Dear Jonathan:

Thanks so much for your letter of October 17 about the anniversary celebration of the restoration of democracy in Haiti. It was great to have you there, and I appreciate your very kind words of support. I do hope that Ramona's and your trip went well.

Hillary, Chelsea, and I enjoyed seeing you at Mary and Ted's wedding. It truly was a most joyous occasion.

Sincerely

Bill Clinton

DEAR PRESIDENT CLINTON,

From the tears and laughter drenched intimacy of Mary and Ted's wedding; to the loose and emotional formality of the Thirties Democracy Anniversary celebration at the O.A.S., it was great -- and it was moving -- to see you in person twice under such heady circumstances in such a compressed period of time.

And I must tell you that I was deeply thrilled at the O.A.S. when you chose to mention my name in your remarks. I thank you for that; I was deeply, deeply moved by that unexpected honor.

I wanted very much to congratulate you again on the myriad successes attended to your courageous historical decision to back President Aristide's return to Haiti in the absence of strong support from the population and Congress at that time.

This was true, stunning Leadership at it's finest, as far as I'm concerned: Articulating the inescapable moral and humanist truth of a complex, unpopular dilemma, then forging ahead to show us what must be done. Just an epic achievement - continues to stake me to the marrow with pride in my country, and pride in my president.

my 7-year old daughter Ramona (she loved meeting Chelsea and you at the wedding) and I are travelling to Haiti this weekend to celebrate the Democracy Anniversary first-hand with friends there. It's Ramona's first trip. Must be my 30th.

Can't wait to share that great place and those great people with my little girl!

Anyway, it was an honor to see you twice in one week, and thanks again for the kind words. I'll never forget either event.

Take care. All the best.
