THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Personal

Mr. Secretary-

The President mentioned to me and Jody today your concern about the election results yesterday.

We have all been through many good and bad times together, and you have personally been responsible for so many of the President's accomplishments. The UN vote was an unfortunate mistake, but it was an honest misunderstanding among honorable people with only the best intentions for our President and our country.

Please know that here in the White House you are admired and respected by everyone. I am proud of my association with you and have the greatest respect for your great ability and commitment.

Yours friend,

Hamilton Jordan
