passed the House by unanimous consent on November 15th and passed the Senate by unanimous consent on the same day.

H.J. Res. 74 provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms:

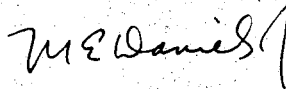

- The funding level is the current rate.
- FY 2001 terms and conditions will apply.
- This fifth continuing resolution will run through December 7th.
- The continuing resolution includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to take care of a number of anomalies, such as authorizing FEMA flood insurance.

Under the continuing resolution, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may not make such obligations if doing so would impinge on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 74 is a clean continuing resolution that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.J. Res. 74 -- Making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2002, and for other purposes

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Friday, November 16th.

Purpose

Provides FY 2002 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, December 7, 2001 (excluding projects and activities that receive FY 2002 funding through the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, the Department of Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, the Military Construction Appropriations Act, and the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act, which you have signed into law).

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, five of the regular thirteen FY 2002 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 74 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution, one that is free of extraneous provisions. This continuing resolution extends the date of P.L. 107-58, the fourth FY 2002 continuing resolution, through Friday, December 7th. H.J. Res. 74 passed the House by unanimous consent on November 15th and passed the Senate by unanimous consent on the same day.

H.J. Res. 74 provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms:

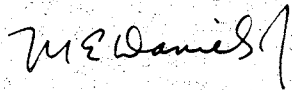

- The funding level is the current rate.
- FY 2001 terms and conditions will apply.
- This fifth continuing resolution will run through December 7th.
- The continuing resolution includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to take care of a number of anomalies, such as authorizing FEMA flood insurance.

Under the continuing resolution, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may not make such obligations if doing so would impinge on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 74 is a clean continuing resolution that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Enrolled Bill H.J. Res. 74 -- Making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2002, and for other purposes

Sponsors: Representative Young (R), Florida
Senator Byrd (D), West Virginia

Last Day for Action

Your signature as soon as possible is recommended. Funding for the agencies and accounts covered by the enrolled bill expires at midnight on Friday, November 16th.

Purpose

Provides FY 2002 appropriations for continuing projects and activities of the Federal Government through Friday, December 7, 2001 (excluding projects and activities that receive FY 2002 funding through the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, the Department of Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, the Military Construction Appropriations Act, and the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act, which you have signed into law).

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget
Other affected departments
and agencies

Approval (Signing Statement attached)

Approval (Assumed)

Discussion

At this time, five of the regular thirteen FY 2002 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 74 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution, one that is free of extraneous provisions. This continuing resolution extends the date of P.L. 107-58, the fourth FY 2002 continuing resolution, through Friday, December 7th. H.J. Res. 74 passed the House by unanimous consent on November 15th and passed the Senate by unanimous consent on the same day.

H.J. Res. 74 provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms:

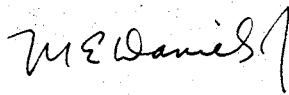

- The funding level is the current rate.
- FY 2001 terms and conditions will apply.
- This fifth continuing resolution will run through December 7th.
- The continuing resolution includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to take care of a number of anomalies, such as authorizing FEMA flood insurance.

Under the continuing resolution, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may not make such obligations if doing so would impinge on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 74 is a clean continuing resolution that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,

At this time, five of the regular thirteen FY 2002 appropriations bills have been signed into law. H.J. Res. 74 is a clean, short-term continuing resolution, one that is free of extraneous provisions. This continuing resolution extends the date of P.L. 107-58, the fourth FY 2002 continuing resolution, through Friday, December 7th. H.J. Res. 74 passed the House by unanimous consent on November 15th and passed the Senate by unanimous consent on the same day.

H.J. Res. 74 provides funding for continuing projects and activities based on the following terms:

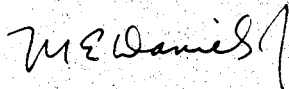

- The funding level is the current rate.
- FY 2001 terms and conditions will apply.
- This fifth continuing resolution will run through December 7th.
- The continuing resolution includes provisions that were requested by the Administration to take care of a number of anomalies, such as authorizing FEMA flood insurance.

Under the continuing resolution, programs that normally have large, up-front obligations may not make such obligations if doing so would impinge on the Congress' final funding prerogatives.

Recommendation

H.J. Res. 74 is a clean continuing resolution that provides funding to the Federal Government until regular appropriations can be approved by the Congress. I recommend that you sign the enrolled bill.

Sincerely,

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Director

FYI -- I have received messages from Secretary Card's office and Chairman Hubbard's office indicating that they have no objections to this bill. (I am guessing that the enrolled bill memo might have been staffed out with my name as the contact -- just wanted to close the loop with your office.)
