THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mary

MEMORANDUM FOR MRS. CARTER

FROM: GRETCHEN POSTON GP

DATE: 17 May 1977

SUBJECT: WORKING DINNER FOR THE CROWN PRINCE OF SAUDI ARABIA
State Dining Room decorations

The State colors of Saudi Arabia are green and white, and the presentation of these colors might be considered as a decorating theme for the dinner.

PROPOSED:

A long table covered with forest green moret cloth, falling 15" below table height, or to level of chair seat.

Flowers - white and star-like. Suggest ornithogalum.

Candles - green empire candles and white empire candles in lucite holders.

Palm Trees - one in each corner of the room. The flag of Saudi Arabia is emblazoned with a palm tree, symbolizing the origin of the nation.

On the table, we would feature favorites of both Principals - dates, colossal pistachio nuts, and peanuts.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION FOR USE BY HOST ORGANIZATION

CORRESPONDENCE

SALUTATION: Your Royal Highness,

CORRESPONDENCE

COMPLIMENTARY CLOSE: Respectfully yours,

ENVELOPE ADDRESS:

His Royal Highness
Prince Fahd bin Abd al-Aziz Al-Saud
Crown Prince and Deputy Prime Minister
Jidda

IN HONOR OF LINES
ON INVITATIONS:

In Honor of His Royal Highness Prince Fahd bin Abd al-Aziz Al-Saud, Crown Prince and Deputy Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

PLACE CARD:

His Royal Highness Prince Fahd

NAME OF COUNTRY: Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

LANGUAGE: Arabic.

RELIGION: Muslim

DIETARY RESTRICTIONS: Out of deference to Muslim religious prohibitions, pork and pork products should not be served to Prince Fahd and his party. There are no beverage restrictions.

There are no special likes or dislikes known, but in general Saudis prefer rice over potatoes, sherbert over ice cream.

CUSTOMS OF INTEREST: The Saudis enjoy strong coffee. They are heavy smokers. Caution should be used in expressing admiration for any Arab possessions. Do not greet or shake hands with the left hand. It is considered rude to sit with legs crossed so that the soles of your shoes are facing your guest. Do not ask a Saudi guest to uncover his head.

TOASTS: The First Toast should be made by the host to: HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA.

The Response Toast should be made to THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Subsequent toasts, if any, may be made in declining order of precedence.

NATIONAL ANTHEMS: It is not recommended that the National Anthems of the United States and the visitor be played unless the sponsoring organization is confident that the orchestra is able to play them very well. It is not necessary to play the Anthems at strictly social functions or at formal luncheons and dinners, as awkward situations and inconveniences may result. It is not the custom in Washington, D.C. to play the National Anthems at State Dinners or Luncheons. When the Anthems are played at events, it is customary to play the Anthem of the visitor's country first, then the Anthem of the United States.

FLAGS:

When the flags of the United States and the visitor's country are used, consider the area where the flags are to be placed as a stage or focal point, then place the flag of the United States on the left as viewed from the audience, and the visitor's flag on the right.
