OFFICE OF RON CAREY
GENERAL PRESIDENT

April 12, 1996

The President William J. Clinton
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Arch Bailey and Bob Harris of Controllers United have kept me informed about their efforts to get former PATCO members rehired.

First, I want to express my appreciation and would like to thank you for your efforts to do justice to these fired workers. At the same time, much more remains to be done. Rehiring based on these experienced workers' seniority is crucial.

As I understand it, there continues to be a shortage of controllers. We need to make sure that all qualified former PATCO controllers, who want to return, get that chance. I support the efforts of Controllers United, and would appreciate your continuing help.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,
