Dear Mr. Lingenfelter:

Thank you for your communication regarding the material noted on the attached sheet. Our records indicate that this item was loaned to you several months ago and has been determined lost.

As you may know, the U.S. National Interlibrary Loan Code (1980) states:

The safety of borrowed material is the responsibility of the borrowing library from the time the material leaves the lending library until it is received by the lending library.

We must require you to provide a replacement copy. Acceptable replacement copies include: a new or second-hand copy, in sound condition, of the same edition; a positive photocopy on permanent-durable paper in library binding; or a positive, silver-halide, 35mm microfilm copy.

Please forward the replacement copy to the attention of your account representative, Teena Siggers, at the Loan Division, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. 20540. If there is no possibility of obtaining a replacement or surrogate copy, we require that a check in the amount of $50.00 be forwarded to cover the cost of replacing the material.

We appreciate your attention to this matter and hope that we will be able to clear it up promptly.

Sincerely,

Elgin D. Reid
Acting Head, Circulation Section
